Cal Poly poinsettias almost ready for annual sale

Cal Poly's annual poinsettia sale, featuring more than 2,500 plants in 29 different varieties and several colors, begins Nov. 27 and continues through mid-December at the Poly Plant Shop. The plants are grown by students involved in the university's Poinsettia Agriculture Enterprise Project, which begins in the spring. This year's poinsettia project offers an assortment of reds, whites, pinks, and other novelty varieties such as Jingle Bells and Marbles. Plant sizes range from a few inches to 4 feet tall. Offerings include traditional, centerpiece and tree-shaped forms. Prices range from $6 to $60.

Shakespeare Press Museum Holiday Card Sale

The Shakespeare Press Museum's annual holiday card sale, featuring unique student-produced cards, begins Thursday, Nov. 30, during the UU Hour (11 a.m.) in the UU Plaza. The retro-modern cards are designed and printed by students in the Shakespeare Press Museum in the Graphic Communication Department using vintage woodcuts and handset type. The cards are printed on antique letterpress-style presses. This year's printing offers an assortment of traditional and modern designs on festive paper stocks and includes special touches like metallic ink, as well as envelopes with diecut designs and embellishments. Cards are available for $1.50 each or in packages of five for $5. Cards will be available for sale Nov. 30 and Dec. 7 during UU Hour or by appointment. For more information, e-mail shakespearepress@gmail.com.

Winter 2007 waitlist registration

Students can register for up to 22 units during the open enrollment period through CPREG or the Waitlist process. Students should be advised to watch their schedules for automatic enrollments.

They will automatically be enrolled via the Waitlist process as seats become available for a course they've waitlisted, unless they:

- 1) are already enrolled in a different section of the same course,
- 2) have time conflicts,
- 3) have reached the unit max,
- 4) have not met pre-requisites and/or
- 5) they have holds.

As soon as possible, students should be sure to drop their name from Waitlists for classes/sections that they do not plan to attend. (Please note: Waitlists will no longer automatically enroll after Jan. 4)

'The Man' rides into Cohan Center Nov. 24

Cal Poly Arts presents the Tony Award-winning musical, "The Man of La Mancha," Friday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. in Harman Hall in the Christopher Cohan Center. For more than 40 years, critics and audiences have agreed that the five time Tony Award-winning "Man of La Mancha" is one of the all-time greats in musical theater history. Based on Miguel de Cervantes' 17th century literary masterpiece, "Don Quixote," "Man of La Mancha" offers an inspirational story, complex characters, and a breathtaking score featuring the title song "Dulcinea," and "The Impossible Dream."
