'Giving at Year-End' brochure available

Are you supporting your favorite charity, church or alma mater as much as you would like? Do you want to maximize your 2006 tax deductions? The Planned Giving and Endowments Office is offering answers to these questions and others regarding tax-wise gifts to charity in a brochure now available to faculty and staff. The Planned Giving and Endowments office can provide you with more information about why this may be the right time of year to make charitable gifts to the university or to any other organizations that are important to you. For a copy of our "Giving at Year-End" brochure, e-mail plannedgiving@calpoly.edu.

On-campus printing services still available

Two on-campus printing options remain for faculty and staff after Mustang Graphics closes on Nov. 15:

- Under the direction of El Corral Bookstore, Pony Prints remains open to serve the campus community with a wide range of services including secure exam printing, same-day service, color and black and white digital file printing, binding and much more. Pony Prints is located in the Kennedy Library Building. It offers extended hours including evenings and weekends. For more information, call ext. 6-2399.
- University Graphic Systems, the student-run on-campus printing and digital imaging enterprise of the Graphic Communication Department, is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., to serve faculty and staff printing needs. UGS provides the campus with printed publications such as the Mustang Daily and Cal Poly Corporation's Annual Report, as well as the Cal Poly letterhead, club and organization posters, and wide format prints seen around campus. UGS incorporates the Cal Poly "Learn By Doing" motto and applies it to the student managers and the student trainees and employees working at UGS. UGS is located in the Graphic Arts Building, suite 212A. For more information, call ext. 6-1140, or e-mail ugs@calpoly.edu.

Annual Cal Poly Poinsettia Sale Starts Nov. 27

Cal Poly's annual poinsettia sale, featuring more than 2,500 plants in 29 different varieties and several colors, begins Nov. 27 at the Poly Plant Shop and continues through mid-December. The plants are grown by students involved in the university's Poinsettia Agriculture Enterprise Project, which begins in the spring of every year. This year's poinsettia project offers an assortment of reds, whites, pinks, and other novelty varieties such as Jingle Bells and Marbles. Prices range from $6 to $60. The Poly Plant Shop is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday. For more details, contact the shop at ext. 6-1106 or visit www.polyplantshop.com.

Cal Poly wins SLO Regional Rideshare trophy

A round of applause goes to Cal Poly Rideshare participants who walked, crawled, bicycled carpooled, or took the bus to work during Rideshare Week, Oct. 16-20. SLO Regional Rideshare has awarded Cal Poly the trophy for highest participation in the large employer category. Ten percent of Cal Poly employees used alternative transportation to get to work that week. Registered participants will receive Jamba Juice gift cards.
