

CAL POLY REPORT

California Polytechnic State University
San Luis Obispo, CA 93407

Vol. 52, No. 6
October 17, 1997

Dateline

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17

- Volleyball: Utah State, Mott Gym, 7 pm. ($)
- Women's Soccer: U. of North Texas, Stadium, 7 pm. ($)
- Dance: Paul Taylor company, Cohan Center, 8 pm. ($)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18

- Volleyball: UCSB, Stadium, 7 pm. ($)
- Music: Hikari Ensemble concert, Theatre, 8 pm. ($)

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19

- Women's Volleyball: Nevada, Mott Gym, 2 pm. ($)

MONDAY, OCTOBER 20

- Women's Studies Lunch-Time Seminar: Elise Curry, "Coming Out as Lesbian in the '90s," Staff Dining Room, 12:10 pm.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21

- Leadership Program: "Planning Successful Events," by Robert Walters, UU 216, noon.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22

- Staff Recognition Day: Cohan Center, Harman Hall, 10 am. Reception to follow in the PAC Plaza.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23

- Speaker: Joel Kugelmass, workshop on telecommuting, Philips Recital Hall, Cohan Center, 2 pm.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24

- Music: Queen Ida and her Zydeco Band plus Myrick "Freeze" Guillory, Cohan Center, 8 pm. ($)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25

- Football: Northern Iowa, Stadium, 1 pm. ($)

Gallery Exhibits

- Multi-Cultural Center: Mexican pottery plus two- and three-dimensional works by David Guerny and John Garcia, through Nov. 15.
- University Art Gallery: Thai prints, through Nov. 2.
- UU Galerie: "The Shape of Things," two-dimensional mixed media by Charlene Vidito Knowlton and sculpture by Ken Bortolazzo, Oct. 30-Dec. 5.

Aristophanes' 'Birds' to be staged Nov. 4

Wild, wacky and just a touch irreverent is how the Aquila Theatre Company's adaptation of Aristophanes' classic Greek comedy, "The Birds," has been described.

This updated version of the utopian satire will be performed by one of London's foremost producers of touring classic theater at 8 pm Tuesday, Nov. 4, in the Performing Arts Center's Cohan Center.

(Continued on page 5)

Consultants picked for housing project

Cal Poly has chosen a San Francisco consulting firm to help decide whether and where to build more student housing and how to finance it.

Gordon H. Chong & Partners will gather information and comments this fall on the proposal to build a new housing complex for possibly 610 more students. The consultants are to complete their detailed site, market and financial analyses by the end of the year.

"All options will be open for consideration," said campus Housing and Residential Life Director Preston Allen. "The goal

(Continued on page 5)

Charles Reed from Florida named CSU Chancellor

Charles B. Reed, chancellor of the State University System of Florida, has been named chancellor of The California State University by the CSU Board of Trustees.

Reed succeeds Barry Munitz, who will leave the CSU to head the J. Paul Getty Trust in January.

Reed will begin his new job March 1 at a salary of $254,000.

As chancellor of the State University System of Florida since 1985, Reed has served as the chief executive officer for the Florida Board of Regents, which oversees the 10 public universities. Florida's system has an annual budget of more than $3 billion and employs more than 35,000 people.

"What attracted me to the CSU is that it has the opportunity to be one of the most important economic engines for the state of California by preparing its workforce – both at the entry level and retraining those already employed. In addition, the CSU is the vehicle that will be able to improve all of public education in the state," Reed said.

Steven Uhlfelder, chairman of the Florida Board of Regents, praised Reed as "one of the best public servants Florida has ever had. He's among the hardest-working, smartest and most dedicated people anyone could ever hope to work with. Florida has been fortunate to have him as long as we have, and California is extremely fortunate to hire a man of his stature."

Munitz agreed, saying, "There could be no greater compliment to the California State University system, or any stronger reason to believe that its extraordinary momentum will continue, than to have Charlie Reed as my successor. He has been a wonderful colleague and good friend, and one of my mentors and heroes in higher education for many years. Since he is currently responsible for Florida's equivalent of both CSU and UC, and has built extraordinary relationships with that state's corporate and political leadership while leading their wonderful faculty and presidents, he is the perfect choice for California."

A Pennsylvania native, Reed previously

(Continued on page 3)

Queen Ida, Zydeco Band to play Cajun music Oct. 24

Grammy Award-winner Queen Ida and her Zydeco Band will bring their trademark Cajun music to the Performing Arts Center's Cohan Center at 8 pm Friday, Oct. 24.

The concert, a benefit for YOPAC (Youth Outreach for the Performing Arts Center), will also feature one of Cajun music's hottest new members, Myrick "Freeze" Guillory, Ida's son.

Queen Ida is known for high-energy, infectious upbeat tunes that have been described as a fusion of French and Cajun music and rhythm and blues, with a touch of country Western, German, Hispanic, and Caribbean.

Queen Ida's concert in Harman Hall will benefit YOPAC, which provides low-cost matinee performances for school children and their teachers at the Performing Arts Center, offers performing arts workshops and presentations at schools, and provides teacher workshops with touring artists.

Tickets cost from $16 to $31 and can be ordered by stopping by or calling the Performing Arts Ticket Office at ext. 6-ARTS (6-2787) from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays.

Painter, sculptor to show in Galerie

Two widely exhibited artists – Charlene Vidito Knowlton, who works in two-dimensional mixed media, and Ken Bortolazzo, a metal sculptor – will display their art in a show titled "The Shape of Things" from Oct. 30 until Dec. 5 in the UU Galerie.

Knowlton said her paintings involve "layering cultural symbols ... from different periods of Western history." One purpose is to investigate "the way symbols are currently used by consumer media to manipulate and change the viewer's perception."

Bortolazzo's striking metal sculptures evoke a sense of strength and grace.

An artists' reception will be held in the Galerie on Saturday, Nov. 1, from 4 to 6 pm.

The Galerie is open Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 10 am to 4 pm; Wednesday from 10 am to 7 pm; and Saturday and Sunday from noon to 4 pm.

For more information, call Galerie curator Jeanne LaBarbera at ext. 6-1182.

Telecommuting workshop set for Oct. 23

"Move the work instead of the workers."

That's the concept of telecommuting, and the campus community is invited to learn more about it at a workshop planned for Thursday, Oct. 23, as part of national Telecommute Week.

Joel Kugelmass, an administrative analyst for the UC Davis Cancer Center, will present the workshop in the Performing Arts Center.

The presentation, from 2 to 3 pm in Philips Recital Hall in the Cohan Center, is geared for those working in an academic setting.

Kugelmass's visit is sponsored by Commuter Services and the Administration and Finance Division.

Distinguished teachers to give panel discussion

Last year's three Distinguished Teachers will take part in a panel discussion at noon Tuesday, Nov. 4, as part of the Faculty Instructional Development Opportunity (FIDO) Brown-Bag Lunch Series.

Len Davidman of the University Center for Teacher Education, Al Landwehr from the English Department, and Bob Thompson of Agribusiness will talk about how they motivate themselves and their students. They will also describe a teaching method that has worked well for them.

The presentation, in the Staff Dining Room, will be moderated by Don Maas of the UCTE.

Sandwiches and soft drinks will be provided to those who make reservations by calling Janice Engle at ext. 6-5935 by Thursday, Oct. 30.

The program is sponsored by the Faculty Instructional Development office.

Campus community invited to review NCAA self-study

The Cal Poly NCAA Certification Steering Committee invites the campus to review Cal Poly's completed 1997 NCAA Self-Study Report. Copies of the report are in the ASI, Academic Senate, Library, and Academic Programs offices. The report was sent to the NCAA on Sept. 26.

The NCAA peer review team will be on campus Monday through Thursday, Dec. 1-4. Questions can be directed to co-chairs Phil Bailey at ext. 6-2226 or Vicki Stover at 6-2171.

Livestock Judging Team earns top honors

Cal Poly's Livestock Judging Team earned first place in five judging categories and swept all three top individual honors at the recent Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona.

The team took first in the beef, sheep, swine, reasons, and horse categories.

Kevin McKinzie, an animal science senior, was first among individual winners. Tricia Stever, an agricultural science senior, took second, and Clemente Ayon, a crop science senior, third.

Other individual winners were Melissa Heinrich, agricultural business senior, fifth; Lisa Rector, agricultural science senior, seventh; Michael Lau, agricultural business senior, eighth; Arienne Driver, agricultural science junior, tenth; and Tiffany Carter, agricultural business senior, fourteenth.

Correction

Kristy Pena of the Bioresource and Agricultural Engineering Department won an award for outstanding work from Rain for Rent in Bakersfield. In last week's Cal Poly Report we mistakenly reported that Prisila Johnson of Food Science and Nutrition received the award.

We regret the error.

Education after graduation focus of Nov. 7 event

Students are invited to learn about post-baccalaureate education options and talk with representatives from more than 50 graduate and professional schools on Friday, Nov. 7.

The representatives will be on campus from 10 am to 1 pm in Chumash Auditorium as part Graduate and Professional School Day, co-sponsored by Career Services and the College of Science and Mathematics Student Council.

Later that day a panel discussion on "Technology and Its Impact on the Graduate School Admissions Process" will be held from 1:30 to 3 pm in San Luis Lounge in the UU.

Among the institutions to be represented are art, law, chiropractic, psychology, pharmacy, veterinary, and optometry schools, as well colleges of engineering, business, accounting, environmental health sciences, education, international relations, and architecture.

For more information, call Career Services at ext. 6-2501.

Report deadline Thursday as of next week

Next week the deadline to submit copy for the Cal Poly Report will change to Thursdays at 10 am.

The Report is changing to Wednesday distribution beginning Oct. 29.

The last Friday Report will be next week's.

You can e-mail copy (it's the preferred way) to polynews@polymail, fax it to 6-6533, or mail it to the Communications Office, Heron Hall.

Questions? Call ext. 6-1511.

Send items by Oct. 27 for fall Credit Report

Monday, Oct. 27, is the deadline to submit items for the fall quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of faculty and staff professional accomplishments.

When submitting news, please keep in mind we use certain guidelines to help us determine what to publish. In general, items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related – and in most cases that means directly related – to a faculty member's teaching or a staff member's job at Cal Poly.

Mail items (typed and double-spaced, please) to Jo Ann Lloyd, Communications, Heron Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6533, or e-mail to polynews@polymail.

Please be sure to include a phone number in case we have questions.

For more information or a copy of the full guidelines, call ext. 6-1511.

Foundation board to meet Oct. 24

The Foundation Board of Directors will hold a regular meeting on Friday, Oct. 24, at 9:30 am in the Foundation Administration Building, Conference Room 124. This is a public meeting. For more information or to obtain a copy of the agenda, contact Al Amaral, foundation executive director, at ext. 6-1131. A copy of the agenda packet is available at the Kennedy Library Reserve Desk and the Academic Senate Office, Mathematics and Home Economics 143.

... new CSU Chancellor

served as chief of staff for former Florida Gov. Bob Graham. Earlier, he served as deputy chief of staff, chief legislative advisor, and educational policy coordinator for Graham.

Reed also served as an administrator in the Florida Department of Education for eight years and with the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. For seven years he was a member of the faculty of George Washington University in Washington, D.C., where he earned bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees.

'Customer' satisfaction survey slated

Are you satisfied with the services you're getting from campus offices in charge of purchasing, accounts payable, human resources, facilities, and the physical plant?

The faculty and staff were to be mailed a survey this week from Administration and Finance as part of a CSU systemwide effort to measure "customer" satisfaction with those university services. Responses are due Nov. 19.

At the same time, a random sample of students will be asked to evaluate services offered by units responsible for admissions and records, registration, student accounts receivable, financial aid, facilities, and the physical plant.

For several years, the CSU has collected information about the efficiency of many campus services. The "customer" satisfaction surveys will provide additional important data.

To ensure objectivity and confidentiality, the survey will be analyzed by an external consulting firm, with results expected in February. Questions may be directed to Vicki Stover, associate vice president for administration, ext. 6-2171.

Give the university a piece of your mind

We urge faculty members and staff members to express their opinions or provide information about university affairs through the Report's new "Piece of Mind" section.

We hope to improve campus communication on individual issues and help explain universitywide policies and procedures.

Letters received by 10 am Thursday will be published in the next Wednesday's Report. Please keep them brief and submit them typed and double-spaced. Include your name, department and a phone number. Letters may be mailed to the Communications Office, Heron Hall; faxed to ext. 6-6533; or e-mailed to polynews@polymail.

We might need to edit letters for clarity and brevity.

— The editors

'Coming Out as Lesbian' topic of Oct. 20 talk

"Coming Out as Lesbian in the '90s" is the title of the first fall quarter Women's Studies Lunch-Time Seminar planned from 12:10 to 1 pm Monday, Oct. 20, in the Staff Dining Room.

Elise Curry, a doctoral intern in the Psychological Services department, will explore the personal issues of sexual orientation.

Curry says that, for a woman, discovering one is attracted to women while living in a predominantly heterosexual world can be quite frightening.

"The process of coming out is a life-long process," Curry said. In her presentation, she will outline the six-stage process that has been identified by a researcher in the field.

Curry's talk will also touch on some of the typical struggles that women experience as they begin to develop a lesbian identity. Homophobia, heterosexism, and lesbian parenting will also be discussed.

For more information, call the Women's Studies Program at 6-1525.

Service-learning minigrants available

The Study-Service Connections program has faculty minigrants available for curriculum development that results in the addition of community-based service-learning components to general education and breadth courses.

The program also provides:

- ♦ Funds for each participating faculty member to hire a student assistant for 10 hours a week.
- ♦ Help from the Community Service and Learning Center in locating or designing service options that relate to course content.
- ♦ Training from experts in the field.
- ♦ Assessment of the efficacy of the experience.
- ♦ Reproduction of materials.

Study Service Connections is a Cal Poly Plan program designed to demonstrate how student learning and motivation can be enhanced by linking traditional classes with community-service experiences directly related to course topics. This year's program goal is to launch five such courses.

It is anticipated that minigrants will range from $1,000 to $1,500, depending on the complexity involved. Interested faculty members are encouraged to contact Sam Lutrin at ext. 6-5839.

Cal Poly Choirs to perform Nov. 2

PolyPhonics, one of the Music Department's premier performing ensembles, and the new Cal Poly Vocal Jazz Ensemble will present their fall concert at 3 pm Sunday, Nov. 2, in the Pavilion of the Performing Arts Center's Cohan Center.

PolyPhonics, a 34-member mixed choir that has performed throughout the state, will perform works by Laszlo Halmos, Andre Thomas, Telemann and Manuel de Sumaya.

Cal Poly music professors and pianists William T. Spiller and Susan Azaret Davies will perform portions of the "Liebeslieder Waltzes" by Johannes Brahms.

Under the direction of music professor Thomas Davies, the program will include solos by the university's top vocal students.

Tickets cost $6.50 and $8.50 and can be bought at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays. To order by phone, dial 6-ARTS (6-2787).

The concert is sponsored by the Music Department and College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at 6-2607.

President Baker to host Staff Recognition Day

President Baker will host a special program as part of the first Staff Recognition Day on Wednesday, Oct. 22.

Managers and department chairs are invited to join staff members in celebrating staff contributions to Cal Poly. Part-time music professor David Rackley will conduct the Spirit Marching Band from 9:40 to 10 am on the Plaza. The main program will be in the Performing Arts Center's Harman Hall beginning at 10 am.

A reception with refreshments will be held on the Plaza after the indoor program. The reception is to conclude at noon.

Latin Day of Dead to be celebrated Nov. 1

Music and dancing will highlight Cal Poly's celebration of Dia de los Muertos — the Day of the Dead — on Saturday, Nov. 1.

Festivities will begin with an artists' reception for an exhibit and sale of pottery, sculpture and paintings. The reception will be from 4 to 6 pm in the Multi-Cultural Center in the University Union and will include music from the Vera Cruz area of Mexico and hors d'oeuvres from a local Mexican restaurant.

Entertainment by the Folklorico Dancers, an African drum and dance team, and two bands playing traditional Mexican and modern Latino rock will run from 6:30 pm to midnight in the Recreation Center.

The traditional side of the Latin American celebration will be marked by altars built by members of the Chicano student organization MEXA to honor the dead.

The free event is sponsored by MEXA, La Comision Estudiantil representing several Cal Poly Latino organizations, Multicultural Programs of the Student Life and Activities Department, ASI Concerts, and the ASI Program Board, Student Academic Services, and Cuesta College's Educational Opportunity Programs and Services.

For more information, call Everardo Martinez-Inzunza at ext. 6-5113.

New Web page has info on CSU computer plan

A new page on Cal Poly's World Wide Web site has been set up to give the latest information on the CSU's joint project with GTE, Fujitsu, Hughes Communications and Microsoft to build a systemwide information technology infrastructure.

You can get to the page from the campus's home page by clicking on "CSU Systemwide Internal Partnership (SIP)" under "What's New." The direct address is www.calpoly.edu/~its/sip.

From the Cal Poly page you can access the CSU's SIP Website, various information, and a summary of campus feedback received so far. From the page you can comment on the proposal and participate in weekly chat sessions. Anyone wanting to comment should do so by the end of October.

The CSU's partnership with the four corporations, called the California Educational Technology Initiative (CETI), is one aspect of the Systemwide Internal Partnership, which was formed to upgrade and maintain the system's computer infrastructure. CETI is being planned to give the CSU the economic means to upgrade its information technology without sacrificing flexibility in the choice of systems.

There's also a new e-mail list for the latest information about SIP and CETI. To be added to the list, or for other information, call Mary Shaffer in Information Technology Services at ext. 6-5538 or e-mail mshaffer.

Tables of contents can be delivered electronically

Faculty members can get the tables of contents of their favorite journals delivered to their desktops using the Library's UnCover REVEAL electronic mail alert service.

To do so, a list must be created of journal titles for which the tables of contents will be sent each time a new issue is available. In addition, searches of the entire UnCover journal collection of 18,000 titles can run automatically every week.

Using REVEAL with the library's Electronic Interlibrary Loan program and the Loan Arranger document delivery program, faculty members can increase access to the scholarly journal literature from their desktop.

To set up a REVEAL account, contact Patrick Sullivan at ext. 6-6247 or via e-mail at psulliva@calpoly.edu who will create a personal profile for you, or you can set up your own profile on the Web by calling up <http://lib.calpoly.edu/reveal.html>.

To inquire about the Electronic Interlibrary Loan and the Loan Arranger programs, contact Janice Stone at ext. 6-1222 or via e-mail at jstone@library.calpoly.edu.

... Consultants picked

is to provide housing for more students in the best way possible."

Allen said the housing could be on campus or off, and built by the university or by a private developer.

"The study may show that there is already an adequate supply of housing in the community, but it's not up to students' standards, and in some cases not up to building codes," he said.

Community comment will be sought through the Student Housing Advisory Committee, a body made up of representatives from Cal Poly, the San Luis Obispo City Council, Cuesta College, Chamber of Commerce, County Board of Supervisors, the private Campus Housing Association, and Residents for Quality Neighborhoods. The committee is expected to solicit community opinion and feedback over the next several months.

The university hopes to have a final recommendation by next summer and have new housing – if built – ready for fall quarter 1999.

For more information, call the Housing Office at ext. 6-1226 or visit the project's Web site (click on "Capital Development" on the Housing home page, www.housing.calpoly.edu).

Saving trees

- (a) Planning a universitywide event?
- (b) Publicizing it in the Cal Poly Report?
- (c) Preparing a flier, too?

Nothing wrong with that. The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you are planning (a), (b) and (c), please send just a short announcement for the Cal Poly Report. We'd love to include the basic who, what, where and when in a small one- or two-paragraph article, as well as mentioning it in the Dateline section. We can tell people to watch their mailbox for your flier.

Often we run a long, detailed article on an event, and then voila! we receive a brightly colored flier in the mail that carries the same long, detailed message.

We can't speak for you, but to us it seems kind of wasteful – which really isn't very '90s. So, we hope that if you're doing (a) and (c), you'll please make (b) a short one.

... 'Birds'

Aristophanes wrote "The Birds" in 414 BC.

According to company founder Peter Meineck, "The play provides a comically poignant reminder of the foolishness of politicians, the power of persuasion, and the dangers of tyranny."

The presentation will be staged in Harman Hall. Tickets cost $8 to $20 and can be bought at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays. To order by phone, dial 6-ARTS (6-2787).

For more information on this or other Cal Poly Arts events, visit its Website at www.calpolyarts.org.

Deadline extended for Experts Guide

The deadline for being listed in the next edition of Cal Poly's Experts Guide for the News Media has been extended.

If you received a form last spring but haven't returned it, you're welcome to send it now to the Communications Office, Heron Hall. If you weren't planning to respond, we ask you to reconsider and list yourself in the guide, which is mailed to statewide and national news organizations.

If you'd like a form or information, please call Bob Anderson in the Communications Office at ext. 6-1511 or e-mail banderso.

Solicitation of vacation, sick leave

Employees are being asked to donate sick leave or vacation credits on behalf of Jane Paris, assistant to the director of academic records.

Paris must take several months off because of a medical disability.

Donations of either sick leave or vacation credits will help her remain on full pay during her absence.

Anyone interested in donating leave credit can get the Catastrophic Leave Donation Form from solicitation coordinator Carol Morris in Academic Records at ext. 6-6025 or via e-mail at cmorris.

Eligible state employees may donate up to 16 hours of sick leave and vacation credit per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Vacancy information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly home page on the World Wide Web (address: <http://www.calpoly.edu>; click on "General Information"). AA/EEO

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 6-2236 or job line at ext. 6-1533). Official application forms must be received by 4 pm on the closing date or be postmarked by the closing date. (No faxes.)

CLOSING DATE: October 31

#89053: Information Technology Consultant (Foundation level), College of Agriculture (Unit 9)*, $2669-$3737/mo.

**NOTE: For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants currently in Bargaining Units 2, 5, 7, and 9 will be given first consideration.*

ASI (University Union 212, ext. 6-1281)

CLOSING DATE: October 24

ASI Chumash Challenge, 1/2 time Temporary office assistant through December 31, $10.43-$13.53/hr.

ASI Children's Center, Temporary assistant teacher through March 31, 1998 with possibility of an extension, $1242-$1510/mo.

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2844)

Candidates interested in faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

CLOSING DATE: November 21

#83005: Tenure-Track Position, Modern Languages and Literatures (805/756-1205). Assistant or beginning associate professor of French, beginning September 1998. Teaching language, culture, and literature at undergraduate level; providing effective leadership in curriculum development, strategic planning, professional development, testing, and program review. Seeking a commitment to developing language instruction in light of new technological and pedagogical techniques. Required: Ph.D. in French, native-level language ability, quality teaching experience, proven scholarship, special knowledge of and dedication to multimedia and communication networking in modern languages, and knowledge of Francophone culture. Teaching ability in a second language desirable but not required. Contact department for application requirements.

CLOSING DATE: January 15

#83019: Tenure-Track Position, Biological Sciences Department (805/756-2788). Assistant professor-level position in vertebrate systematics, starting September 1998. Applicants should be experienced field biologists who are well-versed in cladistics and molecular systematics. Duties include student advising and directing students in undergraduate and graduate (M.S. level) research. Applicant must have a Ph.D. at time of hiring. Strong commitment to teaching is essential. For application send letter of interest and curriculum vitae to V.L. Holland, chair.

CLOSING DATE: January 15

#83024: Tenure-Track Position, Biological Sciences Department (805/756-2788). Assistant professor-level position in physiology/anatomy, starting September 1998. Applicants should have research experience in excitable tissue (sensory receptors, nerve, and/or muscle) and knowledge of human cadaver anatomy. Duties include student advising and directing students in undergraduate and graduate (M.S. level) research. Applicant must have a Ph.D. at time of hiring. Strong commitment to teaching is essential. For application send letter of interest and curriculum vitae to V.L. Holland, Chair.

READVERTISEMENT

CLOSING DATE: January 30

#73127: Department Head/Tenure-Track Position, Environmental Horticultural Science Department (805/756-2279). Full-time, 12-month position available at conclusion of search. Academic administrative responsibilities include management of personnel, budgets, facilities, and student matters; oversight of unit operations. Minimum qualifications: Ph.D. in horticultural science or closely related field; demonstrated commitment to and involvement with the science and practice of horticulture; demonstrated administrative ability; strong personnel management skills; successful university teaching experience; and familiarity with the environmental horticulture industry. Tenure based on teaching portion of position. Evidence of scholarly activities to merit appointment to rank of full professor required.

CLOSING DATE: December 31

#83020: Assistant/Associate Professor, Computer Science Department (805/756-2824). Opening(s) anticipated beginning fall 1998 to teach core undergraduate and upper-division and master's level courses in a specialty area; participate in ongoing curricular development; perform research in main-stream area of computer science; and perform service to the department, university, and community. Candidates must have a strong commitment to teaching excellence, dedication to continued professional development, and a broad-based knowledge of computer science. Ph.D. in computer science or computer engineering is required. Apply to Recruitment Committee, Computer Science Department (phone 805/756-2824, e-mail recruit@csc.calpoly.edu; further information available at <http://www.csc.calpoly.edu>).

CLOSING DATE: December 1

#83022: Assistant Professor, Physical Education and Kinesiology (805/756-2545). Full-time position starting September 1988 (salary $37,956-$43,584). Teach adapted physical education and pedagogy classes; supervise student teachers, field placements, and undergraduate research. Also requires teaching in one or more major activity area(s). Ph.D. in P.E. or related field and successful public school teaching experience required. Demonstrated teaching excellence in higher education and grades 7-12 and experience working with diverse students desirable. Apply to Dwayne Head by closing date (contact department for application requirements first).