

Change Service Requested

Parents, please note: If your son or daughter is no longer at this address, please send his or her current address to alumni-info@calpoly.edu.

GRAPHIC COMMUNICATION INSTITUTE PUBLISHES BOOK ON SECRETIVE RUSSIAN PRINCESS

THE PRINCESS DIARIES was fiction, but a new book about a real-life princess who lived in San Luis Obispo has been published by the Cal Poly Graphic Communication Institute (GrCI).

Tatiana Volkonsky, a Russian princess and long-time San Luis Obispo resident died in 1988, never publicly revealing secrets of her past.

Author Friedl E. Semans Bell is the daughter of Hubert Semans, the first dean of humanities on campus, and the princess's younger son, Alec Kelley, graduated from Cal Poly.

For more information go to <http://grci.calpoly.edu/projects/friedl-bell.html>. Sale proceeds will benefit the Graphic Communication and English Departments at Cal Poly.

