Terry Crawford Chosen Grand Marshal for Poly Royal Parade

SAN LUIS OBISPO -

The Cal Poly Open House Committee has selected Terry Crawford as the Poly Royal Parade's Grand Marshal. The parade will be held Saturday, April 22 at 9 a.m. with the procession beginning on campus at the corner of Grand Avenue and Perimeter Road .

Crawford has coached a number of Cal Poly athletes who have become NCAA national champions and Olympians during her 14 years as the university's track and field coach.

"Terry is committed to making student athletes and Cal Poly's athletic program the best they can be," said Allison O'Leary, open house events and entertainment director. "The Open House Committee thought this would be a great way to thank Terry for her years of service and her dedication to creating champions."

"It is such a great honor for me to be named grand marshal of the parade," said Crawford.
