Student Housing North workshop set for June 4

The campus community is invited to share its views on the new Student Housing North project at a workshop from 2 to 4 p.m. June 4 in UU 220.

This workshop will focus on the project's circulation options and their impacts. The workshop will begin with an overview of the Capstone partnership in the context of the university's Master Plan. Conceptual site plans with circulation options will be shown, and a discussion will follow.

Earlier workshops focused on the environmental setting of the project and Brizzolara Creek, on auxiliaries and services, residential living aspects of Student Housing North, and the built form.

For more information regarding Student Housing North, see the Facilities Planning Web site at http://www.facilities.calpoly.edu/Facilities\_Planning/.

Equinoa reception set

A retirement reception for Richard Equinoa, director of career services and testing services, is set from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday (May 30) in the plaza of the Student Services Building. □

Schaffner appointed

Agribusiness Professor David Schaffner has been appointed to the National Food and Agribusiness Management Education Commission.

The commission, created by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, has been assigned to conduct a comprehensive review of food and agribusiness management programs in the United States and to examine the broader human resource needs of agribusiness outlined in an industry steering report.

After conducting the review, the commission will present a package of recommendations to aid colleges and universities in renewing their agribusiness management studies and course work to meet the changing needs of the food and agribusiness marketplace. □

Appointments

Richard Frankel was appointed chair of the Physics Department. His appointment runs from September 2003 through summer quarter 2006. Frankel joined the physics faculty in 1988.

Donald White was selected to serve as chair of the Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering Department. He will serve from September 2003 through spring quarter 2006. White began teaching at Cal Poly in 1987. □

Service awards to be announced at ceremony

The winners of the 17th annual President's Community-Based Learning and Service Awards will be announced at a ceremony from 2 to 4 p.m. Thursday (May 29) in Chumash Auditorium.

The faculty and staff are invited to the ceremony, at which staff members, faculty members, students and student organizations that have served the community will be honored.

The President's Community-Based Learning and Service Awards, granted annually by President Baker, Academic Affairs and the Community Center (part of Student Life and Leadership), honor the recipients' spirit of civic involvement and contributions that have improved the quality of life in San Luis Obispo County.

The awards are designed to highlight specific achievements. The categories are Innovation in Service, Significant Contribution, Emerging Service Leader Contribution, and Greek Community Contribution. The first three are given to an organization, a student and a faculty or staff member and the last to a fraternity or sorority. Baker will present each recipient with a plaque at the ceremony.

Those who plan to attend the event should e-mail Charlene Rosales at croales@calpoly.edu to reserve a space. For more information, call Rosales in Student Community Services at ext. 6-6749. □

ASI Rec Sports plans anniversary celebration

Faculty and staff members can take advantage of free activities and giveaways during ASI Recreational Sports' Customer Appreciation Days, now through Friday (May 30).

Non-member faculty and staff members will have access to the facility and its equipment, including racquetball and tennis racquets. All guests must sign a waiver.

Pencils, bottled water and 10th anniversary T-shirts will be given away.

In addition, a medicine ball workshop will be offered from 12:15 to 1 p.m. today (May 28) in the Recreation Center's Gray Gym (upstairs), and a plyometrics workshop is planned from 12:15 to 1 p.m. Thursday (May 29), also in Gray Gym. Kickball will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Friday (May 30) at the Rec Center field.

No sign-ups are necessary for the workshops or kickball.

For more information call the Rec Center at ext. 6-1366. □

Housing Corp. to meet

The next public meeting of the board of directors of the Cal Poly Housing Corp. will be at 9 a.m. June 11 in the Foundation Administration Building, Room 124. A copy of the meeting agenda will be available for review next week at the Foundation Administration Building.

For more information, call Bob Ambach, managing director, Cal Poly Housing Corp., at ext. 6-1131. □

Children's center to hold benefit 5-K, 10-K walk/run

"Playground Promenade," a 5-K and 10-K walk/run and children's fun run, is planned for Saturday (May 31) as part of the Orfalea Family and ASI Children's Center's 30th anniversary celebration.

Registration fees for the walk/run include a barbecue lunch, a T-shirt and kids' activities such as face painting and arts and crafts. In addition, children can play in a bounce house and visit a petting zoo.

Proceeds from the event will be used to replace the center's playground.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. in front of the center. Registration fees are $20 for students, $30 for faculty and staff members, and $12 for children 12 and under. Pick up a registration form at the children's center or download one at www.asi.calpoly.edu/ChildrensCenter. For more information call ext. 6-1267.

Thursday blood drive set

The Student Health Advisory Council (SHAC) is sponsoring a blood drive through the Tri-Counties Blood Bank from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Thursday (May 29). The Tri-Counties mobile donor coach will be parked in front of Mott Gym.

A blood donor must be at least 17 years old, weigh 110 pounds or more and be in good health on the day of donation. Donors may give blood every eight weeks and are encouraged to eat a good meal within six hours before donating.

For details, call Bob Negranti, SHAC advisor, at ext. 6-5428. □
