

Four Per Cent of Student Body Elects Fifteen Class Officers

A total of 157 students elected the 15 officers of next year's sophomore, junior, and senior classes in class elections last week. This is about 4.2 per cent of the student body.

The low totals were assumed to result from the enforcing of the ruling that only those with class cards be allowed to vote. Although it is in the constitution, this is the first time in several years that it has been enforced, according to Roger Packard, Inter-Class Council chairman, and elections manager.

Pruett Leads Seniors

The senior class will be headed by Dallas Pruett, electronics major, elected by 80 students. Vice-president will be Jim Counter, also an electronics major, and the others will be Vernon Turner, printing

Streeter Junior Proxy

Dick Streeter, printing major, was elected by 82 students to the presidency of the junior class. Joe Schuster, mechanical engineering major, will be vice-president. Coeda broke into the ranks of class off-cers with Barbara Day, elementary education major, elected secretary, and Peggy McKinght math major, elected treasurer. SAC representative will be Daniel Haley, physical education major. The latter three were unopposed.

Nophs Name Dickson

Sophomore class officers got the highest turnout, with 89 card holders voting in Bill Dickson, aeronautical engineering major, as president. Judy Bruce, elementary education major, will serve as vice-president. The other officers, all unopposed, will be Sonya Woods, home economics major, secretary; Jo Ann Evans, home economics major, treasurer; and John Valentine, ag. engineering major, SAC representative.

Arch Students Honored at Awards Dinner

Prominent Los Angeles architect, Paul Hunter, was speaker at the annual Architectural Department Awards Dinner held at the Veteran's Memorial Hall. Awards for outstanding work done in the past year were presented to various architecture majors.

Donaho Hall received $50 in stocks in the building industry as winner of the Badgley Award for outstanding freshman work. Dale Dennis who will accompany John R. Ross, architect instructor to the American Institute of Architects convention in Los Angeles, received an award for his work as freshman representative for his department during the past year.

Fifty dollars in cash went to Peter K. Phillips for an outstanding scholarship record in his sophomore year.

The Myron Graham Award of two architecture books went to Don Goldman for excellency in sophomore design. First place prize of $15 and a medal in the annual Searched Competition in design went to Ray Cotham; Dale Dennis placed second and Al Bruce, third. Second and third place winners each received medals.

One hundred dollar Lindsay Award for outstanding junior design will be shared by Jim Ward, Bob White and Larry Nelson. Emilie Mueller III received the slummi award, a set of architect books, for outstanding junior design.

Alumni Award to a senior showing excellent design work went to Steward Woodard.

One of the senior design problems was a cultural center on the Monterey Peninsula. For their outstanding solutions to this problem, books were presented to Jim Luckman, Merle Carnegie and Steward Woodard.

Alumni Award of books went to five seniors for outstanding engineering projects. For their project, designing and building the geodesic dome, the award was presented to Bill Roth, Sam Peterson, Dick Nell, Don Tanklage and Don Mills.

Demarke Will Head Arts and Sciences

Joe Demarke, junior social science major from Camarillo, is the new chairman of the Arts and Sciences Council for 1957-58. Elections were held at the home of the Council's new advisor, Robert Kennedy, next year's dean of the Arts and Sciences division.

Named to assist Demarke were Linda Lewis, freshman social science major from San Luis Obispo, as vice-chairman; Pat Keeble, junior agricultural journalism major from Concord, secretary-treasurer; and John Lawler, sophomore agricultural journalism major from San Francisco, IDC representative.

A social hour followed the business meeting, in honor of outgoing advisor, Dr. Robert Maurer, who will transfer to the Kellogg-Voorhies campus.

Host of Senior Activities Set for Next Two Weeks

Schedule of senior events, including time, place and date, has been announced by the Senior Class Executive Council. Admittance to senior class activities requires a senior class card or a guest card. Class cards or guest cards may be purchased in the student body office.

Events scheduled are the following: (1) Senior Ball Friday, June 7 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the

Senior Ball Slated for Friday; 'How High the Moon' Is Theme

"How High the Moon" is the theme of Friday's senior ball. It will be held in the Veteran's Memorial Building at 8 p.m. No bids will be required and all juniors and seniors and their guests are invited.

According to Ball Chairman Paul Melver, music will be by the Collegians, and dress will be formal. Melver is being assisted by Jake Reed.

Stan Sheriff to MC Leadership Dinner

Stan Sheriff will be master of ceremonies at Sunday's annual Leadership Dinner at the Monday Club.

Tickets at $2 are available in the Student Body Office to all interested students, and club and organization leaders are particularly invited.

The Spring Leadership Conference is annually sponsored by members of the Student Affairs Council, and more than 100 students are expected to attend. Annual reports of budgeted groups will be displayed.

A talk will be delivered by President Julian McPhee, and Who's Who awards will be presented.

Co-chairmen for the dinner are Dan Lawson and James McGrath, SAC faculty advisors. Chefs for the dinner will include Ken Kitch, Gus Beck, Bob Bostrom, H. P. Davidson, Everett Dorrrough, Duke Hill, Coach Leroy Hughes, Joan Newcomer, and Gene Rittenhouse.

The dinner, featuring barbecued steak, will begin at 4 p.m.

Sunday Is Last Day For Rec Swimming

This Sunday will be the last day of recreational swimming for the college year, announces Robert Mott, physical education department head.

The summer program will commence on Tuesday, June 25 with the hours for recreational swimming being 2 to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The pool will not be open Saturdays or Sundays. The instructional program will be held June 25 through July 18. The hours for this program have not been announced.

Added Mott, current swimming cards will not be valid for the summer program and new cards must be obtained from the P.E. office before June 25. They will be available beginning June 17.

Veteran's Memorial Building; (8) "Pushing Hubby Through" Commencement (wives), Sunday, June 9, at 2 p.m. on the Library lawn; (9) commencement practice, Wednesday, June 12 at 2 p.m. in the stadium; (4) tree planting ceremonies also on Wednesday at 8 p.m. Location will be announced later.

(5) Plate laying ceremonies on Wednesday, June 12 at 8:30 p.m. in front of Crandall Gym; (6) beach party at Atascadero Beach on Thursday, June 13. Guest cards will cost approximately $1.50; (7) baccalaureate services will be held at 8 p.m. in the San Luis Obispo senior High School Auditorium on Friday, June 14; (8) senior breakfast on Saturday, June 15 at 8:30 a.m. will be held in the Veteran's Memorial Building. Guest cards will cost approximately $1.50; (9) commencement services are on Saturday June 15 at 2 p.m. in Mustang stadium; and (10) post commencement reception on the library patio on Saturday right after commencement.

Graves Will Head Religion Week

Doug Graves, sophomore ornamental horticulture major, has been elected chairman of the Religion in Life Week executive committee, which met last week to form initial plans for next February's observance.

Assisting him will be Gene Curry and Will Penna, vice-chairmen; Carlene Yowell, secretary; Ralph Paulin, treasurer; and the Rev. Ray Heer, executive secretary.

Program committee chairmen will be Bud Sechler, arrangements; Hue Howe, assemblies; Ray Lott, book display; Tom Davidson, breakfast and retreat; Dorothy Reed, classroom; Rich Adams, continuation; Elley Watson, dormitory. Completing the list are Marilyn Howson, worship; Mohammed Akbar, seminar; Jim Harris, personal conference; Helen Hiett, hospitality; Art Zumalt, finance; and Dr. Robert Rodin, faculty.

Blue Key Installs 17 New Members

Seventeen new members of Blue Key National Honor Fraternity were installed at the Fraternity's initiation banquet last week. The new members include the following:

Guest speaker was Placement Officer Eugene Rittenhouse who spoke on "The Ace in the Hole," and commented on ways to make the best use of a Cal Poly education.

The gavel was turned over by Duane Coppelcock to new president Bill Rohrer.

YEARBOOK SALES started yesterday morning, and here Editor Jim Luther, standing, and staffer Ray Lott hand out one of the first. Sales will continue this week in the administration building basement, and students' down payment receipts speed up the process considerably, according to Luther. Students who did not reserve a '57 El Rodeo will have a chance to buy one tomorrow morning on a first-come-first-serve basis. (El Mustang Photo.)

Two College Sites Get Green Light From Committee

SACRAMENTO—(CIP)—New state colleges for Alameda and Orange Counties got the go-ahead from the Assembly Ways and Means committee Thursday (May 23).

The committee selected those sites from a list of seven proposed new colleges and sent legislation creating the new institutions to the floor of the Assembly.

The Ways and Means group also voted in favor of site acquisition for two more colleges, one in Stanislaus county and the other in the four county North Bay area of Napa, Marin, Solano and Sonoma.

However, the committee rejected the bids of San Mateo and Imperial Counties and the three county area of San Benito, Santa Cruz and Monterey.

New Baseball Coach Named

William R. Hicks, first string varsity catcher for UCLA in 1947 and 1948 and former professional baseball player, will coach the Cal Poly baseball team and assist in football next year. He will begin his duties as a physical education instructor in Sept.

Now a teacher of physical education at Hoover High School, Long Beach, Hicks is a graduate of Compton Junior College and the University of California at Los Angeles and has a master's degree program in progress at Long Beach State College. He coached baseball at Long Beach City College in 1955, substituting while his brother was in active service.

CORRECTION

Don Roberts, an electrical engineering freshman from Portland, Ore., is chairman-elect of the Music Board of Control. This was incorrectly reported in last week's El Mustang. He replaces Byron Halpin.

IRE Initiation Set For This Thursday

Calvin K. Townsend, president of the West Coast Electronic Manufacturers Association (WCEMA) and a San Jose corporation executive, will be principal speaker at the tenth annual banquet of the student branch of the Institute of Radio Engineers, Thursday, at the Veteran's Memorial Building.

Presentation of two $300 WCEMA scholarship awards and two $200 Alumni-Hewlett Packard awards will also feature the program. New IRE officers will also be installed.

Townsend, vice president and general manager of the Jennings Radio Manufacturing Corporation, San Jose, will be in charge of the WCEMA presentations. Don Palmer, a Cal Poly graduate now with Hewlett-Packard as a product design engineer, will present the awards in which his firm annually participates.

Townsend will speak on "The Professional Growth of the Engineering Student—Graduation, What Next?"

New IRE officers to be installed at the banquet include Carl Sutliff, Brea, president; William L. Moore, Gridley, vice-chairman; John M. Ferguson, Glenn Ellen, treasurer; Norman L. Dawlra, Lomita, secretary.

Last Edition

Unexpected production difficulties have forced this edition of El Mustang to be the last one of the quarter. Sorry, we were planning on another one too.

Edmund T. Price, board chairman of the Solar Aircraft Co., will be the commencement speaker at exercises to be held June 15.

Women's Club Urges 'Save' At Cell Clearing Time

When you clean your cell in preparation for flying this academic coop, don't throw everything away.

The Cal Poly Women's Club is placing containers in the dorms for all usable rummage, in which they are collecting for their annual "Trash 'n Treasure" sale next fall. For those not in dorms, James Wilkinson will have containers available at his home.

This is the only money-raising affair of the Women's Club, which annually donates between $700 and $1000 to the student loan fund, from funds garnered in the fall rummage sale.

"The Customers Always Write..."

J. Gordon Strikes

Dear Editor:

In response to Mr. Garfield's recent letter of condemnation of me, I would like to say that I have witnesses to back up each statement I made in this same newspaper. If proof doesn't make facts of statements, I have been under the wrong impression for several years.

When my first letter appeared in this publication I was accused to my face by Mr. Garfield of trying to uncover something in the Rally Committee budget. Could it be that you have a guilty conscience, Gary?

When you speak of basic rules of society and the bit about justifiable information, Mr. Garfield, and I have sufficient evidence to back each of my statements and therefore feel that I owe no apologies.

I was very surprised to see the name Gary Garfield signed into bull riding in the jackpot rodeo. Maybe I can join the Rally Committee!

each was recommended for site acquisition and construction in both Alameda and Orange counties.

In addition, the committee approved a $500,000 expenditure to buy land for the San Mateo and North Bay colleges.

The Assembly action was more selective than similar state college legislation in the Senate.

Upperhouse committees have suggested state colleges in Alameda, Orange and Stanislaus Counties and in the Sonoma, Marin, Solano, Napa and Monterey, Santa Cruz areas.

Censorship

An apparently toothless substitute for a measure which would have provided strict censorship of all books placed in public school libraries was passed to the Assembly floor Monday night (May 21) by the Education Committee.

The same committee killed the bill three weeks ago when it provided that no books could be placed on the shelves which were contrary to the dictates of "truth, morality and patriotism."

However, the author, Sen. Hugh P. Donnelly (D-Tulare), revived the bill by removing the standards. As the measure now stands, local school boards must review books before turning them over to the libraries.

In its original form, the measure would have applied to state colleges and could have banned such books as "The Communist Manifesto" and "Candide" from the libraries.

If the measure passes the Assembly, it would be returned to the Senate for approval of the amendments. Donnelly promised committee members that he would not try to return the bill to its original form, but his upper house colleagues could do just that. The censorship measure passed the Senate with lots of votes to spare early in April.

JC Transfers Still Eligible For Three Years Varsity Play

Junior college transfers to California Collegiate Athletic Association member schools will continue to be eligible for three years of varsity competition following the recent meeting in Santa Barbara.

A motion to kill the rule was tabled in a secret ballot. Members of the CCAA are Cal Poly, Fresno State, Santa Barbara college, Los Angeles State, Long Beach State and San Diego State.

The ruling gives junior college athletes who transfer to CCAA schools three years of varsity eligibility after two years of jaycee play.

Conference delegates also: 1. Named Ken Fagans, present CIF southern high school commissioner, as CCAA commissioner. He will be employed on a part time basis and duties will entail keeping of conference records, appoints officials and will serve as conference arbitrator. His duties will be clarified during August 1 meeting in Los Angeles.

2. Full conference football schedules completed for 1958 and 1959 seasons and a "master plan" adopted in football to start in 1960.

3. Starting in September 1958 all conference athletes will have to hold a 2.0 cumulative average to be eligible. This is under the new grade point system. It is now allowable to go not more than five grade points below the C average.

4. All sports schedules for next year were agreed upon with new forms of competition in golf and tennis. A double round robin will be played in these sports with a minimum of travel. Teams will travel together.

Not Cal Poly

Soon after college opened the fellows in the dorm received a note from the girl's dorm across the street.

"Dear Sirs: Please procure curtains for your windows. We do not care for a course in anatomy."

The fellows got together and replied, "Dear Girls: This course is optional."

Golds Top Greens In Spring Grid Tilt

In a spirited and fast game, the Golds downed the Greens 19-7 in the annual spring football tilt in Poly stadium Tuesday night.

More than 1000 fans saw the Golds grab a 6-0 lead early in the third quarter only to have the Green team do them one better scoring a TD and the extra point. But the Golds added two tallies in the final quarter for the win.

Couch Roy Hughes watched the tilt from the press box and indicated satisfaction with the game which climaxed spring practices.

The Greens dominated the first half of play running wild, but determination on the Golds part wouldn't let them score. The Greens got as close as the four yard line once but the drive sputtered out.

The Golds came back strong in the second half. A series of passes from Bob Beathard to Gary Van Horn and Don Adams put them on the Greens' six from where Dan Delgado streaked across the goal line. Willis Hill's point after touch-down attempt was foiled on a bad pass from center.

Two plays later the Green team struck paydirt on a 64 yard pass play from John Panagakis to Fred Ford. Ivan Learned kicked the extra point.

Fifteen seconds into the final quarter the Golds recovered the lead on a 14 yard Beathard to Delgado pass. Hill booted the PAT putting the Golds in front 18-7.

Later in the final period the Golds took a punt on their own 14. Charles Ellis carried well gaining plays. Three plays later he went straight up the middle for 51 yards 10, 11, and 2 yards on consecutive scoring the final TD. Hill's kick was no good.

Two Baseballers On All-CCAA Team

Low Gentry, hard hitting outfielder for the Cal Poly Mustangs has been named to the all-conference baseball team. Named to the California Collegiate Athletic association second team was freshman Bob Williams, another outfielder.

The picks:

First team—Rowland Hill (San Diego) and Jim Cratty (Los Angeles) and Gentry, outfielders; Joe Padrazzini (Fresno) first base; John Osborne (Santa Barbara) second base; Pete Walski (Santa Barbara) third base; Tom Rinks (San Diego) short stop; Neil Wright (Santa Barbara) catcher; Bobby Doig (Fresno), Dave Cavalin (San Diego) and Bob Pope (Santa Barbara) pitchers; Carl Evans (Long Beach) utility. Doig was named most valuable.

Second team—John Bierholm (Long Beach), Vaughn Wipf (Santa Barbara) and Williams, outfielders; Jerry Smith (San Diego) first base; Jerry White (Fresno) second base; Jim Lester (Fresno) third base; George Dela Torre (Long Beach) short stop; Art Flemming (San Diego) catcher; Jay Davis (Long Beach), Robert Lusk (San Diego) Bruno Ciootti (Los Angeles) pitchers; Pat Mills (Santa Barbara) utility.

Eight Letters Awarded To Golfers and Netmen

Three juniors, Tom McFadden, of Santa Barbara, Roger Hing of San Luis Obispo and Charles Harber of Huntington Park topped letter award winners in golf and tennis.

The college board of athletic control announces that McFadden, Hing and Harber are three year award winners. McFadden took a second place in the recent CCAA golf tourney. Hing and Harber won awards in tennis.

Other golf awards went to Gary Kinsinger, second year; and Dennis Palmer, first year. Both are from San Luis Obispo.

In tennis Frank Johnson of Ukiah won a two year award while Jerron Jorgensen and Joe Leonard, both of San Luis Obispo, won first year letters.

The Cal Poly Campus at San Luis Obispo, California, covers 2,850 acres.

Hewson House Has Glittering Past

Past guests of the Andrews Hotel, now known as the Hewson House, included Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Marion Davies, William Haines, and William Randolph Hearst.

All of these well-known personalities, which gave the boarding house a glittering past, were guests of Hearst during 1912 to 1914.

According to J. M. Hewson, the newspaper magnate occupied the third and fourth floors of the hotel, using a total of 14 rooms while Hearst's castle, San Simeon, was being built.

Hearst occupied the hotel in his usual style of splendor, said Hewson. He had his own maids and butler, and built an elevator for convenience. Hearst also had his own private dining room, off the main dining room, which is now used for a general meeting room.

During this period the Andrews Hotel was the most fashionable hotel and restaurant between Santa Barbara and San Jose. The dining room boasted of cut glass and sterling silverware.

Shame, Shame
A San Joaquin Valley farmer was asked why he refused to allow his daughter enroll in college.
