Flu Hits Santa Barbara; Halts Football Contest

By Dave Kempf

Cal Poly's 50th anniversary of Homecoming has been moved ahead one week due to a cancellation of the Santa Barbara-Cal Poly football game plus a forecast of rain, according to Associate Dean of Activities, Dan Lawton.

Nineteen members of the Santa Barbara team are too sick with the flu to play in the contest.

Homecoming festivities will be curtailed at least one day at this time. The Homecoming Ball scheduled Saturday night will be canceled for the South Cal Poly students. The costume pageant scheduled for the Saturday night will be canceled. The parade scheduled for Saturday afternoon will be canceled. The class reunions scheduled for Saturday afternoon will be canceled.

The parade will assemble on the campus parking lot, it will proceed down East Hill Street to Hill Street to the South Coast arena. The parade will be at 2:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

The Homecoming court will be announced at the Homecoming Ball scheduled for Saturday night.

Cowboys Compete Saturday in Rodeo

Rodeo action will come to life Saturday when the world's most emotional sport goes into the Bud Bowl Rodeo at the Red Barn. The Red Barn stands are expected to be packed.

The rodeo will feature bareback bronco riding, rodeo clowns, bucking horses, saddle bronc riding, and bareback horse riding.

The rodeo will start at 1:30 p.m. and will continue until 6:00 p.m.

Tickets are $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children and can be purchased at the Red Barn.

Health Center Begin Tests Monday

Hearing tests for students are now being conducted at the Health Center. All students are required to have hearing tests during their college career. All freshmen who have not had hearing tests will be notified by their deans through their postal offices.

Tests will be given Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., including the noon hour. All students receiving hearing test results are urged to report to the Health Center at their earliest convenience.

Ag Journalist Wins State 4-H Award in Leadership

A former Oakland Tribune copy boy from Concord, now a major in agricultural journalism at Cal Poly, has been selected California's 4-H National Awards Winner in Leadership. He is Leonard Lanfranco, of Concord and a graduate of Mt. Diablo High School. In addition to numerous agricultural and community projects in which he was involved during high school, he was on the Oakland Tribune staff, and now is one of five Concord students majoring in agricultural journalism at Cal Poly.

Lanfranco was active in student activities. A former Oakland Tribune copy boy from Concord, he is already active in Press Association affairs and is serving as advertising manager for "World Book," the school newspaper, editor of the school literary magazine, editor of the student activity program's annual photograph "review record," and a pull leader.

Lanfranco will attend the national 4-H Congress at Chicago in November.

Jorgenson Releases Casaba Schedule

A look at height and experience on the 1957-58 season of the Mustang basketball squad is evident, as 17 casaba prospects are currently engaged in practice on Coach Ed Jorgensen’s squad.

Although Jorgenson has few of last year’s regulars back for action this winter, a severe shortage of height and experienced personnel face the Mustang mentor. Big Thos. Dans, now all-Big Fifteen, season starting leader; Lon Oswald, Mike Hinners, Ken Hinkle, and Floyd Haney—all veterans—will back up the team, still considered the Pac-ten.

The basketballers began workouts Oct. 15, and Jorgensen mentioned several candidates, showing promise in such players as Vic Di Giovanni, Jim Webster, and Jack Murdock. The green and gold headman added he was expecting a few football players to try out for the squad.

A rugged 8-game schedule faces Jorgenson’s rangy. The Mustangs open to the Hadliel Invitational Tournament, December 3-7, and stage the Cal Poly Christmas Tournament, Dec. 27 and 28.
