

CAL POLY

REPORT

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo

Vol. 46, No. 31,

May 13, 1993

VP Lebens to speak on state budget

Vice President for Administration and Finance Frank Lebens will speak to area public administrators on "The State of the State Budget" at a noon luncheon at Vista Grande Restaurant today (May 13).

The talk is part of a series sponsored by the Center for Practical Politics and the San Luis Obispo chapter of the American Society for Public Administration. Although designed for public employees and staff members of non-profit organizations, everyone interested is invited.

The luncheon costs $7. For reservations, call Dianne Long in the Political Science Department at ext. 2984.

Open forum with VP Koob Friday

Faculty and staff members are encouraged to attend an open forum to discuss campus issues with Vice President Koob on Friday, May 14, beginning at 12 noon in Science E-45. Topics discussed in the two-hour session will be the choice of those attending.

Solicitation of vacation, sick leave

Employees are asked to donate sick leave and vacation credits on behalf of Kerrie Anderson, MBA and EMP secretary in the College of Business. Because of complications in her pregnancy, she is having to take time off from work three months earlier than planned.

Donations of either sick leave or vacation credits will help her remain in full-pay status during her absence. Anyone interested in donating leave can obtain a Catastrophic Leave Donation Form from Rebecca Just in the College of Business, ext. 2048.

Eligible state employees may donate up to 16 hours total of sick leave and vacation credit per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

Office thefts prompt security reminder

Several thefts of personal items from offices in a recent week have prompted Public Safety Services to remind employees of basic security precautions.

Director Joe Risser suggests remembering to lock empty offices and to put purses and other valuables out of sight and out of reach of visitors. If you see people "wandering around," ask if they need assistance. If you're suspicious, call Public Safety at ext. 2281.

Staff Council to meet May 19

The Staff Council will meet on Wednesday, May 19, from 1 to 2:30 pm in UU 220. Among agenda items are discussion of recruiting a staff representative for the search committee for a Human Resources director and creating a new committee on staff evaluations.

For more information, contact your Staff Council representative or Joan Kennedy at ext. 2273.

Yamada to be interim Student Affairs VP

Director of health and psychological services Kerry Yamada has been named interim vice president for student affairs effective Aug. 1.

Yamada, a 12-year Cal Poly employee, will assume the duties of Vice President Hazel Scott, who is leaving at the end of July for a similar position at Occidental College in Los Angeles.

A licensed psychologist, Yamada came to Cal Poly in 1981 as director of counseling and testing after working 13 years as a clinical psychologist and administrator in Indiana and South Dakota and at UCLA and in Bakersfield. At UCLA he served as dean of psychological and counseling services from 1974 to 1979.

Yamada earned his doctorate in clinical psychology from Ottawa University in Canada in 1968.

Cultural awareness workshop May 21

Arthur Byrd, vice president for student services at Allan Hancock College and a Cal Poly ethnic studies lecturer, will conduct a Cross-Cultural Awareness Workshop for the faculty and staff on Friday, May 21, in UU 219.

This workshop, sponsored by the Ethnic Studies Program, will run from 8:30 am to noon.

The workshop will offer strategies to help increase the success rate of minority students and will cover the campus environment, the classroom, one-to-one interaction and other topics. It will address cultural differences in eye contact, space, accents, and conventions of courtesy.

For more information or to reserve a seat, call Ethnic Studies, ext. 1707.

Job Fair set for May 18

Faculty and staff members are urged to remind students that the annual Springboard Job Fair will be held Tuesday, May 18, in Chumash Auditorium.

Employers from a variety of disciplines will be represented, all with specific job opportunities available. Students can meet employers from 9 am to 1 pm. The afternoon is reserved for individual interviews. A bulletin listing participating employers and job descriptions will be available the Friday before the event. Refer potential employer participants to Debi Caccese, Career Services, ext. 5979.

'Sexual violence & media' topic of talk

A UC Santa Barbara social psychologist will speak on sexual violence in the media at noon Friday, May 21, in Fisher Science 286.

Professor Ed Donnerstein will look at ways such violence affects behavior and ways to reduce those effects without violating freedom of speech. Chair of UCSB's Department of Communication, Donnerstein is the author or co-author of more than 100 publications on the mass media and violence. His most recent work is on pornography and sexual violence.

The talk is sponsored by the Psychology and Human Development Department.

Educator Berliner to lecture on lecturing

Internationally recognized Arizona State University professor of curriculum, instruction and psychology David Berliner will present "A Lecture on Lecturing" at 11:45 a.m. Wednesday, May 19, in UU 220. All faculty and staff members are invited.

Berliner will speak to the University Center for Teacher Education faculty on "Teacher Expertise: Implications for Teacher Education" at 2 p.m. and reveal "Stories About Schools Your Newspapers Never Tell" at 4:30 to keynote the UCTE's Recognition Celebration for public school teachers and administrators. Both will be in Education 126.

Past president of the American Educational Research Association and recipient of numerous awards, he is co-author of a best-selling educational psychology text and has published prolifically on teacher training and effectiveness, educational policy, and assessing the results of education.

Berliner's visit, which also includes an informal session with deans and administrators, is sponsored by the Faculty Instructional Development Opportunity Program.

Rollicking comedy to play May 20-22

Cal Poly's 1992-93 drama season will close with the French-Canadian comedy "Les Belles Soeurs" (The Beautiful Sisters) Thursday through Saturday, May 20-22, at 8 pm in the Theatre.

Written by Michel Tremblay, "Les Belles Soeurs" tells the story of Germaine, who, having won a million stamps redeemable for merchandise, invites her friends and family to help paste the stamps into booklets. What follows is a rollicking, rowdy comedy as the women, consumed by greed, proceed to rob Germaine of her dreams.

Tickets are $5.50 for those with Cal Poly I.D. and senior citizens and $6.50 for the general public. All seats are reserved. For reservations, call the 24-hour ticket line at ext. 1421 or buy tickets at the Theatre Ticket Office between 10 am and 4 pm Monday through Friday.

Cal Poly professors to read new works

Novelist Mary Kay Harrington and poet Kevin Clark, both faculty members, will read from their recently completed works at 7 pm Friday, May 21, in Room B-5 of the Science Building.

The presentation is the last program in Cal Poly Arts' 1992-93 WriterSpeak series.

Although the two writers' works differ in genre and geography, the adult protagonists in both are discovering, for the first time, who they really are.

Coordinator of the Writing Skills Program, Harrington has published in the Los Angeles Times, Arizona Quarterly, and South Coast Poetry Journal.

Clark, who teaches poetry writing and modern American literature, has published two volumes of poetry. His poetry has also appeared in The Georgia Review and The Iowa Review.

'Eating Disorders' topic of seminar

"Women and Eating Disorders" will be the topic of the Women's Studies Lunch-Time Seminar at noon on Monday, May 24, in Staff Dining Room B.

The speakers will be J. Kelly Moreno and graduate students Sherre A. Neal-Lypps and Cynthia Breaux McLaughlin of the Psychology and Human Development Department.

They will discuss the causes, diagnosis, and treatment of anorexia and bulimia. Besides talking about food and weight, the panelists will examine related mood disorders, personality structure, substance abuse, and history of sexual abuse.

For more information, call Carolyn J. Stefanco at the Women's Studies Program, ext. 2845.

Duplicate-degree fees waived for employees

A new interpretation by the chancellor's office states that duplicate-degree tuition does not apply to employees participating in the Fee Waiver Program.

Fee Waiver participants were recently notified that state law required Cal Poly to charge duplicate-degree tuition ($100 per quarter unit) for any student pursuing a second bachelor's or master's degree or a second teaching credential.

For more information, call Joan Lund, Human Resources, ext. 6563.

Cal Poly retirees set year-end lunch

A luncheon for all retired faculty and staff members and their spouses has been scheduled for noon, Wednesday, May 26, at the San Luis Obispo Elks Lodge.

Sponsored by the Cal Poly Retired Faculty and Staff Club, the lunch costs $7.75 per person. You need not be a member to attend.

For reservations which are required, call Don Coats at 543-5088.

Retirees club elects officers for '93

The Cal Poly Retired Faculty and Staff Club has elected Bill Stansfield its 1993 president and J. Murray Smith as vice president. Other new officers are secretary-historian Bob Bostrom, bulletin editor Don Morris, projects coordinator Don Coats, and membership director-treasurer Dave Thomson. For membership information, write Thomson at 1355 Foothill Blvd., San Luis Obispo, CA 93401.

Armenian artist's paintings on display

The vibrantly colored figurative and abstract paintings of Armenian artist Migran Bardess are on display in the University Art Gallery in the Dexter Building.

"Passages and Essence," sponsored by the Art and Design Dept., opens today with an artist's reception from 5 to 7 pm. The exhibit will run through June 6.

Today's reception will include an informal talk by a woman who has worked extensively with Bardess and other artists of the former Soviet Union. Victoria France will speak at 5:30 pm in the gallery.

Bardess, educated at the Yerevan Academy of Art, was one of the Soviet Union's "unofficial" artists, who promoted freedom of expression in the visual arts. He immigrated to the United States in 1980.

For more information call ext. 1571.

Asian, Latin music featured in concert

The Cal Poly Choirs will close their 1992-93 season with An Evening of Pacific-Rim and Latin Music, a multicultural concert, on Friday and Saturday, May 28-29, at 8 pm in the Theatre.

The Men's and Women's Chorus, University Singers, and Poly-Phonics will sing popular pieces from Japan, Korea, China, the Philippines, Indonesia, Colombia, Brazil, Ecuador and Cuba, as well as folk songs from the United States. The groups will be conducted by Thomas Davies of the Music Department.

A special guest appearance will be made by El Ballet Folklórico de Cal Poly. Directed by dance professor Maria Junco, the ensemble is known for its unique interpretation of Mexican folk dances.

Tickets for the concert are $4.50 for students and senior citizens and $7.50 for the general public. Tickets can be bought at the UU Ticket Office and the Theatre Ticket Office from 10 am to 4 pm weekdays. For reservations by credit card, call the Theatre Ticket Office at ext. 1421.

New phone number for Financial Aid

Faculty and staff members wanting to call someone in Financial Aid without waiting through recorded messages should now use ext. 2939. You can also call most financial aid staff members on their individual lines, listed in the campus directory.

Financial Aid's main extension, 2927, has been connected to an automated phone system to answer student questions. The choices available on ext. 2927 are (1) Financial Aid's office hours and location, (2) types of aid available, (3) financial-aid transcript requests, (4) disbursement information, (5) Work-Study information, and (6) transfer to a receptionist.

'Poly Trekkers' taking applications

The ASI Children's Center is accepting applications for its "Poly Trekker" summer child-care program for children 5 to 8 (entering 3rd grade).

The program, running from June 21 to Sept. 3, will offer art, music, science, movement, games, reading, field trips and more. For more information contact the center at ext. 1267. The deadline for enrollment is June 4.

Foundation board to meet Friday

The Foundation Board of Directors will hold a regular meeting on Friday, May 14, at 9:30 am in the Foundation Administration Building, Conference Room 124. For more information or to obtain a copy of the agenda, contact Al Amaral, foundation executive director, at ext. 1131. A copy of the agenda packet is available at the Kennedy Library Reserve Desk and the Academic Senate Office, FOB 25H.

Dateline. . . .

($) - Admission Charged

THURSDAY, MAY 13

Speaker: Frank Lebens (VP for Administration and Finance) will speak on "The State of the State Budget." Vista Grande, noon. ($)

Reception, Exhibit: Reception for artist Migrant Bardess, 5-7 pm. Paintings on display through June 6. University Art Gallery, Dexter.

Speaker: Health Net presents "Caring for the Elderly." Staff Dining Room, noon.

Speaker: Ann Simonton (former model) will discuss "Sex, Power and the Media." UU 220, 6 pm.

FRIDAY, MAY 14

Open Forum: With Academic VP Bob Koob. Science E-45, noon.

WriterSpeak: Louis Owens (UC Santa Cruz) will read his fiction. Business Building 112, 7 pm.

SATURDAY, MAY 15

Music: Spring Band Concert. Chumash, 8 pm. ($)

TUESDAY, MAY 18

Job Fair: Chumash.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19

Lecture: David Berliner (Arizona State University) will present "A Lecture on Lecturing." UU 220, 11:45 am.

Books at High Noon: Leonard Davidman (Education) will review "The Disuniting of America: Reflections of a Multi-Cultural Society" by Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. Staff Dining Room, 12:15 pm.

THURSDAY, MAY 20

Play: "Les Belles Soeurs." Through May 22. Theatre, 8 pm. ($)

FRIDAY, MAY 21

Workshop: Arthur Byrd (Allan Hancock) will lead a Cross-Cultural Awareness Workshop. UU 219, 8:30 am to noon.

WriterSpeak: Kevin Clark (English) and Mary Kay Harrington (Writing Skills) will read from their works. Science B-5, 7 pm.

Speaker: Ed Donnerstein (UC Santa Barbara) will speak on sexual violence in the media. Fisher Science 286, noon.

MONDAY, MAY 24

Seminar: J. Kelly Moreno (Psychology and Human Development) and Sherre Neal-Lypps and Cynthia McLaughlin (graduate students) will discuss "Women and Eating Disorders." Staff Dining Room B, noon.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26

Books at High Noon: Donald Grinde (History) will review "Exiled in the Land of the Free: Democracy, Indian Nations and the U.S. Constitution" edited by Lyons, Mohawk, Grinde, et. al. Staff Dining Room, 12:15 pm.

Lunch: Retired Faculty and Staff Club. SLO Elks Club, noon. ($)

Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 110, ext. 2236 — Foundation Administration Building, ext. 1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply. Applications must be received by 5 pm or postmarked by the closing date.

STATE

CLOSING DATE: May 26

Assistant Athletic Trainer (Health Education Assistant), Intercollegiate Athletics, $2371-$2849/month; position available 7/1/93 through 6/30/94.

FOUNDATION

CLOSING DATE: May 14

Clerical Assistant II, $1692-$1995/month. Temporary position through Aug. 31. Continuation subject to funding. Minority Access to Health Careers Program, College of Science and Mathematics.

Executive Chef, $2596-$3245/month, Food Services.

ASI

CLOSING DATE: May 21

Building Service Worker, $1640-$1936/month. Applications are available in the ASI Business Office, UU 212.

Faculty Vacancies

The university is seeking candidates for positions on the faculty. Those interested in learning more about the positions are invited to contact the appropriate dean or department head. Salaries for faculty are commensurate with qualifications and experience (and time base where applicable), unless otherwise stated. This university is subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity including but not limited to Executive Order 11246 and Title IX of the Education Amendments Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: May 27

Lecturers (part-time), Theatre and Dance. Possible part-time position for Fall, Winter and/or Spring Quarters 1993-94, dependent upon budgets and enrollments. Duties in Theatre might include teaching introduction to theatre, theatre history or children's drama; in dance, teaching ballet, modern, jazz, social or folk, or possibly assisting with annual dance concert. Master's degree in theatre or dance (equivalent professional experience also considered) with preference given to those with two years of teaching experience at the university level and some teaching or directing experience in theatre.

CLOSING DATE: June 14

Lecturer (full-time), Architectural Engineering. Teaching undergraduate courses in structural analysis and structural design of buildings. Doctorate (structural engineering) or exceptionally qualified applicants with a master's degree (structural), significant professional experience in structural engineering practice and structural engineering registration. Applicants with architectural engineering degrees or extensive teaching experience in a program of architectural engineering are encouraged to apply for 1993-94 academic year. All terms of employment are contingent upon funding.

CPR schedule

Cal Poly Report is published by the Comm. & Special Events Dept.

Typewritten, double-spaced copy must be submitted to Jo Ann Lloyd, Heron Hall, by NOON on the Thursday a week before you'd like it to appear.