REPORT

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo

Vol. 41, No. 8

October 27, 1988

Papers endorse Proposition 78

The San Luis Obispo Telegram-Tribune and the Los Angeles Times have endorsed Proposition 78 on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Prop. 78 is a $600 million general obligation bond measure to fund construction and renovation projects at California's public colleges and universities over the next two years.

Five Cal Poly projects worth more than $18.6 million will be included. The Times editorial noted that "not only must the higher education system accommodate new students, it must also adapt to new technology. If California is to continue to produce graduates who rank among the best in the country, its colleges must have the computers and scientific equipment with which to experiment and learn."

Hall of Fame tickets are still available

Reservations are still being taken for the 1988 banquet and induction ceremony for Cal Poly's Athletic Hall of Fame and Distinction.

The festivities will begin at 6 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 4, at the Embassy Suites Hotel.

Cost of the "black tie optional" event is $32.50 per person, including the banquet, reception, and souvenirs of the occasion.

A limited number of reserved seats are available at $125 each, which includes a contribution to the Hall of Fame Scholarship Fund, as well as the dinner, reception, and souvenirs.

Checks should be made payable to "Cal Poly Hall of Fame" and sent to SUMAT, c/o Alumni House, Cal Poly. Additional information can be obtained by telephoning ext. 2255.

Officers elected for Library Associates

Galen Ricard has been elected chairwoman of the 1988-89 board of trustees of The Library Associates. A marketing communications consultant, Ricard has been a member of the board since 1986.

Other newly elected officers include Denise Fourie, vice chairwoman; Elsie Louis, secretary; and Robert Pavlik, member-at-large.

Additional board members are: Hershel Apfelberg, William Cattaneo, Kitson Graham, Paul Karlen, Bruce Miller, Glen Pollard, and Marion and Harry Rodman.

Dr. David Walch, dean of library services, and Nancy Loe, head of the Special Collections and University Archives Department of the Kennedy Library, serve as ex-officio members of the board.

The Library Associates organization was founded in 1979 to support the Kennedy Library by promoting an enthusiasm for books and related materials. With more than 700 members, the organization represents Cal Poly's largest community support group.

Slide show planned

The CSU International Programs will hold a slideshow presentation today (Thursday, Oct. 27) at 11 am in Chumash Auditorium. Celebrating 25 years of excellence in study abroad, the program will consist of a slideshow presentation and a student alumni panel.

The CSU International programs offers study abroad opportunities in 16 countries. For further information, call Marilyn York, ext. 1477.

Victorian baby carriage needed

If you've got an old Victorian baby carriage hiding in the attic or tucked away in the garage, the Theatre and Dance Department would like to talk with you.

Dr. Russell Whaley, a faculty member in the department, says he is looking for a wicker Victorian baby carriage for use in the department's November production of Anton Chekhov's classic play, "The Three Sisters."

Whaley, who is also the set designer for the production, says the carriage will be needed between Nov. 7 and 21 while the play is in rehearsal and production.

Anyone who has such a carriage, or knows where one can be found, should telephone Whaley at ext. 6561, or messages can be left with the department secretary, ext. 1465.

Faculty/Staff
Payday is Oct. 31

Fran Tarkenton sets Central Coast talk

Former professional football star Fran Tarkenton will be in San Luis Obispo on Wednesday, Nov. 2, to prove that he has mastered other skills than throwing a pigskin.

The Cal Poly student chapter of the American Marketing Association has invited Tarkenton to speak to area business people about "Building Your Organization Into a Winning Team."

The event, at the Embassy Suites Hotel, will open with no-host cocktails at 6 pm. Dinner will follow at 6:30, and Tarkenton's presentation will start at approximately 7:45.

An All-American performer at the University of Georgia, Tarkenton went on to play 18 years in the National Football League as a quarterback for the Minnesota Vikings and the New York Giants. He led the Vikings to Super Bowls in 1973, 1975, and 1976.

A member of the college and professional football Halls of Fame, Tarkenton moved into the television booth as a member of ABC Television's Monday Night Football broadcast team with Howard Cosell and Frank Gifford. He was also a co-host with John Davidson and Cathy Lee Crosby of the popular TV program, "That's Incredible."

Tarkenton is the author of two books published by Harper & Row, "Playing to Win — Strategies for Business Success," and "How to Motivate People."

Tickets, which include dinner, are $30 for the public and $25 for students. They are available from area Chambers of Commerce and at the offices of the School of Business.

'The Three Sisters' will open in Nov.

Anton Chekhov's "The Three Sisters," will be the first production of the 1988-89 theater season.

Presented by the Theatre and Dance Department, "The Three Sisters" will play from Thursday, Nov. 17, through Saturday, Nov. 19, in the Theatre. Curtain time will be 8 pm.

Michael Malkin, head of the Theatre and Dance Department, is directing the production.

The set designer for the production is Russell Whaley of the department's faculty, and Howard Gee of the department's technical staff is the light and sound designer and technical director.

Sharon Radtke, a home economics major, is designing the costumes as part of her Senior Project requirement.

Tickets for the play are on sale exclusively at the Theatre Ticket Office. Prices are $6 for the public and $5 for those with Cal Poly I.D. They can be reserved by telephone or purchased at the Box Office on weekdays between 10 am and 4 pm. For more information, call ext. 1421.

Author Phyllis Davies will autograph book

Local author and lecturer Phyllis Davies will be autographing her new book, "Grief, Climb Toward Understanding," on Nov. 2 at 3 pm at El Corral.

The Cal Poly agricultural management alum leads workshops, writing groups, speaks at universities, service clubs and religious groups, and is a frequent talk show guest.

Her book, a best seller locally, will be released nationwide next spring.

Foundation board meeting cancelled

The Board of Directors Executive Committee of the Cal Poly Foundation has cancelled their Board Executive Committee meeting on Friday, Oct. 28, at 9 am in Adm. 409.

Baskets exhibited

An exhibit of Indian-style baskets is on display on the first floor in the Main Foyer of the Kennedy Library through Nov. 16. Dr. Jack R. Lewis, professor emeritus of architecture, has hand-crafted over two dozen baskets using patterns primarily from Southwestern U.S. Indians.

Student debater wins top speaker award

A Cal Poly student won the top debate speaker award at the Los Rios Invitational Forensics Tournament in Sacramento.

Mary Jo Gonzales, a junior agricultural science major, placed first among debaters from UC Berkeley, Santa Clara, San Jose State, San Francisco State, Sacramento State, Cal Poly, and Chico State.

Competitors debated the topic: "Resolved, that significantly stronger third-party participation in U.S. Presidential elections would benefit the political process."

Mortar Board brunch

The California Central Coast Mortar Board Alumni will host a brunch for members of the Cal Poly active chapter of Mortar Board. The brunch will be held on Saturday, Nov. 5, at 10:30 am at the home of Julie Watson, 1672 Royal Way, San Luis Obispo.

Judy Connely, president of the alumni group, invites any Mortar Board alumni in the Central Coast area to attend the meeting. Reservations can be made by calling Connely at 543-5919 or Watson at 546-8804.

Library Associates launch book sale

The Cal Poly Library Associates' annual book sale has been transformed into a quarterly event, "Books a la Cart."

The first "Books a la Cart" is set for Wednesday, Nov. 16, in the lobby of the Kennedy Library.

All quarterly book sales will be held on Wednesdays, from 9:30 am to 4 pm, with prices ranging from 10 cents (magazines) to 50 cents (hardcovers and trade paperbacks). Other paperbacks are 25 cents each.

Winter and Spring Quarter sales will be held Feb. 22 and May 17, respectively. Proceeds from the events will be used to buy special materials for the Kennedy Library.

A large selection of Life magazines from the 1950s will be among the offerings in the November book sale, said Galen Ricard, chairwoman of The Library Associates. Or, for those more interested in the here and now, new 36"x16" panoramic, full-color posters of the City of San Luis Obispo will be sold for $5. The posters are also available by mail for $10. Call ext. 2305 for more details, or to volunteer to work at the book sale.
