

First Farwest health insurance update

An update on the First Farwest health insurance status was received from the Chancellor's Office announcing that the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) will move all enrollees out of First Farwest into the PERS-CARE health insurance plan effective March 1, 1989. Medical expenses incurred in March will be payable through PERS-CARE. An open enrollment period will start immediately for those First Farwest enrollees who want to elect a plan other than PERS-CARE. The earliest open enrollment effective date will be April 1 if enrollment forms are received in the Personnel Office by March 31. Thereafter, effective dates will be the first of the month following receipt of the enrollment form in the Personnel Office. Open enrollment forms must be received in the Personnel Office by June 16. PERS will be sending out letters to all enrollees with more specific information.

In order to answer questions from employees in First Farwest in more detail and to provide information as it is received, three general information sessions have been scheduled. These will be held in UU 220 on Monday, March 20 from 9-11 am; Tuesday, March 21 from 9-11 am; and Wednesday, March 22 from 1-3 pm. The same information will be covered at each session and appointments are not necessary. Open enrollment forms, comparison information on all available health insurance plans, and listings of member physicians participating in those plans will also be available. Due to the short notice, open enrollment forms and comparison information will not be available in the Personnel Office until March 20.

First Farwest enrollees will have to pay the difference in costs for March between the FFW and PERS-CARE premium. The employee's premium cost for both plans is outlined below. PERS has not yet informed the university when this payroll adjustment will be made.

	FFW	PERS
Employee only	$11.85	$24
Employee + one	23.42	47
Employee + two	40.49	70

First Farwest enrollees are urged to hold their questions so that they can be addressed at one of the general information sessions.

CSU program for women/minorities

Faculty and staff members interested in a possible career in university administration or management may apply for the California State University Administrative Fellows Program.

Applications and confidential evaluation forms must be submitted to the Affirmative Action Office by 5 pm on April 7.

The purpose of the program is to provide an opportunity for upward mobility. It is especially intended to ensure that women and people from ethnic-minority backgrounds have equal opportunity for placement and advancement in administrative, managerial and executive positions in the CSU system.

Assignments are usually made to another CSU campus. However, assignments at the home campus are possible when relocation would impose a personal hardship or when the fellowship experience would be enhanced by staying at the home campus. In such a case, the new duties must be clearly separate from the fellow's regular position responsibilities.

Fellows receive their regular salary, vacation and retirement benefits.

For more information and an application, call Smiley Wilkins or Angela Hamilton at ext. 2062.

Report schedule

The March 23 issue is the final one for Winter Quarter. The first issue for Spring Quarter will be April 6. The deadline for that issue is March 30.

John Muir portrayed in one-man show

The accomplishments, humor and compassion of America's most famous environmentalist will be spotlighted in a one-man show titled "Conversations With Tramp; an Evening with John Muir." The show, starring actor Lee Stetson, will be presented in Chumash Auditorium, at 7:30 pm, Thursday, March 16.

The show is set in the living room of the Muir house in Martinez in 1913. Muir, at 75, greets the audience as he is waiting to hear word of President Wilson's decision on the bill that would turn Yosemite's Hetch Hetchy Valley into a reservoir to provide water for San Francisco.

Meanwhile, he recounts some of his experiences — trapped while climbing Mount Ritter, watching a windstorm from the wildly waving top of a Douglas Fir, or viewing the moonlight from beneath Yosemite Falls.

Advance sale tickets are $4.25 for students, senior citizens and children 9-12; $5.25 for the general public; free for children 9 and under. They are available at the UU Ticket Office. Tickets will be $1 more at the door.

This presentation is sponsored by the ASI Speakers Forum.
