CAL POLY INTERNATIONAL CENTER

Mission Statement

The primary mission of the Cal Poly International Center is to provide leadership and coordination for international activities and to serve as the principal catalyst for internationalization efforts at Cal Poly. The CPIC maintains administrative authority and university-wide oversight of international engagement, including international initiatives, programs, and activities supported by the campus.

WHY INTERNATIONALIZE?

“In order for the US to have a truly world-class higher education system, we must be globally engaged and prepare students to be citizens for a multicultural community both at home and in a globalized world.”

ACE (American Council on Education)

“Comprehensive internationalization,” as defined by ACE’s Center for Internationalization and Global Engagement, is a strategic, coordinated process that seeks to align and integrate international policies, programs, and initiatives, and positions colleges and universities as more globally oriented and internationally connected.

INTERNATIONALIZATION IN THE CAL POLY CONTEXT

Internationalization efforts over last 20 years have included:

- Task Force on Global Awareness (1995)
- Working Group on Global Perspectives (2008)
