ASI Events Presents Magician Justin Kredible March 5

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- ASI Events presents a night of magic and comedy with Magician Justin Kredible. The event will take place Thursday, March 5, 2009, at 8 p.m. at Cal Poly in Chumash Auditorium located on the second floor of the University Union.

Combining comedy with magic, Justin Kredible has established himself as one of America's premier entertainers. He is often seen on television as a regular correspondent on The Rachael Ray Show and has toured alongside Jason Mraz on the 'Music, Magic, and Make Peace' Tour.

On top of it all, he has been named Campus Activities Magazine Entertainer of the Year two years in a row

"Justin Kredible has quite the reputation and we are excited to bring him for a performance at Cal Poly that we know will be magical," ASI Events Special Events student supervisor Dana Matteson said.

The event is free for students with a Cal Poly I.D. and $10 for community members. Seating is limited, and entry will be on a first come, first served basis.
