Cal Poly submitted its STARS certification application to AASHE during February 2017. The application identified sustainability courses according to the STARS criteria for sustainability courses and courses that include sustainability. [1] AASHE/STARS describes the sustainability courses as “courses for which the primary and explicit focus is on sustainability and/or understanding or solving one or more major sustainability challenge.” Cal Poly interpreted this description as applying to those courses listed in Cal Poly’s Sustainability Catalog (SUSCAT). [2] Cal Poly identified courses for SUSCAT following the assessment procedure approved by the Academic Senate. [3] Summarized briefly, the procedure scores each course according to a rubric. Courses scoring 6-12 points on the rubric that also devote at least 20% of the course to sustainability get recommended as SUSCAT sustainability courses. The new courses proposed for listing appear in the first table above titled “Winter 2017 Review – Sustainability Courses.”

AASHE/STARS also recognizes courses that include sustainability. This category covers “courses that are focused on a topic other than sustainability, but incorporate a unit or module on sustainability or a sustainability challenge, include one or more sustainability-focused activities, or integrate sustainability issues throughout the course.” [1] While reviewing courses for SUSCAT, it became clear that Cal Poly offers courses that don’t teach sustainability learning objectives sufficiently to appear as a SUSCAT sustainability course, but do teach elements of sustainability appropriate for the AASHE/STARS category covering courses that include sustainability. Those courses appear in the second table above titled “Winter 2017 Review – Courses that Include Sustainability.” The ASSC plans to post this list online at a new URL titled “Other Courses that Include Sustainability” and located under http://suscat.calpoly.edu/.

WHEREAS, The development of curriculum and instruction is the responsibility of the faculty, a fundamental principle supported by AAUP (Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities)¹ and the Academic Senate of the CSU (ASCSU) (Collegiality in the California State University System, 1985)² to name a few; and

WHEREAS, At times it has been necessary to reassert this principle, for example by the ASCSU (Reasserting Faculty Control of Curricula Regardless of Delivery Mode, AS-3081-12/FA/AA)³, and by the Cal Poly Academic Senate (Resolution on Shared Governance, AS-748-12)⁴; and

WHEREAS, Current campus procedures establish the workflow for proposing new curricula: the Office of the Registrar states that “Proposals for new courses are developed by faculty and submitted for approval through the Curriculum Management system,”[^1] and Academic Senate Bylaws (VIII.I.2b) state that “[t]he Curriculum Committee evaluates curriculum proposals from departments and colleges;” and

WHEREAS, On this campus, the policy that only faculty may propose new courses or other changes to existing curricula has been articulated for some time, but it does not appear in Senate documentation; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the faculty reassert and reaffirm that the development of curriculum and instruction are the purview of the faculty; and be it further

RESOLVED: That only current faculty may propose new courses or other changes to curricula, and that they do so through the curriculum committee of the appropriate academic department or associated college.

RESOLUTION ON ALIGNING USCP CRITERIA TO DIVERSITY LEARNING OBJECTIVES WITH OVERSIGHT BY GE GOVERNANCE BOARD

Background Statement

AS-395-92 Resolution Relating to a Cultural Pluralism Requirement determined that, beginning with the 1994-96 catalog, Cal Poly undergraduates must fulfill a cultural pluralism baccalaureate requirement consisting of a single course satisfying defined criteria.

In a related action, AS-396-92/CC Resolution on the Formation of a Subcommittee of the Curriculum Committee established a subcommittee for the initial review of USCP courses. This subcommittee consisted of seven voting members representing the colleges and professional staff, as well three ex officio members representing Ethnic Studies, the Curriculum Committee, and what was then called the General Education and Breadth Committee. AS-433-95/CC added ex officio members representing ASI and Women's Studies.

AS-651-06 Resolution on Cal Poly Learning Objectives established the University Learning Objectives as a broadly shared set of performance expectations for all students who complete an undergraduate or graduate program at Cal Poly.

AS-663-08 Resolution on Diversity Learning Objectives established the four DLOs as an addendum to the ULOs. ULO 6 states that all Cal Poly graduates should be able to “make reasoned decisions based on an understanding of ethics, a respect for diversity, and an awareness of issues related to sustainability.”

AS-671-08 Resolution on Changes to the Bylaws of the Academic Senate changed the membership of the USCP Subcommittee to consist of the Academic Senate Curriculum Committee chair, as well as the chairs of Ethnic Studies and Women's Studies. This was intended to simplify the formation of the subcommittee and expedite its business.

AS-676-09 Resolution on United States Cultural Pluralism Requirement revised the USCP criteria to make them simpler, broader, and more reflective of more recent statements: the DLOs and the Cal Poly Statement on Diversity.

The ULO project on Diversity Learning was conducted from 2008 to 2011. The project involved the design and analysis of separate surveys for the first three of the four DLOs, the use of focus groups to assess the fourth, and an analysis of the influence of service learning and the USCP requirement on diversity learning. Each of the three surveys provided evidence of value added, with seniors and juniors scoring higher than freshmen, but neither service learning nor satisfaction of the USCP requirement were found to have had substantial influence on students’ diversity learning, at least as defined by the DLOs. In 2012, Cal Poly described these results in its WASC Education Effectiveness Review Report, which made the following recommendation: "Align the USCP requirement with the DLOs and review USCP courses to see whether they address the DLOs."
WHEREAS, The Academic Senate determined that, beginning with the 1994-96 catalog, Cal Poly undergraduates must fulfill a US cultural pluralism (USCP) requirement consisting of a single course satisfying defined criteria (1992); and

WHEREAS, The revised criteria (2009) do not fully align with the Diversity Learning Objectives (2008); and

WHEREAS, The ULO Project on Diversity Learning (2008-2011) found that satisfaction of the USCP requirement did not have a substantial influence on students’ diversity learning as defined by the DLOs; and

WHEREAS, The DLOs have not been revised since their passage in 2008, and were written as an extension to the University Learning Objectives; and

WHEREAS, 83.72% of USCP-designated courses in the Cal Poly catalog are also GE-designated courses; and

WHEREAS, In AY 2015-16, 2383 students took a course that satisfied the USCP and a GE requirement, which was equivalent to 91% of the total number of students taking a USCP courses; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the USCP and DLO policies be revised as shown to incorporate the DLOs, as shown in the attachment, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the revised policy will become effective immediately for all existing USCP courses, newly proposed courses and course revisions, and be it further

RESOLVED: That existing USCP courses retain their designation and be subject to future review in accordance with the revised criteria, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the USCP Subcommittee be renamed the USCP Review Committee, comprising the Chair of the Academic Senate Curriculum Committee, the Chair of Ethnic Studies, the Chair of the General Education Governance Board (GEGB), the Chair of Women’s & Gender Studies, the Vice President and Chief Officer for Diversity and Inclusion, and the CTLT Inclusive Excellence Specialists, or their designees, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the oversight of USCP courses, including the review of new course proposals and modifications, be added to the responsibilities of the GEGB, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the USCP Review Committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the GEGB, which will decide on new USCP course proposals and modifications, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the USCP Review Committee will work with the GEGB curriculum to design and implement a plan for the curricular review of all existing courses with a USCP designation.

Proposed by: USCP Task Force
Date: January 26, 2017
Revised: February 16, 2017
USCP Criteria

United States Cultural Pluralism (USCP) courses must focus on all of the following:

1. One or more diverse groups, as defined in the Cal Poly Statement on Diversity, whose contributions to contemporary American society have been impeded by cultural conflict or restricted opportunities
2. Contemporary social issues resulting from cultural conflict or restricted opportunities, including, but not limited to, problems associated with discrimination based on age, ethnicity, gender, nationality, abilities, religion, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, or race
3. Critical thinking skills used by students to approach these contemporary social issues, examine their own attitudes, and consider the diverse perspectives of others
4. The contributions of people from diverse groups to contemporary American society

In addition to satisfying these criteria, USCP courses must also address the Diversity Learning Objectives.

Diversity Learning Objectives

All Cal Poly graduates should be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of relationships between diversity, inequality, and social, economic, and political power both in the United States and globally
2. Demonstrate knowledge of contributions made by individuals from diverse and/or underrepresented groups to our local, national, and global communities
3. Critically examine their own attitudes about diverse and/or underrepresented groups
4. Consider perspectives of diverse groups to inform reasonable decisions
5. Function as members of society and as professionals with people who have ideas, beliefs, attitudes, and behaviors that are different from their own

Resolution on Proposed Faculty Personnel Policy Consent Agenda Procedures

WHEREAS, The University Faculty Personnel Actions document (UFPA) needs revision; and

WHEREAS, Revisions to the UFPA into a new university level faculty personnel policies and procedures document include mere formalities of restating already established policies and procedures from various sources beyond the Senate (e.g. changes to the Collective Bargaining Agreement, administrative memos); and

WHEREAS, Many revisions amount to reformatting, consolidating, reorganizing, and restating existing policies and procedures; and

WHEREAS, Some revisions involve the Senate enacting changes to university policies by means of resolutions; and

WHEREAS, Presenting to the Senate a single new university level faculty personnel policies and procedures document with all the sorts of changes noted above may prevent the Senate from giving each significant change in policy and procedure its due consideration; and

WHEREAS, Presenting to the Senate the change to university level faculty personnel policies and procedures in many pieces would clog the Senate agenda with a barrage of resolutions; and

WHEREAS, The attached Personnel Policy Consent Agenda Procedures would allow the Senate to formulate its own informed decisions about which revisions to university level faculty personnel policies and procedures should be passed as mere formalities and which merit presentation and debate on the Senate floor; and

WHEREAS, Cal Poly would benefit in perpetuity by adopting a more flexible procedure for securing Senate approval of changes to university level faculty personnel policies and procedures; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate approve the attached Personnel Policy Consent Agenda Procedures, and be it further

Adopted:
RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee use this procedure to present to the Senate revisions to university level faculty personnel policies and procedures in topically discrete pieces suited to focused discussion and debate.

- Proposed by: Faculty Affairs Committee
  Date: January 5, 2017
  Revised: April 12, 2017
In Fall 2013 the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate charged the Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) to update the University Faculty Personnel Actions document (UFPA). In commencing with the work on this charge, members of FAC reviewed the following:

- Current university level personnel policies contained in UFPA,
- Proposed revisions to UFPA,
- All current college personnel policies and procedures documents,
- Proposed changes to some college personnel policies and procedures documents.

The goals for this project included consideration of practices in the colleges to determine which offered models of best practices to include in statements of university level policies and procedures. In formulating university level policies FAC sought to provide direction for the colleges to specify in more detail their criteria and procedures. Such changes would improve the utility of university and college level personnel policy and procedure statements as guide for faculty as they undergo review or participate in the review of their colleagues.

Initially, completion of this project was set to consist of a completed revision of the UFPA which would then be presented to the Senate for feedback and approval. Of course, such a change to university level policies and procedures needs much more than Senate approval. Prior to sending this package of changes to the Senate the proposed changes would be presented to college councils and the deans council so the Provost, Deans, and Program Chairs/Heads could provide their feedback as well. Suffice it to say that this would be a large project to tackle in one shot.

There are other significant downsides to proposing revisions to the entire UFPA for a single act of approval. Proposing potentially very many changes in one document may obscure particular changes of policy and procedure which merit direct and focused consideration by the Senate and college leadership. Also, policy documents at the university level are subject to a variety of occasions for revision, some of which are entirely beyond the scope of local faculty approval (e.g., changes to the collective bargaining agreement, directives from the Chancellor). Breaking the changes to the UFPA into bite-sized chunks allows each to receive its due consideration, but then clogs the pipeline of the Senate agenda with a swarm of resolutions, some of which would be mere formalities.

FAC wishes to be responsive to these issues while ensuring that the Academic Senate remains properly informed and able to offer due consideration in its approval of changes to faculty personnel policies. We therefore propose a consent agenda procedure as effective, appropriate, and efficient for bringing to the Senate changes to personnel policies.
The proposed consent agenda procedure appropriates existing procedures already familiar to senators. The timeline for informing the Senate of a consent agenda item, for senators to consider and pose questions to the FAC chair, and for pulling items from the consent agenda are essentially the same as for items on the curriculum consent agenda. When a senator pulls an item from the consent agenda, it becomes a standard discussion or business item, and in the latter case as a resolution endorsing a report at the stage of first reading. From there normal Senate procedures apply concerning deliberation and voting the change up or down.

This consent agenda procedure would allow senators to decide for themselves what counts as significant enough of a change to merit subjection to normal Senate deliberative processes while allowing the high threshold of unanimous informed consent to pass items thereby considered to be minor enough not to merit occupying time at a Senate meeting. The proposed consent agenda procedure includes the requirement that FAC provide the senators with significant detail about proposed changes so their consent would be properly informed and their retraction of consent may focus subsequent discussion on the key provisions of the change. The proposed requirements for engendering informed consent also provide a clear and logical assemblage of the documents that established the policy or which are being subject to the proposed revision. Such references to policy documents would aid any subsequent enterprise of revising or invoking policy documents.

A consent agenda procedure for bringing personnel policy matters to the Senate reduces the steps otherwise necessary for placing Senate resolutions on the Senate agenda while preserving the deliberative process of the Senate according to the discretion of individual senators. This proposed procedure assumes that the Academic Senate Executive Committee considers faculty personnel policies to be a per se function of the Faculty Affairs Committee, and therefore personnel policy revisions approved by FAC and accompanied by the variety of information required in this procedure would thereby be appropriate to be brought to the Senate. The Academic Senate Executive Committee's normal oversight concerning the agenda for Academic Senate meetings would continue by means of the process of posing questions about an item or removing it from the being the body which ultimately decides whether and how personnel policy revisions submitted by FAC are placed on the Academic Senate consent agenda.

To clarify how this consent agenda procedure would work, here are two examples of changes to personnel policies and procedures as they would have been presented to the Senate on the proposed consent agenda. Both are on related topics (student evaluation of instruction) one of a business item and the other of a discussion item:

- Discussion: Student Evaluation Requirements
- Business: Procedures for Online Student Evaluation of Instruction

Each example is offered below as it would be presented to senators on the proposed consent agenda. Note that the key distinction here concerns the nature of the process for implementing the change. In the example of the business item the proposed change to faculty personnel policies would require the Senate to adopt new official procedures. The Senate already ruled on this matter by voting to implement the policy in AS-821-16. Were this item to have been presented to the Senate by means of the proposed consent agenda, the resolution and report would have been formulated differently, but the action of the Senate to implement the policy would have been functionally the same as before: by passing a resolution. Were no senator to pull it from the consent agenda, then the item would be passed by unanimous consent. But were at least one senator to wish to subject the change to normal Senate deliberative process, all that senator need do is pull it from the consent agenda. It then becomes a normal Senate business item. The members of FAC would have expected that this change be pulled from the consent agenda. Had the proposed consent agenda procedure been in place this matter would have reached the Senate earlier in Fall quarter.

The other example of the discussion item differs in that the change in policy came from the administration and so implementing it is not a matter of Senate resolution. Instead, the Senate would be informed of the nature of the change. The function of having it on the Senate consent agenda concerns informing the Senate of the mere formality of placing the change into the official faculty personnel policy document. Were at least one senator to wish to have the matter presented in more detail on the Senate floor, all that senator need do is pull it from the consent agenda. It would then become a normal discussion item. The function of having the item on the consent agenda is to report to the Senate the exact language of the policy change including an account of its background and impact. Consent in this case amounts to mere approval of the placement of the existing policy into the official faculty personnel policy document.

Each of these examples of proposed policy changes would be packaged in a resolution with a resolved clause stating that the Senate approve the changes to the official faculty personnel policies document as stated in the resolution’s attached report. The attached report would provide the relevant information about the change in policy as specified in the proposed consent agenda procedure. In the case of business items, the Senate would be approving the policy itself and the placement of the policy into official documents. In the case of discussion items, Senate consent amounts to approval only of the placement of the policy into official policy documents.

SUMMARY OF CHANGE IN POLICY ON STUDENT EVALUATION REQUIREMENTS

This change in policy implements the discretion granted to the President in section 15.15 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement to specify exceptions to the general requirement that all courses be subjected to student evaluation of instruction. This change in policy was set by the attached administrative memo of February 22, 2013. The placement of this policy in official policy documents at Cal Poly is thus a mere formality. The memo states and briefly explains the nature of the change, its basis in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, the nature of the consultation with faculty on the change, and the timeline for implementation (Winter 2013).

STATEMENT OF NEW POLICY:

Student evaluations are required for all classes taught by each faculty unit employee except for the following:

- Courses with low enrollment (fewer than five students) such as individual senior projects and independent study.
- Capstone senior project classes will be evaluated if there are more than 5 students enrolled.
- Student evaluations will not be administered for individually supervised senior projects.
- Cooperative Education courses that do not include direct instruction shall not be evaluated using the student evaluation process. Academic departments or the Career Services Office may use a survey to evaluate the students’ co-op experience, but this is not part of the student evaluation process.
- Team-taught classes: In situations when classes are team-taught, the instructor of record shall conduct student evaluations. If there is more than one instructor of record, then copies of the evaluation results shall be placed in each of the instructor’s personnel files with a memo indicating that the course was team-taught. Any faculty member team teaching the course will have the opportunity to write a narrative description to accompany the student evaluation results for the team-taught course if he/she desires to add context to the results. A faculty member who team-teaches a course and believes that the results are not representative of his/her contributions to the course, may request that the dean not include the results associated with this team-taught course in his/her PAF. After reviewing this request, the dean has the discretion to determine if the student evaluation results of the team-taught course shall be placed in the instructor’s file.

Student Evaluations
a. A summary of results from student evaluations for all courses taught during the period under review shall be included. The only exceptions to this requirement are classes with fewer than 5 students enrolled (such as individual senior project and independent study courses), and Cooperative Education courses that do not include direct instruction.

Subject: New Student Evaluation Requirement Effective Winter Quarter 2013

Provision 15.15 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement states that student evaluations shall be required for all classes taught by each faculty unit employee, unless the President has approved a requirement to evaluate fewer classes after considerations of the recommendations of appropriate faculty committee(s). The new requirement for faculty to evaluate all classes taught will take effect Winter Quarter 2013, as communicated in the memo dated 10/19/12 from Al Liddicoat, AVP Academic Personnel (available at http://www.academic-personnel.calpoly.edu/content/policies/procedures).

After consulting with the Academic Senate Instructional Committee and the Faculty Affairs Committee, President Armstrong and I have reviewed and endorse the following exceptions for conducting student evaluations in low enrollment courses (individual senior project, independent study), capstone, and cooperative education courses:

1. Courses with low enrollment (less than five students) shall not be evaluated. Typical of these courses would be:
   - Individual senior projects
   - Independent study

2. Cooperative Education courses that do not include direct instruction shall not be evaluated using the student evaluation process. Academic Departments or the Career Services Office may use a survey to evaluate the students' co-op experience, but this is not part of the student evaluation process.

3. Capstone senior project courses, which usually have larger enrollment, shall be evaluated if there are more than 5 students enrolled.

4. Team-taught classes: In situations when classes are team-taught, the instructor of record shall conduct student evaluations. If there is more than one instructor of record, then copies of the evaluation results shall be placed in each of the instructor's personnel files with a memo indicating that the course was team-taught. Any faculty member teaching the course will have the opportunity to write a narrative description to accompany the student evaluation results for the team-taught course if they desire to add context to the results. A faculty member who team-teaches a course and believes that the results are not representative of their contributions to the course, may request that the dean not include the results associated with this team-taught course in his/her PAF. After reviewing this request, the dean has the discretion to determine if the student evaluation results of the team-taught course should be placed in the instructor's file.

As a reminder, all student evaluations are to be conducted utilizing the questions and format that have been vetted and approved by your college. All other requirements and processes outlined in the Guidelines for Student Evaluation of Faculty (available at http://www.academic-personnel.calpoly.edu/content/policies/procedures) remain applicable.

Procedures for Online Student Evaluation of Instruction

SAMPLE OF RESOLUTION:

ACADEMIC SENATE
Of
CALIFORNIA POLYTECHNIC STATE UNIVERSITY
San Luis Obispo, CA

AS-XXX-16

RESOLUTION ON PROCEDURES FOR ONLINE STUDENT EVALUATION OF INSTRUCTION

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate adopt the attached “Procedures for Conducting Student Evaluation of Instruction” as the official procedure for online student evaluation of instruction starting Fall 2016; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this procedure shall be included in university personnel policy documents that cover student evaluation of instruction; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate require FAC to report to Academic Senate no later than Fall 2017 on response rate data for student evaluation participation in academic year 2016-2017 for advisement on further changes to these procedures.

Proposed by: Faculty Affairs Committee

Date: XXX
SAMPLE OF REPORT:

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CHANGE IN POLICY:

This proposed change of the faculty policy establishes a university level procedure for conducting the student evaluations of instruction as mandated by the Collective Bargaining Agreement (articles 15.15-18). Currently colleges had established their own procedures for running their various paper or online student evaluations of instruction. The attached background report explains the need for the Senate to establish university level procedures along with the campus-wide rollout of the online system for student evaluation of instruction. The background report also explains the nature of consultation with faculty over the formulation of the proposed procedure and the rationale for implementing the change effective Fall 2016. The background report concludes by explaining the requirements for assessing these procedures included in the resolution.

STATEMENT OF NEW POLICY:

Procedures for Conducting Student Evaluation of Instruction

1) Evaluations for courses occur during the last week of instruction.
   a) The last week of instruction and final exam week are defined by the official academic calendar.
   b) For courses whose official final assessment is during the last week of instruction according to the academic calendar (e.g. labs or activities with their own final exam or assessment), their evaluation period may be the penultimate week of instruction according to the academic calendar.
      i) Requesting the earlier timeline for the evaluation of courses with early final assessments should occur by means of standard procedures of scheduling evaluations as determined by the office of Academic Personnel and communicated to the relevant college and/or program department staff.

2) The evaluation period opens the Sunday immediately prior to the last week of instruction and closes at the end of the last day of the last week of instruction.
   a) Students will be allowed to complete their evaluations during this period.
   b) This period may be adjusted on an ad hoc basis to accommodate for academic holidays.

3) Students shall receive notifications by email on the day the evaluation period opens, and at appropriate intervals until the evaluation period closes.
   a) The initial email explains the evaluation procedure, includes links to all the classes which the student may evaluate, and indicates that the evaluation period has opened.
   b) Subsequent emails follow at appropriate intervals until the student has formally submitted evaluations for all classes with scheduled evaluations.
      i) What would count as appropriate intervals should balance any positive effect reminders have on response counts and the potential negative effect of badgering students with emails they may come to ignore.
   c) For students who still have remaining evaluations to complete, a final email notification would occur on the day the evaluation period closes.
   d) Other modes of notification (e.g. notifications within the portal) may be implemented as they become feasible.

4) Faculty shall receive by email a response rate report for their evaluated courses partway through the evaluation period.
   a) Faculty are encouraged to announce to their classes that the evaluation period is underway.
   b) Faculty are encouraged to address questions from students about the nature of the evaluation process clarifying the role of student evaluations in processes of faculty review.

c) Faculty may at their discretion reserve time in class for students to complete the evaluation on the student's own computer, phone or tablet.
   i) Faculty shall comply with any college level procedures about how to implement student evaluations in their classrooms.
   ii) Whenever practical realities require faculty to remain in the classroom (e.g. lab safety requirements), completion of the evaluation outside of class time is preferable.

SUPERSEDES THE FOLLOWING POLICIES:

All college or program level procedures for conducting student evaluation of instruction.

Background About the Pilot of Online Student Evaluation of Instruction

The 2015-2016 pilot of the online student evaluation of instruction included programs from each college at Cal Poly. The faculty in the programs that volunteered to participate in the pilot agreed to uniform evaluation procedures that would comprise an approximation of existing practices across colleges. The acknowledged compromises in this uniform procedure included the following:

- Insensitivity to the practice of conducting lab/activity evaluations prior to their final assessment occurring during the last official week of instruction.
- Commencing with the evaluation period earlier in the quarter than many faculty would prefer the evaluation to occur.

The participating faculty judged the efficiencies of uniformity to be worth these compromises.
Now that the pilot is over and full university implementation is on hand we have an occasion to revisit these procedures.

During and after the pilot the software for the online system has been updated and our ability to configure the software used to implement the evaluations has increased. We now have the ability to implement different timelines for opening and closing the evaluation periods for broad categories of courses (viz. allowing programs to select lab/activity courses as meriting an earlier evaluation timeline than courses whose evaluation occurs in final exam week). We can now resolve the compromises of the procedure used during the pilot. To implement such a change right at the start of the university wide rollout of the online system requires prompt action by the Academic Senate. That is the function of this resolution. The procedure proposed by this resolution adequately resolves the compromises of the procedure used in the pilot. In the absence of immediate Senate action to adopt a new procedure, the procedure used during that pilot would continue to be implemented in the Fall 2016 university wide rollout of the online system.

The provisions of the proposed procedure were shaped by broad consultation with faculty, deans, associate deans, and program and college staff. In late Spring and throughout Summer 2016 Ken Brown (Faculty Affairs Committee chair) met with the college councils of CLA, CSM, CENG, CAED, and CAFES, with an associate dean of OCOB, and with chairs and staff from every program in CLA and several in CSM and CENG (with a few more meetings forthcoming). The key staff from the Office of Academic Personnel (most notably, Jen Myers) attended nearly all of these meetings to clarify the procedural matters and keep staff apprised of details about their crucial role in this project. These meetings offered chairs and heads from each program to provide their feedback on the implementation of the online system, both its apparent benefits and shortcomings as it was implemented in the pilot. Ken Brown also led a session at the Academic Senate Fall Conference Retreat presenting information about the pilot of the online program, describing the procedures used during the pilot, and offering alternative procedures, and soliciting feedback on ideas for alternative procedures. The procedure proposed in this resolution was shaped by all this feedback. The proposed procedure was then supported unanimously by the attending members of the Faculty Affairs Committee at their meeting on 9/30/2016.

As we move forward with this online system, we should take note that the percentage of students completing the evaluations is markedly lower with the online system than with the paper system. A drop in response rates has been reported by other CSU campuses that have moved to online systems, and so this drop is not unexpected. Many faculty have responded to these lower response rates with significant concern. This resolution requires FAC to report back to the Senate by Fall 2017 with an assessment of data about the implementation of the online system in 2016-2017. Adopting a procedure for implementing the online system for Fall and continuing using it through the academic year would allow for a better basis of assessing response rates given that the paper system experienced significant quarterly fluctuations in response rates.

Prior Procedure for Conducting Student Evaluation of Instruction Used During the 2015-2016 Pilot of the Online Student Evaluation System

The following is an account of the procedure used during the 2015-2016 pilot of the online system. It is here formatted to correlate with the proposed policy attached to RESOLUTION ON PROCEDURES FOR ONLINE STUDENT EVALUATION OF INSTRUCTION for purposes of easy comparison. Were that resolution not passed, this procedure from the pilot would continue as an interim procedure indefinitely until some official statement of procedure supersedes it.

1) Evaluations for courses occur during the last two weeks of instruction, as determined by the academic calendar.
2) The evaluation period opens the Sunday immediately prior to the penultimate week of instruction and closes at the end of the last day of the last week of instruction.
   a) Students will be allowed to complete their evaluations during this period.
   b) This period would be adjusted on an ad hoc basis to accommodate for academic holidays.
3) Students shall receive notifications by email on the day the evaluation period opens, and at appropriate intervals until the evaluation period closes.
   a) The initial email explains the evaluation procedure, includes links to all the classes which the student may evaluate, and indicates that the evaluation period has opened.
b) Subsequent emails follow at appropriate intervals until the student has formally submitted evaluations for all classes with scheduled evaluations.
   i) What would count as appropriate intervals should balance any positive effect reminders have on response counts and the potential negative effect of badgering students with emails they may come to ignore.

   c) For students who still have remaining evaluations to complete, a final email notification would occur on the day the evaluation period closes.

   d) Other modes of notification (e.g. notifications within the portal) may be implemented as they become feasible.

4) Faculty shall receive by email a response rate report for their evaluated courses partway through the evaluation period.
   a) Faculty are encouraged to announce to their classes that the evaluation period is underway.

   b) Faculty are encouraged to address questions from students about the nature of the evaluation process clarifying the role of student evaluations in processes of faculty review.

   c) Faculty may at their discretion reserve time in class for students to complete the evaluation on the student's own computer, phone or tablet.

   i) Faculty shall comply with any college level procedures about how to implement student evaluations in their classrooms.

   ii) Whenever practical realities require faculty to remain in the classroom (e.g. lab safety requirements), completion of the evaluation outside of class time is preferable.

d. Following discussion in the Academic Senate Executive Committee or in the Academic Senate, the Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee chair (or designee) will make the decision to return the items to committee for further development or propose to the Senate Chair that the items be treated as normal Senate business items at the stage of a first reading.

6. Items not removed from the consent agenda are considered approved on the meeting date of the consent agenda.
WHEREAS, Cal Poly will be implementing Electronic Working Personnel Action Files (WPAF) and workflow in faculty evaluation processes, as are allowed by the collective bargaining agreement (CBA 15.8); and

WHEREAS, Electronic WPAF and workflow can conform with current official policies and procedures in place across the university (concerning, for instance, the structure and contents of Working Personnel Action Files, committee access to documents, levels of review, timeline of stages of review, etc.); and

WHEREAS, Electronic WPAF and workflow processes can ease the labor involved in producing and reviewing personnel documents for faculty evaluation; and

WHEREAS, Electronic WPAF and workflow processes can adapt to foreseeable adjustments of any such faculty personnel policies and procedures; and

WHEREAS, Electronic WPAF and workflow processes may warrant improvements to faculty personnel policies and procedures; and

WHEREAS, The Academic Senate has determined in AS-752-12 that "the Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee serve as a resource for best RPT practices;" therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate affirm that Cal Poly should implement Electronic (WPAF) and workflow in faculty evaluation processes, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) shall incorporate Electronic WPAF and workflow into university faculty personnel policies and procedures, and be it further

RESOLVED: That FAC assist the Office of Academic Personnel concerning the policy and procedural aspects of adapting to Electronic WPAF and workflow, including the timeline for implementation, and be it further
RESOLVED: That any changes to faculty evaluation procedures arising from the transition to Electronic WPAF and workflow in faculty evaluation shall be communicated to faculty in a timely fashion consistent with the CBA\textsuperscript{iii} and existing university policies for communicating such changes to faculty.\textsuperscript{iv}

Proposed by: Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee
Date: March 8, 2017
Revised: April 4, 2017

\textsuperscript{1} CBA 15.1 defines “faculty evaluation” as “either a Periodic Evaluation or a Performance Review, and thus this term covers all personnel reviews of faculty, including RPT for tenure-stream faculty, all lecturer reviews, post-tenure reviews, reviews of librarians, coaches, counselors, etc.

\textsuperscript{2} CBA 15.8 states “The contents of the Working Personnel Action File may be compiled and reviewed in electronic format, pursuant to campus policy.”

\textsuperscript{3} CBA 15.3 states “Evaluation criteria and procedures shall be made available to the faculty unit employee no later than 14 days after the first day of instruction of the academic term. Evaluation criteria and procedures shall be made available to the evaluation committee and the academic administrators prior to the commencement of the evaluation process. Once the evaluation process has begun, there shall be no changes in criteria and procedures used to evaluate the faculty unit employee during the evaluation process.”

\textsuperscript{iv} AS-752-12 Resolution on Retention, Promotion, and Tenure focuses on criteria for RPT, and not on the medium for review documents from candidates (i.e. WPAF) or reviewing bodies (e.g. AP-109 forms). Nevertheless, the change to electronic document workflow is significant for all involved and warrants timely communication to faculty and the relevant staff so they may prepare for the transition and understand the workings of the new system.

WHEREAS, No response concerning AS-603-03/IC,CC,GEC was received from the President’s Office; and

WHEREAS, Resolution AS-603-03/IC,CC,GEC has not been implemented for reasons unknown; and

WHEREAS, The above situation was not discovered until Winter Quarter 2016, by which time some of its provisions had become anachronistic; and

WHEREAS, After a delay of thirteen years it is appropriate to consult the current Academic Senate to know its will on the matter; therefore be it

WHEREAS, This resolution pertains to courses that are normally graded, not to CR/NC-only courses; and
WHEREAS, This resolution refers to undergraduate students only, not to graduate students; and
WHEREAS, Students in good standing (not on academic probation) should have the option of taking a limited number of courses CR/NC; and
WHEREAS, The ability to take courses CR/NC can broaden a student's academic experience, which should be encouraged; and
WHEREAS, POWER and CAPTURE currently prompt students to select normal grading or the CR/NC option for each course they enroll in during registration; and
WHEREAS, The current policy, as approved by the Academic Senate in 1997, cannot be fully implemented; therefore, be it RESOLVED: That undergraduate students be permitted to take up to 12 units of courses CR/NC in accord with the following specifications:

- CR requires the student earn a C or higher; and
- The catalog and class schedule provide advice to students to consult with their advisor when considering taking a major course CR/NC; and
- The method by which students elect the CR/NC option be removed from students’ course selection via POWER and CAPTURE and a designated link be added to POWER to serve as the sole vehicle for electing the CR/NC option after initial registration.
WHEREAS, This resolution pertains to courses that are normally graded, not to CR/NC-only courses; and

WHEREAS, This resolution refers to undergraduate students only, not to graduate students; and

WHEREAS, The number of courses a student may elect to take CR/NC should be kept to a minimum; and

WHEREAS, Students should have the option of taking a limited number of courses CR/NC; and

WHEREAS, Some balance must be found between limiting the number of courses that may be taken CR/NC and allowing students to enroll in a small number of such courses for the reasons outlined above; and

WHEREAS, Some departments (or equivalent unit) may approve of their majors taking a major or support course CR/NC, or a GEB course CR/NC, while some departments would not approve, and individual departments should properly have the right, and be allowed to retain the flexibility, to make this decision; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That students be permitted to take a maximum of 16 units of courses CR/NC in accord with the following specifications:

* no more than 4 units CR/NC in major or support courses, subject to approval by the student's major department or equivalent unit; and

* no more than 4 units CR/NC in GEB courses.

Rationale: The number of courses a student may elect to take CR/NC should be kept to a minimum, for reasons that include the following: It is generally recognized, as evidenced in testimony from recipients of Cal Poly's Distinguished Teaching Award (e.g., memo from Dr. Snetsinger dated 10 Nov. 1996), that students who enroll in a course CR/NC often do not take such courses as seriously as their graded courses, working toward a lower standard and consequently learning less in CR/NC courses; as Drs. Greenwald and Hampsey have stated, "Those involved in teaching GEB courses have complained that the students who take GEB classes CR/NC are often working for a C-. The data from Tom Zuur supports this contention. There were 40 percent more A's and B's among all students than among CR/NC..."

students. There were 40 percent fewer D's and F's among all students than among [CR/NC] students. The result is a pronounced downward shift of grades among CR/NC classes" (memo dated 10 Oct. 1996);

Senate Resolution AS-464-96 abolishing the option of taking GEB classes CR/NC was passed in a near-unanimous vote by the Academic Senate in Spring 1996 and approved by President Baker in Fall 1996;

Students at Cal Poly cannot elect to take major or support courses CR/NC because these courses are considered vital to their education, and GEB courses cannot be taken CR/NC because they are considered equally vital to students' education; as President Baker has stated, this resolution "particularly underscores the status of GEB as a partner with the major programs at the University" (memo dated 9 Dec. 1996); as Dr. Zingg has stated, General Education should not be seen as a "second class citizen" in the curriculum (ASI Board of Directors minutes dated 6 Nov. 1996); as Drs. Greenwald and Hampsey have stated, "The implied message that GEB classes are somehow less important is one that teachers of GEB classes find objectionable. If we want to consider Cal Poly a premier institution, then GEB must be taken seriously" (memo dated 10 Oct. 1996);

Prospective employers have been known to disapprove of CR/NC courses on transcripts, which may adversely affect students' ability to obtain jobs;

Graduate school admissions boards have been known to disapprove of CR/NC courses on transcripts, with some graduate schools refusing to accept CR/NC courses for credit, and other schools automatically converting CR's to C's or F's.

Students should have the option of taking a limited number of courses CR/NC, for reasons that include the following: Students may explore unfamiliar areas of the curriculum or enroll in challenging courses without undue risk to their grade point average; President Baker has encouraged the Senate "to protect both the exploratory purpose of Cr/NC grading and the principle of curricular choice through free electives" (memo dated 25 Sept. 1996);

Students may take a higher course load during certain quarters in order to move more quickly toward graduation;

Transfer students who have taken some courses CR/NC elsewhere may have an easier time making the transition to Cal Poly and thus move more quickly toward graduation.

E. RETIRING RESOLUTIONS

When an Academic Senate resolution is suspected of being out of date or no longer pertinent, at the Chair's discretion the resolution may be submitted for review as to its current relevance by the Academic Senate committee that originally sponsored it or by an ad hoc committee. The committee's opinion regarding the resolution shall be forwarded to the Academic Senate Executive Committee.
