

March 3, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Carole Moore, Career Services
805-756-6526; cmoore@calpoly.edu

Cal Poly Career Services to Host Resume and Job Search Workshop for the San Luis Obispo Community on March 20

SAN LUIS OBISPO - Cal Poly's Career Services office will host a free resume and job search workshop Friday, March 20, for San Luis Obispo area residents.

The event, set to run 9 to 11 a.m. at Career Services in Building 124, is aimed at local residents affected by recent business closures and/or the downturn in the economy.

Participants will receive individual assistance on a first come, first served basis. Parking permits, coffee and pastries will be provided.

For more information on the event, contact Career Services counselor Carol Moore at cmoore@calpoly.edu.

Career Services is a department in Cal Poly's Student Affairs Division that assists students in exploring, formulating and implementing career plans. Career Services also promotes and supports effective relations between the Cal Poly and employers, hosting quarterly job fairs, serving as many as 180 companies and 550 recruiters a day and providing employers with access to Cal Poly students and graduates.

For more information, log on to www.careerservices.calpoly.edu or call Career Services at 805-756-2501.

###

•