FERP application deadline March 16

Faculty interested in applying for the Faculty Early Retirement Program (FERP) commencing with the 1987-88 academic year are reminded that applications should be filed by March 16. Applications are available in the Personnel Office.

The current collective bargaining contract allows tenured faculty who have reached the age of 55 to participate in FERP for 8 years or until age 70, whichever occurs first, at their current salary (including those on the Designated Market Discipline Salary Schedule).

Although provisions in the contract between CSU and CFA for faculty entering the FERP program in 1988-89 have not been completely finalized and ratified, it is probable that new participants will be entitled to a reduced period of employment (5 years for those age 55 through 62 when participation begins; 4 years for those age 63 through 65; and 3 years for those above 65), and faculty members receiving the Designated Market Condition Salaries will not be eligible to begin participation in FERP in 1988-89 and thereafter.

Questions regarding FERP should be directed to Mike Suess or Barbara Melvin in the Personnel Office, ext. 2844 or 2236.

Sexual harassment advisors appointed

Twenty employees have been appointed Cal Poly sexual harassment advisors by their respective program managers. They have the responsibility to discuss a complaint of sexual harassment with the complainant; inform the complainant of campus policy, procedures and resources; and, at the complainant's request, assist the complainant in seeking resolution.

Cal Poly's interim Sexual Harassment Policy provides for written formal complaints to be filed with the following Sexual Harassment Coordinators: Employees should file complaints with Jan Pieper, director of personnel; students should file complaints with Carl Wallace, associate dean of students.

The following people have been appointed campus Sexual Harassment Advisors:

Bonnie Brady (Academic Affairs); Smiley Wilkins (Affirmative Action); Jan Gould (Audiovisual); Carol Clifford (Business Affairs); Elie Axelroth and Lois Dirkes (Counseling and Testing Services); Kathy Lamoree (Facilities Administration); Lynda Alamo (Information Systems); Jean Gordon (Library); Mike Suess (Personnel and Employee Relations); Cheri Burns (School of Agriculture); Kim McGrew (School of Architecture and Environmental Design); Bev Hensel (School of Business); Joan Diaz (School of Engineering); Diane Michelfelder (School of Liberal Arts); Mary Stallard (School of Professional Studies and Education); Roxy Peck (School of Science and Mathematics); Barbara Andre (Student Affairs); Joan Cirone (Student Health Services); and Cathy Rathbone (University Relations).

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report will not be published during the break between Winter and Spring Quarters. An issue will be published on Thursday, March 19, and the following issue will be Thursday, April 2. The deadline for the April 2 issue will be Thursday, March 26.

First candidate for Academic VP post scheduled

George Gowgani, chairman of the Consultative Committee for Vice President for Academic Affairs and Senior Vice President, has announced a schedule for the first candidate invited for an on-campus interview. Of more than 225 candidates, the committee intends to conduct approximately seven on-campus interviews.

Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to attend informal receptions to meet and ask questions of each candidate. The schedule next week is:

Wednesday, March 18, 3:30-4:30 pm (UU 220) — Dr. Malcolm Wilson, Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs, Cal Poly

The interviews will continue in April, and will be announced in the Cal Poly Report.

Gillham interim head

Professor John F. Gillham will be interim head of the Landscape Architecture Department for Spring Quarter, March 30-June 13.

Dean Day Ding of the School of Architecture and Environmental Design appointed Gillham to lead the department while Department Head Gerald L. Smith is on sabbatical leave.

Gillham joined the landscape faculty in 1975. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in his field from the University of Oregon.

Jazz band set for free concert tonight

Disneyland's own "Side Street Strutter" will bring the sights and sounds of a Southern Mardi Gras to Cal Poly tonight (March 12). The show will begin at 8 pm in Chumash Auditorium.

The Dixieland-style jazz band gained notoriety in its four years as an ensemble because of a unique combination of contemporary style with last century's Dixieland hits. The band also makes audience participation a major ingredient of every performance.

The band has already performed in Britain and has received other international invitations including one from the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland.

The free event is being sponsored by the ASI Special Events Committee.

One-man show on Tennessee Williams

The Center for the Arts will present "Ray Stricklyn as Tennessee Williams in Confessions of a Nightingale" at 8 pm on Saturday, March 14, in the Cal Poly Theatre.

This one-man show was written by Stricklyn and Charlotte Chandler. It is based on Chandler's book "The Ultimate Seduction."

In 1986 Stricklyn received the L.A. Drama Critics Circle Award for Distinguished Achievement in Theatre Lead Performances for his performance in "Nightingale."

The performance at Cal Poly will be the first event in a new series presented by the Center for the Arts. Titled Center Stage, the series is designed to bring high calibre dance, drama, and theater to San Luis Obispo. It will feature professional performers and companies.

Prices for public tickets to the program are $12 for preferred and $10 for premium seating. Student prices are $8 for preferred and $5 for premium seating.

Tickets can be purchased at the Theatre Ticket Office between 10 am and 4 pm on weekdays. Reservations paid by Visa and MasterCard can be made by calling ext. 1421.

Academic Senate seeks candidates

During the week of March 30-April 3 the Academic Senate office is accepting nominations for Senate vacancies to be voted upon during Spring Quarter. Nominations must include a signed statement of intent to serve.

Each school and Professional Consultative Services need to elect senators to fill vacant positions for two-year terms.

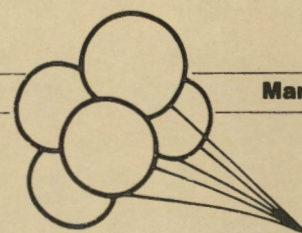

In addition to the election of senators, the schools of Agriculture, Engineering, and Business will need to elect representatives to serve two-year terms on the University Professional Leave Committee.

The campus also needs to elect one representative to the statewide Academic Senate for a three-year term. The procedures and timetable for election of the CSU Academic Senate member will be the same as that for the Senate. However, the nomination shall be by petition of not less than 10 members of the faculty and must include a consent to serve statement signed by the nominee.

Nomination forms can be obtained by calling Academic Senate, ext. 1258. Nominations are due in the Academic Senate office, FOB 25H, by Friday, April 3, at 5 pm.

James Mapes, 69

James Mapes was killed last week in a traffic accident on U.S. 101 in Templeton. The Atascadero resident served as a campus peace office from August 1961 through April 1977.

'Pride of the Union' celebration today

Faculty and staff are invited to a celebration in the UU during Pride of the Union Week.

Today (March 12), at 11 am Julian's, the new ice cream/pastry parlor, will be offering free coffee; the Side Street Strutters, Disneyland's Dixieland-style-jazz band, will be performing in Chumash auditorium; and a special 4' by 6' cake will be served.

There will also be special prize drawings in each area — the Escape Route, Craft Center, Travel Center, Second Edition, etc.

User Support Group announces 'Computers at Noon'

"Computers at Noon," a new seminar/discussion series, has been announced by the User Support Group of Computer Services. Beginning Spring Quarter, it will feature computer topics of interest to the campus community.

Noting the spread of computers throughout the campus, this program will provide an opportunity to share expert knowledge, demonstrate available technology, and feature new developments in the field.

Other objectives include:

- ✓Sharing the experience and expertise of faculty/staff who are developing and/or implementing computer applications for instructional/administrative purposes;
- ✓Communicating campus developments in computing to a wide audience;
- ✓Providing a forum for the demonstration and discussion of new computer technology;
- ✓Promoting the visibility and accessibility of User Support Group staff and services; and
- ✓Encouraging informal networking for ongoing communication.

The first speaker in the series is Dr. Arthur Gloster, vice president for Information Systems. His April 7 presentation is titled "A Philosophy for Campus Computing," and is scheduled for noon in the Faculty/Staff Dining Room.

Other speakers scheduled for Spring Quarter include:

- ★Antonio G. Barata, Music, April 21, "Music Making with MIDI, the Musical Instrument Digital Interface;"
- ★Robert Ward, Biological Sciences, and Robin Grinnell, Ag Engineering, May 5, "Microcomputer User Group: How, When, What, Where, Who?;"
- ★Robert Blodget, Psychology and Human Development, May 19, "Educational Uses of Laser Disc Technology;" and

★Debbie Marple, Budget Planning and Administration, June 2, "Using PC's for Departmental Budgeting."

All programs in the "Computers at Noon" series are scheduled for Tuesdays at noon in the Faculty/Staff Dining Room.
