

Everette Dorrough retires; dinner, coffee are planned

Everette Dorrough, long-time food service employee of the Cal Poly Foundation, recently announced his retirement effective Aug. 28.

Dorrough was originally hired as a cook in the North Cafeteria, which was located on the current site of the Robert E. Kennedy Library, in September 1953. On Oct. 17, 1953, he accepted a position as fountain manager with El Corral, which was then operated by the ASI.

Dorrough next served as the snack bar manager for the Foundation beginning July 1, 1961, in the current Food Service central facility. During the next few years, he was assigned responsibility for managing other food service operations including food production, catering, vending, and Vista Grande. He was appointed to the position of Food Service Director on May 20, 1975.

Al Amaral has announced that a nationwide search will soon be undertaken to recruit a new Food Service director. In the interim, Alan Cushman, associate to the director of food service, will be responsible for overseeing the Food Service Department.

A retirement coffee will be held for Dorrough from 3 to 5 pm on Thursday, Oct. 1, in the Faculty/Staff Dining Room.

In addition, a dinner is planned on Saturday, Oct. 10, at the San Luis Obispo Elks Club. The dinner features a Santa Maria style barbecue prepared by F.E. McClintock's and will cost $11.25 per person. There will be a no host reception beginning at 6:30 pm with dinner at 7:15 pm. Tickets are available at the Food Service Director's Office or Foundation

Administrative Trailer, 15T-2 Truckee Road. Please make checks out to Cal Poly Foundation. Tickets are available until Oct. 7. Donations toward purchase of a gift are also welcome.

Alice Foy to retire

Alice Foy of the Foundation Business Office is retiring. A coffee reception will be held in her honor on Tuesday, Sept. 29, from 2 to 4 pm in the Faculty/Staff Dining Room.

Judge Fredman will lead off Arts Series

"Freedom and the Constitution" will be the theme for the 1987-88 Cal Poly Arts and Humanities Series.

This will be the 17th year that the program will be sponsored by the School of Liberal Arts.

The keynote speaker for the 1987-88 series will be Superior Court Judge William R. Fredman. He will examine "The Constitution, Alive and Well After 200 Years" on Thursday, Oct. 1. All talks will be at 11 am in UU 220.

Other speakers for the fall include: Dr. David Danelski, vice president for academic affairs at Occidental College, "Jefferson and the Constitution" on Oct. 15; Dr. Laurence Houlgate, Philosophy Dept., "The Constitution, Equal Opportunity, and the Family" on Oct. 29; William Cleveland, program administrator, Art in Corrections Program, California Department of Corrections, "For a Moment I Forgot Where I Was: Art and the Transcendence of Prison Wall on Nov. 5; and Poet Robert Bly on Dec. 5.

Center for the Arts names new director

Ron S. Regier, executive director of the The Commons in Columbus, Ind., has been appointed director of the Cal Poly Center for the Arts. The announcement was made by Dr. Jon Ericson, dean of the university's School of Liberal Arts.

Regier will take up his new duties on Oct. 5. He succeeds Stephen Krauss, who resigned last month.

The Columbus, Ind., resident has been executive director of The Commons, a community cultural and activities center, since June 1982. The Commons is a year-round, multi-use center professionally staffed not only to respond to the many community organizations that use it as a program space, but also to provide a broad offering of other cultural events within the three visual arts exhibit spaces and the two theaters.

Regier earned an undergraduate degree in speech and theatre from the University of Puget Sound; a master's degree in theatre design and technology from Michigan State University; and a master's degree in business administration with an arts emphasis from the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

In addition to his five years of management and arts programming at The Commons, he was executive director of the Madison Theatre Guild board of directors; designer/instructor in the Duke University drama program; and has held short residencies in other theater programs. His wife, Doreen Wetzel, is a commercial interior designer.

Openings remain in computer courses

Course registration forms are still being accepted by Information Systems for the faculty/staff computer short courses offered for Fall Quarter. All mini/mainframe courses have openings.

In the microcomputer area, DOS IV and V; the Wordperfect series beginning Oct. 16; dBASE III +; Spreadsheet; and communications courses have a few unfilled spaces.

In addition, the MAC series beginning Oct. 28; the Microsoft Word series beginning Nov. 9; and the Mac Publishing series beginning Oct. 19 all have openings.

To register for fall training courses, pick up a copy of the Fall '87 Computer Training Package from the accounts clerk in 12-102F or call ext. 1368 to request a copy by mail. The package includes the course catalog, courses schedules, general information about the training program, and a "by mail" registration form.

Wilson to address university club Oct. 1

Dr. Malcolm W. Wilson, vice president for academic affairs, will address the University Club at the group's initial fall gathering. The program will commence at noon on Thursday, Oct. 1, in the Faculty/Staff Dining Room.

Wilson will speak about "Cal Poly — Today and Tomorrow." Because this is the inaugural for the Fall 1987 series, all faculty and staff are invited to attend and enjoy free pie, ice cream, and coffee.

Dues for the 1987-88 year are $3 for new members and $5 for continuing members.

Other programs scheduled for the Fall Quarter include:

Football Coach Lyle Setencich will discuss his views on "Building a Football Program at a Public Institution" (Oct. 8)

Larry Rathbun, associate dean, School of Agriculture, will discuss "The Joint Cal Poly/Costa Rica Project to Establish a University in Costa Rican Interior." (Oct. 15);

Raymond Berrett, investigator, Public Safety, will give a demonstration and show a video on "Personal Safety and Personal Protection." (Oct. 22);

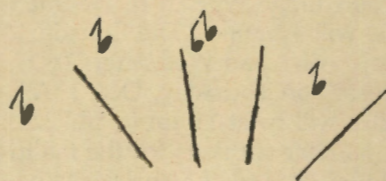

Charles F. Brown of Santa Maria will give a presentation on "Numerology - Facts and Fiction." (Oct. 29);

Randall L. Murray, professor of Journalism will give his "View of the News Media in China." (Nov. 5);

Tom Rochte, area manager, the California Conservation Corps, will give "A Historical Perspective of the Civilian Conservation Corps and a Modern View of the California Conservation Corps." (Nov. 12);

Calvin Wilvert, professor, Social Sciences, will show slides and discuss "Flood Protection and Land Reclamation in Britain and The Netherlands." (Nov. 19); and

The Cal Poly Madrigal Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Thomas Davies will present a Holiday music program. (Dec. 3).

R&B night planned

The Black Professional Women's Organization will sponsor an R&B Night at the Bassi House/Diablo Den in Avila Beach on Friday (Sept. 25) from 9 pm until 2 am. The R&B Concert Band, "Release," will be performing for this scholarship fundraiser. Admission will be $4 at the door. For more information call 543-5055 or 461-9243.

Statistics Dept. will provide consulting service

The Statistics Department provides a statistical consulting service to the university to facilitate research design and data analysis in a wide variety of disciplines. This service will continue during Fall Quarter.

Dr. Roxy Peck will be serving as the main consultant. She is available to help in design and analysis of faculty and student research projects. In addition, she will be available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages currently available at Cal Poly. If there is some special area concerning statistical inference that is of interest to a group in your department, feel free to contact her to arrange possible lectures on that subject.

Faculty members or students interested in utilizing the consulting service are encouraged to contact Peck, Computer Science Bldg., Room 210, ext. 2971 or leave message at ext. 2709.

Walk-in Consulting Hours:

Monday and Wednesday 1-3 pm*

Appointments may be scheduled by calling during walk-in consulting hours or during office hours for students.

Office Hour for Students

Monday and Wednesday 3-4 pm

Tuesday and Thursday 1-2 pm

*Consulting not available Oct. 16 - Nov. 6.

Committee planned

A committee is being formed as a part of the Women's Coalition to educate and sensitize Cal Poly and the San Luis Obispo community to issues related to the role of women in the workforce. If you are interested or know of anyone who would like to be a part of this committee, the first meeting will be held today (Sept. 24) at 1 pm in UU 219.

Auditions planned by Orchesis Dance. Co.

In preparation for their 18th annual dance concert, the Orchesis Dance Co. will be holding auditions for the winter dance production on Tuesday, Sept. 29, at 5:30 pm in the Crandall Dance Studio.

For further information and clarification, those wishing to audition should plan to attend the audition information and workout meetings scheduled for 5:30 pm today (Sept. 24), and 9 am on Saturday (Sept. 26) in the Crandall Dance Studio. Workout clothes are suggested for both meetings.

Dates for the annual Orchesis Dance concert are Jan. 28-30. Those selected to participate in the concert will be enrolled in Dance 345-01 (Choreography and Dance Production Preparation.) Technique and choreography classes, as well as rehearsals, will begin on Oct. 1.

Those who need further information about the auditions should call Moon Ja Minn Suhr at ext. 1169 or the Theatre and Dance Dept. secretary at ext. 1465.

Jessica Mitford will speak at Library Banquet on Oct. 2

Author and activist Jessica Mitford will be the guest speaker at the annual fall banquet of The Library Associates. The banquet will be held on Friday, Oct. 2, at the Park Suite Hotel in San Luis Obispo.

She will discuss "Censorship — The Moral Majority and Me." The 7:15 p.m. dinner will be preceded by a social hour beginning at 6:15.

The English-born writer was the daughter of a baron, and educated at home. It has been said that the Mitford family has made "one of the more stunning contributions to the lore of English upper-class eccentricity."

Although Mitford has never considered herself a crusader or reformer or even a rebel, she was dubbed "Queen of the Muckrakers" for her 1963 book on the funeral industry, "The American Way of Death."

Ten years later she took a look at the American penal system in "Kind and Usual Punishment." Other books have included "Life itself manship," "Daughters and Rebels" (autobiography); "The Trial of Dr. Spock;" "A Fine Old Conflict;" "Poison Penmanship: The Gentle Art of Muckraking;" and "Faces of Philip: A Memoir of Philip Toynbee."

Information about the Oct. 2 banquet is available by calling the university library at ext. 2305.

Dance program will aid scholarship fund

A dance concert which will benefit the Tomczak/Carter Dance Scholarship Fund will be presented at 8 pm on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3, in the Cal Poly Theatre.

The fund was established last year when Cal Poly dancers Dave Carter and Amy Tomczak took first place in the Nashville-based American Collegiate Talent Showcase. As part of their winnings the dancing duo was given $3,000 to help establish a dance scholarship at the university.

While Cal Poly only offers a minor in dance, it is hoped that providing dance scholarships will be the incentive to get qualified dancers to continue developing their skills while completing their studies in other majors.

Tickets for the benefit concerts are $7 for the public and $5 for students and are available at the Theatre Ticket Office.

Reservations can be made by calling the ticket office, ext. 1421, between 10 am and 4 pm on weekdays.

Fall Cinema Series scheduled to begin

The Cal Poly Center for the Arts has announced its Fall Cinema Series — "German New-Wave Cinema."

Eleven of the finest examples of the genre will be shown during the quarter in Chumash Auditorium or San Luis Lounge.

The center's film series was initiated last spring with a Shakespeare Film Series. This year's series continues the partnership between the center and the Fine Arts Committee and adds the support of the Films Committee. (Both committees are part of the university's ASI.)

Motion pictures in the fall series will include "Aguirre: The Wrath of God," and "Every Man for Himself and God Against All" directed by Werner Herzog; "American Friend" directed by Wim Wenders; and "Despair" and "Querelle," directed by Rainer Fassbinder.

A Japanese Cinema Series is planned for the Winter Quarter, and Frederico Fellini Cinema Series for the Spring Quarter. In all, 33 fine art films will be shown.

Admission will be by membership rather than by single ticket at each showing.

Interested students, faculty, staff, and community members may attend any or all of each quarter's films by purchasing a "full" or "limited" membership in the center's Fall Cinema Series.

A "full" membership is $15 for faculty, staff, and community members and $10 for students and senior citizens, and entitles the individual to attend all of the films during a given quarter.

A "limited" membership is available for $10 for faculty, staff, and community members and $7 for students and senior citizens, and entitles individuals to attend any five films during the quarter.

Memberships can be purchased at the Theatre Ticket Office between 10 am and 4 pm on weekdays, or by calling the Ticket Office, ext. 1421.

Dateline. . . .

($) - Admission Charged

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

Exhibit: "Monumental Images," Art Gallery, Dexter Building. Through Oct. 23.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

Volleyball: San Jose State, Main Gym, 7:30 pm. ($)

Soccer: Stanford, Mustang Stadium, 7 pm. ($)

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

Volleyball: UOP, Main Gym, 7:30 pm. ($)

Quintessence Series: Sakamoto Ensemble, 8 pm. ($)

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

Reception: For "When Is a Book More Than a Book?" exhibit. Reception: 3-5 pm. Show continues at UU Galerie through Oct. 10.

TUESDAY, SEPTMEBER 29

Computers at Noon: Art Chapman, Computer-Aided Productivity Center, "Video Digitized Images for Design Presentations," Faculty/Staff Dining Room, noon.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Volleyball: UCSB, Main Gym, 7:30 pm. ($)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

Humanities Lecture: Judge William Fredman, "The Constitution, Alive and Well After 28 years," UU 220, 11 am.

University Club: Malcolm Wilson, Academic Affairs, "Cal Poly — Today and Tomorrow," Faculty/Staff Dining Room, noon.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2

Dance: Program to benefit the Tomcszk/Carter Dance Scholarship Fund. Theatre, 8 pm. ($) Also Saturday.

Soccer: Sacramento State, Mustang Stadium, 7 pm. ($)

tion and equal employment opportunity. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply.

State

CLOSING DATE: 10-7-87

Clerical Assistant IIA, $1332-$1571/month, School of Business.

Clerical Assistant IIB, $1405-$1558/month, Procurement & Support Services, General Office.

Payroll Technician I, $1470-$1738/month, Payroll Services Office.

Candidates for positions on the faculty of the university are presently being sought, according to Jan Pieper, director of personnel and employee relations. Those interested in learning more about the positions are invited to contact the appropriate dean or department head. Salaries for faculty commensurate with qualifications and experience (and time base where applicable), unless otherwise stated. This university is subject to all laws governing Affirmative Action and equal employment opportunity including but not limited to Executive Order 11246 and Title IX of the Education Amendments Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: 11-20-87

Assistant Professors, English, School of Liberal Arts. Five positions to begin Fall Quarter, 1988, subject to final budget approval. Salary $27,593-$38,137/academic year, depending on qualifications and experience. Ph.D. in English required. Teaching experience desirable.

CLOSING DATE: 1-15-88 or until filled

Tenure Track Positon, Business Administration, School of Business. Professor/Associate/Assistant Professor position beginning Fall 1988. Teaching at the undergraduate and MBA level, plus research leading to publication in refereed journals. Teaching excellence expected. Ph.D. required for tenure track position; ABD near completion will be considered; established publication record required for advanced rank. Contact Kenneth Riener, Chair, Business Administration Department.

Library plans clinics for senior projects

The Reference Department of the Library will offer one-hour sessions to aid students in using the Library for senior projects and term papers. The sessions will begin the second week of classes in the Fall Quarter and will be held in Lib-202.

The students will be taught strategy and library sources to use to find journal articles, books, reports, reviews, proceedings, and government documents. Instruction for obtaining the above items in our library or other libraries through Interlibrary Loan will be covered. Library requirements for senior projects will be explained. Handouts will accompany the talks.

A special session on computer searching for journal articles, book, and other library materials will be presented after the series of regular sessions.

For further information about the sessions, contact Eileen Pritchard at ext. 2649.

L.A. shopping trip

The Enrollment Support Services Dept. is hosting a shopping trip to the Los Angeles Garment District. The trip is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 10.

The cost is $20.22. Individuals are on their own for lunch and dinner. Dinner stop at Marie Callender's in Ventura is planned. Payment for tickets must be received by Oct. 2. For further information and reservations please contact Princie Bowls at ext. 2311.

Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 110, 805-546-2236) — Foundation: mobile unit near the Fire Department (805-546-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative ac-

Surplus property sale

The next Surplus Property Sale is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 3. Any departments needing to survey equipment should contact the Property Office (ext. 2570) for survey forms. The deadline to survey for this sale is Friday, Oct. 9.