II. Communication(s) and Announcement(s): none.

III. Reports:
   A. Academic Senate Chair: Thomas Gutierrez, Academic Senate Chair, discussed that Academic Senate meetings will be virtual in the Winter of 2022.
   B. President’s Office: none.
   C. Provost: Cynthia Jackson-Elmoore, Provost, announced that Cal Poly SLO was awarded Participation and Initiative from Aspen Institute and American Association of State Colleges and Universities where we are partnering with Hancock College to improve transfer student success and equity. Quarter-to-Semester faculty fellows have been selected and paperwork is being finalized. The Q2S process is moving forward; shared governance will be a partner in the project. Inquiries for the Dean of Extended Education and Vice President for Research and Economic Development have been publicized.
   D. Statewide Senate: none.
   E. CFA: none.
   F. ASI: Tess Loarie, ASI President, shared that CFAC/ASI is collecting pro/con statements from students on the CBF fee increase and is getting the educational materials for campus through CVAC. ASI is also working on launching a campus wide assessment to find ways for ASI to be more representative of the students at Cal Poly. ASI has a full board and ratified new members last week. After being briefed through the educational campaign, the board will prepare a resolution in winter on the CBF increase. Will be forming an ad hoc committee in the winter to determine what to do with the reserves.
