Dental Insurance Plan

The 1981-82 budget provided for a dental insurance program to be made available to active and retired state employees. CSUC employees are eligible for this program. To be eligible for dental insurance coverage, an employee must be appointed half-time or more for more than six months and be a member of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

The Chancellor's Office has completed a review of dental plan proposals and has selected two different type plans; the Aetna Life Insurance Company will offer an indemnity plan and Private Medical-Care, Inc. (PMI) will offer a prepaid group dental plan. The effective date of the insurance coverage will be Jan. 1 for all eligible employees who properly complete and sign the enrollment form on or before Nov. 25 and will continue through the 19 months of the contract period, ending July 31, 1983.

Under the Aetna plan, an individual is free to visit the dentist of his or her choice. Upon submission of claim forms to Aetna, the dentist or employee will be reimbursed for covered charges according to an approved schedule which has certain deductibles. Under the PMI plan, the employee selects a dentist in the employee's general geographic area from a list of those participating in the program who have contracted with PMI for the provision of specified services.

The dentists in the San Luis Obispo area who have contracted with PMI are: Drs. Leopold and Murphy, 878 Walnut Street, San Luis Obispo. Under this prepaid group plan, many procedures are fully covered, with some reasonable co-payment required on some of the less usual types of dental work (for example, there is a co-payment charge for crowns).

Choral season beginning soon

The Cal Poly Choral Program has announced its 1981-82 season of choral concerts featuring the Cal Poly Men's Chorus, the Cal Poly Women's Chorus, the University Singers, the PolyPhonics, and the Combined Choirs of Cal Poly.

The season will begin on Saturday (Dec. 5) in the San Luis Obispo Old Mission with "A Celebration of Christmas." This concert will feature all four of Cal Poly's choral ensembles, a brass ensemble, a carol-sing with the audience and a special appearance by harpist Sandra Dwelle. Last year's Christmas concert was completely sold out with many people being turned away at the door.

On Sunday (Feb. 21) in the Cal Poly Theatre, the Cal Poly Women's Chorus will present its second full-length concert, titled "Alice In Wonderland." This recital will include Persichetti's "Winter Cantata" with flute and marimba, Debussy's "Salut Printemps" with soprano Amanda England, and Irving Fine's "Scenes from 'Alice in Wonderland'."

The Cal Poly Men's Chorus's "45th Anniversary Concert" will take place on Sunday (Mar. 7). The "12th Annual Mission Concert" at the historic San Luis Obispo Old Mission on Saturday (Apr. 3) will conclude the University Singers annual concert tour of the California missions.

The PolyPhonics will perform in the Cal Poly Theatre on Sunday (Apr. 18). The final concert of the choral season will be the Combined Choirs of Cal Poly in a salute to the 100th birthday of Kodaly and the 250th birthday of Haydn, presented on Saturday (May 22) in the Cal Poly Theatre.

For the first time, the six concerts which make up the season will be offered on a subscription basis at a 20 percent discount from the single ticket price. Subscriptions are available at $20 for the general public and $10 for students. Requests should be sent with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Cal Poly Theatre Box Office. Information can be obtained by calling Ext. 1421.

Neither Aetna nor PMI's plan will require an employee contribution; the CSUC will fully pay the premiums for these plans for employees and dependents. Special provisions will be made for those now participating in an existing employee organization sponsored dental insurance plan.

The open enrollment period for employees to sign up for one of these two dental plans will be from Nov. 9 through 25 with an effective date of Jan. 1, 1982. Since this enrollment of all Cal Poly employees requires each employee to sign an enrollment form, the entire process is being decentralized. Questions regarding the benefits of the plans and/or questions regarding the enrollment procedures, should be directed to your Dean's/Division Head's secretary or other specified person within areas after Monday (Nov. 9).

An information packet regarding the dental program is currently being distributed to all employees on campus. This packet will explain the open enrollment procedures and the necessary steps to follow. As additional information is received regarding these dental insurance plans it will be provided.

Career Day scheduled

"Careers and a Liberal Education" is the topic of the keynote address to be given by Thomas H. Kline during the School of Communicative Arts and Humanities Career Day on Friday (Nov. 6).

Kline, Honored Alumnus of the Cal Poly school in 1980 and owner of a successful Beverly Hills insurance agency, will focus his remarks on the contributions which a liberal arts degree can make to a career in the business world. His presentation will come during the opening session, which will begin at 9:30 am in University Union 220.

Following Kline's address, several employers representing large corporations, small businesses, and government agencies will give five-minute talks describing the kinds of employment available to students graduating in such majors as art, English, graphic communications, history, journalism, political science, social sciences, and speech communication.

The afternoon portion of the career day will consist of a series of "roundtable discussions," with students and employers meeting in small groups to obtain additional information on what skills and background they look for in recruiting university graduates and which courses they believe are most helpful in the world of work.

Students, faculty, and members of the public are welcome to attend. Students who have arranged through their department offices for admission badges for the day will be admitted to all sessions first. Faculty and others who wish to attend any of the sessions will then be admitted on a space-available basis. For more information call Ext. 2707.
