

Cal Poly Report

Vol 33, No. 10

Thursday, Nov. 12, 1981

Committee on the Future to Visit Campus

Imaginative, creative ideas for the future will be sought in a two-day (Thursday, Nov. 19, and Friday, Nov. 20) visit by the CSUC-sponsored Committee on the Future.

August Coppola, a member of the CSUC Board of Trustees, will lead a six-member Directions 2000 Committee in a series of group discussions and an open forum.

Cal Poly faculty, staff, and students are invited to the open forum on Thursday (Nov. 19) at 2:30 p.m. in UU220. The committee would like to interact with those dreamers and visionaries who want to talk about the future of Cal Poly, the CSUC, and higher education.

Committee members will also be available to discuss specific items of interest on a one-to-one basis Friday (Nov. 20) from 10:30 a.m. until noon in UU204, 207, 217D, 218, 219 and 220.

Formation of the Directions 2000 Committee was announced in September by CSUC Trustees Chairman John F. O'Connell and Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke.

"Sound planning has been a hallmark of the CSUC from the start," O'Connell said. "Academic and facilities planning have helped hundreds of thousands of students acquire a high quality education at minimum costs to the state taxpayer. The CSUC, thus having met unparalleled challenges in its first 20 years, will be greatly aided by this planning effort, creatively conceived and headed by Trustee Coppola; an effort that will help the Board chart the way to a new century."

Chancellor Dumke said, "I am pleased that this committee will be focusing on a broad range of educational and academic problems of the future. As Chancellor, and as a member of the Board of Trustees, I look forward to the committee's findings."

Committee members who will be visiting Cal Poly include: Dr. Coppola; Dr. Claudia Hampton, trustee; Dr. Peter Diamandopoulos, Sonoma State president; Dr. Carl Wagoner, a member of the sociology faculty at CSC, San Bernardino; Miss Jackie Faris-Rees, a student at CSU, Chico; and Dr. Ralph Mills, state university dean, extended education.

University
Archives
FEB 24 1982

Students surcharge, budget cutback for 1981-82 fiscal year

Emergency operations reductions coupled with a $46 per student surcharge have been implemented by Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke to meet a nearly $20 million cutback in the current fiscal year's budget of The California State University and Colleges.

To carry the system through next June 30, the program consists of $5 million in reductions prorated among the 19 campuses, $675,000 in reduced systemwide operations, and $14 million expected to be received from the student surcharge.

Chancellor Dumke's actions were in response to Gov. Brown's Oct. 9 directive, which reduces legislative appropriations to several state agencies to counter a predicted shortfall in the state's revenues. A freeze on CSUC purchases, hiring and promotions has been imposed by Chancellor Dumke since October to permit the development of specific plans to meet the emergency.

The $46 surcharge will affect all students enrolling in the coming winter quarter. The charge will bring the range of basic fees for full-time resident students enrolled for the entire 1981-82 academic year to between $322 and $358, depending on the campus they attend.

CSUC fees for resident students are the country's lowest for four-year institutions. Average fees paid by commuter students in the nation's public universities in 1981-82 are $819, according to The Chronicle of Higher Education.

(The University is in the process of developing a plan that will reduce expenditures by $323,610 for the 1981-82 fiscal year. In addition, the freeze on purchases, hiring and promotions that went into effect on Oct. 13 will be continued through the end of the fiscal year—June 30, 1982. President Baker will administer the freeze.)

Chancellor Dumke put into effect the emergency plan as submitted by a 16-member task force headed by D. Dale Hanner, Vice Chancellor of Business Affairs, which included system administrators,

(Cont. on Page 3)

Coe to step down

Robert K. Coe, dean of the School of Business, has resigned as dean effective with the end of the academic year. He will return to full time teaching as a professor in the Management Department. Dr. Coe has been dean of the school since 1978. A search for a replacement will begin as soon as possible.

Computer terminal lab will close

The computer terminal lab located in the Dexter Building, Room 128, will be permanently closed as of Wednesday (Nov. 25). The terminals will be relocated to other labs in an attempt to provide a better distribution throughout campus.

Four of the terminals will be moved to Business Administration and Education, Room 132, four to the lab in Architecture 313 and the remaining four will be installed in a new lab under construction in Science North 214.

Psychology of coaching

"Contemporary Issues in the Psychology of Coaching and Sport" is the title of a lecture to be given by Dr. Bryant Cratty of the University of California, Los Angeles, on Wednesday (Nov. 18) at 7 pm in the gymnasium of the Physical Education Building. Admission will be free and all those interested in sports and psychology are invited to attend.

Dr. Cratty is considered by professionals in physical education and athletic coaching to be an expert in the psychology of athletes, perceptual motor education, and intelligence and motor activity. He is the author of over 50 books and monographs, including both graduate-level tests and publications directed toward teachers and parents.

Most recent is The Athlete and the Sports Team, written with Dr. Yuri Hanin, one of Russia's leading sports psychologists, during Dr. Cratty's stay in Leningrad in 1978. Also well known among his books are Social Psychology of Athletes, Adapted Physical Education for Handicapped Children and Youth, and Psychology in Contemporary Sport. Dr. Cratty's Nov. 18 presentation at Cal Poly is being sponsored by the university's student chapter of the California Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance.

Sale reminder

There will be a sale of all unclaimed lost and found articles and surplus property on Tuesday (Nov. 17) only. Some items will be for sale on a cash basis, while others will be sold to the highest bidders. Sales and bids will be taken this one day only. Lists of the highest bidders will be posted on Thursday (Nov. 19). Second and third highest bidders lists will be posted on Friday (Nov. 20) in the morning and afternoon, respectively. It is the responsibility of each bidder to check the lists to see if his/her name appears as highest bidder.

Holiday festivities

Faculty, staff, and their families are invited to attend a Holiday Open House and Floral Design Show on Thursday evening (Nov. 19). Sponsored by Ornamental Horticulture and El Corral Bookstore, this year's event is titled "A Carousel of Christmas."

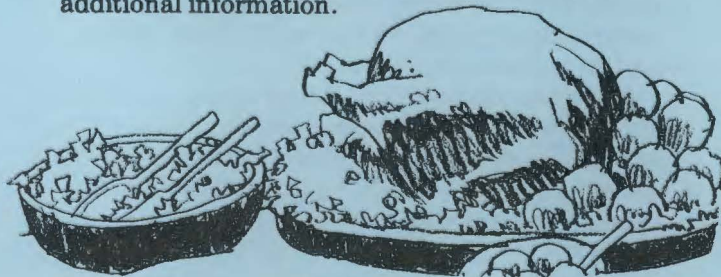

The bookstore Open House will begin at 6:30 pm, Floral Design Shows at 7:30 pm and 9 pm in Chumash Auditorium, and plant displays in the Plaza of the University Union. The Open House is intended to allow faculty and staff an opportunity to browse through the new assortment of Christmas decorations, books, and fine Christmas gifts. Free bus service will be provided from the Grand Avenue parking lot between 6:30 pm and 10:30 pm at regular intervals. Free gift wrapping will be offered along with refreshments and lots of holiday fun.

Change in dental plan

This is a reminder that there is currently an open enrollment period through Nov. 25 for all CSUC state employees interested in enrolling for dental insurance. Two plans are available - an indemnity plan through Aetna Life Insurance Co. and a prepaid dental plan through Private Medical Care, Inc. (PMI).

An information packet describing the dental program has been distributed to all employees on campus. A correction should be noted in the comparison chart under the Aetna coverage. "Crowns" and "Inlays" are covered at 50%. Please note this correction if you are interested in the Aetna plan.

The effective date of coverage will be Jan. 1 for all eligible employees who properly complete and sign the enrollment form on or before Nov. 25. Enrollment forms will be processed and questions will be answered by the dean's/division head's secretary for specific areas. Please contact the designated dean's/division head's secretary for additional information.

Turkey time!

Thanksgiving turkeys can now be ordered by calling Jeannie Souza at Ext. 2427. Hens are priced at $.98/lb., toms at $.95/lb., and Grade B's are $.89/lb. Birds can be picked up Nov. 23, 24, or 25, between 8 am and 5 pm at the Poultry Unit.

(Cont. from Page 1)

... Students surcharge, budget cutback for '81-'82

faculty and student representatives. (James R. Landreth, Cal Poly's director of business affairs, served as a member of this task force.)

"The task force recommendations are the result of painful study, done with the greatest of care, and a commitment by all involved to preserve as much as possible the opportunities for higher education that have characterized the development of California," Chancellor Dumke said.

"While I take no pleasure in implementing these emergency measures, I am convinced they are the least harmful solution to the current year's severe funding problem and for approaching the even greater financial crisis of 1982-83."

Although the 1981-82 state agency curtailment is termed a 2 percent reduction by the State Administration, its impact on the CSUC approaches 5 percent because of the reduction's imposition after the start of the fiscal year.

Chancellor Dumke's systemwide freeze on purchases, hiring and promotions will continue, as a result of the task force recommendations, with implementation delegated to CSUC Presidents, who will have authority to make critical exceptions.

Presidents will have authority to implement the $5 million portion of the reduction plan at their campuses consistent with applicable Trustees policies.

Chancellor Dumke's implementation of a 1981-82 emergency program was authorized by the Board of Trustees Oct. 19. The Board at that time reluctantly approved a fee increase of up to $50 if necessary to deal with the current year's funding problem.

"It is a credit to the arduous deliberations of the task force that it did not become necessary to resort to the full implementation of the $50 fee increase authorized by the Trustees," Chancellor Dumke said.

"Additionally, in the event that proceeds from the $46 surcharge exceed the amount needed by The California State University and Colleges in the current fiscal year, all efforts will be made to roll these funds forward to the system's 1982-83 budget, rather than revert to the State General Fund."

Chancellor Dumke said Trustees on Nov. 17-18 will be asked to deal with an approximate $50 million budget reduction sought by Gov. Brown in the CSUC's 1982-83 budget.

Task force recommendations under consideration by the Chancellor include additional stringent cutbacks as well as increases in student charges of from $7 to $9 per unit.

Reductions implemented by Chancellor Dumke, and others to be considered by the Board of Trustees later this month, are in addition to cutbacks dating back several years whose effect has long placed the CSUC in a penurious position.

Since 1978, for example, this pattern has included a $17 million cut directly associated with Proposition 13's diversion of state monies to local jurisdictions, a $10 million reduction which followed a Department of Finance-approved level of allocations in spring 1980, plus a $5.5 million cutback from approved allocations in 1980-81.

Atlanta mayor will speak on campus

Andrew Young, who first gained the public eye from his association with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and later a different sort of fame from his controversial tenure as Ambassador to the United Nations, will speak at Poly on Monday (Nov. 23). His 8 pm engagement, presented by the Speakers Forum, will take place in Chumash Auditorium.

Tickets are available at the University Union Ticket Office, $5 for students and $6 for the public. Door prices will be a dollar more.

During the 1960s, Young organized voter registration and community development in the South during the active days of the Civil Rights movement, working closely with Dr. King until the Nobel Prize winner's murder in 1968. Young was a witness to Dr. King's death.

He later worked with the National Council of Churches and became an executive of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. In Atlanta, he served as chairman of the Community Relations Commission.

Politics beckoned in 1972, when he went to the House of Representatives as a Democrat from Georgia's Fifth District, the first Black congressman from that state in 101 years. He was reelected twice. After his 1976 win and during his third term, Jimmy Carter tapped him to represent the United States as Ambassador to the United Nations.

It was Young's pronounced human rights advocacy that brought him under fire during his short (2½ years) tenure as ambassador. Young's controversial statements got him called on the White House carpet more than once. Although he repeatedly denied pressure from the Oval Office, Young resigned his post and was replaced by Donald Alexander.

Apparently not one to rest on his laurels at age 49, Young was elected Mayor of Atlanta Oct. 27 in a close runoff (55 percent to Young) that ensures him public position for the next four years. Following his address on morality and politics, and how they relate to foreign policy, he will entertain questions from the audience.

Dateline

($) - Admission charged.
(!) - Admission free.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Readers' Theatre: Presentation titled "Eyes Do More Than See" by three Moorpark Community College students viewing the future as a logical extension of the present in terms of technology and de-humanization. UU 220, 11 am. Arts and Humanities Series. Public invited. (!)

University Club: Larry Balthaser (Physics) speaking on "California Volcanoes." Staff Dining Room, noon. (!)

Water Polo: Cuesta College. Cuesta pool, 7 pm. (!)

Play: The Fall Quarter production of Thom Strelch's "Embarcadero Fugue," continuing Friday and Saturday (Nov. 13 and 14). Cal Poly Theatre, 8 pm. Sponsored by the School of Communicative Arts and Humanities and the Speech Department. ($)

Exhibit: The oils-on-canvas of Dan Piel (Art) in a tribute to martyrs of history titled "From Lincoln to Lennon." UU Galerie, continuing through Saturday (Dec. 5), 11 am-7 pm weekdays, noon-4 pm weekends. (!)

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Women's Volleyball: UC, Berkeley. PE Building Gymnasium, 7:30 pm. ($)

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Color Tree Walk: Commencing at Ag Circle, 9-10 am. Sponsored by Ornamental Horticulture Department. Open to faculty, staff and their families. Cancelled in case of rain. For more information, call Robert Rice (x2684) or Dennis Beck (x2933).

Tournament: Political geniuses are needed to seek international power and fame during a "Risk" Tournament. Business Administration and Education Building, Rooms 113 and 215, 10 am. Sponsored by Cal Poly's Society of Wizards and Warriors, a member club of the ASI. Prizes awarded. Entry fee.

Women's Volleyball: University of San Diego. PE Building Gymnasium, 7:30 pm. ($)

Women's Basketball: Alumni Game. PE Building Gymnasium, 9 pm. ($)

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Last day to submit CAR materials and pay fees for Winter Quarter.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Workshop: "Sex & Violence," an awareness workshop on sexual assault. UU 220, 1-3 pm. Sponsored by Public Safety Department in cooperation with the Counseling Center. (!)

Film: "The Competition." Chumash Auditorium, 7 and 9:45 pm. ($)

Play Auditions: For the Winter Quarter production, "A Midsummer Night's Dream." H.P. Davidson Music Center, Room 212, 7-11 pm, continuing through Thursday (Nov. 19).

Position Vacancies

Vacant faculty and staff positions at California Polytechnic State University and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column, and are posted outside the respective personnel offices. Contact those offices (University: Adm. 110, 805-546-2236 —Foundation: University Dining Complex, 805-546-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. All interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: 11-30-81

Clerical Assistant II-A, $1031-$1215, two positions, Cooperative Education Program (Foundation).

Assistant Cook, $4.67-$5.60/hr, Full time, summers off, Foundation Food Service.

Clerical Assistant II-A, $515.50-$607.50/month; half-time, hours to be arranged, Library Administration Office.

CLOSING DATE: 12-15-81

Slide Curator I, $1174-$1403/month; 10/12 Pay Plan, Art Department.

CLOSING DATE: 2-15-82

Department Head, $30,276-$42,120/year; salary and rank dependent upon experience and qualifications, Agricultural Management Department.

CLOSING DATE: 3-1-82

Lecturer, $19,044-$22,896/academic year, Speech Communication Department, School of Communicative Arts and Humanities.

Assistant/Associate Professor, $19,932-$25,116/year, salary commensurate with qualifications and experience, Art Department.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

As chief academic officer of the university the vice president for academic affairs is responsible to the President for all operations of the university relative to educational policy, academic planning, instruction and admissions both on campus and off campus. The vice president is responsible for and supervises directly the seven school deans, the director of the Library, and professional staff members in the areas of academic programs, academic budgets, educational services, extended education, research development, audio-visual services, institutional research, and student admissions and records. In addition, the vice president is responsible for long range planning for Cal Poly's educational programs.

An earned Ph.D in a discipline offered at Cal Poly is required. Applicants should have at least five years experience in academic administration, planning, research development, and in the recruitment and evaluation of professional personnel. Also, applicants should have experience with the development of budgets, the allocation of budget resources, and program evaluation.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. The appointment date will be Aug. 1, 1982, or as soon thereafter as possible. Applications/nominations will be accepted until Feb. 1, 1982, by President Warren J. Baker.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Speaker: John Connely (Education) will discuss "Collective Bargaining—The No-Agent Perspective." Fisher Science Hall 287, 11 am. Sponsored by the Political Science Department. (!)

University Club: "Use of Micro-processors at Home and in the Classroom" by Emile Attala (Computer Science and Statistics). Staff Dining Room, noon. (!)

Women's Basketball: Cal Poly Classic Invitational Tournament, continuing Friday and Saturday (Nov. 20 and 21). PE Building Gymnasium, 3,5,7, and 9 pm. ($)

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Film: "Stir Crazy." Chumash Auditorium, 7 and 9:30 pm. ($)

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23

Speaker: Andrew Young, on morality and politics. Chumash Auditorium, 8 pm. Sponsored by Speakers Forum. Public invited. ($)

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 25

Thanksgiving: Academic holiday for students and faculty, continuing through Sunday (Nov. 29).

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26

Thanksgiving: State holiday for staff, continuing through Friday, Nov. 27—acrued CTO day for working Admissions Day(Sept. 9).