International Programs representative sought

Faculty members interested in serving as the Cal Poly representative to the California State University Academic Council of International Programs please submit a letter of interest and any supporting documents to Dr. Hazel Jones, Vice President for Academic Affairs, by Friday (Feb. 19). The term of service is three years. Fuad Tellew (Economics) who has served as the Cal Poly representative for several years, has indicated he wishes to be replaced on the Council.

Teaching effectiveness class offered

To provide professional development opportunities for faculty and staff members, the Education Department is offering a course for maintaining teaching effectiveness. The three-unit course, Maintaining Instructor Effectiveness: Techniques and Strategies for More Effective Teaching (ED 581-02) will assist instructors in maximizing learning, promoting motivation to learn, and increasing speed and effectiveness of learning.

The class will be taught by Don Maas (Education) on Thursdays from 4:30 pm to 7:30 pm during the Spring Quarter in Architecture and Environmental Design 104. Enrollment will be limited to the first twenty faculty/staff members who contact Jan Walker (Education) at Ext. 1251. Persons desiring additional information concerning the course may contact Dr. Maas at Ext. 2667. This course may be taken on the fee waiver program. Deadline for fee waiver is Feb. 19.

Foundation Board

The Board of Directors of the California Polytechnic State University Foundation will hold a regular meeting on Monday (Feb. 8) at 8:30 am in Adm. 409 on the Cal Poly campus. This is a public meeting. For further information about this meeting or to obtain a copy of the meeting agenda, contact Al Amaral (Executive Director, Cal Poly Foundation) in Fisher Science Hall 290 or call Ext. 1131.

'A Midsummer Night's Dream' at Poly

William Shakespeare's tale of confused courtships, forest fairies, and enchantment, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," will be presented in the Cal Poly Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 18, 19 and 20, at 8 p.m. Reserved seat tickets are $3 at the University Union ticket office as of Monday, Feb. 8. For information and reservations call Ext. 1421.

William Shakespeare, greatest of the English poets and dramatists, was born in Stratford-on-Avon in 1564. "A Midsummer Night's Dream," written between 1594 and 1596, is one of Shakespeare's happiest comedies. It is called a dream because the improbable events of the story seem to the participants, when they are over, like something dreamed -- true yet not true. It is a dream of crossed loves, futile quarrels, and frustrated searches, of fairy spells and strange transformations.

The Cal Poly Theatre production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," under the direction of Ed Marshall (Speech Communication) will be unique in many ways. Contemporary music by such artists as Rick Wakeman and Pink Floyd will be used rather than the traditional score by Mendelssohn. The director also explains that the play, which is set in ancient Athens, will not be presented as an Elizabethan period piece or as we may now think of ancient Greece but as "...we imagine the Elizabethans would have imagined the Greeks."

First election results

The first results in the CSU collective bargaining representation election have been released by PERB (Public Employment Relations Board).

In Unit 1 (Physicians) the Union of American Physicians and Dentists will be the exclusive representative, subject to certification.

In Unit 2 (Health Care Support) there will be a run-off between the California State Employees Assn., and the United Professors of California.

In unit 3 (Faculty) there will be a runoff election between the United Professors of California and the Congress of Faculty Associations.

In Unit 4 (Academic Support) challenged ballots have prevented a final determination.

In Unit 5 (Operations Support Services) the California State Employees Association will be the exclusive representative, subject to certification.

In Unit 6 (Skilled Crafts) the State Employees Trades Council will be the exclusive representative, subject to certification.

In Unit 7 (Clerical and Allied Support) the ballots were not counted as of Tuesday (Feb. 2).

Further reports will be made in the next issue of Cal Poly Report.
