Cal Poly Announces Plan for New Residence Hall

Cal Poly is issuing a news release to the media today announcing plans to build new residence hall facilities near the university's entrance on Grand Avenue, with completion slated for the 2018-19 academic year. This project, expected to add about 1,400 beds to the existing 6,900 beds, will be built on what is now the surface parking lot across Grand Avenue from existing student housing. The new facility will house first-year students. The project also will include a new welcome center at what is one of the university's main entrances. Read more on the plan here.

Cal Poly Ranks High in Two Surveys on Tuition Return on Investment

For the second consecutive year, Cal Poly ranked in the nation's top 20 public universities for college tuition return on investment, according to PayScale. In the study of more than 1,000 universities and college, Cal Poly's ranked No. 37 overall, up from No. 62 in 2012. For more on the PayScale report.

Cal Poly also ranked No. 7 on the list of affordable colleges with the highest return on investment, from the website Affordable Colleges Online. Cal Poly was the highest ranking West Coast university on the list. Read more here.

Wehner, Thulin taking on new roles

Dave Wehner, dean of the College of Agriculture, Food and Environmental Sciences (CAFES) since 2002, will become Cal Poly's interim vice president for strategic initiatives. Andy Thulin, currently head of Cal Poly's Animal Sciences Department, will serve as interim CAFES dean, according to an announcement this week by President Armstrong and Provost Enz Finken. The appointments are effective July 1. A national search for a permanent successor as CAFES dean will be held near the end of these interim appointments, which are expected to last for approximately 12 to 18 months. In a note to CAFES faculty, the president and provost wrote that Cal Poly has a number of significant opportunities to partner with donors and others in the private sector, and these opportunities require extensive focus in the near term. Wehner, in his role, will be tasked with determining which opportunities fit Cal Poly's mission and are feasible. Read more on the new administrative assignments.

Campus Announcements

Cal Poly Launches Master's Program in Dairy Products Technology

Cal Poly has announced the opening of an innovative, industry-focused master's degree program in Dairy Products Technology. The one-year program will provide students with the skills and credentials needed to become leaders in the fast-growing dairy manufacturing sector. Graduates will find employment opportunities with large cheese and yogurt producers, fluid milk operations, and whey processors. For more information, go to the Cal Poly News website.

Student Affairs Announces Realignment

The Student Affairs division has announced a reorganization of responsibilities. Effective June 1, the following departments will report to the Dean of Students Office led by Jean DeCosta: Student Rights and Responsibilities; Cross-Cultural Centers, including the Gender Equity Center, Pride Center and Multicultural Center; Off-Campus Student Life; and the assistant dean for Student Assistance. The latter two areas are new functions that will be developed and implemented later this calendar year.

The following departments will become part of Student Academic Services, which will report to Preston Allen in his new role as senior associate vice president for Student Affairs and executive director of University Housing. Student Academic Services will now oversee the orientation programs SOAR and Week of Welcome, Open House for newly admitted students, and the Disability Resource Center and Testing Services. In addition to these areas, Allen will oversee new employee orientation, Student Affairs alumni relations, professional development efforts for staff and University Housing operations. Keith Humphrey, vice president for student affairs, said the changes were informed by recommendations from the Student Affairs staff and all other areas of campus.

Final Candidate for ASI Executive Director to Visit Campus May 15

Inclusivity Workshop Set for May 16

An event to foster inclusivity on campus will be held from noon to 2 p.m. Thursday, May 16. The event location has been changed to Engineering West (Building 21), Room 133. Titled “Women, People of Color, and First Generation Students in Science and Engineering: Fostering Equity and Inclusiveness at Cal Poly,” the event will feature a talk by Lee Ann Cornell from the Center for Urban Education at the University of Southern California, followed by a panel of students who will discuss strategies and resources to overcome barriers to academic and career success in STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) fields. Light refreshments will be provided. The event is organized by the Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation in STEM Program, the Center for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Education, and Student Academic Services, and support provided by the College for Science and Mathematics. For more information, contact the LSAMP office at lsamp@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2859 or go to the [LSAMP website](http://LSAMP website).

‘Try Teaching’ Event Set for May 16

"Try Teaching: Experience K-12 Education" will be hosted by the Center for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Education (CESaME) from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, May 16, during UU hour in the right wing of Chumash Auditorium. The event is designed to showcase CESaME programs that inspire careers teaching STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) subjects. Information about CESaME programs and ways to experience K-12 education on campus and in the community will be provided. Representatives will be available to field questions about financial aid and the School of Education credential programs.

Discussion on Faculty/Student Research and Curriculum Design for Data Analytics/Big Data Scheduled for May 17

Faculty are invited to join a discussion on “big data” curriculum and research from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, May 17, in the Kennedy Library Data Studio (Building 35, Room 111-C). The discussion will build on faculty and student research in big data and the potential development of a data analytics/big data curriculum at Cal Poly. Academic Senate Curriculum Committee Chair Andrew Schaffner will facilitate the discussion. Attendees can join for any portion of the meeting. Click here to view the agenda.

Registration Open for Gender Equity Center's 2013 Symposium on May 18

Registration is now open for the 2013 Gender Symposium to be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 18, in the Orfalea College of Business (Building 3), Room 213. The event will feature keynote speakers Sacchi Patel, manager of education and emergency response at the Sexual Assault & Relationship Abuse Education & Response Office at Stanford University, and Tania Isreal, associate professor in the Department of Counseling, Clinical and School Psychology at UCSB. Registration is $10 and will include breakfast, lunch and coffee. For more information, contact Nick Bilich at nbilich@calpoly.edu or register online.

'No Place for Hate' Event to be Held May 22 on Campus

Cal Poly is co-sponsoring the Anti-Defamation League’s “No Place for Hate” reception from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 22, in the Chumash Auditorium. Community activist Ryan Page and participating schools will be honored. The event will begin at 5 p.m. with an art showing and refreshments; the program will begin at 5:30 p.m. Additional co-sponsors include the San Luis Obispo Friday Night Live Partnership, San Luis Obispo County Office of Education and the YMCA. RVSP to Anais Borg-Marks at aborg-marks@adl.org or 805-564-6670.

Presentation on Estate Planning Issues for Same-Sex Couples May 22

Estate planning attorney Marisa Nelson (B.S., Modern Languages and Literatures, 2007) will speak from noon to 1 p.m. May 22 in (Building 65), Room 219 about same-sex couples' rights with respect to estate planning, complicated by ongoing changes in state and federal law. Nelson will provide an overview of factors in the changing landscape including Proposition 8, the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), marriage, and registered domestic partnerships, and steps people can take to protect themselves and their families. This presentation is made possible in part through support from the Cal Poly LGBTQIA Faculty Staff Association.

Fee Waiver Open Forum Set for May 23

Faculty and staff are invited to an open forum on the Fee Waiver Program. The Fee Waiver Program allows eligible faculty, staff and MPP employees and/or their dependents to attend classes at CSU campuses at greatly reduced rates. The open forum will be held from 2 to 3 p.m. May 23 in UU 220. Topics will include eligibility, procedures, deadlines and summer quarter information. Time will be reserved at the end of the presentation for questions and answers. For more information, contact Karen Watton at kwatton@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-5407.

Cal Poly Corporation Board Meeting Set for May 24

The board of directors of the Cal Poly Corporation will hold a regular meeting at 8:30 a.m. Friday, May 24, in Corporation Administration (Building 15), Room 124. This is a public meeting. For further information or to obtain a copy of the meeting agenda, contact Bonnie Murphy, executive director, at ext. 6-1131.

Colloquium to Honor Bernard Duffy and Lanny Griffin May 24

Faculty and staff are invited to attend an interdisciplinary colloquium from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Friday, May 24, at the Advanced Technologies Laboratories. President Jeffrey D. Armstrong and Provost Kathleen Enz Finken, in association with the Academic Senate Distinguished Scholarship Awards Committee, will host the colloquium to honor the professional and creative work of Professor Bernard Duffy, Communication Studies Department, and Professor Lanny Griffin, Biomedical & General Engineering Department. Duffy and Griffin were the recipients of the 2013 Distinguished Scholarship Award. A reception will immediately follow the presentations. Seating is limited; reservations are encouraged via email at academicaffairs@calpoly.edu by May 16.

Farewell Reception Set for Orfalea College Dean May 29

Cal Poly will host a farewell reception for Orfalea College of Business Dean Dave Christy from 2 to 4 p.m. May 29, in the main lobby of the Performing Arts Center. Join us as we congratulate Dean Christy on his appointment as provost and senior vice president for academic affairs at Baruch College in New York City, and thank him for nine years of dedicated service to Cal Poly. Attendees will have an opportunity to write him a personal note during the event. The event is open to the campus community; light refreshments will be served.

Virtual Interviewing Available for Class Assignments

Career Services now offers students access to 24/7 virtual interview preparation and practice through the addition of an exclusive online resource, Big Interview. Using the program, students can participate in a mock interview from their own computer and record their responses using the computer’s audio and/or webcam. It provides information and tutorials to help students prepare for the interview process, and allows users to email their recorded responses to others in order to receive ratings and comments. For more information on how Big Interview can be incorporated into curriculum, contact Amie Hammond at akhammon@calpoly.edu. Students, faculty and staff can access Big Interview through the link on Career Services' website or via MustangJOBS. Log in using your @calpoly.edu email address.

Faculty Workshops Offered Over Summer to Enhance Effective Use of Technology

This summer, the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology is offering a select cohort of Cal Poly faculty an opportunity to convert a key module of an existing course into a “flipped” model of instruction through effective use of technology. The goal is to improve student learning in modules that deliver key concepts but low student success rates. Examples include moving typical in-class activities online, such as lectures and discussions, dedicating class time for students and faculty to focus on hands-on Learn by Doing activities. Successful candidates will receive a $1,200 stipend upon successful completion of the workshops. Funding is available for up to 17 faculty members. Proposals are due via email to ctlit@calpoly.edu by 4 p.m. Friday, May 17. Decisions will be made by the end of May. For more information and a proposal form, please visit the CTLT website.

Registration Open for Poly Trekkers Summer Program

Registration for the Poly Trekkers Summer Program is now under way at the ASI Children’s Center. This program is for school-aged children who have completed kindergarten through fourth grade (approximately six to 10 years old) and runs from June 24 through Aug. 16. Extended care is available August 19 through 21. The children participate in art, crafts and recreational games. The program is offered Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Many scheduling options are available, including individual one-week sessions and the full eight-week program. A limited number of spaces are also available for two- and three-day-per-week options during the full eight-week program. Poly Trekkers features qualified staff and an excellent staffing ratio. All food and field trips are included in the program fees. For more information, call the ASI Children’s Center at ext. 6-1267.

ITS Offers Virtual Private Network Service for Faculty and Staff

ITS now offers a VPN (Virtual Private Network) service for faculty and staff, providing a secure method to access Cal Poly computing resources from off campus. Through a Web browser, users download a small Java application that allows them to establish a connection to the Cal Poly VPN service. Once the VPN connection is established, users can access Cal Poly resources similarly to how they would from on campus. Step-by-step instructions are available on the ITS Network Administration website.

Apple-Authorized Service Providers Available at the University Store

Having issues with your computer? The University Store has a trained staff of Apple-certified Mac technicians who can diagnose and get your computer up and running in no time. They work exclusively on in- and out-of-warranty Apple computers and associated hardware and upgrades. Stop by the University Store’s Tech Center during regular service hours, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, or schedule an appointment. Call the Tech Center Hotline at ext. 6-5311.

Faculty and Staff
Director of Dairy Products Technology Center
Recognized by American Dairy Products Institute

Phil Tong, director of the Dairy Products Technology Center, was recognized with the Award of Merit from the American Dairy Products Institute (ADPI). The award was established to recognize those who have made a significant difference to the processed dairy products industry. Tong was recognized for the depth and breadth of career accomplishments that span private industry research to academia, and publishing to television. For more on the ADPI award.

Cal Poly Professor Partners with S.F. Giants to Evaluate Program for Juniors

Brian Greenwood, an associate professor in Cal Poly’s Recreation, Parks & Tourism Administration (RPTA) Department, was recently approved to continue his third year of a research partnership with the San Francisco Giants Community Fund to evaluate its flagship program, the Junior Giants. The Junior Giants is a free baseball program providing opportunities for children in underserved communities to stay active in the summer in an environment that promotes healthy choices, character development, and violence prevention. LGBTQIA Faculty Staff Association Receives Grant to Host Talks Oct. 14-15

Cal Poly's LGBTQIA Faculty Staff Association received a $1,000 grant from the San Luis Community Foundation. The grant will help support a series of roundtable discussions based on the book "How to Be Gay" by David Halperin and the topic "gay counter-acculturation" during the author's visit to campus Oct. 14-15. For more information and a schedule of events, go to the CLA website, or contact Brian Kennelly at bkennell@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2889.

Catastrophic Leave

Robert Palmer

Robert Palmer, physician/psychiatrist in Health Services, has qualified for catastrophic leave. Those wishing to donate sick leave and/or vacation leave to help him remain in full-pay status during an extended leave of absence should contact Alexandra Kohler at ext. 6-2122 or akohler@calpoly.edu to request a donation form.

Retirement

Kathy Constantine

After 16 years of service to Cal Poly, Kathy Constantine is retiring. She came to Cal Poly in April 1997, serving in several positions in Human Resources before settling in as a benefits manager. She has helped numerous faculty and staff members with their benefits over the years and will be sorely missed by many, especially her family in Human Resources. Anyone wishing to extend their congratulations and best wishes is encouraged to stop by Administration (Building 01), Room 129A between 2 and 4 p.m. Wednesday, May 15.

Student Success

Student-run Printing Company Receives Sustainability Re-certification

Cal Poly’s student-run printing, publishing and imaging company, University Graphic Systems (UGS), received Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) sustainability re-certification. UGS has held this certification for five years and is the only student organization of its kind in the nation to hold it. UGS is a class in the Cal Poly Graphic Communication Department. The enterprise employs 14 student managers (including a sustainability manager) and approximately 75 interns; undergoes a yearly audit to maintain certification; and ensure it abides by the standards provided by the Rain Forest Alliance, the FSC’s certification body. An audit report documented that UGS is in compliance on all 18 FSC standards.

Events

How Emotion, Culture Shape Relationships to be Topic of May 16 Presentation

Belinda Campos, UC Irvine assistant professor, will present “Attuned to the Positive: The Role of Emotion and Culture in Shaping Relationships” from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, May 16, in Room 286 in Fisher Science Hall (Building 33). Campos’ research is in the area of culture and health. Currently, she is investigating the cultural shaping of social support, stress and maternal health outcomes. Read more on the event here, or contact Julie Rodgers at jsrodger@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2914

History Department to Host Presentations About Cold War May 15 and 16

Amy Offner, assistant professor at the University of Pennsylvania, will present "Remaking Housing Policy in the Americas, 1950-1980," from 4 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, May 15, in Science (Building 52), Room E-27. During the Cold War, poverty in capitalist countries became a discrediting embarrassment for government officials, a prestigious topic of expertise for social scientists, and a cause for protest by social movements, resulting in the rise of "aided self-help housing," a privatized form of public housing policy. This event is sponsored by the History Department, Political Science Department, City and Regional Planning Department, and the College of Liberal Arts Lottery Speaker Fund.

Bradley Simpson, assistant professor at Princeton University, will discuss "The Cold War, Human Rights and Self Determination" from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, May 16, in Bioresource and Agricultural Engineering (Building 8), Room 123. Focusing on the end of the European empire in the 1970s, he will explore why self determination came to have such expansive and potentially disruptive meaning in the post WWII era, serving as a shorthand for a wide range of claims to sovereignty. The event is sponsored by the History Department. Both events are free and open to the public. For more information, visit the Cal Poly News website, or call ext. 6-2543

College of Science and Mathematics 13th Annual Student Research Conference to be Held May 16 and 17

The College of Science and Mathematics Student Research Conference will be held May 16 and 17 in Fisher Hall. The event will commence with a poster reception from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday, May 16, and continue Friday with additional poster presentations and more than 20 talks on topics that include organic polymer solar cells, genotype and breast cancer risk, and the effects of relocating rattlesnakes. The experience students gain presenting faculty-supervised research helps build skills needed to becoming professional scientists. For more information, go to the CSM website, or contact Elena Keeling at ekeeling@calpoly.edu.

Prevention Training Focuses on Working with Student Veterans May 17

Suicide prevention training will be offered from 2 to 4:30 p.m., Friday, May 17, in Computer Science (Building 14), Room 247. Suicide is the second leading cause of death on college campuses, and student veterans are reported to think about, plan or attempt suicide at significantly higher rates than the average student. This training will help participants recognize warning signs and learn simple steps that may save a life. This training normally costs $20-$30 but is available at no cost temporarily, funded through Cal MHSA and Proposition 63 funds distributed through the CSU Chancellor’s Office to Cal Poly via Martin Bragg, director of health and counseling services. Enrollment is limited. RSVP by May 12 to Kathy Blau at kblau@calpoly.edu or Cal Poly Counseling Services at ext. 6-2511. To arrange a training for your department, contact Chris Marrero-Howieson at 6-2511 or cmarrero@calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly to Host Panel of First-Generation Students on May 17

Cal Poly faculty and staff are invited to attend a panel discussion featuring first-generation students. The event is designed as a professional development opportunity for staff and faculty and will be held from 1 to 2 p.m. Friday, May 17, in Chumash Auditorium, Right Wing. The 45-minute panel will feature students from every college and will be co-moderated by Annie Holmes, executive director for University Diversity and Inclusivity, and Dawn Janke, director of the University Writing & Rhetoric Center and curriculum coordinator for writing and assessment for The Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology. The event will conclude with informal interaction and discussion between panelists and attendees. The Orfalea College of Business, the Office of University Diversity and Inclusivity, and the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology are co-sponsoring the event. For more information, contact Kelly Brusch at kbrusch@calpoly.edu, or click here to register.

Cal Poly Early Music Ensemble to Perform 'Mission Milestone' May 24

The Cal Poly Early Music Ensemble, under the direction of music Professor Thomas Davies, will present “Mission Milestones” at 8 p.m. Friday, May 24, in Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa. Music Professor Craig Russell, an expert in California mission music, will join the ensemble and discuss the works to be performed. The program will explore some of the core repertoire from California's Mission Period in commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the birth of Father Junípero Serra. Russell reconstructed the music from original manuscripts. For more about the California

Lecture on Repurposing Social Media Spaces Set for May 29

Alexandra Juhasz, professor of media studies at Pitzer College, will present "The Internet We Want and Deserve: Repurposing Social Media Spaces" at 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 29, in Computer Science (Building 14), Room 249. Juhasz will discuss her efforts to model the Internet into a place where conversation and knowledge can be built collaboratively and complexly; a place that attends to human interaction, dignity and diversity; and a place with transparent rules of engagement and the identification of shared social and political commitments. The talk is co-sponsored by the Lottery Fund and the Expressive Technology Initiative in the College of Liberal Arts; and the departments of ethnic studies, and women’s and gender studies. For more information, contact Jane Lehr at jlehr@calpoly.edu or Andrea Nash at anash@calpoly.edu.

The College of Engineering to Present All-College Project Expo May 30

The College of Engineering Student Project Expo will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, May 30, on campus. The event features more than 200 individual and team projects from seniors, graduate students and clubs. The displays and hands-on demonstrations represent the culmination of one to two years of student-led project innovation. Free and open to the public, the expo is an ideal time to interact with faculty, entrepreneurs, project sponsors and students. Click here for locations and more information.

Jazz Trumpeter Mike Vax to be Featured with Cal Poly Big Bands May 31

Mike Vax, considered to be one of the world's best jazz trumpeters, will be the guest soloist for Cal Poly’s Jazz Night at 8 p.m. Friday, May 31, in Harman Hall of the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. Vax has been the featured trumpet soloist with many of the world's best big bands, including the Stan Kenton Orchestra, the Navy Commodores, the Army Jazz Ambassadors, and the Clark Terry Big Band. He has appeared on more than 75 albums and has performed with such jazz luminaries as Freddie Hubbard, Don Ellis, Louie Bellson and Gene Krupa. For more on Jazz Night with Vax.

Cal Poly Symphony to Perform ‘Music and Word’ June 1

Actor and stage director Josh Machamer will be the guest artist at Cal Poly’s Symphony Spring Concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 1, in Harman Hall of the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The annual concert will feature the university’s 75-member symphony performing "Music and Word." The two major works on the program draw their inspiration from the art of storytelling. For more information, go to the Music Department website.

Photography Exhibit of Cuban Photographers Open Through June 1

The Cal Poly University Art Gallery’s next exhibit, “Cuban Photographers” featuring works by Arien Chang Casten and Leysis Quesada Vera, will run Thursday, May 9, through Saturday, June 1. The 40 black and white photographs show an intimate view of Cuban life. The public is invited to the opening reception at 5 p.m. Thursday, May 9. The exhibit is free and open to the public from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. The gallery is located in Room 171 in the Dexter Building. For more information, go to www.artgallery.calpoly.edu or contact Jeff Van Kleeck at ext. 6-1571 or jvanklee@calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly's ‘Take It SLO’ To Perform Twice June 2

Take It SLO, Cal Poly’s a cappella ensemble, will present its spring concert at 2 and 6 p.m. Sunday, June 2, in Room 218 of the Davidson Music Center on campus. The 10-member student ensemble will sing popular songs arranged by the students, including selections from the group’s latest CD, which will be available for sale at the concerts. For more information, go to the Music Department website.

Cal Poly Student Ensemble to Stage ‘Transmedia’ Concert June 4 and 6

The Cal Poly Music Department student production ensemble RSVP will stage productions of “RSVP XVIII: Jonah’s” at 8 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday, June 4 and 6, in the Performing Arts Center Pavilion. This marks the 18th season of this diverse transmedia series celebrating electroacoustic diversity and compositional risk. Transmedia refers to storytelling in the digital age, weaving together separate plot threads by way of traditional and new media outlets. For more information, go to the Music Department website.

Celebrate ‘The British Isles’ at Wind Bands Spring Concert June 7

Cal Poly’s Spring Band Concert, “The British Isles,” is set for 8 p.m., Friday, June 7, in Harman Hall of the Performing Arts Center’s Christopher Cohan Center. The annual spring event features the university's 65-member Wind Ensemble and 75-member Wind Orchestra performing original works for wind band. The concert is the first event in a celebration of works written by some of the greatest British composers of the past 300 years, that culminates with a performance tour of Ireland, England, and Scotland from June 17-30. For more information, go to the Music Department website.

Kennedy Library Exhibit Features County’s Agricultural History

The Kennedy Library's spring exhibit, “Links to the Land: Ranching the Central Coast,” is open through June 7. The links to the county’s agricultural heritage are revealed through a wealth of material held by Special Collections and University Archives. These records document the day-to-day life of farmers, ranchers and laborers along the Central Coast, including Cal Poly’s century of agricultural instructional leadership. For more on the Links to the Land exhibit.

Cal Poly Arab Music Ensemble to Perform June 8

The Cal Poly Arab Music Ensemble and guest artists will perform a diverse program of music and dance from the Eastern Mediterranean and larger region at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 8, in the Spanos Theatre on campus. The concert will feature some of the most celebrated musical and poetic repertoire from the Middle Ages to the present. Renowned composers and performers include Farid Al-Atrash of Syria and Egypt, Umayma Khalil, Marcel Khalife, Fairuz, the Rahbani Brothers of Lebanon, and Nadhim Al-Ghazali of Iraq.
