Senate moves to cut back U.N. aid

by JOHN HALL

Washington (UPI)—Outraged at the expulsion of Nationalist China from the United Nations, Senate conservatives moved Wednesday for a sharp cutback in voluntary U.S. contributions to U.N. aid agencies.

Sen. Peter H. Dominick, R-Colo., said he and Sen. James L. Buckley, the New York Conservative-Republican, would offer an amendment to the aid bill Thursday to slash millions of dollars in U.S. non-duped support for U.N. sponsored development assistance, population control, child relief, food and other humanitarian programs to which the United States contributes a heavy share of financial backing.

In general, the amendment would limit U.S. contributions to these agencies to about one-third of their total expenditures. Dominick said the United States must stop "playing nursemaid to the world."

In the continuing furor in Congress and at the White House over Monday night's General Assembly vote giving Taiwan's seat to Communist China, moves were afoot not only to slash the U.N. contribution but to retaliate through reductions in foreign aid to countries which voted against the United States.

The $3.2 billion aid bill already was in trouble. Approved by a 81-34 vote Wednesday was an amendment sponsored by Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., that would halve the proposed $30 million outlay for construction of schools and hospitals for U.S. personnel overseas.

Dominick and Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said they believed there was majority sentiment in Congress for a hefty cutback in U. S. support to the United Nations as a result of Monday night's vote.

Dominick said the administration probably would have to oppose the reductions for diplomatic reasons, but he did not anticipate active administration lobbying against it.

While Scott favored a cutback in U.N. aid, other members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee argued against retaliation. Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., warned that any reduction — even if justified — would be written off by the world community as U.S. "petulance and resentment" over Taiwan's expulsion.

The Foreign aid bill includes a provision which would repeal the 1955 Formosa Resolution which authorized the President to use U. S. force to defend Taiwan and the Pescadores from an attack by mainland China.

The Senate by voice vote amended the repealer Wednesday to make it effective on April 15, 1972, instead of immediately.

Nixon gives nod to blast despite scientists' pleas

by JOSEPH L. MYLER

Washington (UPI)—President Nixon gave the go-ahead Wednesday for the controversial Amchitka underground nuclear blast that will be 250 times as powerful as the World War II bomb that destroyed Hiroshima. The test could be triggered before Nov. 4.

Chairman James R. Schlesinger of the Atomic Energy Commission told a news conference that the AEC has received "the requisite authority"—specific orders from the President as required by law—to carry out the five-megaton, $300 million test a mile underground on the remote island 1,800 miles off the Alaskan mainland.

Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, a leader among the conservationists and environmentalists who oppose the test, said he was "shocked and extremely dismayed that the administration would proceed with this mistaken venture following the many pleas and warnings by scientists and officials of this nation."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said many members of Congress hoped Nixon would not permit the test, but "since we must now explode this giant warhead of doubtful utility, we can only pray that it will not cause any harm."

Opponents claimed the test—too large for the AEC's desert test range in Nevada—would take place in a geologically unstable area and could trigger killer earthquakes and resulting tidal waves on coastlines as far away as Hawaii. They also said it would endanger the islands unique wildlife.

But the administration, in deciding to go ahead, said the blast was necessary to protect national security.

Schlesinger, who said the AEC received Nixon's approval Wednesday morning, told a news conference that the commission expects "to be in a readiness state to detonate within a week." White House Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler said the AEC hopes to have the mile-deep hole plugged in time to set off the explosion before Nov. 4.

Women's right to abortion is program topic

Abortion, "a woman's right to choose", will be the topic of a discussion—during college hour today—in the C.U. Chumash Hall. The guest speaker will be Judy Kleinberg of the Women's National Abortion Action Coalition.

The program will cover current abortion laws and issues concerning abortion reform. All students, staff, and faculty are invited to attend this open discussion.

Tonight at 7 pm, Miss Kleinberg and Marianne Doahi will be on KQPR with a call-in talk show concerning the subjects discussed at the college hour program. For more information, call Paul Allison at 543-0588.

Talcott speaks at open forum

Republican Congressman Burt L. Talcott of the 13th District will speak on this campus tonight and Friday.

Tonight Talcott will speak on "Agriculture and the Federal Government" in Chumash Hall at 7:30. Tonight's meeting is sponsored by the Agricultural Business Management and Farm Management Clubs of the School of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

Friday Talcott will speak at an open forum at 11 a.m. at the CU Plaza. The meeting is sponsored by this college's chapter of the California College Republicans.

Attendance to both talks is open to the public and admission is free.

Talcott has represented the San Luis Obispo area as a congressman for 11 years and is up for re-election next year. Before becoming congressman he was a supervisor in Monterey County for ten years.

BURT TALCOTT

Talcott's visit to the area is designed to give him a chance to talk with the voters of the area, according to his headquarters.

Convicted murderer gets coming-out party

by JACK V. FOX

Chino, Calif. (UPI)—Dr. Bernard Finch will be released this Friday after serving 12 years for his wife's murder and he celebrated his pending freedom at a party last Monday with a new girlfriend.

Finch was convicted, along with his flame-haired mistress, Carole Tregoff, of the July 19, 1969, slaying of Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch after three sensational trials—the first two ending with hung juries.

The California Institution for Men revealed Wednesday the state Adult Authority, which had previously granted parole, had approved freeing Finch in advance of the previously announced date of Dec. 6.

Last Monday night Finch was given a "surprise" party at the Charley Brown restaurant in West Coving, where he formerly lived, attended by friends and several guards from the institution.

A waitress said Finch, 55, was accompanied by an attractive brown-haired girl in her early 30s who she knew only as a Miss Davis.

There were toasts to the doctor and the orchestra played "Please Release Me." At one time everyone went out to look at Finch's new car and, after closing down the Charley Brown, they went on to a night spot.

A spokesman at Chino said there was no reason why Finch should not attend a dinner with friends. He was free on a 72-hour pass at the time.

A prison spokesman rejected any speculation that "Miss Davis" might possibly be Carole Tregoff.

Find the jury!

by DONALD B. THACKREY

San Francisco (UPI)—The long-delayed trial of the two surviving "Soledad Brothers" was stalled again Wednesday over defense charges that potential jurors did not represent "the composition of the community."

Defense attorney Leonard Silliman asked that questionnaires filed out by veniremen be brought in to determine who was selected and why.

The trial of Placido Drumgo, 35, and John Clutchette, 28, was scheduled to begin Wednesday, but the arguments over the jury panel were expected to delay it further.

Drumgo and Clutchette are charged with beating to death Soledad State Prison Guard John V. Mills Jan. 16, 1970. The killing followed the fatal shooting of three black prisoners in the prison yard by another guard.

Black revolutionary George Jackson, the third "Soledad Brother," killed in the Aug. 21 prison rampage at San Quentin Prison, along with two other prisoners and three guards.

No, it's not an overgrown fugitive from the trick-or-treat set, it's an "ugly man on campus." The ugliest of all will be announced at the CU Plaza during College Hour.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Temptations 'will please' crowd

Editor:

We respect the fact that Mr. Mitchell isn't pleased with the selection of the Temptations for the Homecoming Concert, but we disagree that the concert is going to be a flop. We are already sold out of reserved seat tickets for both shows and sales of general admission tickets are going as well as they have for any previous concert. We're looking forward to two shows with near capacity crowds and performances that will send people away well pleased with a real entertainment bargain.

One of the reasons that so many different kinds of entertainment are brought to campus each year is that it is not possible to find one group that "most of the students would really like to see"; rather, there are many groups that many students want to see and hear. We are sure that Mr. Mitchell will find something more to his liking later in the year just as many people who have already purchased tickets have found the Temptations to their liking.

600 tickets for the concert were sold on Tuesday alone.

Keep UPI in

Editor:

Last Thursday before I had gotten around to reading the Mustang Daily, I had made a comment to a friend on how nice it was to have UPI articles in the paper. I am concerned with what is going on in the larger world outside Cal Poly but cannot afford to subscribe to a regular paper, and don't always have time to read one thoroughly anyway. Besides, with you screening the news I don't have to waste my time wading through all the local murders, accidents and busts. Instead I get articles that are specifically related to me as a college student. Thank you and please continue to include UPI articles so we don't become stagnated in local affairs.

Letter form

How to write a letter to the editor

It's not difficult to write a letter to the editor.

You start out with an idea about a topic. Something you've thought about for a while.

Next you sit down at a typewriter and set the margins at 10 and 75. Indenting five spaces for a paragraph, you type five or six lines (remembering to double space) and then begin another paragraph.

Two or three such paragraphs should say what you want to say beautifully. If it can't be said concisely, the idea is probably not very well thought out and will lack conviction.

Lastly you deliver the letter to GA 226, making sure it is placed in Editor Paul Simon's box.

Not very difficult, right?

Then why isn't anyone doing it like that?

Announcements

More American students as well as Foreign students are invited to attend the meetings of the People to People Club which are held every Friday from 3 to 6 p.m. These meetings are very informal and are held in the International Lounge next to the Engineering P.O. Lab. A series of films on Blacks in the United States is planned as well as International week which will be held in February and will include a Fashion Show and a Talent Show. There are extra parties and picnics outside of the regular meetings and these are usually sparked with an international flavor.

The Economics Club is holding an organizational meeting Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Business Administration and Education 208.

The club is open to economics majors or anyone who has gone through the Economics 211, 212 series. The meeting is to approve the by-laws and obtain school sanction.

A "spook-walk" and refreshments are just part of the fun planned for the Campus Crusade for Christ-Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship Halloween surprise party.

Party-goers are to meet at the Administration Building flag pole Friday night at 7:30 p.m. From there, transportation will be provided to the "old haunted ranch" where the party is being held.

Bill Largent, one of the party coordinators, emphasized the fact that everyone is invited and welcome, not just members of the two organizations.

Dress for the party should be casual, and girls are advised not to wear dresses. However, dress should be warm, since the party is being held out-of-doors.

The cost of the party will be 80 cents per person. Anyone wanting to attend, but unable to come at 3:30 p.m. should call Largent at 544-7238.

The annual audit of the financial affairs of the ASI has been completed and audited statements are available for inspection at the ASI Business Office in room CU 202 and the College Library.

Nominations are now being accepted for the 1972 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. There are 36 positions open, and all seniors graduating by September of 1972, with a 2.45 grade point average, are eligible.

Nomination forms are available in the Activities Planning Center and must be returned to ASI box 22 by November 5. For further information contact Nancy Puterbaugh or Bob Walters at 546-2476.

Distance run set today

The second "jog-in" will begin today at 8 p.m. at the old track. Today's 2.5 mile run is open to all faculty and students. The endurance run will include a trip to the top of KVBC radio tower.

The meet is part of the fitness program directed by Larry Bridges, an instructor in the Men's Physical Education Department. The program, as well as the meet, is open to faculty and students, male and female alike.

Bridges has scheduled a series of open events that are available for any age group, male or female. Certificates will be awarded for participation. The runs will be "jog-ins" for most, with participation as the major goal, not competition.

The next meet will be Nov. 7, the AAU Women's District

Split end lost—season's end?

Varsity football player Russ Grimes has been lost to the Mustangs for possibly the remainder of the season, according to Wayne Shaw, college sports information director.

Grimes, a 165-pound sophomore split end, apparently went diving for a pass in last Thursday's practice session and broke his clavicle, according to Shaw.

Championship, age 6 and up. On Nov. 21 an 8-mile loop in the hills will be the jog-run-hike event which starts at 8 p.m. at the Old Track.

Two lectures are scheduled on aerobics and jogging in the College Theater, one at 8 a.m. Nov. 1 and noon, Nov. 2.
