120 EXPECTED TO ATTEND ADMINISTRATORS CONFERENCE

Some 120 representatives of secondary schools, community colleges, and county schools offices located throughout the Central Coast and San Joaquin Valley areas are expected to attend an Administrators Conference scheduled on campus tomorrow (Wednesday, Oct. 6). The conference, which will take place in the Julian A. McPhee College Union, will open with registration at 9:30 a.m., and conclude about 4 p.m.

Highlight of the program, which is being sponsored by the college, will be a no-host luncheon, during which President Robert E. Kennedy will address the administrators in attendance. Topic for his remarks will be "Crisis in California Education."

Planned during the morning session of the day-long event are welcoming remarks by Dale W. Andrews (Academic Vice President), and presentations by the deans of the seven instructional schools. Also scheduled at that time are talks by Glen F. Wegner, superintendent of the Lompoc Unified School District, and Merlin E. Eisenbise, president of Cuesta College. Both will speak on "Advice to Cal Poly."

The afternoon session will include talks on "Teacher Training in the Seventies" by Walter P. Schroeder (Head of the Education Department) and "Teacher Placement" by Eugene A. Rittenhouse (Director of Placement and Financial Aids), and a panel discussion on the "State College Common Admission Program" by Everett M. Chandler (Dean of Students), F. Jerald Holley (Director of Admissions, Records, and Evaluations), and George R. Davies, II (Admissions Officer). Arrangements for the Administrators Conference are under the direction of C. Paul Winner (Associate Dean, Relations with Schools).

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS BENEFIT FROM SPECIAL LOAN FUND

Forty-four Cal Poly International students were assisted with registration for the Fall Quarter by loans from the specially-organized International Student Emergency Loan Fund. The fund, established by the Associated Students, Inc., had available at registration time $13,000.

Contributions to the fund included $7,500 allocated from undesignated grants to the college, $5,000 from ASI and $500 from San Luis Obispo-area residents. An international students committee, headed by Chris Adigwe of Nigeria, will continue efforts to increase the amount of money available in the fund to provide assistance for students at the winter and spring quarter registrations.

International students faced a $510 increase in tuition costs when they returned to college this fall. Last fall the tuition fee for out-of-state and international students was $600 per year. For 1971-72 it has been increased to $1,110. The increase was included in the budget signed by Governor Ronald Reagan on July 14.

MULTI-MEDIA REPORT ON BRITISH OPEN UNIVERSITY AVAILABLE IN LIBRARY NOW

A multi-media report on Britain's new Open University now is available for viewing by faculty and staff at the new auto-tutorial carrels in the Curriculum Room of the College Library. The report was prepared by Clyde Hostetter (Director of the Instructional Materials Program) after a four-week-long investigation in Great Britain this summer.

Two of the three segments of the report are in non-print form. One is a 25-minute slide-and-tape tour of Open University facilities, including the BBC television studios where Open University lectures are videotaped. The other is an 80-minute taped presentation of interviews with Open University and BBC officials, journalists, and British political leaders. Samples of two Open University radio lectures also are included.

The third segment of the report, in written form, has been submitted to the college International Education Office. (An overseas travel grant helped defray a portion of the expense involved in the compilation of the report.) A reserve copy of the written segment will be available in the Curriculum Room for general faculty and staff review in the near future.

Both of the multi-media segments can be checked out from the desk of the Curriculum Room, for use in the auto-tutorial carrels.

Of the 350 international students attending Cal Poly this fall, 200 are continuing students who began their college careers when the tuition fee was $255. Many of the students are self-supporting and they were unable to earn the additional amount needed for tuition between July 14 and the fall registration date, Sept. 24.

To ease the burden on the students, the college initiated several emergency steps including:

- President Robert E. Kennedy issued a personal appeal to the community and to national foundations seeking monies for the emergency loan fund;

- The college made available, at half-price, housing in 1940-era residence halls for 55 students. Thirty-one international students to date have taken advantage of this low-cost housing. Housing built after 1946, utilizing revenue bond money, could not be included in the reduced rate;

- Students were permitted to defer payment on $170 of the $370 quarterly tuition fee until Nov. 12 under provisions established by the California State Colleges Chancellor's Office; and

- Permission was obtained so that international students may work up to 40 hours a week, instead of 20-hours a week as in the past.

In addition, several benefit activities, including a concert and a barbecue are being developed with the co-operation of the Associated Students, Inc., and community organizations.

TENURE REGULATION CHANGES DISTRIBUTED ON CAMPUS

Recent changes in Title 5 of the California Administrative Code concerning tenure for academic employees have been forwarded to all instructional department heads by President Robert E. Kennedy. Additional copies of the changes have been placed in the Faculty Reading Room of the Library, and any faculty member desiring a personal copy may obtain one on request from the Personnel Office, Adm-110, 546-2236.

Included in the new provisions for academic employees appointed on or after Sept. 1, 1971 are:

- (1) a shortened probationary period from the normal four-year pattern if the president finds that an early award of tenure is advantageous to the institution;
- (2) an extended probationary period to five or six academic years if the president determines that more time is necessary to evaluate the faculty member for tenure purposes;
- (3) promotion to the ranks of senior instructor or principal instructor may not be granted to faculty without tenure.

Probationary full-time academic employees who began full-time service during an academic year prior to Sept. 1, 1971, may request to be placed under the new tenure provisions. Such a request must be submitted in writing to the president no later than March 1, 1972. Deadline dates for notifying all probationary academic employees of reappointment, tenure, or termination also have been revised.

Revisions of the College Administrative Manual to incorporate the Title 5 changes are being developed and will be distributed in the near future.

STATEMENTS OF RETIREMENT CONTRIBUTIONS DISTRIBUTED TO STATE EMPLOYEES

Retirement statements for contributions withheld by the Public Employees' Retirement System were distributed to the college faculty and staff last week. Total retirement contributions covering eligible state service are listed in addition to the service period.

The six months initial service period of those appointed prior to August, 1961, may not have been included in the respective retirement statement. Prior to that date a waiting period of six months was required before membership in PERS was possible. State and faculty may file for this additional six months pre-membership period by contacting the Membership Division, Public Employees' Retirement System, P.O. Box 1953, Sacramento, Calif., 95809.

A representative of PERS will be on campus Oct. 28 and 29. Any employee who will be retiring in the near future and desires an appointment with the retirement representative should contact Mrs. Mary Smith in the Personnel Office, Adm-110, 546-2236, prior to 5 p.m., tomorrow (Oct. 6).

Typewritten copy intended for the next issue of Cal Poly Report must be received prior to 12 noon Friday, Oct. 8, in the Office of Information Services, Administration-210.

VACANT POSITIONS ON SUPPORT STAFF LISTED BY PERSONNEL OFFICE

Four vacant positions on the college support staff have been announced by S. Milton Piuma (Staff Personnel Officer). Descriptions of the positions, which may be filled by promotion or transfer of Cal Poly staff only, are posted on the bulletin boards in and outside the Personnel Office, Adm-110, 546-2576. Guidelines for filling the positions are also posted on the bulletin boards. The positions are:

Clerical Assistant II-A ($457-$556), Records Office, Student Affairs Division. Duties and responsibilities include posting transfer credits and changes of grades to student records. Applicants must be high school graduates and have passed the General Clerical Test. Two years experience and typing proficiency preferred.

Intermediate Account Clerk ($457-$556), Student Financial Aids, Accounting Office, Business Affairs Division. Duties and responsibilities include providing bookkeeping assistance and posting on bookkeeping machine; cashiering and other accounting backup relief during peak workload periods including registration of students; assistance in assignments relating to accounting, disbursements, and reports associated with student financial aid records. Applicants must have equivalency to graduation from high school, have passed the General Clerical Test, and have one year experience in keeping or reviewing financial or statistical records. Additional training in accounting machine bookkeeping and collections desirable.

Clerical Assistant I-B ($446-$543), General Office, Business Affairs Division. Duties and responsibilities include typing, taking shorthand, xeroxing, answering telephone, and general office support for all campus areas. Applicants must be high school graduates and have passed the General Clerical Test, type 40 wpm, and take shorthand at 80 wpm. Applicants with Clerical Assistant II-B qualifications preferred; i.e., type 45 wpm, take shorthand at 90 wpm, and have one year general office experience.

Clerical Assistant II-A ($457-$556), Library, Academic Affairs Division. Duties include typing, filing of catalog cards in the cataloging section of the library and other clerical duties. Applicants must be high school graduates, have passed the General Clerical Test, type 45 wpm, and have one year general office experience.

OCT. 15 IS DEADLINE FOR WINTER EXTENSION COURSE PROPOSALS

The Office of Continuing Education announced last week that Oct. 15 is the deadline for submission of all Cal Poly Extension course proposals for the Winter Quarter. Any faculty member interested in teaching an extension course is encouraged to submit a course proposal through his or her department head and school dean. Extension course proposal forms or further information may be obtained from the Office of Continuing Education Adm-311, 546-2053.

HOME BEAUTIFICATION SALE SCHEDULED OCT. 16

Students of the Ornamental Horticulture Department have scheduled their fall two-for-one home beautification sale for Oct. 16, at the OH Unit on campus. Howard Brown (Head of the Ornamental Horticulture Department) says several groups of landscaping materials and shrubbery will be offered at two-for-the-price-of-one. All plants to be sold have been raised in student projects under the enterprise system underwritten by the Cal Poly foundation.

C S C INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS OFFICE MOVED TO LOS ANGELES

Relocation of the Office of International Programs from San Francisco to the Los Angeles headquarters of the California State Colleges was announced last week by Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke. The office administers a systemwide program, now in its ninth year, which has permitted more than 2,500 students from the 19 state colleges to benefit from studies at universities in 20 countries.

Chancellor Dumke said the program will be reorganized and placed under direct supervision of William B. Langsdorf, vice chancellor for academic affairs, as the result of the resignation of Thomas P. Lantos, program director. Dr. Lantos will remain at San Francisco State College as a professor in the Economics Department. Lee Kerschner, assistant executive vice chancellor in the Chancellor's Office will assume temporary direction of the program.

INTRAMURAL RODEO CHANGED TO FRIDAY EVENING

In order to avoid a conflict with the Paso Robles Pioneer Days, Rodeo Club of California State Polytechnic College has changed the date of its fall intramural rodeo. The event will now take place at 7 p.m. on Friday (Oct. 8) in Collet Arena on campus. The arena is lighted. (The rodeo had earlier been scheduled for 2 p.m. on Saturday (Oct. 9) in Collet Arena.)

Larry Ferguson, an animal science major from San Martin who is rodeo chairman, says the intramural rodeo is open to participation by any student of Cal Poly. The standard rodeo events -- bull riding, saddle and bareback bronc riding, bulldogging, calf roping, and steer roping -- will be featured. A $1 general admission fee will be collected at the gate to the arena on Mt. Bishop Road.

EIGHT BANDS EXPECTED FOR ANNUAL HOMECOMING PARADE

The blare of at least five bands will herald Homecoming '71 at Cal Poly on Saturday, Oct. 30. Ed Denn, a graphic communications major from Monterey Park who is parade chairman, says five bands have confirmed participation in the procession and three others are expected to attend.

The parade which ushers in the Homecoming day will proceed along Higuera Street in downtown San Luis Obispo, beginning at 10 a.m. A host of floats depicting the Homecoming theme of "What the world needs now --" represent student organizations. The parade will also include community, college, and Cal Poly alumni officials.

At noon, the Homecoming Queen and her court will be honored at a luncheon in the Staff Dining Room on campus--only 200 can be accommodated at the luncheon with tickets to be sold at the door.

The search for the 1971 Homecoming Queen already is underway at the college. Every campus organization has been asked to nominate a candidate. The field will be narrowed to five candidates during the Queen's Pageant to be held on Oct. 14. Campus-wide voting to select the queen will follow and the winner will be announced on Oct. 28.

Focus on Football Game

Homecoming activities focus on the 1:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 30, football game between the Cal Poly Mustangs and the California State College at Long Beach Forty-Niners. The Forty-Niners provided a thrilling Homecoming game in 1969 when they eked out a 22-20 victory over Cal Poly. In the post-game activities, alumni who attended Cal Poly from 1948-52 will gather at the Tar Springs Ranch near Arroyo Grande for a barbecue reunion.

The Temptations, a front running pop music group will present two concerts in the Men's Gymnasium, the first at 7:30 p.m. and the second at 10 p.m. The concerts are open to the public. Tickets for the concert are priced at $4.50 for reserved seats, $3.50 for general admission for the public; $3.50 reserved seats and $2.50 general admission for college students.

Two campus dances will begin at 9 p.m. to provide the climax for the Homecoming celebration -- one the formal Coronation Ball, the other a western dance.

Homecoming spirit on campus will begin to build at a dance in Chumash Auditorium on Friday evening, Oct. 29, in the Julian A. McPhee College Union. While the students are building floats and dancing on Friday evening, distinguished grads from each of Cal Poly's seven instructional schools will be honored at an invitational dinner hosted by President Robert E. Kennedy at the Madonna Inn. A committee of alumni who also are members of the Cal Poly faculty is in the process of selecting the distinguished alumnus of each school.

Doug Wattenberger, an animal science major from Bakersfield, is chairman of the student Homecoming Committee.

Typewritten copy intended for the next issue of Cal Poly Report must be received prior to 12 noon Friday, Oct. 8, in the Office of Information Services, Administration-210.

NEW NURSERY SCHOOL OFFERED FOR CHILDREN OF STUDENTS

Additional opportunities for child development nursery school experience are being offered to Cal Poly students this year. An on-campus nursery school, for children of students attending Cal Poly, is being operated by the Child Development Department of the School of Human Development and Education.

Carl C. Cummins (Dean of the School of Human Development and Education) said the nursery school will be the third operated by the department. It will provide experience for some 40 pre-school children and will increase opportunities available to the 325 Cal Poly students who are majoring in child development. Priority for admission to the new nursery school will be given to Cal Poly student-parents. The school will operate two three-hour periods daily.

The Child Development Department has previously operated a Nursery School Center in the Home Economics and Mathematics Building, and a Head Start Nursery School program. The three nursery schools are integral parts of the instructional program, according to Robert Christenson (Head of the Child Development Department).

Each student majoring in child development at the college must work with pre-school children in a nursery school situation to meet the requirements of the major. Additionally, each student has to meet a requirement of student-teaching experience in a nursery school.

PHOTOS FOR IDENTIFICATION CARDS STILL BEING TAKEN

All employees of the college and auxiliary organizations are invited to participate in the new identification card program. Employees who did not have their picture taken on Sept. 23 are requested to visit the ID Card Office, Adm-221, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 12 noon and 1 and 5 p.m. to have it taken. The ID cards will have a colored photograph and will provide employees with positive identification as faculty or staff of the college. The ID card will also allow expeditious use of the College Library.

OCT. 26 WILL BE DATE FOR ANNUAL C S E A BARBECUE

Tuesday, Oct. 26, is the date for the annual barbecue of Chapter 97 of the California State Employees Association, according to an announcement from the chapter. The event will take place at Cuesta Park in San Luis Obispo beginning at 6 p.m. Tickets for the barbecue are priced at $2.50 each for adults and $1.50 each for children and are being sold in advance on campus by CSEA representatives. There will be no sale at the barbecue.

VOLUNTEERS BEING SOUGHT BY HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Cal Poly Women's Club members who are willing to work as volunteers at the Student Health Center on campus are being sought by the Hospital Auxiliary of the club. Those interested in volunteering or in learning more about the Hospital Auxiliary are invited to contact Mrs. Fuad H. Tellew (544-0240) or Mrs. J. Cordner Gibson (543-2565).

Typewritten copy intended for the next issue of Cal Poly Report must be received prior to 12 noon Friday, Oct. 8, in the Office of Information Services, Administration-210.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Donald P. Grant (School of Architecture and Environmental Design) is the co-editor of the Design Methods Group Newsletter, a monthly publication of SAGE Publications of Beverly Hills. The newsletter will cease publication as a monthly late this year and will reappear as a quarterly journal titled Design Methods: A Quarterly Review. The new publication will be the first journal in design methodology, a field which dates itself from a conference held in London in 1962.

R. Elberton Smith (Economics) participated in a symposium on Southeast Asia and conducted a 3-day seminar on the Cambodian economy for the US Army's 301st Civil Affairs Group last month at Camp San Luis Obispo. Dr. Smith, who spent 3½ years as an economist for the US Agency for International Development Mission in Cambodia, was joined in the symposium by specialists from University of Michigan, Brigham Young University, Rand Corporation, and Claremont Graduate School.

Robert J. Rodin (Biological Sciences Department) was a speaker before a recent gathering of the Writers Club, a community group. Dr. Rodin, who illustrated his talk with some of his own articles from botanical journals, spoke on "Writing for Scientific Publications." Among his most recent publications is an article titled "Nodal Anatomy of Gnetum ula in Phytomorphology," which appeared in an international botanical journal published in India.

Eli S. Jenkins (English Department) was selected by the Sierra Camera Club of Sacramento to be one of three judges for the 31st North American Color Slide Exhibition of Photography, an international photographic salon (or tournament) sponsored by the Photographic Society of America, which took place Sept. 17-19 in Sacramento. Dr. Jenkins was the only two-star exhibitor among the panel judges. The salon was unusual in that it gave separate medals for slides depicting man and his environment.

Dieter Ackerknecht and Kenneth Haggard (both School of Architecture and Environmental Design) are co-authors of an article dealing with service collective and communal housing published in the April, 1971, edition of Baven and Wohnen, a German international architectural magazine. The article described the commune movement in the United States from different points of view, especially in regard to architectural expression.

Robert L. Hoover (Social Sciences Department) was a visiting professor of anthropology at Stanford University during the Summer Quarter. A member of the Cal Poly faculty for the past year, he taught courses in prehistory and primitive technology during the eight-week session. Dr. Hoover has also learned of his nomination as a fellow of the American Anthropological Society.

Milton Piuma (Staff Personnel Officer), Doris Anderson (Payroll Supervisor), Marjorie Edmondson (Payroll Transactions Clerk), and Pat Kiggins (Personnel Clerk) all attended a recent program on "Workmen's Compensation Management" at Atascadero State Hospital. About 25 representatives of state agencies operating in the San Luis Obispo County area participated in the training session, which was conducted by the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

Michael Worth (International Education Office) is now associate director of international education following announcement of a change of working title by Dale W. Andrews (Academic Vice President). Worth, who joined the college administrative staff last fall, had been working both as director of the campus Peace Corps Intern Program and as coordinator of AID participant training.

VARSITY GRIDDEERS HAVE OPEN DATE; FROSH WILL OPEN 1971 SEASON

An open date on the schedule is providing Cal Poly's varsity football team with extra time for use in preparation for its Oct. 16 encounter with cross state rival Fresno State College and, at the same time, leaves the focus of campus sports attention to the varsity cross country freshman football teams.

The Mustang griddeers, who will meet Fresno State in a 7:30 p.m. contest in Mustang Stadium on the 16th, recorded their first win of the 1971 campaign last weekend when they trounced Humboldt State College 39-21 in a game played in Arcata. Head Coach Joe Harper's charges used a devastating ground attack to open up a 17-0 lead in the first quarter and then extended it for the final margin.

San Jose State College's freshman football team will provide the opposition when Coach John Cravello's Cal Poly Colts open their abbreviated 1971 season this Friday (Oct 8) afternoon. Starting time for that contest, which is scheduled for Mustang Stadium, will be 3 p.m.

Coach Steve Simmons varsity cross country team will round out the home activity for Cal Poly fall sports teams on Saturday (Oct. 9) morning. The Mustang runners will go after their first win of the season when they host University of California at Riverside in a dual race scheduled to begin on the old track near Poly Grove at 11 a.m. They dropped the opening race of the 1971 campaign to Fresno State last week.

Road games in Los Angeles and Santa Barbara are in store this week for Coach Bill Wes-nousky's varsity soccer team. The Mustang soccer men will journey to meet University of California at Los Angeles in a game to be played tomorrow (Wednesday, Oct. 6) in Los Angeles and Westmont College in a game planned for Saturday in Santa Barbara.

COFFEE HOUR WILL HONOR RETIRING BUSINESS AFFAIRS DIRECTOR

Donald S. Nelson, who officially retired on Aug. 31 after having been on the business affairs staff of the college since 1943, will be honored with a coffee hour from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. this (Tuesday, Oct. 5) afternoon in the Staff Dining Room. Nelson was director of business affairs at the time of his retirement. Members of the college faculty and staff and their spouses are invited to attend and wish Nelson and his wife, Amorette, well.

ANNUAL FAMILY PICNIC FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS WILL BE SATURDAY

The annual picnic for Cal Poly foreign students, staged by the Foreign Students Section of the Cal Poly Women's Club, will be held Saturday, starting at (Oct. 9) 12:30 p.m., at the Poly Grove. Faculty and staff and members of their families, as well as Cal Poly foreign students are invited. Each family is asked to bring enough food for their family plus enough for a few foreign student guests. Those wishing further information about the picnic should contact Mrs. R. Elberton Smith (543-7930).

The White House has announced a new program of Presidential Internships in Science & Engineering. About 400 one-year internships will be granted for "training opportunities" in federally-funded laboratories. The program is being funded by the Department of Labor, under the Technology Mobilization and Reemployment Program. It is designed for unemployed young scientists and engineers who hold advanced degrees. Applicants "may apply directly to federally-financed laboratories for one year, non renewable internships which will be administered by the National Science Foundation."

If you're confused by all this, you are not alone. If you work here, you're not eligible, but you may know someone. My advice is to write simultaneously to National Science Foundation, the Department of Labor, the federal laboratory, and the regional Congressman.

The Mabelle McLeod Lewis Memorial Fund makes grants-in-aid for scholarly work in the humanities, which is very broadly interpreted. This year there is special interest in "improving understanding of minority group problems." There is no age limit, but faculty with tenure will ordinarily not be supported. Application forms may be obtained directly from the Fund whose address is: Box 3730, Stanford, California, 94305. Application forms must be accompanied by three recommendations from recognized scholars or research workers. Since the competition is limited to persons associated with Northern California universities and colleges, your chances seem to be good. The Fund has a special map of California which shows San Luis Obispo as being in Northern California.

The California Research and Medical Education Fund of the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of California invites applications for research grants for 1972-73. Young investigators are particularly encouraged; the announcement would not be here if the research were strictly medical. Projects may be in "... chemical, social, epidemiological, laboratory and related fields of investigation of respiratory diseases including tuberculosis. This research program also includes investigations into social and psychological factors relating to the prevention and control of these diseases."

The Ford Foundation again has a competition for advanced-study Fellowships for Mexican Americans and Puerto Ricans, American Indians, and Black Americans who have previously pursued or are now pursuing graduate study. In addition to the above qualification, applicants must be U.S. citizens, plan to engage in careers in higher education, and plan to study full-time for a Ph.D. in one of 32 fields. Fellows get tuition, fees, a book and supply allowance, and a monthly stipend which depends upon marital status and the number of dependents.

The deadline is January 14, 1972. The Foundation will send application forms only to the applicant directly. Write
