New Director of Donor Relations Joins Cal Poly College of Engineering

The College of Engineering at Cal Poly recently announced the appointment of Jennifer Endes as director of donor relations.

A graduate of CSU Sacramento, Endes has 15 years experience in development. She served as director of fund distribution for United Way of Kern County , program recruiter for MENTOR California and executive director of the Kern Adult Literacy Council. For the past five years, Endes worked with United Way of Kern County as director of resource development.

Noting the recent success of CENG's Centennial Campaign, Endes says, "The college is in an excellent position to continue the momentum of the campaign-I'm very excited about meeting the students, faculty, alumni and friends of this impressive institution and undertaking new opportunities to involve them in development activities."
