GROWTH IN EMPHASIS PROGRAMS NOTED

Enrollment in occupationally-oriented majors is continuing to be strong at Cal Poly for the Fall Quarter, but majors related to teacher education show a decline, the university announced last week. Cal Poly's emphasis fields in architecture, agriculture, engineering, and related programs in business, home economics, and the sciences all maintained their enrollments of last year or reflected increases, according to L. H. Dunigan (Director of Institutional Studies).

Dunigan said a preliminary figure for Fall Quarter registration at Cal Poly does not include students who were expected to enroll during late registration continuing through Monday (Oct. 2). Total enrollment had reached 12,134 by close of the regular registration period, according to Dunigan. That figure is only 3 students lower than the 12,137 students who had registered at a comparable time last fall. An enrollment of 12,300 students had been projected for the Fall Quarter. Enrollment projections are developed many months in advance and are normally expected to include a two or three percent plus-or-minus variance.

Dunigan said that the most significant decreases in Cal Poly's Fall Quarter enrollment are in graduate education programs and in those fields responsible for developing undergraduate students who would be going into teaching. He specifically listed English, history, speech, physical education for men and women, child development, mathematics, and social sciences.

Walter Schroeder (head of the Education Department) credited recent publicity given to the crowded employment picture in public education for the drop in enrollments in both graduate education and other teacher-preparation programs.

In addition to areas where degree programs are new, curricula showing the largest increases in Fall Quarter registration include architectural engineering, crop science, fruit science, city and regional planning, economics, ornamental horticulture, political science and soil science.

ADDITIONAL SALARY INEQUITY INCREASES GRANTED BY TRUSTEES

Certain existing salary inequity adjustments for staff and administrative employees were approved by the Trustees of The California State University and Colleges during the Sept. 26-27 meeting of the board in Los Angeles. Equity increases of 1.0, 2.5, 3.5, 5.0, and 6.5 percent beyond the general and equity salary increases previously granted by the Trustees were made retroactive to July 1, 1972. It is expected that retroactive payments will be made available by the State Controller in about two weeks. Lists of those classes affected by this action have been sent to the deans, division heads, and department heads. Additional copies of the lists and other information about the newly-announced raises may be obtained at the Personnel Office, Adm-110, 546-2236.

FALL QUARTER HOLIDAYS LISTED

The schedule of holidays for staff, administrative, and 10- or 12-month academic employees of the university for the remainder of the 1972 calendar year was announced last week by Larry R. Voss (Director of Personnel Relations). They are:

Monday, Oct. 9 (CTO Day)*	-- Columbus Day (2nd Monday in October)
Monday, Oct. 23	-- Veteran's Day (4th Monday in October)
Tuesday, Nov. 7 (CTO Day)*	-- Election Day
Thursday, Nov. 23	-- Thanksgiving Day
Friday, Nov. 24*	-- University Holiday
Monday, Dec. 25	-- Christmas Day

(* -- Since Oct. 9 (Columbus Day) and Nov. 7 (General Election Day) are scheduled work days at Cal Poly, credit for compensating time off (CTO) will be granted to employees who work those days. In addition, CTO credit for Nov. 7 will be used on Friday, Nov. 24, to provide employees with a four-day Thanksgiving Day weekend.)

Voss pointed out that a complete list of academic holidays for academic year faculty employees appears on pages 4-7 of the current university catalog.

LIBRARY SCHEDULES TOUR FOR NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

A tour of the University Library for the benefit of the faculty members who joined the staff since the 1971-72 school year will be offered from 11 a.m. to 12 noon on Thursday (Oct. 5), according to L. Harry Strauss (Director of the University Library).

Librarians will welcome the new faculty members in the Library foyer and escort them on a tour of the Library's departments and sections. The heads of departments and sections will give short descriptions of their facilities and services and copies of Know Your Library and the revised Faculty Library Handbook will be distributed.

Strauss urged all new faculty members to take advantage of the tour of the University Library's facilities.

PARKING PERMITS STILL AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

Parking permits for the Fall Quarter are still available at a cost of $9 at the State Cashier's Office in the Administration Building. Annual permits covering the Fall, Winter and Spring quarters are also available at a cost of $27. Those purchasing the permits will be required to present their faculty-staff ID cards at the time of purchase.

Enrollment totals for Cal Poly's seven academic schools at close of the regular registration period were: Agriculture and Natural Resources, 2,539; Architecture and Environmental Design, 1,403; Business and Social Sciences, 1,536; Communicative Arts and Humanities, 955; Engineering and Technology, 2,394; Human Development and Education, 1,885; and Science and Mathematics, 1,422.

QUEZADA IN NEW ADMINISTRATIVE POST

Appointment of Oscar Quezada, 26, to the position of administrative assistant on the President's Office staff at Cal Poly has been announced by President Robert E. Kennedy. Quezada, who has been co-director of Cal Poly's Educational Opportunity Program for the past year, officially began last month. He will continue to assist the EOP office until a replacement is found, however.

A graduate of Fillmore High School, the new administrative assistant has been at Cal Poly since 1965 -- first as a student, then as a part-time member of the teaching and student affairs staffs while working on his master's degree, and then as a member of the EOP staff. He completed study for his bachelor's degree in agricultural business management in 1971 and received his master's degree in education in June of this year.

Prior to assuming his assignment with the university's EOP office, Quezada was on the staff of its Placement and Financial Aid Office and filled part-time teaching assignments with its Education and Ethnic Studies Departments. He also was a part-time teacher for the Atascadero Unified School District.

PLANT SALE AT O H UNIT SCHEDULED THIS WEEKEND

The annual fall landscaping plant sale of the Ornamental Horticulture Department will be held Friday and Saturday (Oct. 6-7). Plants will be offered for sale in the campus produce store on both Friday and Saturday. The sale merchandise also will be available at the Ornamental Horticulture Department retail sales laboratory from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Landscaping plants in one and five-gallon containers will be available in a two-for-the-price of one offer. In addition, potted plants and fall floral arrangements will be for sale. All of the products in the sale have been grown by students majoring in ornamental horticulture at Cal Poly.

FIRST ASIAN FESTIVAL AT POLY WILL BE OCT. 10-15

The history of China related through an art show, film, and forums on Asian history and the role of Asian people in the United States; demonstrations of Chinese cooking; and a talent show will all be part of the Asian Festival to be held Oct. 10-15 at Cal Poly. The program is sponsored by the Ethnic Program Board of the Associated Students, Inc., and is open to the public.

The festival will begin with a Chinese Lion Dance in the Julian A. McPhee College Union Plaza at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 10. Information tables and concessions offering non-perishable Chinese foods will be operated daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the plaza.

The art exhibit, loaned by the Republic of China Culture Center in San Francisco, will include costumes, paintings, stamp collections, pottery work, records, slides and photographs all representing different dynasties in Chinese history. It will be on display from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily in Room 221 of the College Union.

Typewritten copy intended for the next issue of Cal Poly Report must be received prior to 12 noon Friday, Oct. 6, in the Office of Information Services, Administration-210.

Forums, preceded by related film or slide shows, will be held in the College Union beginning at 7 p.m. on Tuesday through Thursday and Agnes Lee, wife of a former Cal Poly engineering technology student Noel Lee of Livermore, will demonstrate the making of two Chinese cold dishes at 12 noon and 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 14, in a wing of Chumash Auditorium in the College Union.

Simultaneously, films of Hong Kong, Taiwan, and mainland China will be shown in the center section of Chumash Auditorium, and panel discussions on the contemporary life style in China will be led by Rob Coe of University of California at Santa Cruz. Dr. Coe spent 10 weeks in China recently.

A special attraction will be the showing of the film, "Execution in Autumn," at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 13, in the Cal Poly Theater and the talent show in the Cal Poly Theater at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 14, will round out the festival.

Admission to the film will be 50 cents for students and 75 cents for all others. All other events for the festival will be free.

FACULTY MEMBER WILL CONDUCT CAMPUS TREE WALK ON OCT. 14

New and returning staff and faculty members interested in knowing the names and cultural requirements of many of the trees on the Cal Poly campus are invited to take an informal tree walk the morning of Oct. 14 from 9 to 10:30 o'clock. Winton "Woody" Frey (Ornamental Horticulture Department) will conduct the walking discussion of campus trees starting at 9 a.m. and continuing through 10:30. All those interested in participating are invited to contact Frey by telephoning 546-2224 or to meet at the clock tower of the Business Administration and Education Building at 9 a.m. on Oct. 14.

PLANS FOR RENO TRIP ANNOUNCED BY UNIVERSITY CLUB

Reservations for a two-day bus tour to Reno for the Cal Poly-University of Nevada at Reno football game on Oct. 28 were announced last week by Mrs. Doris Barrowman (Duplicating Center), who is in charge of arrangements for the tour for the sponsoring Cal Poly University Club. Mrs. Barrowman said the cost for the tour, including transportation and lodging at the Sierra Inn in Reno, will be $39 per person for double room accommodations. The bus will depart from San Luis Obispo at 5 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 27, and return sometime on Sunday, Oct. 29. Those interested in making reservations are invited to contact Mrs. Barrowman in the Duplicating Center, Adm-111, 546-2195, before Oct. 12.

OPEN-ENROLLMENT PERIOD ANNOUNCED FOR A C S U P INSURANCE PROGRAMS

The Association of California State University Professors (formerly the Association of California State College Professors) has announced an open-enrollment period effective from Sept. 15 through Dec. 15 on its organization-sponsored insurance plans. The organization is featuring a new "group purchase ordinary" plan. For additional information, contact Mrs. Mary Smith in the Personnel Office, Adm-110, 546-2236.

✓ CHECK IT OUT

(QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS appear under the above heading from time to time when material is of general interest. Questions may be submitted to the Information Services Office, Adm-210.)

- Q. Is there a law governing the sale of term and other research papers in California?
- A. The sale or advertising for sale of term papers and other research papers for presentation for credit in higher education institutions is covered by AB 230 (Keysor), which was approved by both houses of the Legislature and signed by Governor Ronald Reagan recently. The bill, which had the endorsement of the Trustees of The California State University and Colleges, makes it illegal to prepare, sell, or distribute any term paper or other written material for a fee by one person on behalf of another person who has been assigned the written preparation of such material at any public or private institution of learning in California.
- Q. When does AB 230 (Keysor) take effect?
- A. Sometime early next year, most likely late February or early March. Like other new laws that do not contain an emergency clause, AB230, officially becomes law on the 61st day after close of the legislative session during which it was approved by the Legislature and signed by the governor.

BRIDGES IS CAL POLY'S NEW CROSS COUNTRY COACH

Larry M. Bridges, a member of Cal Poly's Physical Education Department faculty for the past two years, is the university's new cross country coach. His appointment to that position, which will be in addition to his teaching duties, was announced recently by Carl C. Cummins (Dean of the School of Human Development and Education).

A native of Terre Haute, Ind., Bridges earned three degrees, including master's degrees in both physical education and health, at Indiana State University. While doing graduate work at Indiana State, he coached that university's cross country team to a conference championship and was an assistant coach for its league champion track and field team.

Before assuming his duties at Cal Poly in 1970, Bridges was a member of the Wayne State University (Mich.) faculty and was coach of a track club team.

SECURITY OFFICE STILL REGISTERING BICYCLES

The Security Department is still offering a voluntary, free registration service for bicycles, according to George W. Cockriel (Chief Security Officer). Purpose of the service is to help protect bicycles by having a record of the type, make, and serial number which will be a valuable identification in case it is stolen. Members of the staff, faculty, and student body who have not already done so are invited to take their bicycles to the Security Office, which is located adjacent to the Campus Firehouse, between 2 and 8 p.m. on any weekday to have them registered.

The final day for students to withdraw from Fall Quarter classes without penalty will be Monday, Oct. 9.

FOUR VACANT STAFF POSITIONS LISTED BY PERSONNEL OFFICER

Four vacant positions on the support staff of the university have been announced by S. Milton Piuma (Staff Personnel Officer). Descriptions of the positions and other vacancies are posted on the bulletin board located outside the Personnel Office, Adm-110, 546-2236. Those interested in applying for any of the positions should contact the Personnel Office to obtain an application. Cal Poly is an Affirmative Action employer. The positions are:

Athletic Equipment Attendant I (half-time), ($258.50-$314), Women's Physical Education Department, School of Human Development and Education. Duties and responsibilities include storing, issuing, maintaining, and repairing athletic equipment and clothing used in physical education classes. Applicants must be high school graduates with experience in working with students.

Intermediate Account Clerk ($484-$589), Accounting Office, Business Affairs Division. Duties and responsibilities include preparing and issuing receipts for various day-to-day collections of university funds; balancing cash at the end of each day; providing cashiering assistance at regular and special registrations of students or participants; and providing other accounting-related assistance as required. Applicants must have passed the General Clerical Test, be high school graduates with one year of accounting experience, and be bondable.

Affirmative Action Coordinator ($927-$1128), Personnel Office, Administration. Duties include coordination of Affirmative Action Program; assisting in recruitment, selection and placement of minority group members and women; initiation of contacts and meetings with public officials and minority groups relative to the Affirmative Action Program; and serving on the University's Affirmative Action Compliance Committee. Applicants should possess a bachelor's degree (qualifying experience may be substituted). Two to three years administrative experience required, preferably in personnel work or other experience with minority groups and organizations. Although the position is available through the fiscal year 1972-73, continuance of the position is contingent upon 1973-74 budgetary allocation.

Departmental Secretary I-B ($548-$666), School of Architecture and Environmental Design. Duties and responsibilities include secretarial duties for the two directors and assisting parents, future students, and visitors with general information regarding curricula and operations in the School of Architecture and Environmental Design. Applicants must have passed the General Clerical Test, be high school graduates with two years of clerical experience, be able to take dictation at 90 wpm and type 45 wpm.

BOLA SETE WILL PERFORM ON SUNDAY EVENING

The languid rhythms of Brazil will fill the Chumash Auditorium of the Julian A. McPhee College Union at Cal Poly at 8 p.m. on Sunday (Oct. 8) when Bola Sete performs on his classical six-string guitar. The performance is sponsored by the Special Events Committee of the Associated Students, Inc. The public is invited. Admission will be $1 for all. Bola Sete is a native of Brazil who was introduced to the American music scene at the Monterey Jazz Festival more than a decade ago. A diverse artist, he is equally at home with classical guitar selections, Flamenco, and jazz. One of his career triumphs was taming the hard-rock audience at Fillmore-West with his melodious guitar performance.

SALE OF SURPLUS FURNITURE ANNOUNCED BY CAL POLY FOUNDATION

The Cal Poly Foundation has announced plans for a warehouse sale of surplus furniture, equipment, and miscellaneous items no longer needed for its housing program. The sale will be conducted on weekdays between Oct. 24 and Oct. 31, in the Foundation Warehouse, according to Raymond Baker (Foundation Housing Manager).

Items to be offered for sale will include metal beds with headboards and footboards at $5; metal desks at $5; metal chests of drawers at $5; chairs at $1; and others too numerous to mention. A sample of the major items will be on display in the Warehouse during the sale. All of the items on the sale list are currently in storage in various locations on campus.

Baker emphasized that all of the furniture, equipment, and other items offered in the sale will be sold in "as is" condition, on a cash and carry basis only, and with no returns or refunds. Buyers must have their own transportation and remove all purchases immediately.

Purchases of desks and chests of drawers will be limited to two each per individual purchaser during the period of the sale. Any and all remaining items will be sold on a first come, first served basis on the final day of the sale period.

In order to satisfy the requirements of the sale, purchases will be limited to Cal Poly student organizations on Oct. 24 and 25; individual faculty, staff, and students on Oct. 26 and 27; and youth organizations on Oct 30. Remaining items will be sold on a first come, first served basis on Oct. 31. Sale hours will be 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

VARSITY GRIDDERS FACE CRUCIAL TEST THIS WEEKEND

Cal Poly's varsity football team will have to prove its strength for the fourth Saturday in succession when it hosts the nationally-ranked Boise State College eleven this Saturday (Oct. 7) evening in Mustang Stadium. Kickoff time for the game will be 7:30 p.m.

Head Coach Joe Harper's charges tuned up for this week's encounter by posting their third consecutive victory of 1972 -- a 34-0 pasting of a California State University, Humboldt team that had lost by a 21-15 margin to Boise State a week earlier.

The Mustangs have now scored 110 points and allowed 7 en route to their 3-0 won-lost record. Boise State, which belted Weber State College in its most recent effort, is the odds-on favorite to win the Big Sky Conference title this fall. The Broncos, owners of a perfect 3-0 won-lost mark, were ranked sixth in the most recent Associated Press ranking of the nation's college teams.

DEATH OF MARY JANE DUVALL NOTED BY CAMPUS COMMUNITY

The death of Mary Jane Duvall, a secretary employee on the staff of the School of Architecture and Environmental Design, saddened the entire Cal Poly campus community last week. Miss Duvall, a member of the university staff since 1971, died in a San Luis Obispo hospital on Thursday (Sept. 28) after a brief illness. There were no services at her request.

HOURS FOR RECREATIONAL SWIMMING PROGRAM LISTED

Full Quarter hours for the recreational swimming program operated at the Natatorium adjacent to Crandall Gymnasium by the Women's Physical Education Department were announced last week. The program provides swimming opportunities for students, faculty, and staff of the university only from 5 to 6 p.m. on Monday through Friday. In addition, students, faculty, and staff of the university, as well as dependents of all three groups, may swim on Wednesday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 2 to 4 p.m.

The announcement pointed out that all persons using the pool during recreational swimming hours must have an appropriate university ID card the first time they swim. Dependent children who attend without being accompanied by a parent will be asked to provide the parent's name, university ID card number, department, and names of all children who will swim on that card, the first time they swim. This step is being taken in an attempt to make the recreation swimming program more enjoyable for those associated with the university.

All swimmers must provide their own swim suits and towels and those with long hair must wear swim caps.

OUTINGS CENTER NOW OPEN IN COLLEGE UNION

The Outings Center, an operation of the College Program Board's Outings Committee is open in its new facilities in Room 104 of the Julian A. McPhee College Union as a result of a cooperative effort involving the College Union Board of Governors, the Associated Students, Inc., the Business Affairs Division and the Cal Poly Foundation.

All members of the campus community are invited to visit the Outings Center between the hours of 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 2 to 4 p.m. on Friday. Information about outings planned for the coming weeks by the Outings Committee and equipment rentals are available at the center.

CORRECTIONS FOR STATE UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGES DIRECTORY

Two corrections for the directory of state universities and colleges, which was distributed as an attachment to last week's Cal Poly Report, have been noted and should be noted on copies being used for reference. For the California State University, Sacramento, entry, James M. Bond should be listed as president, and the zip code for the California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, entry should be changed to read "97166."

PHYSICS COLLOQUIUM PLANNED FOR THURSDAY MORNING

Harold Romero (Physics Department) will be the speaker for the Physics Department colloquium which is being planned for an 11 a.m. start on Thursday (Oct. 5) in Sci-E-26. Dr. Romero's topic will be "The Measurement of Universal Black Body Reaction." Faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend.

Veterans Day, Monday, Oct. 23, will be an Academic Holiday for students, faculty, and staff of the university.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Alfred W. Amaral (Executive Director, Cal Poly Foundation) is one of three persons selected as at-large directors of the newly-founded Western Association of College Auxiliary Services. He was named to the post during a meeting of the association held recently in San Francisco. Amaral, a member of the university faculty and staff since 1967 assumed his present assignment in 1971, after having been a member of the Agricultural Management Department faculty.

Robert G. Valpey (Dean of Engineering and Technology) has been appointed to an indefinite term as a member of the Ad Hoc Committee on Technology Education of the statewide Articulation Conference by Chancellor of The California State University and Colleges, Glenn S. Dumke. Beside his membership on the technology education committee, which makes recommendations on technology education agreements between high schools, community colleges, and college and universities, Dr. Valpey is also a member and past chairman of the Articulation Conference's Engineering Liaison Committee.

Philip K. Ruggles (Graphic Communications Department) combined business with pleasure during a summer trip through Europe. Ruggles visited printing plants and historical sites in Paris, Zurich, Copenhagen, Amsterdam, and London. Also included in his itinerary were the plant which manufactures Heidelberg printing presses, the Gutenberg Museum in Mainz, Germany, and the London College of Printing.

Mary Lou Brady (Curriculum Librarian, University Library) authored a review of Andre Norton's new novel, Dragon Magic, which was published in the June 15 edition of School Library Journal. Miss Brady, a former editorial assistant on the staff of The National Catholic Monthly, has been a member of the Library's staff since 1968. School Library Journal is a monthly publication.

Robin Lake (Speech Department) attended the conventions of two professional organizations interested in drama during recent weeks. Both dominated by workshops, demonstrations, and panel discussions, they were the Children's Theatre Association, which met in Palo Alto, and the American Theatre Association, which met in San Francisco. Lake has been the director of a number of campus dramatic productions the past two years.

John Y. Hsu (Computer Science and Statistics Department) has recently learned of the extension of his appointment as a consultant for the Federal Electric Corporation. A specialist in computer software, hardware, and architecture, Dr. Hsu has recently been nominated for inclusion in Who's Who, Computers and Education, and in American Men and Women of Science.

Missing from the Cal Poly faculty during the Fall Quarter is Habib Sheik (English Department). Sheik, who has been at Cal Poly since 1965, is on leave of absence working on his studies for the Doctor of Philosophy Degree at University of Nebraska.

Randolph Grayson (Biological Sciences Department), who joined the university faculty last month, has been informed by Michigan State University that all requirements for his Doctor of Philosophy Degree in botany and plant physiology have been completed.

Edward A. Cairns (English Department) was a participant in meetings of the Northern California Advisory Group on CLEP and Other Equivalency Examinations in Freshman English at California State University, recently. Dr. Cairns, a member of the Cal Poly faculty since 1969, is working on a testing program for English composition at the statewide level.

Alfred M. Bachman (Mathematics Department) was recently elected vice chairman of the Lucia Mar School District's Citizen Task Force. Dr. Bachman has been serving on the Task Force since its inception last February. Appointed by the district's Board of Trustees, it has a three-fold task: 1) to establish local educational goals; 2) to recommend programs for meeting those goals; and 3) to evaluate the effectiveness of current programs in meeting those goals. The Lucia Mar district covers all of Southern San Luis Obispo County.

Andrew D. Jones (Head of the Transportation Engineering Department) has just received word from Purdue University that he has successfully completed all requirements for his Doctor of Philosophy Degree. Dr. Jones, who assumed his duties at Cal Poly last month, was a member of the engineering staff of the Texas Highways Department for 18 years. His last assignment there was a senior design engineer. He was a member of the Purdue teaching staff during the time he was studying there and formerly taught at University of Texas at El Paso on a part-time basis.

John R. Healey (Head of the Journalism Department) has been named to the Board of Judges which annually selects recipients of the Justus F. Craemer Award for the California Press Association. The award goes to the person selected each year as California's newspaper "publisher of the year."

Linden Nelson (Psychology Department) attended the 80th annual convention of the American Psychological Association in Honolulu early last month. Dr. Nelson took part in a symposium titled "Cultural and Developmental Determinants of the Cooperative and Competitive Behavior of Children."

John R. Groves (Computer Science and Statistics Department) has returned to his teaching assignment after a leave of absence during which he completed study for his Doctor of Philosophy Degree in statistics at Kansas State University. Dr. Groves has been a member of the Cal Poly faculty since 1968.

Sara S. Behman (Business Administration Department) presented a paper titled "Measuring Trends in Output Per Manhour for Specific Craft Operations" at a conference sponsored recently by the National Commission on Productivity and the Construction Industry Collective Bargaining Commission. The conference took place in Washington, D.C.

COLOR WILL BE TOPIC FOR WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING

"Color: How It Affects Your Personality and Purchases" will be presented to members of the Cal Poly Women's Club when they hold their first general meeting of the year in Tenaya Hall Lounge, next Tuesday (Oct. 10) at 8 p.m. Margaret Russell of Ameritone Color Key Corporation will be the guest speaker.

Color Key is a system of color selection by which over 600 colors have been divided into two distinct "color keys." The two keys cannot be interchanged and each person fits into one of these groups. Ameritone reports that Californians prefer different colors than most other geographical areas of the United States.

All members of the Cal Poly Women's Club are invited to attend the meeting.

The Chancellor's Office has funded a systemwide innovative project for Computer-based Instruction. "Faculty who have developed computer-based instructional materials and who would like one-quarter released time to have the opportunity to present them to their colleagues in the other 19 universities and colleges in the system should contact:

Dr. R. Gene Geisler
Computing Network Laboratory
School of Behavioral and Social Science
California State University, San Francisco
19th and Holloway Avenue
San Francisco, California 94132"

NOTE: While it is appropriate to get more details about this program directly from Dr. Geisler, any formal request must be submitted by way of your department head and dean.

The Agency for International Development, a branch of the U.S. Department of State, awards research contracts in about a dozen fields of interest to AID. Most contracts are in some aspects of agriculture such as crops, soils, marketing, and livestock. This office has the brochure on general guidelines. Preliminary proposals are encouraged. For information, you may write to:

The governments of Japan and of West Germany recently announced the establishment of foundations to support studies of interest to each government and the U.S.A. The German Marshall Fund (a memorial to the Marshall Plan) will receive about $3.1 million annually for 15 years. Areas of interest to this Fund are: (1) comparative consideration of problems of advanced industrial societies in Europe, (2) the study of international relations (common to the U.S.A. and Europe), and (3) European studies. For information write to:
