POLICY ON CLASS DISMISSAL ISSUED

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke of the California State Colleges has issued an executive order reaffirming a policy that dismissal of classes in support of social or political causes is a violation of professional ethics.

"Effective on and after this date (September 26), each college president shall assure himself that his faculty maintains the highest professional standards and meets its assigned obligations to the students," the order states.

"Dismissal by an individual faculty member of his classes as a demonstration in support of a particular social or political movement shall be considered a violation of professional ethics and a failure or refusal to perform the normal and reasonable duties of the position, and Presidents shall institute formal disciplinary proceedings in such cases."

C. Mansel Keene, assistant chancellor for faculty and staff affairs, noted in a background statement that is a part of the order: "The faculty has a specific and clear responsibility to protect the academic freedom of the students. This obligation is an acknowledged part of academic mores and has been restated by both the American Association of University Professors and the Academic Senate of the California State Colleges.

"One aspect of the student's academic freedom is the right to pursue his course of studies in an uninterrupted manner and at an assigned time and place. The professor has the right and responsibility to control his own classroom, including the content and techniques of instruction, so long as he does not diminish the rights of his students.

"Charged with the responsibility for a particular class, he (the faculty member) has the obligation to meet that class to further the students' academic goals. It is recognized that, from time to time, individual faculty members may decide that particular classes should be adjourned to enable the student to participate in appropriate guest lectures, academic convocations, or special seminars," Dr. Keene continued.

"The faculty member must, in such circumstances, assure himself that such activity furthers the academic goals of the student in that particular class. He must be prepared to justify such dismissal, if called upon to do so. Dismissal of classes as a demonstration in support of particular social or political movements or goals does not fall in the above category.

"Such dismissal constitutes unwarranted and unprofessional interference with the academic freedom of the student, depriving him of his expected academic situation and forcing him to support political or social goals with which he may not sympathize."

GROUP CAPTAINS FOR A I D-UNITED GIVERS DRIVE NAMED

Group captains for Cal Poly's 1969 Associated In-group Donors - United Givers fund drive are presently being appointed by President Robert E. Kennedy, who has been named by Governor Ronald Reagan to head the campaign among state employees in San Luis Obispo County. Milton Piuma (Staff Personnel Officer) will head the campus effort.

Piuma said orientation sessions for the captains, who will each be responsible for contacting 10 designated persons, are scheduled for this week. The first such gathering will take place today (Tuesday, Oct. 7), starting at 1:30 p.m., in the Staff Dining Room. Scheduled to take part in that session are both Dr. Kennedy and Mrs. Ruth Woll, AID division manager for San Luis Obispo County.

Other orientation gatherings for the group captains are planned for tomorrow (Wednesday, Oct. 8) at 3 p.m., also in the Staff Dining Room, and Thursday (Oct. 9), at 11 a.m., in Sci-E-27. Question and answer periods will be included in each of the sessions.

Piuma reported that Cal Poly recorded a 300 percent gain in the amount contributed through AID during the 1968 campaign over the preceeding year. He said more than $14,500 was given by members of the college faculty and staff last year.

FORUM ON HOUSING AND DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULED BY SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

Charles Quinlan and Allan Johnson (both School of Architecture) are among those slated to take part in a public forum on "Housing and Community Development," which will take place tomorrow (Oct. 8) evening, starting at 7:30 p.m., in the Veteran's Memorial Building, San Luis Obispo.

Speaker for the program, which is being sponsored by the School of Architecture, along with the San Luis Obispo League of Women Voters and that city's Human Relations Commission, will be Marie McGuire, presently an assistant administrator in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Affairs and a former chief administrator of the U.S. Public Housing Administration.

The public is invited to attend the forum program, which will be presented without an admission charge.

PROGRESS FEATURED IN NEW ISSUE OF "CAL POLY TODAY"

Stories of academic progress are featured in the October issue of Cal Poly Today now being distributed to some 17,000 former students and friends of the college. The tabloid newspaper, published by Cal Poly with the assistance of the Cal Poly Alumni Association, features accreditation of five engineering curricula in the School of Engineering and Technology, the college's new Bachelor of Science Degree program in computer science, and the new $1.6 million Computer Science Building.

The publication also reports on California State Colleges awards to three distinguished teachers at Cal Poly. Receiving the awards for 1968-69 were Robert M. Johnson (Mechanical Engineering), Dr. Bruce Kennelly (Head of Chemistry), and Mrs. Alice E. Roberts (Education). Also featured in the October issue of Cal Poly Today are Homecoming plans (Saturday, Nov. 1) and excerpts from the fall convocation address of President Robert E. Kennedy.

FOUNDER OF SELF-HELP PROGRAM FOR GUATEMALA PLANS CAMPUS VISIT

Samuel Greene, a retired attorney who has spent the past 16 years helping Guatemalans help themselves, will address several campus groups during a three-day visit at Cal Poly next week. Highlights of his stay will be a public address scheduled for next Tuesday (Oct. 14) evening in the Cal Poly Theater, and a talk before the Cal Poly Staff Club in the Staff Dining Room at 12 noon, Oct. 16.

Greene, 77, will be a guest of President Robert E. Kennedy during his stay in San Luis Obispo. He hosted Dr. Kennedy in 1968 while the college president was in Guatemala City inspecting Cal Poly's Agency for International Development program there.

The result of the efforts of the former resident of New York City and Montclair, N.J., in the Latin American nation is the Penny Foundation, which aids 43 self-help projects ranging from cooperatives to the first regular medical care some rural villages have ever received.

Prior to his retirement from business in 1953, Greene had a successful career of buying ailing businesses and restoring their health. In contrast, according to the New York Times, he is now as busy as ever trying to doctor a sick economic and social system in Guatemala.

There is no admission charge for the Oct. 14 program, which is scheduled for 8 p.m. Co-sponsors of the appearance are Cal Poly, the Speakers Forum Committee of Cal Poly's Associated Students, Inc., and the student International Council.

$50,000 GRANT WILL FINANCE I M P PRODUCTIONS DURING 1969-70

Increasing acceptance of the visual aids prepared by the Instructional Materials Program of the Vocational Education Productions housed at Cal Poly made it possible for the project to receive a $50,000 grant from federal Vocational Education Act funds for the current academic year. The grant is used for research and development of new visual aids.

Clyde Hostetter (Director of Instructional Materials Program) reports demand for the visual aids increased 40 percent during the 1968-69 academic year and 300 percent in the past two years. The program produces visual aids for use in high school and junior college vocational agricultural classes. More than 1,000 high schools and junior colleges throughout the nation use the materials. The visual aids also are utilized in several foreign nations after having been introduced to those nations by members of Cal Poly teams under contract to the Agency for International Development, United States State Department.

The federal grant covers costs of designing and preparation of masters for the film strips, manuals, and overhead projection materials. Hostetter says the latest grant will cover the costs of preparing manuals in landscape design and landscape maintenance, slide sets on the California Future Farmers of America and California Young Farmers, and slides and overhead transparencies on tree identification, weights and measures, soil science and on watershed management and water pollution. The grant will also finance preparation of new filmstrips on natural resources management, California economic insects, weed identification, crop propagation methods, and adjustment and maintenance of selected farm equipment.

ACADEMIC MASTER PLAN REVISION APPROVED BY TRUSTEES

Cal Poly's revised Academic Master Plan, a copy of which was distributed by President Robert E. Kennedy with his memo of Sept. 24 on "Purposes and Goals for Cal Poly," was approved by the California State College Trustees during their Sept. 24 meeting. The trustees, in approving the system-wide Academic Master Plan for the period 1970-71 through 1974-75, emphasized that the revised plans should be used as the basis for reviewing the physical Campus Master Plans for each of the campuses.

In the approving resolution, the trustees also pointed out: "that only degree programs included in these Academic Master Plans are authorized for implementation, at approximately the dates indicated in the plans, subject in each instance to the Chancellor's determination of both need and feasibility, and that financial support, qualified faculty, physical facilities and library holdings sufficient to establish and maintain the program will be available."

"GRAND OPENING" SALE SLATED AT O H UNIT

The Cal Poly Ornamental Horticulture Department will hold a Grand Opening and two-for-the-price-of-one sale at its new facility on Campus Way, adjacent to the Horse Unit, Saturday (Oct. 11). Howard Brown (Head of Ornamental Horticulture Department) says tours of the new instructional facility will be offered. Free coffee will also be available and a fall floral arrangement exhibit is planned.

A large selection of landscape plants will be available on the two-for-the-price-of-one plan. There will be other plants available, as well as fresh flowers for decorative use. Dr. Brown says the late summer period through Oct. 14 is the best time to plant shrubs and trees in the San Luis Obispo area. All of the products to be sold during the sale have been produced by students in the management enterprise program.

CAMPUS TALK BY DICK GREGORY SCHEDULED FOR MEN'S GYM

The reactions to black comedian and lecturer Dick Gregory have run from the statement that he is the "man most hated by the Ku Klux Klan" to describing him as a "passionately dedicated man." Gregory's reactions to the racial crisis have gone from running for president (he was on the ballot in five states), to going on two hunger strikes which lasted more than forty days each, to crossing the country speaking to youths.

San Luis Obispo will get a chance to draw its own conclusions on the controversial Gregory. The 35-year-old activist is scheduled to appear on campus, Oct. 17. Gregory will speak at 8 p.m. in the Men's Gym. This appearance is sponsored by the College Program Speakers Forum Committee, and Associated Students, Inc.

Tickets for Gregory's appearance are 50 cents for Cal Poly students and $1.50 for the general public. They are available at the Associated Students Office on campus; at Brown's Music, Premier Music, Supersonic, and Ogden's Stationers in San Luis Obispo; and at the door prior to the Oct. 17 program.

Cal Poly Report is produced by the Office of Information Services, Administration 210. Material should be submitted in writing prior to noon Friday.

53 BULLS READY FOR OCT. 20 AUCTION

Fifty-three range bulls groomed by Cal Poly students are ready for a final trial Oct. 20. They will be sold that day during the 11th annual trial bull auction which is combined with the Tri-County Hereford Breeders Association sale. The sale will be held in the Beef Judging Pavilion on campus beginning at 11 a.m.

The trial bulls have been on a rate-of-gain test in the campus feedlot since Feb. 1. Bulls have been entered in the trial by nine Hereford breeders from throughout California. Frank Fox (Animal Husbandry Department) reports the bulls had daily rates-of-gain while on the test that varied from 1.40 pounds to 2.24 pounds. They were born between Sept. 1, 1967, and Jan. 1, 1968. Their weights range from 1,078 to 1,551 pounds. The 53 test bulls will be joined by 30 bulls consigned by the members of the Tri-County association.

Test bull consignors are Rancho Amigo of Watsonville; Floyd Bidwell, Cassel; Cal Poly; Clarence Dudley, Etna; E and K Farms, Watsonville; John Layous and Sons, King City; Mt. View Ranch, Dixon; W. S. Orvis and Sons, Farmington; and San Felipe Ranch, San Jose. Consignors to the Tri-County portion of the auction are the Triangle 1 Ranch of Lompoc; Dos Pueblos Ranch, Goleta; Diamond Ranch, San Luis Obispo; Andrew Joughin of Santa Ynez; and Cal Poly.

BRONC RIDING DEMONSTRATIONS PLANNED FOR JUNIOR RODEO

The excitement of bareback and saddle bronc riding will be added to the Santa Lucia Junior Rodeo Saturday (Oct. 11). Greg Riedel, a pint-sized bull rider with a growing string of rodeo awards, will demonstrate the art of bronc riding during the junior rodeo in Collett Arena, on campus, beginning at 1 p.m., on that date. Riedel will be joined by Melvin Dick for the demonstrations. Both men are students representing Cal Poly in National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association competition.

A junior animal husbandry major at Cal Poly, Riedel, 21, has been around rodeos almost since he has been able to walk. Last year he was the third-ranked Brahma bull rider in the NIRA. He has been a member of Cal Poly's rodeo team for two years. Dick, also 21, is an agricultural business management major.

The two students' demonstrations rides will be an added attraction at the Santa Lucia Junior Rodeo in which youths aged 9 to 18 years will participate. Scheduled competitive events include calf riding, cow riding, calf roping, steer stopping, team roping, the cloverleaf barrel race, and ribbon race.

The public is invited to attend the rodeo, which will be the first junior rodeo to be held in San Luis Obispo. It is being co-sponsored by the Santa Lucia Council of Boy Scouts of America and the Cal Poly Rodeo Club. A $1 donation will be collected. Boy Scouts throughout San Luis Obispo County now are selling tickets for the event.

SERVICES OF A-V DEPARTMENT AVAILABLE TO FACULTY

Members of the faculty who wish to order films from outside sources are requested to use the facilities of the Audio Visual Department for that purpose. They are invited to telephone, write, or visit the A-V Service Office, BAandE-9, 546-2211, to make the necessary arrangements. By doing so, arrangements for borrowing a film, use of a projector, and return of the film to the lender can all be arranged at one time. Latest catalogs of available films are on file in the Service Office and up-to-date mailing addresses are on hand.

Marcus Gold (Acting Head of Audio Visual Department) pointed out this week that films borrowed by instructors from outside sources are the direct responsibility of the instructor. The A-V Department is not set up to return or pay for films obtained without observance of regular request procedures. He suggests that use of the services of his department in requesting films from outside agencies will help insure availability of films at the time they are needed for class use.

"WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE" ITEM CORRECTED

Joseph C. Boone (Physics Department) was incorrectly identified in a "Who, What, When, Where" item which appeared in the Sept. 30 edition of Cal Poly Report. The item, which identified Dr. Boone as "Joseph C. Calhoun," listed the names of several members of the School of Applied Sciences faculty who had recently completed requirements for their doctor's degrees. Dr. Boone will receive his PhD from University of Wisconsin during ceremonies scheduled for Jan., 1970.

INFORMATION ON GRANT PROGRAMS AVAILABLE ON CAMPUS

Information on special grant programs available from various agencies is available in the Research and Development Office, according to George G. Clucas (Director of Research and Development). Faculty members interested in developing grant proposals are invited to contact that office, Adm-307, 546-2630, for further details on any of the programs listed below with application steps and deadlines:

U.S. Office of Education

Bi-Lingual Education for Children from Low-Income Families (174) - Formal applications due March, 1970 - Submission of preliminary application to Division of Plans and Supplementary Centers, U.S. Office of Education, Oct. 31, 1969.

PLANS FOR FOREIGN STUDENT PICNIC ANNOUNCED BY WOMEN'S CLUB

Over 400 foreign students who are enrolled at Cal Poly this fall are expected to attend the annual Foreign Students Picnic of the Cal Poly Women's Club, which announced plans for the event last week. The annual picnic will take place Oct. 18, starting at 12:30 p.m., in Poly Grove.

The CPWC announcement pointed out that all members of the college faculty and staff and their families are invited to attend and are asked to bring a hot dish and salad or dessert for their families plus four students. Those wishing further information about the Foreign Students Picnic are asked to contact Mrs. Fuad Tellew, 544-0240, or Mrs. Harold Watson, 544-2097.

JOURNAL FEATURES CAL POLY ANIMAL SCIENCE PROGRAM

The practical approach to agricultural education at Cal Poly is featured in the Aberdeen-Angus Journal. An article titled "At Cal Poly They Learn Animal Sciences by Doing and Studying" appears in the herd reference edition of the official publication for the American Angus Association. Containing 656 pages, the hefty edition includes illustrations of Cal Poly students, livestock, and personnel. The article describes the work of nearly 450 majors in animal science. Cal Poly's School of Agriculture is described as "one of the largest and best college agricultural programs in the nation."

The article describes the course offerings, setting, and management of livestock, Cal Poly senior projects, and the agricultural enterprise system. John V. Stachman of the college faculty is author of the article, which concludes: "The student's experience at Cal Poly is believed to be outstanding as it provides young men and women with both a working knowledge of the ranch operation and an intimate appreciation of the livestock environment. At our college, the students find out for themselves if what they study in the classroom really works in the field."

MUSTANG FOOTBALLERS PREPARE FOR SIMON FRASER ELEVEN

Still smarting from a 17-7 thumping administered by a strong Boise State College (Ida.) eleven over the weekend, Head Coach Joe Harper and his staff are busily preparing the Mustang grid varsity for their Saturday (Oct. 11) evening encounter with the explosive Clansmen of Simon Fraser University of British Columbia. Game-time for that contest, which is scheduled for Mustang Stadium, will be 7:30 p.m.

For the Cal Poly gridders, who suffered several potentially serious injuries while absorbing their first loss of 1969 at the hands of Boise State, Saturday night's game will be an important one. They must regain their offensive punch before hosting traditional rival Fresno State College on Oct. 18. Injured and on the questionable list for this week's contest are linebackers Lee Treadwell and Dick Kimbrough, quarterback Gary Abate, safety Ross Bauer, and tackle Jim Turner.

Other events on the campus sports calendar for the coming week include both water polo and soccer action. Coach Mike Cirovic's kickers host University of California at Santa Barbara in a match slated for 2 p.m., Saturday, on the athletic field near the Men's Gymnasium, and the water polo team, under the coaching of Dick Anderson, will encounter California State Polytechnic College at Pomona in a game planned for an 8 p.m. start, Friday (Oct. 10), in the new pool adjacent to Men's Gymnasium.

APPLICANTS FOR DEAN'S POST BEING SOUGHT BY STANISLAUS STATE COLLEGE

Applicants for the position of dean of the college are being sought by Stanislaus State College, according to an announcement received on campus recently. Those interested in applying or in obtaining further information are invited to contact R. Dean Galloway, chairman of the Consultative Committee on the Selection of the Dean, Stanislaus State College, Turlock, Calif., 95380.

DEPARTING DEPARTMENT HEAD EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Col. Robert W. Green, who departed recently to assume newly assigned military duties in the Washington, D.C., area, expressed his appreciation to members of the Cal Poly staff and faculty for their assistance with the Reserve Officers Training Corps program of the Military Science Department. Col. Green was head of the Military Science Department for some 14 months prior to his departure. Col. William L. Hastie has assumed his new duties as head of the department following duties at the U.S. Army's Intelligence School at Ft. Holabird, Md.

"Upon my departure from Cal Poly, I want to express my sincere appreciation to you and your personnel for the outstanding support and assistance that has been rendered to the ROTC program and the Military Science Department," Col. Green said. "It has been a great honor serving with you in pursuit of a common cause - the education of American youth. I am sure that my successor, Colonel William L. Hastie, will be similarly honored and will receive the same strong support which has been given this office during my brief but highly rewarding tenure."

MUSTANG BOOSTER CLUB MEMBERSHIPS STILL AVAILABLE

Associate memberships in the Mustang Booster Club, which supports Cal Poly's athletic program, are still available to faculty and staff members at a cost of $15 per year, according to Charles A. Elston (Mathematics Department), who is college representative to the club.

Each member of the club receives a membership card which entitles him to free admission to all athletic events (except football games, special events, and tournaments) for the year, as well as a windshield decal, which entitles him to reserved parking for home football games, for his auto. In addition, a membership placard for display is provided for members.

Checks for memberships may be mailed to Mustang Booster Club, P. O. Box 838, San Luis Obispo, Calif., 93401. They may also be forwarded to Elston in care of the Mathematics Department. Elston will also be happy to answer questions about the club and its programs and may be contacted by telephone, 546-2351.

MISS MINN NAMED TO CAMPUS ETHNIC STUDIES COMMITTEE

Appointment of Moon Ja Minn (Physical Education Department) to membership on the Ethnic Studies Committee of the college has been approved by President Robert E. Kennedy. Miss Minn's appointment was recommended by both Carl C. Cummins (Dean of Applied Arts) and Dale W. Andrews (Academic Vice President). A native of Korea, she replaces Sharon Kerr (Physical Education Department), who is on leave during 1969-70, as a member of the committee.

Other members of the committee, which was established last year, are Mrs. Bernice B. Loughran (Acting Head of Art Department), Gloria Jameson (English Department), Donald W. Hensel (History Department), Mrs. Marie S. Pfeiffer (Head of Home Economics Department), Faud H. Tellew (Business Administration Department), Alexander Capurso (Music Department). Richard Martinez (Ethnic Studies Coordinator) heads the group.

DANFORTH GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP INQUIRIES INVITED

Inquiries about the Danforth Graduate Fellowships to be awarded in March, 1970, are invited according to Eugene A. Rittenhouse (Placement Director), who is campus representative for the fellowship program.

The Danforth fellowships, offered by the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., are open to men and women who are seniors or recent graduates of accredited colleges in the U.S., who have serious interest in teaching as a career, and who plan to study for a PhD in a field common to the undergraduate college. Applicants may be single or married, must be less than 30 years of age at the time of application, and may not have undertaken a graduate or professional study beyond the baccalaureate.

Candidates for the fellowships must be nominated by the liaison representatives of their undergraduate colleges by Nov. 1. Applications will not be received directly from candidates. Those desiring additional information about the program are invited to contact Rittenhouse in his office, Adm-213, 546-2501.

MONDAY NOT SCHEDULED AS HOLIDAY

Monday (Oct. 13) is not scheduled as a college holiday, according to an announcement issued this week by Larry Voss (Director of Personnel Relations). That day, which is a state holiday in observance of Columbus Day, will be compensated by an "in-lieu" holiday slated for Nov. 28, the day following Thanksgiving Day. Doing so will make it possible for all college employees to have a Thursday through Sunday holiday at Thanksgiving time.

C S E A REPRESENTATIVE WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR INSURANCE CONSULTATION

Henry B. Dotson, an insurance representative for the California State Employees Association will be available for conferences with Cal Poly employees between 8 a.m. and 12 noon, Thursday (Oct. 9). Those interested in consulting with him may contact him in the personnel office, Adm-110, 546-2236.

DAIRY CATTLE JUDGING TEAM COPS TOP HONORS

Cal Poly's dairy cattle judging team captured first place in the collegiate competition at the International Livestock Exposition in Portland, Ore., Saturday (Oct. 4). The team was first in Ayrshires, Guernseys, and Holsteins and second in Brown Swiss and Jerseys.

Team members, all from Tulare, are Larry Dutto, Vernal Gomes and Ray Orisio. They were first, second, and third high individuals of the contest, in that order. Cal Poly's dairy products team tied for second with Fresno State College in the Portland event. The winner in dairy products judging was Utah State University.
