

CAL POLY REPORT

CALIFORNIA STATE POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIFORNIA 93401

Volume 20, Number 14

November 4, 1969

MEMBERS OF COLLEGE FACULTY, STAFF WILL BE WORKSHOP SPEAKERS

Four members of the Cal Poly faculty and staff are scheduled to join President Robert E. Kennedy as speakers during the day-long series of workshops on orderly development of San Luis Obispo County, which is scheduled for next Tuesday (Nov. 11), in the Cal Poly Theater. They are J. Cordner Gibson (Dean of Agriculture), Kenneth W. Schwartz (School of Architecture), Gene E. Brendlin (Cal Poly Foundation Manager), and Harold M. Cota (Environmental Engineering Department).

The event, which is being co-sponsored by the San Luis Obispo County Development Association, the County Planning Department, and Cal Poly, will open with welcoming remarks from Dr. Kennedy at a session planned for 9 a.m. Also scheduled to address conference participants during that opening session are keynote speaker Henry Bostwick, president of the American Industrial Development Council, and Howard Newby, president of the County Development Association.

Dean Gibson, Schwartz, and Dr. Cota are slated to serve as chairmen for workshop sessions on agriculture, tourism, and air pollution, respectively, and Brendlin is expected to be a member of the panel discussing water and land pollution, according to George H. Clucas (Director of Research and Development), who is chairman of the workshop committee. Also planned during the day are sessions on industrial growth, transportation planning, beaches and parks, and tax reforms.

Clucas, who emphasized that members of the Cal Poly faculty and staff are invited to participate in the workshops which are planned on a college holiday (Veterans Day), said registration fee for the conference program will be $3 and an optional luncheon, to be served in the Staff Dining Room, will be $2. Other information about the event may be obtained by contacting the Research and Development Office, Adm-307, 546-2630, or the Economic Development Association office located in the County Courthouse Annex.

"COMPUTER AS A POET" WILL BE PROGRAM TOPIC

"The Computer as a Poet" will be the topic for a public lecture to be given by Dr. Jon Wheatley of University of California at Santa Barbara, Thursday (Nov. 6) evening, starting at 8 p.m., in Sci-E-27. The talk by Dr. Wheatley, a member of UCSB's philosophy faculty, is being presented by the campus chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery and the Computer Science and Statistics Department. Admission will be free.

Dr. Wheatley will be the guest of honor at a "no-host" dinner, which is scheduled for 6 p.m., Thursday, at Harvey's Steak House, located in the Madonna Plaza, San Luis Obispo. Being planned by members of the Computer Science and Statistics Department faculty, the dinner is open to other members of the college faculty who wish to attend and get acquainted with the visiting lecturer.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARDS PRESENTED DURING BANQUET

Five former students who have distinguished themselves in their chosen fields of work were honored at the 63rd annual Homecoming banquet for alumni of Cal Poly last Saturday night (Nov. 1).

One alumnus representing each of the five academic schools received a special plaque during the banquet which ended the day-long Homecoming festivities.

They are Carl Gill of Madera, School of Agriculture; Benito Sinclair of Los Angeles, School of Architecture; Edward J. Slevin of San Rafael, School of Applied Arts; James May of Edison, School of Applied Sciences; and Charles A. Hofflund of Los Angeles, School of Engineering and Technology. The five were selected by the distinguished alumni selection committee from names nominated by students, faculty, and alumni of each of the schools.

Gill, 69, a 1921 graduate of the college, is a partner in the Thompson-Gill ranch and feedmill equipment firm in Madera. The firm has sales near $3 million a year and serves all of the United States and five foreign nations. It specializes in installing complete feedmill facilities as well as in the manufacture of special equipment needed by the cattle industry. Gill has been a civic leader in Madera and is a past-president of the Cal Poly Alumni Association. His wife also is an alumnus as are their three children, Kenneth, Calvin, and Louise, and two grandchildren now are enrolled at Cal Poly.

Sinclair, 38, is a structural engineering consultant in Los Angeles. He has consulted on school, industrial, commercial, and business buildings and in home development projects. He is one of the first black men to become a registered civil engineer in California. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in architectural engineering in 1957.

Slevin, 33, also a former Cal Poly Alumni Association president, served as Cal Poly Associated Students, Inc., president, and was active in student government as an undergraduate. He earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in English in 1958. Slevin operates his own public relations firm in San Francisco, specializing in political campaigns. He served as Northern California director and state director for the Republican State Central Committee of California prior to opening his public relations agency. Slevin worked on the "Nixon for President" campaign in 1959-60.

May, 38, is vice-president and general manager of AFC, Inc., an agricultural chemical and fertilizer manufacturing firm based at Edison in Kern County. He joined AFC, Inc., in 1959, immediately after graduating from Cal Poly with Bachelor of Science Degrees in chemistry and biology. May rose from trainee to plant superintendent within six months. AFC, Inc., now employs 180. The firm has an investment of $5 million in plant facilities and produces 250,000 tons of fertilizer and 750,000 gallons of agricultural chemicals annually. May also is partner in a 360-acre farming enterprise at Tehachapi.

Hofflund, 51, has been vice-president of five Lockheed Aircraft Corporation divisions, as well as vice-president of the parent corporation. He now is vice-president and director of operations for Republic Corporation in Los Angeles. Hofflund, an aeronautics student at Cal Poly in 1939, joined Lockheed in England where he worked in the reassembly of Hudson bombers for the Royal Air Force. Hofflund, whose assignments with Lockheed have also taken him to Japan, has been involved in the development of most of Lockheed's new aircraft including the L-1011 Tristar. He is married to the Former Dickie Hewett of Berkley, England.

TRAINEES SOUGHT FOR PEACE CORPS PROGRAM IN THAILAND

Three men with Peace Corps backgrounds are in the midst of a week-long (Nov. 3-8) recruitment program for Peace Corps candidates on campus. Objective of the recruitment effort is to secure volunteers who wish to participate in an on-campus training program preparatory to serving in Thailand. The participants would continue with their regular education and would receive the Peace Corps preparation through a series of seminars. Dean Piper (Soil Science Department) will coordinate the on-campus training program, if sufficient volunteers can be recruited.

On campus during the coming week will be Don Lydic, Peace Corps agricultural recruiter for the Western United States; Robert Charles, regional director for the Peace Corps in Northeast Thailand; and Fred Perry, agricultural consultant with the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C.

During the week two films depicting work of the Peace Corps will be shown at intervals in Erhart Ag-138. Any interested person is invited to view the films. The first is Open Harvest, the second is Mekong, covering the area in Thailand for which the Cal Poly on-campus training program would prepare Peace Corps volunteers. The film schedule is: Tuesday (Nov. 4), 1 and 1:30 p.m.; Wednesday (Nov. 5), 11 and 11:30 a.m., and 2 and 2:30 p.m.; and Friday (Nov. 7), 3 and 3:30 p.m. The two films will be shown during College Hour Thursday (Nov. 6) in Erhart Ag-100. Lydic will conduct modern language aptitude tests for interested persons in Erhart Ag-138, at noon on Wednesday and Thursday, and at 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Friday.

DISCOUNT TICKETS FOR HOTELS, ENTERTAINMENT ATTRACTIONS AVAILABLE ON CAMPUS

Discount tickets for Disneyland, Sea World, Movieland Wax Museum, San Diego Zoo, Knotts Berry Farm, and the Sheraton Hotels are available to all faculty and staff and their families. Those interested in obtaining them may pick them up in the Personnel Office, Adm-111. Additional information may be obtained by calling 546-2236.

In a related announcement, discount tickets for Marine World are also available on campus. Mrs. Lorraine Howard (Associate Dean, Women), who is president of the Cal Poly chapter of the California State Employees Association, has arrangements information about the plan under which they are available.

Marine World, located 23 miles south of San Francisco, offers an overview of underwater and sea bird life, plus special water show. Dr. Howard may be contacted in her office, Adm-209, 546-2491.

REPORTS REQUIRED FOR EMPLOYMENT-RELATED INJURIES

Reports of injury must be submitted to the State Compensation Insurance Fund for all persons injured while acting in the course of employment with Cal Poly. It is essential that an employee immediately report his injury to his supervisor, who must then complete a Supervisor's Report of Accident and send the report to the Personnel Office, Adm-111. The supervisor must also report to the Personnel Office the return of persons who have been off work because of such an injury.

Cal Poly Report is produced by the Office of Information Services, Administration 210. Material should be submitted in writing prior to noon on Friday.

NATIONALLY RANKED MONTANA ELEVEN NEXT FOR MUSTANG GRIDDEES

University of Montana's highly regarded Grizzlies stand in the way of Head Coach Joe Harper's footballers' return to the win column. The Mustang griddees will leave San Luis Obispo Friday (Nov. 7) via bus and chartered United Air Lines Boeing 727 and arrive in Missoula late that afternoon in preparation for the Saturday (Nov. 8) afternoon encounter with the Montana eleven, which is currently ranked third among the nation's College Division teams.

Cal Poly's Mustangs fought a courageous battle with the Forty-niners of California State College at Long Beach before losing a 22-20 decision before a Homecoming game crowd in Mustang Stadium last Saturday (Nov. 1) afternoon. The green and gold clad griddees easily outdistanced the Long Beach eleven in statistics, but it was a series of mistakes that cost them the victory in the final analysis. Cal Poly now has a 5-2 won-lost record.

In the Grizzlies of Montana, the Mustangs will be meeting one of the nation's highest scoring teams. Montana, with a perfect 8-0 mark, is averaging more than 32 points per contest and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing offense with an average of 347 yards. Although Cal Poly ranks above the Grizzlies in both departments, its offense has been hampered by mistakes in recent weeks. The fact should make Saturday's game an extremely close one.

Only two athletic events are scheduled on campus this week, following cancellation of the football game between the Cal Poly Colts and University of California at Santa Barbara's freshman eleven, which had been scheduled for Friday afternoon. Tomorrow (Wednesday, Nov. 5) afternoon will find Coach Mike Cirovic's Mustang soccermen hosting Westmont College in a 1 p.m. match on the Athletic Field near the Men's Gymnasium and Saturday will find Coach Dick Anderson's water polo team hosting Santa Ana College in a match slated for 11 a.m. in the pool adjacent to the Men's Gym.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FACULTY REAPPOINTMENT AND TENURE TO BE REVIEWED

Recommendations for the granting of tenure, and for the reappointment of second- and third-year faculty members, will be reviewed by the faculty Personnel Review Committee of the Cal Poly Academic Senate between Nov. 13 and 20. This will be the first function of the Personnel Review Committee elected under bylaws adopted last year by the Academic Senate.

This committee is charged with reviewing all applications for leave with pay; and recommendations on retention, tenure, and promotion in cases where there is disagreement in the recommendations made by the department committees, department heads, and school deans, or on request of a faculty member who believes that unusual circumstances have resulted in an unjust decision.

Any information pertinent to the work of the committee should be communicated to committee members Emmett Bloom (Animal Husbandry Department), Marvin Brown (English Department), Robert Asbury (School of Architecture), Ed Strasser (Industrial Technology Department), Marcus Gold (Audio-Visual Department), or Robert Frost (Physics Department), who is committee chairman.

COMING EVENTS -- COMING EVENTS -- COMING EVENTS

International Week -- Continuing through Friday, Nov. 8, various campus locations; series of talks and other programs; sponsored by International Council. See individual listings of events.

Cal Poly Women's Club Bridge Section -- Monday, Nov. 3, 8 p.m., Dexter Library Room 129. Regular meeting of section. Members invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club Walking Section -- Tuesday, Nov. 4, 9 a.m., Laurel Lane Bowl Parking Lot, San Luis Obispo. Meeting of section for tour of Lopez Canyon. Members invited.

Speakers Forum -- Tuesday, Nov. 4, 11 a.m., Cal Poly Theater. Program of oral interpretation presented by Evelyn De Voros and students; sponsored by Associated Students, Inc., Speakers Forum Committee. Faculty, staff, and students invited.

Books at High Noon Luncheon -- Tuesday, Nov. 4, 12 noon, Staff Dining Room. Review of Laurence J. Peter's and Raymond Hull's The Peter Principle by James Simmons. Public invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club Sewing Section -- Tuesday, Nov. 4, 2 p.m., 2020 Hope St., San Luis Obispo. Regular meeting of the section in home of Mrs. Wilbur Howes. Members invited.

International Affairs Discussion -- Tuesday, Nov. 4, 7:30 p.m., Science Building Room B-5. Panel discussion on the topic, "Idealistic and Realistic American Foreign Policy;" sponsored by International Council as part of International Week. Public invited.

Varsity Soccer -- Wednesday, Nov. 5, 1 p.m., Athletic Field near Men's Gymnasium. Cal Poly vs. Westmont College of Santa Barbara. Public invited.

Engineering Forum -- Wednesday, Nov. 5, 7:30 p.m., Student Dining Room. Talk on "Engineering Education" by Dr. Russell L. Riese of the California Coordinating Council for Higher Education staff; sponsored by Tau Sigma student engineering society. Public invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club Foreign Students Section -- Wednesday, Nov. 5, 7:30 p.m., Dexter Library Room 129. Regular meeting of section. Members invited.

Fall Speaker's Night -- Wednesday, Nov. 5, 8 p.m., Cal Poly Theater. Talk by Visalia farmer and civic leader Stary Gange; sponsored by Agricultural Student Council. Public invited.

International Fashion Show -- Wednesday, Nov. 5, 8 p.m., Staff Dining Room. Fashion show of clothing from around the world; sponsored by International Council as part of International Week. Public invited.

Speakers Forum -- Thursday, Nov. 6, 11 a.m., Engineering West Building Patio. Talk by VISTA volunteer Bob Desser; sponsored by Speakers Forum Committee of the Associated Students, Inc. Public invited.

COMING EVENTS (Continued from Page 5)

Cal Poly Staff Club Luncheon -- Thursday, Nov. 6, 12 noon, Staff Dining Room. Glenn A. Noble will give an illustrated presentation titled "A Glimpse of Russia." Faculty and staff invited.

Computer Poetry -- Thursday, Nov. 6, 8 p.m., Science Building Room E-27. Lecture titled "The Computer as a Poet" by Dr. Jon Wheatley of University of California at Santa Barbara; co-sponsored by the Computer Science and Statistics Department and student chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery. Public invited.

Freshman Football -- Friday, Nov. 7, 2 p.m., Mustang Stadium (Canceled). Cal Poly vs. University of California at Santa Barbara Frosh. Public invited.

International Talent Show -- Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7 and 8, 8 p.m., Cal Poly Theater. Cal Poly foreign students featured in national songs, ceremonial dances, and native music; sponsored by the International Council as highlight event of International Week. Tickets - $1.50 general public; 75 cents, Cal Poly students; 50 cents, children.

High School Tennis Tournament -- Saturday, Nov. 8, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Tennis courts adjacent to Men's Gymnasium. San Luis Coastal Unified School District Girls High School Tennis Tournament. Public invited.

Varsity Water Polo -- Saturday, Nov. 8, 11 a.m., Pool adjacent to Men's Gymnasium. Cal Poly vs. Santa Ana College. Public invited.

Karate Exhibition -- Saturday, Nov. 8, 3 p.m., Men's Gymnasium. Karate exhibition; sponsored by campus chapter of California Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Tickets, 50 cents.

Veterans Day -- Tuesday, Nov. 11, College holiday for Cal Poly faculty, staff, and students.

County General Plan -- Guidelines for Development -- Tuesday, Nov. 11, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Music, Speech, and Drama Building. Series of workshops for citizens of San Luis Obispo County to discuss development in county. Sponsored by San Luis Obispo County Development Association, County Planning Department, and Cal Poly. Reservations required.

Cal Poly Women's Club General Meeting -- Tuesday, Nov. 11, 8 p.m., Dexter Library Room 129. General meeting of club membership with program on theme, "Cal Poly Around the World." Members invited.

Chamber Orchestra Concert -- Thursday, Nov. 13, 11 a.m., and Friday, Nov. 14, 8:30 p.m., Cal Poly Theater. Concert by Cal Poly Chamber Orchestra under the direction of Clifton E. Swanson; sponsored by Music Department. Public invited.

Chess Tournament -- Friday, Nov. 14, 7 p.m., Staff Dining Room; Saturday, Nov. 15, 10 a.m., Dexter Library Room 129; and Sunday, Nov. 16, 11 a.m., Staff Dining Room. Open chess tournament; sponsored by Cal Poly Chess Club. Entry fees, $2 for club members, $3 for non-members. Public invited.

Varsity Football -- Saturday, Nov. 15, 1:30 p.m., Mustang Stadium. Cal Poly vs. University of California at Santa Barbara. Tickets, $3.50 reserved, $2.50 general admission, $1 students, 50 cents children.

"INTERNATIONAL WEEK" OBSERVANCE UNDER WAY ON CAMPUS

International Week, a potpourri of events and activities staged by foreign students on campus, is in full swing this week (Nov. 3-8). Sponsored by the student International Council which represents Cal Poly's more than 500 foreign students, International Week is offering activities that range from a talent show to a karate demonstration. Most of the activities are planned by and feature foreign students.

Highlight of the week will be the International Talent Show scheduled for Friday and Saturday (Nov. 7-8), in the Cal Poly Theater. Curtain time is 8 p.m. both nights, with the same program offered both nights. Entertainment from around the world will be the theme as students from Africa, China, India, Japan, Korea, Latin America, Pakistan, Tahiti and South Vietnam are featured in national songs, ceremonial dances and native music. Tickets are 75 cents for Cal Poly Students, $1.50 for the general public, and 50 cents for children under 12. They may be purchased at the Associated Students, Inc., and Foreign Students Offices on campus and at the door.

Other activities include a panel discussion on "Idealistic and Realistic American Foreign Policy" tonight (Tuesday, Nov. 4); a fashion show exhibiting garments from around the world tomorrow (Wednesday, Nov. 5) evening and a demonstration of karate and folk singing Saturday (Nov. 8). Both the panel discussion and the fashion show are free. Admission will be charged for the karate demonstration.

"RIDING THE CREST" WILL BE SPEAKER'S NIGHT TOPIC

Stary Gange, a farmer, businessman, and civic leader in the Visalia area, will discuss "Riding the Crest" at the Fall Speaker's Night program in the Cal Poly Theater at 8 p.m. on Wednesday (Nov. 5). Gange, a nationally recognized speaker who has appeared before service clubs, civic organizations, and conventions in all 50 states, offers an optimistic commentary on the trends of the times. Now retired, he is sponsored in appearances around the state by the Southern Counties Gas Company. Cal Poly's Student Agriculture Council is sponsoring the Speaker's Night program, which will be open to the public. Admission will be free.

CAL POLY LAMB WINS COW PALACE HONORS

Cal Poly students exhibited the grand champion carcass lamb in the Grand National Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, last week. The lamb competed in a class of 40 entered by sheepmen from throughout California and Oregon.

Exhibiting the lamb, a Suffolk from the Cal Poly flock, were Sharon Allen, 21, of Morgan Hill; Mary Ballert, 20, of Templeton; John Alkire, 21, of Bakersfield; James Loring, 21, Belmont; Ernest Nunes, 20, Petaluma; and Lindsay Motley, 20, of Lakeview, Ore. All but Miss Ballert are animal husbandry majors. She is majoring in agricultural business management.

The lamb was raised as part of a student enterprise project through which Cal Poly agricultural students augment their classroom experiences with practical management opportunities.

Cal Poly Report is produced by the Office of Information Services, Administration 210. Material should be submitted in writing prior to noon on Friday.

TALK BY ENGINEERING EDUCATOR SIATED TOMORROW

Russell L. Riese, chief higher education specialist for California's Coordinating Council for Higher Education, will speak on campus tomorrow (Wednesday, Nov. 5). Dr. Riese's subject will be "Engineering Education." The talk is scheduled for the college's Student Dining Room at 7:30 p.m. A spokesman for Tau Sigma, the Cal Poly student engineering society which is sponsoring the event, says that admission will be free.

Dr. Riese received his bachelor's degree from University of Washington, his master's and PhD degrees from Oklahoma State University, and did post-doctoral study at Iowa University. Before joining the Coordinating Council for Higher Education in March, 1967, he was a professor and associate dean at San Fernando Valley State College, head of the Electrical and Computer Engineering Department at Arizona State University, and worked in the Office of the Chancellor of the California State Colleges.

JAMES CASS TO BE CUESTA LECTURE SERIES SPEAKER

James Cass, who will appear Thursday, (Nov. 6), at 8 p.m. in the Community Auditorium at Cuesta College, has become a public lecturer because he sees great urgency about the changing role of education in America. Cass, first speaker in Cuesta College's 1969-70 lecture series, is education editor of Saturday Review, and a consulting editor of Colloquy (Education in Church and Society). He says the present campus challenges are not temporary aberrations to education that will soon disappear. "Educators are reading like mad," he says, "trying to understand what's happening," and he suggests it is time to consider the options for change.

Lecture tickets are available at Ogden Stationers, Larson's Village Squire, and Gabby Book Store, all in San Luis Obispo; Cuesta College Bookstore, St. George's Book Shop in Paso Robles, the Arroyo Drug Company in Arroyo Grande, and the Associated Students, Inc., Office in the Temporary College Union Building on campus at Cal Poly. Other lectures in the series include Bill Russell, December 10; Hans Morgenthau, March 25; and Edward Teller, May 1. Series tickets are $3 or $1 per lecture is purchased at the auditorium door the evening of presentation. For further information contact Cuesta College Community Services Office (544-2943).

ACTING PRESIDENT NAMED FOR FRESNO STATE

Karl L. Falk last week was appointed acting president of Fresno State College effective Oct. 30, Chancellor of the California State Colleges Glenn S. Dumke announced following a meeting of the college system Board of Trustees. Dr. Falk, 58, is a former Director of International Affairs for the California State Colleges and a professor of economics at Fresno State. He succeeds Frederick Ness, who has accepted the presidency of the Association of American Colleges in Washington.

An authority on comparative economic systems and international housing, Dr. Falk headed the Fresno campus' Social Science Division for 15 years and retired from the faculty there in June 1968. He has most recently served as president of the non-profit Housing Development Corporation of Fresno and as an advisor on the conduct of the 1970 U.S. Census.

HEARING SCHEDULED BY ACADEMIC SENATE COMMITTEE

The open hearing on local campus disciplinary action procedures for academic personnel is now scheduled for 3:10 p.m., Monday (Nov. 10), in the Staff Dining Room according to Arthur Z. Rosen (Physics Department), who is chairman of the Cal Poly Academic Senate's Personnel Policies Committee. The hearing had previously been planned for yesterday (Monday, Nov. 3) afternoon.

Dr. Rosen said copies of the procedures proposed by his committee are being distributed to all Academic Senate members. Others who would like to have copies of the proposed procedures to examine before next Monday's hearing may obtain them by calling Joy O. Richardson (Mechanical Engineering Department) at his office (546-2117). Monday's gathering will be the final hearing prior to the Nov. 18 meeting of the Academic Senate, during which the procedures for disciplinary action will be considered for adoption.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF LEAVE CREDITS DISTRIBUTED BY PAYROLL SERVICES

A summary of sick leave, vacation, and compensating time off has been prepared for each Cal Poly state employee and is currently being distributed by the Payroll Services Office. The record shows hours earned as of the beginning of each month and the hours used during that month. Special notice is made of vacation time, which could be lost if not used by the end of the calendar year (see center section of the form). Compensating Time Off can also be lost if not used within a year after it is earned. Faculty and staff members who have been employed by the College for less than six months will not receive statements.

A C S C P INSURANCE REPRESENTATIVE TO BE ON CAMPUS

Ros Downie, insurance consultant for the Association of California State College Professors, will be available for on-campus conferences on insurance matters with Cal Poly employees tomorrow and Thursday (Nov. 5-6). Those interested in meeting with him are invited to call 546-2474 for appointments.

STUDENT WIVES INVITED TO EVENING MEETING

A meeting of the Cal Poly Student Wives Club, planned for 7:30 p.m., today (Tuesday, Nov. 4), in Dexter Lib-128, will feature a demonstration program offered by Mrs. Bea von Stein who teaches exercise classes for the San Luis Obispo Senior High School adult education program. All student wives are invited to bring towels and wear slacks and attend.

COMPLETION OF SEWER LINE PROJECT ANNOUNCED BY GENERAL SERVICES

Completion of a 3,200-foot sewer line construction project on campus was announced last week by the State Department of General Services. Work on the project, which disrupted traffic along the north side of the campus during June, July, August, and September, was performed by O'Shaughnessy Construction Company of Goleta at a cost of $77,995.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

J. Mac McRobbie (Head of Industrial Technology Department) is the new vice president of the National Association of Industrial Technology. He was elected by more than 200 representatives of industry, universities, and colleges during the association's annual convention, which took place last month at Texas A and M University. A member of the Cal Poly faculty since 1962, Dr. McRobbie was chairman of NAIT's Standards and Accreditation Committee last year and has been a leader in development of an accreditation program for the association and its members.

Peter K. Phillips (Facilities Planner) and David R. Saveker (School of Architecture) are the authors of articles on the future of architecture, which appeared in a special edition of Construction Management magazine, published Oct. 17, 1969, on occasion of the 24th annual convention of the California Council, American Institute of Architects. Phillips, who joined the Cal Poly faculty early this year, is president of the Santa Barbara Chapter of AIA, while Saveker, who became a member of the faculty this fall, is a retired Naval officer.

Stuart Sutton and J. Murray Smith (both Speech Department) attended the Fall Convention of the American Educational Theatre Association's Southern California Division, which took place Oct. 24-26, in Palm Springs. Theme of the gathering was "Multi-Media Uses in Theatrical Production."

William W. Armentrout (Education Department) was a member of the State Board of Education Accreditation Committee which visited Biola College, La Mirada, Oct. 23-24. Dr. Armentrout, who has been a member of the college faculty since 1953, is coordinator of secondary education for Cal Poly.

Bob Perry and Jan Wise, both members of Cal Poly's debate team won certificates of excellence in debate and impromptu speaking at the speech tournament held Oct. 24-25, at El Camino College in Torrance. As a team, they had a 3-1 won-lost record with wins over California State College at Los Angeles, University of Southern California, and Los Angeles Harbor College. They lost to University of California at Santa Barbara. More than 500 entrants from 35 different colleges and universities entered the tournament.

SUPPORT STAFF VANCANCIES LISTED BY PERSONNEL OFFICE

Information about six posttions on the support staff of the college that are currently vacant is on file in the Personnel Office, Adm-111, 546-2236. Those interested in learning more about the vacancies are invited to inquire about them. The vacant positions are:

Keypunch Operator, Computer Center, Administrative Division ($451-$548).

Dairyman, Dairy Department, School of Agriculture ($717-$870).

Clerical Assistant II, Range A, Library, School of Applied Sciences ($435-$530).

Supervising Clerk I, Admissions Office, Student Affairs Division ($605-$734).

Senior Clerk, General Office, Business Affairs Division ($522-$635).

Clerical Assistant II, Range B, School of Architecture ($469-$571).

ACTIONS TAKEN BY TRUSTEES AT OCT. 28-29 MEETINGS AFFECT CAL POLY

Several of the actions taken by the Trustees of the California State Colleges during their Oct. 28-29 meetings in Los Angeles are of interest to Cal Poly. The board:

- reaffirmed its recognition of, and necessity for, a free and responsible student press; recognized that the diversity of the State Colleges and student press require unique methods for each campus if problems of content and financing of student publications are to be solved effectively and efficiently; and directed the chancellor to:
 - (a) insure that each state college review methods of administration that will most likely solve the problems of student publications without censorship;
 - (b) direct all campuses that have official student publications to establish strong student publication boards to guard against misuse of the principle of freedom of the press, with such boards having adequate institutional representation by faculty and administration; and
 - (c) direct all campuses to adhere to the Code of Ethics or Canons of Journalism of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and the Statement of Policy of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.
- authorized the chancellor, in consultation with the president of Cal Poly, Kellogg-Voorhis, to implement conversion of the Voorhis Campus as a center for educational innovation, beginning July, 1970, and to implement the academic program by Sept., 1971, within established procedures and in accordance with the availability of budgetary resources.
- approved schematic plans for a $5.7 million science building addition at Cal Poly, Kellogg-Voorhis, and an $8.1 million library at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo.
- accepted a high bid of $111,100 for the sale of a .7-acre parcel of surplus property at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and rejected a high bid of $40,800 for the sale of a 3.5-acre parcel of surplus property at the college.
- revised the approved 1970-71 Capital Outlay Program to add:
Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo -- Remodel Science Building I, Equipment -- $90,000.

PLANS FOR GENERAL MEETING ANNOUNCED BY CAL POLY WOMEN'S CLUB

Plans for a general membership meeting of the Cal Poly Women's Club, to be held next Tuesday (Nov. 11) evening, have been announced. Theme for program, which will take place beginning at 8 p.m., in Dexter Lib-129, will be "Cal Poly Around the World." Those planning to attend are invited to wear a costume from a foreign country or an American costume, past or present.

Other information from the Women's Club finds the Hospital Auxiliary Section in need of more substitutes. Anyone interested in participating in the section's activities as a substitute is invited to contact Mrs. Boyd Judd (543-2644) or Mrs. O. T. Snodgrass (543-5241).