Cal Poly Golf Tournament Benefits Youth Arts Program

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Performing Arts Center is holding the benefit 2004 PAC Swing Golf Tournament Monday, May 10, at the San Luis Obispo Country Club.

The tournament is a fund-raiser for the Youth Outreach for the Performing Arts Center program. Play will begin with a shotgun start at 1 p.m. May 10. Players can compete in two-person Best Ball or two-person Scramble format. Awards will be given in both categories.

For the $175 entry fee, participants will receive:

- 18 holes of golf at the San Luis Obispo County Club, one of the coast's premier courses; including range balls and cart; pitch, putt and driving competitions; complimentary beer and soft drinks on the course;
- Tee prizes;
- 1 free raffle ticket to win golf for two at Torrey Pines Championship Golf Course in San Diego - home of the PGA's Buick Invitational and the 2008 U.S. Open - including a one-night stay at the Hilton La Jolla Torrey Pines;
- Dinner for two in the San Luis Obispo Country Club dining room following play, including open bar.

Proceeds from the tournament will go directly to the Youth Outreach for the Performing Arts Center (YOPAC) program in an effort to bring more local school children on to the stage of the Christopher Cohan Center and provide them with entertainment opportunities. YOPAC programs include: Young Artists Onstage – local students perform at the PAC; Student Matinees – Touring artists perform for young audiences.
