PLANS FOR INAUGURATION ANNOUNCED

Details of planning for the inauguration of President Robert E. Kennedy were announced last week by Roy E. Anderson of the Business Administration Department, who is chairman of the faculty committee responsible for the event. California's governor, Ronald Reagan, will deliver the address for the occasion which is scheduled for April 3, beginning at 11:00 a.m., in the Men's Gymnasium. Chancellor of the California State Colleges Glenn S. Dumke will preside at the ceremonies.

Dr. Anderson said that some 500 persons, including the bearer of the mace, marshalls, delegates of colleges and universities (128), delegates of learned educational and professional societies (25), state college administrators and presidents (20), Cal Poly faculty and administrators (300), and platform guests, are expected to participate in the colorful program and ceremony.

Robing areas for Cal Poly faculty and administrators will be available in the Music, Speech, and Drama Building prior to start of the program on April 3, but those who wish to do so may don their academic regalia in their offices. Each member of the faculty will be notified of specific rooms for robing prior to March 28. Lloyd Lamouria, head of the Agricultural Engineering Department, is in charge of robing and robing areas.

Tickets Available Thursday

The time schedule for lining up academic procession, according to Dr. Anderson, calls for those taking part to be robed by 10:15 a.m. Lining up will begin at that time and should be completed by 10:45 a.m., so that the actual entry into the Men's Gymnasium can begin at 11:00 o'clock. The lining up and assembly area for the procession is Mountain Drive between the Music, Speech, and Drama Building and the Men's Physical Education Building. Oscar Reece of the Crops Department faculty will have charge of the academic procession and will utilize a number of assistant marshalls to help him organize the line of march. Dr. Anderson urged members of the faculty who are asked to do so to respond readily to Dr. Reece's request for assistance.

General admission tickets which will admit students, staff, and faculty who are not participating in the academic procession to the inauguration program may be obtained on request starting Thursday (March 21) at both the Information Desk in the Administration Building's main foyer and the Associated Students, Inc., Office in the Temporary College Union.

Seating in the reserved sections of the main floor of the gymnasium have been set aside for the husbands and wives of faculty members who will be participating in the program as such in the academic procession. Tickets for those seats may be obtained, also on request, from Mrs. Gerry Capito of the General Office, Room 109, Administration Building, either in person or by telephoning 546-2441.

Tickets for the Inaugural Concert by pianists Rosalie Davidson and Ronald Ratcliffe, scheduled for April 1 starting at 8:00 p.m. in the Theater, may also be obtained at the Information Desk in the Administration Building or the ASI Office. That performance, in contrast with the one being planned for the following evening, will be open to the public. The April 2 concert will be open only to invited guests including those who are on campus specially for the inaugural activities.

FINAL OPPORTUNITY FOR CAP AND GOWN MEASUREMENTS, ORDERS

Today and tomorrow (Tuesday and Wednesday, March 19-20) will be the final opportunities for measurements and orders for caps and gowns provided by El Corral Campus Store for use by members of the faculty during the inauguration program for President Robert E. Kennedy. Those wishing to do so may have their measurements taken and place their orders between the hours of 1:30 and 4:30 p.m., both days, in Section B of the Staff Dining Room, according to M. E. Farley, manager of the store.

Members of the faculty who placed their orders for special academic garments earlier, as well as those making their requests this week, will be able to pick up their caps and gowns April 1-2 between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. and 1:30 and 4:00 p.m. in the same location. Payments for those ordered on special request earlier may be made at that time. The caps and gowns for which measurements will be taken this week are being provided by El Corral without charge.

NEXT "STAFF BULLETIN" SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 2

The next "Staff Bulletin" after the present issue is being planned for publication on April 2. Deadline for receipt of copy intended for inclusion in that edition will be 12:00 noon, March 29. Copy should be received in the Public Information and Publications Office, Room 210, Administration Building, by that time.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN ENGLISH APPROVED

Approval has been obtained from the Office of the Chancellor of the California State Colleges to institute a bachelor of arts degree program in English for the 1968-69 year. Following a suggestion from the chancellor's office that the college not attempt to add the new program to its existing bachelor of science degree program, the English and Speech Department revised its curriculum to reflect a reduction in units to 186. Sufficient time is provided to make it possible for the student intending to complete the requirements for a teaching credential to make substantial progress toward that objective by the time he receives his degree.

The new program will become effective with the 1968-69 college year and no new students will be enrolled in the bachelor of science program after close of this Spring Quarter.

RESURFACING OF PARKING LOT SCHEDULED DURING ACADEMIC HOLIDAY

The staff parking lot located immediately north of the Administration Building will be closed starting Thursday (March 21) for five days to provide for completion of resurfacing by the Peterson Construction Company. The lot is expected to be ready for use again on March 27, according to Donald S. Nelson, director of business affairs who announced the closing.

"Since this (March 21-26) is the period when students are not in school, there should not be too much of a problem in finding a place to park not too far away. While this will be inconvenient, it is hoped the results will be worth the trouble," Nelson said.

AUDIO-VISUAL EQUIPMENT FOR POLY ROYAL

This year, as in the past, the Audio Visual Department is making all of audio-visual equipment available for use during Poly Royal. With the limited amount of such equipment that is available and heavy scheduling anticipated, all equipment now on quarter loan may be recalled for the Poly Royal weekend and reissued for events scheduled as part of the annual open house activity.

Departmental clubs and student organizations should be advised to schedule A-V equipment for their Poly Royal activities by sending their authorized requests directly to the A-V Service Office, Room 9, Business Administration and Education Building. Requests will be filled on a first-come first-served basis. Since there has never been enough equipment to fill all requests, the A-V Department is urging members of the faculty and staff who may be advisors to student groups to have their organizations submit their requests early.

NEXT STAFF CLUB LUNCHEON PROGRAM SCHEDULED MARCH 28

Because the campus is on a final examination schedule this week, there will not be a Cal Poly Staff Club luncheon program Thursday (March 21). The next program for the weekly luncheon series is slated March 28 with Francis A. Wallace, executive manager for the Chamber of Commerce of San Luis Obispo, as the guest speaker. His topic will be "What is a Chamber of Commerce?"

FUNDS FOR PURCHASE OF KIDNEY MACHINE SOUGHT

Members of the Cal Poly faculty and staff have been invited to join in contributing funds for purchase of a $12,000 kidney machine needed by the wife of Wright W. Putney, an art instructor on the faculty of Sonoma State College, for her survival. The faculty, staff, and student body of Sonoma State is mobilizing to raise the money needed to purchase the machine, but their number is small and additional help is needed. Those who wish to contribute may do so by sending their check, made out to "Fund for Emily" and addressed to Post Office Box KK, Santa Rosa, Calif., 95401.

DISNEYLAND CONCERT LISTED FOR SYMPHONIC BAND TOUR

An afternoon concert on the pavilion stage in the Tomorrowland section of Anaheim's famed Disneyland park will climax a week-long schedule of performances in communities throughout Southern California for the Cal Poly Symphonic Band. The itinerary for the week-long tour opens with concerts in Morro Bay and Arroyo Grande High Schools Monday (March 25) and will conclude with the Disneyland concert March 30.

After the morning assembly concert in Morro Bay and the evening performance at Arroyo Grande High's Valley Road campus, the tour is also slated to include programs in Lompoc, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Oxnard, Orange, Glendale, Canoga Park, and Corona, according to William V. Johnson of the Music Department faculty who is conductor of the Symphonic Band.

Featured during the tour, in addition to the 72-member band, will be three specialty ensembles made up of members of the larger group. They are the 6-piece Dixieland Band, a 16-member Jazz Ensemble which specializes in progressive jazz, and the Los Tamales Calientes composed of 8 outstanding musicians whose musical style resembles that of the Tijuana Brass.

CARRINGTON DESIGNATED PROFESSOR EMERITUS

The title professor emeritus has been conferred upon James H. Carrington by President Robert E. Kennedy in accordance with guidelines established by the Faculty-Staff Council. He served as a member of the college faculty for more than 24 years.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Wallace Reynolds, Mechanical Engineering, participated in the monthly meeting of the California Chapter of the American Institute for Design and Drafting at the TRW Space Park in Redondo Beach March 13. Reynolds, who has been vice president for education for the California Chapter since December, presented plans and proposals for the educational program of the organization at the meeting. The 1968 schedule of activities for AIDD includes a weekend seminar, planned for October 19, on campus.

Clyde Hostetter, presently on leave from the Audio Visual staff, is author of an article headlined "Great Way to Find Out How Rest of World Travels," which appeared in the Travel Section of the March 10, 1968, edition of the "Los Angeles Times." He is scheduled to return to his campus duties as coordinator of the college's Instructional Materials Program in September.

John L. Merriam, Agricultural Engineering, sat as a member of San Luis Obispo County's Oral Review Board for civil engineers who are candidates for employment with the county last week. Merriam is a registered engineer and a fellow of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Crystal Pool, who studied in the Journalism Department during the 1959-60 and 1960-61 academic years, is a syndicated travel columnist in some 200 daily newspapers throughout the nation. Her column, titled "The Go-Go Girl," appears regularly in the Travel Section of the "Los Angeles Times."

C. H. Gregory, Printing Technology and Management, represented that department and the college at the 1968 Printing Industries Association Management Conference held March 9 in San Dimas.

George H. McMeen, Mathematics, has provided the Curriculum Library of the college library with a complete series of texts, teachers guides, and accompanying workbooks for grades 1-8 of "The Modern Mathematics Series," second edition, 1968, of which he is the co-author. The materials, which are published by American Book Company, are revisions of the 1963 editions which had highly successful sales records with many state adoptions. Dr. McMeen was on leave without pay while working on the revision last year.

Emmett Bloom, Animal Husbandry, and Alfred Amaral, Agricultural Business Management, were judges for the farm program competition of the California Association of Future Farmers of America in separate areas of the state last week. Amaral judged entries in Santa Clara County while Bloom was evaluating those in Sacramento County.

Pearl Turner, curriculum librarian, library, attended the annual conference of the California Association of School Librarians which took place in San Francisco early this month. Conference discussions and meetings were built around the topic "The All-Media Library."

Roderick R. Carruthers, head of Printing Technology and Management, and Lawrence E. Eckrote and James H. Babb of the same department, all attended sessions of the 39th annual convention of the California Industrial Education Association held March 9 in Ventura. Planning for a convention of graphic arts teachers, scheduled to take place on campus this summer, was completed during the meetings. Babb also presented a talk on blind embossing, foil embossing and die cutting during the convention.

William J. Mead, producer of two half-hour farm news programs heard daily on radio in the Bakersfield area, will join the faculty of the Journalism Department to teach a broadcast media news course during the Spring Quarter. An alumnus of that department, Mead was manager of the Water Association of Kern County for 10 years prior to launching his own public relations, news, and publishing firm in Bakersfield four years ago.

Dorothy M. Ford of Whittier, a consultant in business and distributive education for the Los Angeles County Schools, will conduct a management training seminar for women on campus March 30-31. Sponsored by the San Luis Obispo Business and Professional Women's Club and the Home Economics Department, the program will include talks for women in business, industry, professions, and community groups. Cost for the seminar will be $12.50 per person. Applications may be obtained from the San Luis Obispo Business and Professional Women's Club, P. O. Box 432, San Luis Obispo.

E. S. Barber, Business Administration, conducted a Superintendent of Nursing Services Training Conference for the state Department of Mental Hygiene March 12-15 in Morro Bay. In addition to providing the training session, Barber is also serving as a consultant to the department.

R. L. Graves, School of Architecture, has been granted a special leave for research and creativity for the Spring Quarter. He expects to work on an architectural problem titled "Development of a Lightweight Folding Structural System" and hopes to ascertain the adaptability of such a structure to different basic uses such as bridges, buildings requiring large uninterrupted clear spaces, exhibit spaces or any space requiring rapid erection and demountability.

S F CITY HALL CONCERT ADDED TO MUSIC TOUR SCHEDULE

A performance on the steps of City Hall in San Francisco's Civic Center Plaza has been added to the itinerary for the forthcoming concert tour of four Cal Poly student music groups. Addition of that concert, which is planned for 12:00 noon, March 29, was one of two such changes in the annual tour schedule announced last week by Harold P. Davidson, director of the touring groups and head of the Music Department.

The other change in the itinerary finds an assembly concert at Sequoia High School in Redwood City replacing a similar performance at Galileo High School in San Francisco which had been announced earlier but has since been cancelled. That program is scheduled for the morning of March 28. Cal Poly groups which will make the tour include the Men's Glee Club, the Majors and Minors vocal ensemble, the Collegiate Quartet, and the Collegians stage and dance band.

SPRING QUARTER PARKING PERMITS STILL AVAILABLE

Parking permits for the Spring Quarter may still be purchased from the State Cashier Window located in the foyer on the lower level of the Administration Building. The Business Management Division suggests that the permits be purchased early to avoid the necessity of standing in line to purchase them after the Spring Quarter begins. Enforcement of campus parking regulations will begin March 28, the first day of classes.
