Cal Poly University Art Gallery To Open Exhibit of Cuban Political and Film Posters

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Writer and curator Lincoln Cushing will open the latest exhibit, “!Propaganda! Cuban Political and Film Posters,” at Cal Poly’s University Art Gallery with a slide presentation at 6 p.m. Wednesday (Jan. 14) in the Dexter Building, Room 227.

The public is invited to the free talk and a reception in the gallery from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Jan. 14.

The exhibit is on loan from the American Institute of Graphic Arts in New York. It features original Cuban posters from the 1950s to the 1990s.

Senior art and design student Nitza Salomon, along with Professor Mary LaPorte, chose this show to give the community an opportunity to see examples of Cuban government supported graphic design, according to Barbara Morningstar, University Art Gallery curator.

The exhibit runs through Feb. 4. Admission to the University Art Gallery is free. Gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday.

The exhibit is sponsored by Cal Poly’s College of Liberal Arts, Art and Design Department, Instructionally Related Activities program, and Cal Poly Arts. For more information call Morningstar at 756-56038 or 756-1571.
