

Volume 19, Number 31

March 25, 1969

C S C TRUSTEES SLATE SESSION ON CAMPUS

The Staff Dining Room of the Campus Dining Hall will be the site tomorrow (Wednesday, March 26) afternoon of the plenary session of the March meeting of the Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges. That meeting of the trustees scheduled for 1:30 p.m., will be the final session of a series of meetings of the CSC board and its committees in San Luis Obispo. The March meeting was to have begun this (Tuesday, March 25) morning and will continue through tomorrow morning at the Madonna Inn in San Luis Obispo. Sessions of various board committees are scheduled during that time.

Tomorrow afternoon's gathering in the Staff Dining Room will affect the normal services of that room throughout the day and will make it necessary to close two parking lots in the area of the College Dining Hall for the day.

Gene Brendlin (Manager of the Cal Poly Foundation) said today that members of the college faculty and staff are being invited to have lunch in the Student Dining Room tomorrow. Tickets for that meal may be obtained from the cashier in the Staff Dining Room today and will also be available in the Student Dining Room tomorrow. Parking Lots E-6 (adjacent to the Men's Gymnasium) and E-5 (adjacent to the Staff Dining Room) will be closed all day. Those who usually park in those lots are being asked to locate parking in other areas tomorrow.

Seating for those who wish to attend the plenary session of the board has been limited to 128 by Fire Marshal's regulations. Admission to those attending in an unofficial capacity will be on a "first-come, first-served" basis, according to information received from the CSC Chancellor's Office, which is handling arrangements for the campus meeting.

DUTY HOURS FOR GOOD FRIDAY CLARIFIED

A memorandum received this week from the Office of the Chancellor of the California State Colleges clarified the matter of duty hours for state employees for the forthcoming Easter period. Normal work schedules will be in effect throughout the period except for Good Friday (April 4). That date is already scheduled as a holiday for Cal Poly academic employees. All other employees will be on duty all day. Employees who work and wish to attend religious services will be allowed time off for that purpose between the hours of 12 noon and 3 p.m. The memorandum from the Office of the Chancellor points out that employees who are on vacation; sick leave; compensating time off; or absent without pay for the entire day, or the entire afternoon Good Friday, will be charged the full period of their absence.

STONER BEGINS DUTIES AS HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

Neale R. Stoner, successful University of California at San Diego cage mentor, is Cal Poly's new head basketball coach, according to Joe Harper (Athletic Director). Stoner, 33, began organizing his program for the Mustangs' 1969-70 cage season yesterday (Monday, March 24).

"Cal Poly is very fortunate to have a man of Stoner's capabilities join its athletic staff," Harper said. "He has demonstrated not only excellent coaching ability, but also exudes enthusiasm. He has displayed outstanding organizational talent in his development of the basketball program at UC San Diego."

The new head mentor replaces Stewart F. Chestnut (Physical Education Department) who resigned his assignment as Cal Poly's head basketball coach last month. Chestnut will remain as a member of the college faculty.

Stoner served as head coach at UCSD for three seasons. During the first year of collegiate competition for the university campus, his team posted a 9-10 won-lost record against junior varsity level opposition. His second season saw the UCSD five chalk up a 10-14 mark against varsity level teams. The 1968-69 campaign found the San Diego team advancing to the regional play-offs of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and winning 20 of its 28 games.

A graduate of Motebello High School, Stoner attended both Fullerton Junior College and California State College of Fullerton, from which he received the BA degree in humanities. The new Mustang mentor played basketball at both colleges under the coaching of Alex Omalev.

Stoner served as business service officer and as freshman basketball coach at Cal State Fullerton from July, 1962, through June, 1966, when he assumed the UC San Diego coaching position. The energetic young coach served in the U.S. Army from 1956 to 1958. He is married and has five children.

DEADLINES AND DATELINES

Next Tuesday (April 1) will be pay day for the March pay period. Warrants will be available for pickup throughout the day in the Business Affairs Division Office, Adm-114. After that time they may be obtained at the Cashier's Window located on the lower level foyer of the Administration Building.

Applications for scholarships for next academic year are due from students in the Financial Aids Office, Adm-213, next Tuesday (April 1). Those interested in obtaining further information or obtaining application forms are invited to contact Mrs. Mary Eyler (Financial Aids Counselor), Adm-213 (546-2501).

PARKING PERMITS FOR SPRING QUARTER MAY BE PURCHASED NOW

Faculty and staff parking permits for the Spring Quarter are now available at the State Cashier's Office in the Administration Building. They may be purchased at the cashier's window located off the foyer on the lower level of the building. The cost is $9. Enforcement of campus parking regulations is scheduled to begin tomorrow (Wednesday, March 26).

CONGRESSMAN LONG VISITS BARCENA SCHOOL PROJECT

Congressman Clarence D. Long (D-Ind.), observed Cal Poly's contribution to programs at the National Agriculture Institute, Barcena, Guatemala, during a recent tour of U.S. technical assistance projects in Mexico, Costa Rica, and Guatemala, according to word received on campus early this month.

Cal Poly is providing assistance to the National Institute of Agriculture through a contract with the Agency for International Development. Kermit Adams is chief of party of the project. Jim Merson, a retired member of the School of Agriculture faculty, is presently serving as a short-term specialist in farm mechanics and Gordon Van De Vanter (Crops Department) will spend the Spring Quarter in Guatemala serving as a crops specialist.

During the visit, Representative Long toured the entire facilities of the Barcena School, accompanied by Adams and Guillermo Padilla, director of the school.

Particular attention was paid to improvements in silage making and storage, improvements in milk production, operation of the sawmill, the newly-equipped and organized farm shop, and other improvements which have been made as a result of recommendations and assistance of the Cal Poly contract team.

TICKETS FOR DINNER-DANCE STILL AVAILABLE

There is still time to purchase tickets for the Dinner-Dance being planned for Saturday (March 29) by Chapter 97 of the California State Employees Association. Priced at $3 per person, they may be bought from Mrs. Francine Hapgood (Secretary, Business Affairs Division Office). Programmed during the event, which is scheduled for the Edna Farm Center located south of San Luis Obispo on Edna Road, are a no-host social hour at 7 p.m., buffet dinner at 8 p.m., and dancing to music by a five-piece dance combo from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Mrs. Hapgood can be contacted in the Business Affairs Division Office, Adm-114, 546-2171.

VACANCIES ON COLLEGE SUPPORT STAFF LISTED

Two vacancies for clerical assistants on the support staff of the college have been announced by Milton Piuma (Staff Personnel Officer). Descriptions of the positions are posted, along with information on other openings that have been announced recently, on the bulletin board located in the Personnel Office, Adm-111, 546-2236. Brief specifications for the two newly-announced positions are:

Clerical Assistant (Typing) II, Range A ($415-$505). College Library, School of Applied Sciences. Primary duties include typing, filing, and processing catalog materials.

Clerical Assistant (Typing) II, Range A ($415-$505). General Office, Administration. Primary duties include acting as receptionist, answering telephone, assisting staff with Xeroxing. Abilities for sign making are also preferred.

TRUSTEES URGE RESTORATION OF FUNDS FOR 1969-70

The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges has voted to urge Governor Ronald Reagan and the Legislature to restore approximately $20.5 million cut from the 1969-70 support budget requests submitted by the board last October.

Three trustees' committees -- campus planning, buildings and grounds, educational policy and finance -- acting with full-board authority have passed several resolutions relating to the resubmission of specific budget reductions. The board's original support budget request called for an estimated expenditure of $299 million and salary increases for faculty and non-faculty of $39.9 million. The governor's support budget allowed $274.8 million and earmarked an additional $13.1 million, or 5 per cent, for salary increases.

The board resolved to resubmit its entire original request for a 12.8 per cent increase for all instructional and instructional-related classes.

The salary package also included $1.4 million to provide for greater differentials between the various levels of academic administration and teaching positions; 1.5 per cent increase in non-instructional positions above the across-the-board 5 per cent to be used for inequity adjustments which range between 2.5 and 5 per cent above the 5 per cent base for certain classes and positions; an increase of $7.5 million or 3.8 per cent in additional fringe benefits for the faculty; $1.1 million in additional health benefits for all employees; and $700,000 for changes in the position classification structure and for premium overtime and night shift differentials for certain positions.

Trustees also agreed to resubmit a program augmentations budget of $20.1 million which included $2.5 million for disadvantaged students enrolled on all campuses under the Economic Opportunity Program. The governor's budget allocated $1.3 million for program augmentation but no funds were included for the EOP.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Eugene L. O'Connor (Business Administration Department) is the author of a research report titled "The Impact of Increasing College Enrollment on San Luis Obispo," which has been published recently. The fourth such report issued by the Business Administration Department, O'Connor's study was financed by a grant from the State Real Estate Education and Research Fund which is administered by the Division of Real Estate. Copies of the report are on file in the College Library, as well as in the San Luis Obispo City and County Libraries.

Edward O. Stoffel (Mechanical Engineering Department) served as a judge for the "Most Valuable Student" award contest of the San Luis Obispo Elks Lodge recently. According to Stoffel, who has been a judge for the contest for the past five years, 1969 winners were Stephen Crossman and Clara Carnell, both of San Luis Obispo Senior High School.

COMING EVENTS -- COMING EVENTS -- COMING EVENTS

Registration for Classes -- Through Tuesday, March 25, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Men's Gymnasium. Registration of students for Spring Quarter classes.

Cal Poly Women's Club Book, Art, and Music Section Meeting -- Tuesday, March 25, 8 p.m., 165 Graves St., San Luis Obispo. Talk on "Crisis on Campus" by Donald W. Hensel, during regular meeting in home of Mrs. O. J. Falkenstern. Members invited.

Classes Begin -- Wednesday, March 26. Spring Quarter classes begin for all students.

Varsity Golf -- Wednesday, March 26, 1 p.m., San Luis Obispo Country Club. Cal Poly vs. California State College at Los Angeles. Public invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club Newcomers Section Meeting -- Wednesday, March 26, 8 p.m., 215 Highland Dr., San Luis Obispo. Mrs. James Rice will demonstrate cake decorating skills during meeting in home of Mrs. John West. Members invited.

Late Registration for Classes -- Thursday, March 27, through Monday, April 7, all day. Late registration for all Spring Quarter classes.

International Council Film -- Thursday, March 27, 11 a.m., Cal Poly Theater. Film on Venezuela; sponsored by International Council. Students, faculty, and staff invited.

Christian Faculty Conference -- Friday through Sunday, March 28-30, Staff Dining Room. Conference of Christian faculty of colleges and universities throughout California; sponsored by Cal Poly Christian Fellowship. Faculty and staff invited.

Varsity Golf -- Friday, March 28, 1 p.m., San Luis Obispo Country Club. Cal Poly vs. University of Washington. Public invited.

Varsity Baseball -- Friday, March 28, 2:30 p.m., Campus Diamond. Cal Poly vs. Oregon State University. Public invited.

Varsity Tennis -- Saturday, March 29, 10 a.m., Tennis Courts adjacent to Men's Gymnasium. Cal Poly vs. University of Washington. Public invited.

Cal Poly Alumni Association Board of Directors Meeting -- Saturday, March 29, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Staff Dining Room. Regular meeting of Board of Directors of Cal Poly Alumni Association. By invitation.

Cal Poly Women's Club "Poly at Home" -- Saturday, March 29, 1 to 4 p.m. Tour of homes of selected members of Cal Poly faculty and staff; sponsored by Cal Poly Women's Club as a benefit for its student assistance programs. Tickets $1. Contact Mrs. Glenn Salo for further information.

Varsity Baseball -- Saturday, March 29, 1 p.m., Campus Diamond. Cal Poly vs. University of Washington. Public invited.

Varsity Track -- Saturday, March 29, 1 p.m., Track Field. Cal Poly vs. University of Washington. Public invited.

FACULTY, STAFF INVITED TO HEAR FACULTY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP SPEAKER

Kenneth Pike, professor of linguistics at University of Michigan, will address a luncheon gathering of faculty, staff, and students beginning at 12 noon, Friday (March 28), in the Staff Dining Room. Title of Dr. Pike's remarks will be "Languages, God and Man," according to Robert J. Rodin (Biological Sciences Department). Dr. Rodin said the program is being co-sponsored by the Faculty Christian Fellowship and the student Inter-Faith Council.

The luncheon talk by the internationally-known linguist will be a preview of the Faculty Christian Conference, which is scheduled for this weekend (March 28-30) on campus. Those wishing to hear Dr. Pike's luncheon talk are invited to bring their trays or lunches to the partitioned portion of the dining room.

Dr. Pike and six other outstanding educators will meet with faculty members of colleges and universities throughout California during this weekend's conference. Cal Poly faculty who are interested in learning more about the event are invited to contact Dr. Rodin, who is coordinating arrangements, or Leon Maksoudian (Mathematical Sciences Department). Registration fee for the conference is $6 for faculty members or $8 for the faculty member and spouse. Deadline for registration is Thursday (March 27).

COMING EVENTS (Continued from Page 5)

CSEA Dinner Dance -- Saturday, March 29, 7 p.m., Edna Farm Center, Edna Road. Social hour followed by buffet dinner and dance. Tickets $3, Cal Poly Chapter 97 California State Employees Association members invited.

Grange Youth Committee Easter Conference -- Sunday through Wednesday, March 30 through April 2, various campus locations. Annual Easter conference of California State Grange Youth Committee. By invitation.

Cal Poly Women's Club Walking Section -- Tuesday, April 1, 9 to 11 a.m., College Square Bank of America, San Luis Obispo. Regular meeting of section for walking tour of Morro Bay. Members invited.

Books at High Noon Luncheon -- Tuesday, April 1, 12 noon, Staff Dining Room. Special commemorative program on Carl Sandburg presented by Jack Haley. Public invited.

Varsity Golf -- Tuesday, April 1, 1 p.m., San Luis Obispo Country Club. Cal Poly vs. California State College at Fullerton. Public invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club Sewing Section -- Tuesday, April 1, 2 p.m., 2020 Hope St., San Luis Obispo. Regular meeting of section in home of Mrs. Wilbur Howes. Members invited.

Cal Poly Staff Club Luncheon -- Thursday, April 3, 12 noon, Staff Dining Room. Program to be announced. Faculty and staff invited.

Academic Holiday -- Friday, April 4. Good Friday holiday for Cal Poly students and teaching faculty.

17 CONCERTS SLATED DURING 28th ANNUAL MUSIC TOUR

With Winter Quarter final examinations out of the way, the 57 men who are members of the Men's Glee Club and Collegians stage and dance band are in the midst of their 28th annual concert tour. Seventeen concerts involving more than 600 miles of travel are planned during the five-day tour, which opened yesterday (Monday, March 24) and will end Friday (March 28).

Concerts before high school and college audiences are scheduled in Van Nuys, Glendale, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Garden Grove, Westminster, and Santa Ana. Also planned was an evening performance at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Sepulveda, last (Monday) night.

Harold P. Davidson (Head of Music Department) is conductor and director of the student music organizations. He originated the annual concert tours in 1941 and has seen them grow to rather large proportions in recent years. The four groups appeared before an estimated 20,000 persons during the 17 concerts on their 1968 tour. Other recent tours have included performances before the California Legislature in Sacramento, on the steps of San Francisco's City Hall, and in San Diego's Concourse Civic Theater.

A typical tour concert for the Cal Poly ensembles begins with numbers by the Men's Glee Club. After singing the traditional fight song, "Ride High You Mustangs," the group offers such songs as "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair," "Marching to Pretoria," and "My Johnny Was a Shoemaker." On stage next are the Collegians. Characterized by a sound reminiscent of the big band era, they offer numbers including "Bluesette," "It's Not Unusual," and "Don't Sleep in the Subway."

Interludes in the program are provided by the Collegiate Quartet and the Majors and Minors and a comedy routine by other members of the glee club. The quartet specializes in vocal renditions of popular and folk music, while the 12-member Majors and Minors are known for their vocal offerings of "barbershop" music.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT SLATES "COLLEGE CAREER DAY"

High School and junior college students from throughout California are expected to attend the second annual College Career Day of the Home Economics Department, April 9. Objectives of the program at Cal Poly are to further the understanding of students, instructors, and counselors regarding careers in home economics. Mrs. Marie Pfeiffer (Head of Home Economics Department) said the program is in response to interest by high school and junior college personnel demonstrated by last year's successful College Career Day program. Campus tours, visits to classrooms and participation in seminars will be featured.

REVISION IN RECREATIONAL SWIMMING SCHEDULE LISTED BY P E DEPARTMENT

Changes in class schedules for the Spring Quarter have forced a revision of the recreational swimming hours at Crandall Pool, according to an announcement received from the Physical Education Department. Under the revised schedule the pool will be open for use by members of the college faculty and staff only, between 3 and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Wednesday, 7 to 9 p.m., and Sunday, 2 to 4 p.m., hours will continue. Family dependents are welcome to join faculty and staff for the Sunday and Wednesday hours.

SYMPHONIC BAND TOUR OPENS IN SANTA MARIA

Works by Vivaldi, Holst, Rimski-Korsakov, Sousa, and Copland are highlighting performances of the Symphonic Band before high school, college, and community audiences in Santa Maria, Lemoore, Merced, Turlock, Lodi, Napa, Sacramento, and San Jose, this week (March 24-28).

A special evening concert at Righetti High School in Santa Maria last (Monday, March 24) night opened the band's 1969 tour. Other evening concerts which are open to the public are to be given at Merced College tonight (Tuesday, March 25); at Lodi High School, tomorrow (Wednesday, March 26; and at Sacramento's Hiram W. Johnson High School, Friday (March 27).

Under the direction of William V. Johnson (Music Department) the 66-member ensemble is offering programs that appeal to a wide range of musical tastes. Johnson calls the music programmed for the tour, "some of the finest in band music." Selections in the band's repertoire include "Concerto Grosso in D Minor" by Antonio Vivaldi, the "First Suite in E-Flat" by Gustav Holst, Rimski-Korsakov's "Dubinushka," and John Philip Sousa's "Washington Post."

Providing contrast to the larger ensemble during the tour are four speciality groups composed of band members. Those participating in this year's tour are a six-piece Dixieland Band, a seven-piece percussion ensemble, a five-piece woodwind ensemble, and a nine-piece brass choir.

A S I INFORMATION OFFICER RETURNS FROM MILITARY LEAVE

Douglas A. Gibson, 26-year-old University of Wyoming graduate, returned to the Associated Students, Inc., information officer position last week after a three-year military leave which included service in Vietnam. Gibson, who served in the post from Oct. 15, 1965, to March 31, 1966, replaces Wayne Shaw who held the post for the past three years and will remain at Cal Poly as a member of the Journalism Department faculty during the Spring Quarter. The ASI information officer is responsible for student body news and publications, and also serves as sports information director.

Gibson completed active duty with the U.S. Army earlier this month. He entered the service April 1, 1966; completed training at Fort Knox, Ky.; and attended Quartermaster Officer Candidate School at Fort Lee, Va.

As a commissioned officer he was public information officer for headquarters Special Troops, United States Army Vietnam, first at Tan Son Nhut and later at Long Binh. Upon his return from Vietnam he was assigned to Fort Carson, Colo., where he was commanding officer of the 115th Petroleum Company, information officer for the 5th Infantry Division (Mechanized), and information officer for Fort Carson.

Prior to joining the ASI staff in 1965, Gibson worked for the Laramie (Wyo.) Daily Boomerang, first as a general assignment reporter and later as sports editor. A member of Sigma Delta Chi national journalism society, he and his wife, Margaret, reside at Shell Beach.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

J. Corder Gibson (Dean of Agriculture) has been appointed to the Agriculture Committee of the California Chamber of Commerce. His appointment to the committee, which reviews agriculture developments affecting California and makes recommendations on action to be taken by the chamber, was announced recently by John T. Hay, general manager of the state-wide business organization.

Jay von Werlhof (Social Sciences Department) was the principal speaker for the March meeting of the Morro Bay Twelve High Club, March 9. Von Werlhof's address centered on the problems of archaeological research in San Luis Obispo County.

Ralph C. Collins (Education Department) spent March 17-19 as chairman of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges accrediting team which visited Laguna Blanca School in Santa Barbara. Last week's visit by Dr. Collins' team was the second for the private school.

Harry L. Fierstine (Biological Sciences Department) identified some fossils found in Northern San Luis Obispo County recently as the remains of a large mammoth of about 16 feet height at the shoulders. Dr. Fierstine made the identification in laboratories at the University of California at Berkeley during a recent visit of several scientific installations in the Bay Area. The visits also resulted in the gift of a collection of exotic fishes representing 58 families and over 100 species to the college by the California Academy of Sciences.

George Clucas (Director of Research and Development) has been notified of completion of all work required for his Doctor of Philosophy Degree in public administration by University of Southern California.

South Vietnamese recipients of "Operation Handclasp" contributions formally expressed their appreciation to Cal Poly students and citizens of San Luis Obispo who made the contributions possible during recent ceremonies. A hand-carved wood plaque expressing the appreciation to "Citizens of San Luis Obispo" was presented to Mayor Clell W. Whelchell by Richard Jefferey and Beverly Fincher, two of the students who made the effort possible, during a meeting of the City Council. Similar plaques were given to the Agricultural Engineering Society and the campus chapter of the American Home Economics Association.

L. Harry Strauss (College Librarian), Miss Helen MacKenzie (Cataloger), and Miss Angelina Martinez (Head of Public Services) represented the Cal Poly Library at the annual conference of the Black Gold District of the California Library Association. The meeting took place at the Madonna Inn in San Luis Obispo. Among those who addressed the conference was Mrs. Phyllis Dalton who is assistant state librarian and president of the library association.

The design for a floating aluminum house has won a $250 award for Joseph Carrick, a senior majoring in architecture. His design for the house won the campus phase of the ninth annual Reynolds Aluminum Prize for Architecture Students competition. It has been entered, along with winners from other participating colleges and universities from throughout the nation, in the $5,000 national phase of the Reynolds competition.

Jean Snow, the Cal Poly entrant in the California Maid of Cotton Contest held in Fresno last weekend (March 21-22), was one of two runners-up selected from the field of 17 contestants. Miss Snow, a 20-year-old junior majoring in English who likes to be called Jinks, was entered in the state-wide contest by the Crops Club.

FULL SLATE OF SPORTS EVENTS SCHEDULED THIS WEEKEND

A full calendar of sports activity scheduled this weekend promises to make up for the scarcity of such events over the past few days. Featured will be a track and field dual meet and a pair of baseball games with University of Washington and Oregon State University providing the opposition for Cal Poly's Mustangs. Also on tap are golf and tennis action.

Coach Dick Purcell's cinder team hosts Washington's trackmen in a dual meet scheduled for the Track near Poly Grove, Saturday (March 29). Field events are slated to begin at 1 p.m., and running events, at 1:30. The Mustang track team, which walloped California State College at Los Angeles 113-32 in its last home outing, prepared for this weekend's encounter with UW by placing second in the College Division at the annual Easter Relays in Santa Barbara.

A single game against Oregon State, billed for 2:30 p.m., Friday (March 28), on the Campus Diamond, will open the weekend for Coach Bill Hicks' Mustang diamondmen. Saturday's game against the Washington nine, also on the Campus Diamond, is being planned for a 1:30 p.m. start. The Cal Poly nine, currently in the midst of a week-long road trip into Southern California and Arizona, has an 8-7 won-lost record. It split a four-game series with the San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot and San Diego State College last weekend.

In other sports events slated this week, Coach LeRoy Hughes' golfers host California State College at Los Angeles tomorrow (Wednesday, March 26) and University of Washington, Friday, and Coach Ed Jorgensen's tennis team will entertain Washington Saturday. Both golf matches are scheduled for 1 p.m., on the San Luis Obispo Country Club course, and the tennis match, for 10 a.m., on the courts located adjacent to the Men's Gymnasium.

TOUR OF HOMES PLANNED BY WOMEN'S CLUB

"Poly at Home" will be the title of a tour of homes planned for Saturday (March 29) by the Ways and Means Committee of the Cal Poly Women's Club as a fund raising activity. Tickets for the event, which will be from 1 to 4 p.m., will be donations of $1. Mrs. John K. Allen is chairman for the event and Mrs. Glenn W. Salo is in charge of ticket sales.

As the title suggests, the affair will be a tour of the homes of several members of the women's club, according to Mrs. Allen. Although the homes that will be included in the tour will remain a surprise, until tickets are purchased, she promises a full afternoon enjoyment. The project chairman said "Poly at Home" will be the club's only fund raising project of the year. Monies gained will be used to assist in the education programs of Cal Poly students from low-income families.

Those interested in purchasing tickets or in getting further information are invited to contact either Mrs. Allen (543-6618) or Mrs. Salo (543-3652).