GOV. BROWN SIGNS LAW SEPARATING CAL POLY CAMPUSES

Creation of the 18th California State College from Cal Poly's combined Kellogg and Voorhis campuses was authorized last week when Gov. Edmund G. Brown signed Senate Bill 45 into law. The bill authorizes the Trustees of the California State Colleges to create the new college as early as mid-August and provides for the continuation of a Cal Poly-type "occupationally-centered" academic program to be continued there.

Sponsored by Sen. Vernon Sturgeon (R-San Luis Obispo) and co-authored by Assemblymen Winfield Shoemaker (D-Lompoc) and Houston Fournoy (R-Claremont), the bill was based on President Julian A. McPhee's suggestion that the rapid growth of the San Luis Obispo and Kellogg Campuses over 200 miles apart made combined administration no longer feasible.

With degree major programs that are somewhat parallel to those offered at the San Luis Obispo Campus, the Kellogg Campus now has an enrollment of more than 4,500 students. Cal Poly's operation in Los Angeles County began following deeding of the Voorhis Campus to the college as a gift from Charles B. Voorhis and Jerry Voorhis in 1938. It expanded in 1949 when the Kellogg Campus was received as a gift from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation. The San Luis Obispo Campus, senior of the Cal Poly campuses, began operation in 1901. President McPhee has been president of the college and its combined operation since 1933.

C S E A CHAPTER WILL HONOR PRESIDENT, MRS. MCPHEE DURING LUNCHEON MEETING

Cal Poly President and Mrs. Julian A. McPhee will be the honored guests during the monthly luncheon meeting of campus Chapter 97 of the California State Employees Association being planned for Thursday (May 18), beginning at noon, in the Staff Dining Room.

President McPhee, who will retire next month after over four decades of service to the State of California, is one of a steadily declining number of charter members of CSEA and will receive a plaque recognizing that distinction during Thursday's meeting. Also planned for the program is a presentation by William Ahlenslager, present chairman of CSEA's statewide General Welfare Committee and a member of CSEA Chapter 11, Fresno.

HEALTH CENTER STATES BLOOD BANK DRIVE

Cal Poly's fund with the Tri-Counties Blood Bank will be replenished when the Health Center conducts a Blood Bank Drive Friday (May 20) from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Since blood is available to all members of the college staff, faculty, and student body and to their immediate families, when transfusions are needed, all members of the campus community are urged to make donations during this drive. Appointments and further information may be obtained by calling the Health Center, campus ext. (546)2151.

ANDERSON ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF FACULTY-STAFF COUNCIL

Roy Anderson, a member of the Business Administration Department faculty, has been elected chairman of the San Luis Obispo Campus Faculty-Staff Council for 1966-67 according to information released last week by Mary Eyler, council secretary. Other members of the F-SC's executive group for next year are Robert Frost of the Biological Sciences Department faculty, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Eyler, re-elected secretary.

Also named during the election, which took place May 10, were members of the council's Executive Committee. Those elected for next year include William Curtis, Education Department; Marcus Gold, Audio-Visual Department; Glen Rich, Agricultural Engineering Department; R. L. Graves, Architecture and Architectural Engineering; and Robert Mott, head of the Physical Education Department.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CAMPUS MEETING OF C S C TRUSTEES, JUNE 1-2, ANNOUNCED

Completion of planning for the meeting of the Trustees of the California State Colleges on campus, June 1 and 2, last week prompted announcement of closure of several campus service areas during that period.

According to Coordinator of Special Services George C. Beatie, the second floor curriculum area of the campus Library, the Staff Dining Room, and the Mathematics-Home Economics Building Parking Lot will all be closed throughout both days of the trustees meeting here.

Meetings of various committees of the board are expected to take up all of the first day and a portion of the second day of the meeting, with the general meeting scheduled to conclude late the second afternoon.

Last meeting of the trustees at the San Luis Obispo Campus was in January, 1962.

FARM LABOR EXECUTIVE SLATED TO ADDRESS AG COUNCIL PROGRAM

J. J. Miller, executive vice president of the Agricultural Producers Labor Committee, will be guest speaker for the Spring Quarter Agricultural Council Speakers Program tomorrow (Wednesday, May 18) evening. Scheduled for 8:00 p.m., the program will take place in the Theater on campus. In addition to Miller's talk on "Agricultural Labor Problems in California," announcement of winners of a series of awards to the outstanding graduating seniors among the some 1,500 students enrolled in agriculture on campus, will climax the meeting.

Miller's activities in agricultural labor are numerous. For more than 20 years he has represented citrus and avocado producers in California and Arizona in labor relations. He has also served several state and federal committees.

Commenting on the importance of the visiting speaker's address, J. Cordner Gibson, assistant dean of agriculture on campus, called labor the major problem facing agriculturalists in California during the next year. "It is a subject that everyone concerned with agriculture should be acquainted with and, of course, one we should be vitally interested in," Gibson concluded.

Miller will be the guest of honor at a dinner meeting of the Region-at-Large of the California Agriculture Teachers Association, prior to tomorrow evening's program. The CATA meeting, being planned for 6:15 p.m., will take place in the Staff Dining Room, on campus.

GOOD FOOD, LOW TIDES EXPECTED FOR "SPRING FLING"

Both good food and low tides are expected to greet those that take part in the Staff Club's annual "Spring Fling," which will take place Saturday (May 21), at Coon Creek Cove. Bob Adams, chief of maintenance and chairman for the traditional May event, last week promised that there would be no shortage of tickets and pointed out that the cost per person for the fling would be $3.75, rather than $3.50, as announced in last week's edition of Staff Bulletin.

Coupled with other activities, including horseshoes and table games, the combination of good food and low tide should make the day an enjoyable one. Adams promised a New York strip steak barbeque luncheon and said that the tide is expected to reach -.9, a mark low enough to make the fishing particularly interesting.

Among those who have tickets and will be happy to trade them for cold cash are L. W. Lewellyn, Counseling and Testing; Robert Andreini, English and Speech; Henry Marquez, Business Management; J. Barron Wiley, Education; Richard Jones, Business Administration; James Carrington, Auto Shop; Everette Dorrough, Cafeteria; T. M. Rickansrud, Physical Sciences; Robert Mott, Physical Education; David Montgomery, Biological Sciences; Marcus Gold, Audio-Visual; James McGrath, Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Engineering; Enrico Bongio, Welding and Metallurgical Engineering; Charles Davis, Aeronautical Engineering; Capt. E. E. Fryberger, Electrical Engineering; Fred Steuck, Electronic Engineering; J. Cordner Gibson, Agriculture; Lionel Middlecamp, Farm; Robert McCorkle, Agricultural Business Management; Willard Loper, Agricultural Engineering; Richard Birkett, Animal Husbandry; Arnold Dean, Soil Science; William Troutner, Crops; C. H. Gregory, Printing Engineering and Management; Walter Schroeder, Education; George Hasslein, Architecture and Architectural Engineering; John Price, Mechanical Engineering; John Woodworth, Mathematics; Carlos Richards, Machine Shop; Millard Fotter, Industrial Engineering; Col. E. H. Bauer, Military Science; and Robert Adams, Buildings and Grounds.

Coon Creek Cove may be reached by driving through the Baywood Park-Los Osos Area to the new state park. Signs will be posted from that point on into the area where the "fling" will take place.

REVIEW BY HUOT SCHEDULED FOR MAY 24 PROGRAM

Ethel Strainchamps' Don't Never Say Cain't will be reviewed by Robert Huot, a member of the English and Speech Department's faculty, on the program of the Books at High Noon series being planned for noon, next Tuesday (May 24), in the Staff Dining Room.

Writing to the author of Don't Never Say Cain't, H. L. Menken said he knew no other authority on dialects who had actually spoken an illiterate dialect as her original language. The dialect that she learned in the Missouri Ozarks was an almost totally different language from standard English. The two books her father owned, The Bible and The ABC and XYZ of Bee Culture, started an interest in language which has made her an authority on dialects and sociolinguistics.

On today's (May 17) Books at High Noon luncheon program, Willard M. Pedersen, head of the English and Speech Department, will review One Surgeon's Experiences with Hypnosis by Ernest W. Werbel, MD. Both the starting time and the place for today's meeting are same as those announced for next week.

DEADLINE FOR ARTICLES APPEARING IN NEXT WEEK'S STAFF BULLETIN IS FRIDAY NOON

STAFF CLUB WILL HEAR IRON CURTAIN REPORT DURING THURSDAY LUNCHEON PROGRAM

Michel N. Franck, who returned to his campus assignment as a member of the Social Sciences Department faculty in March after having spent several weeks behind the Iron Curtain, will be the guest speaker when members of the Staff Club gather at noon, Thursday (May 19), in the Staff Dining Room, for their weekly luncheon meeting.

Dr. Franck, who spent a total of four months behind the Iron Curtain on his most recent trip to his native Hungary, is expected to focus his remarks on recent trends in that nation. His talk will begin at 12:20 p.m., sharp.

PLACEMENT CALENDAR -- INTERVIEWS ON CAMPUS

WORTHINGTON CORPORATION. Warren F. Mills, manager, administration, and P. H. Shaw, will interview seniors in AC and R, EE, IE, and ME. Positions are available in design and production as well as field sales assignments. (5/20)

THE TRAVELERS. Robert A. McCallister, supervising adjuster, will interview seniors in business administration and other majors who are interested in careers in the insurance industry. This multiple-line insurance company has opportunities available in claims, casualty underwriting, and branch office administration. (5/23)

AVIATION INFORMATION OFFICE, U.S. Naval Air Station, Los Alamitos. An Aviation Information Team will be in the Snack Bar to talk with all students and faculty interested in aviation officer candidate training. (5/23 - 5/25)

COMBINED MODERN DANCE, BAND ENSEMBLES CONCERT WILL BE THIS EVENING

A joint concert of music and modern dance, performed by ensembles of the Concert Band and the Modern Dance Club, will be held in the Theater on campus, this (Tuesday, May 17) evening, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

"Sketches in Experimentation," title of the concert, will feature 15 members of the dance club performing such numbers as "Reblewhi," an experimental musical representing the colors, red, black, and white; "Flaxenelle," a ballet; and "Cast Your Fate to the Wind," a modern dance.

Instrumental music groups participating in the program, which is free to the public, include Los Tamales Calientes Plus One-Half, the Dixieland Six, the Percussion Ensemble, and the Jazz Ensemble of the Concert Band.

PHYSICAL SCIENCES FACULTY SEMINAR SERIES PROGRAM SLATED MAY 24

The second talk of a two-part series on "Investigation of the Nuclear Radius of Interaction and the Nuclear Surface Thickness" by Evangelos Hadjimichael of the Physical Sciences Department will be presented during the Physical Sciences Faculty Seminar meeting being planned for next Tuesday (May 24), beginning at 11:00 a.m., in Room E-26 of the Science Building. All members of the faculty, staff, and student body are invited to attend the seminar meetings.

ANNUAL C S E A BARBEQUE SLATED MAY 26

May 26 is the date selected for the annual family barbeque for members of Chapter 97 of the California State Employees Association. Site of the traditional event will be Cuesta Park, San Luis Obispo.

The steak barbeque dinner will be served beginning at 5:30 p.m., according to information issued by the CSEA chapter last week. Also planned during the evening are games and competitive events such as sack races, etc., for children, under the supervision of Robert Mott. The games will begin at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets for the barbeque, priced at $1.50 per person for adult members of CSEA families and $.75 for children under 12 years of age, went on sale last week. Members of the campus faculty and staff who are handling sale of the tickets are Dick Tartaglia, Buildings and Grounds; Peg Sullivan, Cafeteria; T. M. Rickansrud, Physical Sciences; Robert Mott, Physical Education; Bert Fellows, Printing Engineering and Management; Bill Troutner, Crops; Marcus Gold, Audio-Visual; James Langford, Education; Rodney Keif, Air Conditioning and Refrigeration; Bob Adams, Buildings and Grounds; Warren Anderson, Electrical Engineering; Fred Bowden, Electrical Engineering; Milo Whitson, Mathematics; Lionel Middlecamp, Campus Farm; Emmett Bloom, Animal Husbandry; LaVerne Bucy, Animal Husbandry; Owen Servatius, Business Administration; Juanita Fredericks, El Corral; Robert Andreini, English and Speech; Lucy Schmidt, Records; Betty Rodriguez, Information; Margaret Betts, General Office II; Barbara Ciesielski, General Office III; and Vi Hughes, Health Center.

Tickets for those not belonging to CSEA are priced at $2.50, each, for adults.

20 FORMER STUDENTS ON DUTY WITH PEACE CORPS

Twenty former students at Cal Poly's San Luis Obispo Campus are presently serving in the Peace Corps in 13 different countries, according to information released by the international aid organization's headquarters in Washington, D.C. As one of the nation's largest undergraduate schools of engineering and agriculture, Cal Poly has contributed many volunteers in those fields throughout history of the Peace Corps Program.

One volunteer from Cal Poly is presently serving in each of Brazil, India, the Dominican Republic, Malaya, Venezuela, Ecuador, Honduras, Guatemala, and Jamaica. Four volunteers, each, are serving in Colombia and Ethiopia, while Pakistan and the Philippines each have two.

Twenty-five former Peace Corps volunteers who are Cal Poly alumni have returned to the United States after their two-year missions. They served their assignments in such far away places as Sabah/Sarawak, Ecuador, Tunisia, El Salvador, Kenya, Tanganyika, Bolivia, Peru, Malawi, Brazil, Morocco, Liberia, Nigeria, Uganda, Guinea, India, Colombia, Ethiopia, and Chile.

PRE-SCHEDULING ADVISORY MEETINGS FOR SUMMER QUARTER SLATED MAY 26

College Hour, May 26, has been established as pre-scheduling advisory meeting time for students planning to attend classes during the Summer Quarter, 1966. All students who expect to register for the Summer Quarter are advised to consult their advisors during that hour and all faculty members serving in student advisory capacities are expected to be in their offices at that time on the same basis as for pre-scheduling advisory meetings for quarters of the regular academic year.

"SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL" WILL CLOSE THIS WEEKEND

One of the most famous comedy plays ever written, Richard Brimsley Sheridan's "The School for Scandal," will close a four-night run in the Theater on campus this weekend. Curtain time for the play which will conclude its run with performances Friday (May 20) and Saturday (May 21) evenings, will be 8:30 p.m.

Complete with 18th century scenery and costumes, the five-act comedy relates the tale of two brothers, both in love with the same girl, who are caught in the web of a scandalous society.

Tickets for both performances are priced at $1.25, each, for adults and $.75, each, for students, and may be purchased at Theater box offices prior to curtain time both evenings. All of the Theater's 500 seats are general admission for both nights.

CLASSICAL, CONTEMPORARY COMPOSERS INCLUDED ON CONCERT PROGRAM

Corelli, Rameau, Bigge, Arriaga, Schubert, Dohnanyi, and the contemporaries William Grant Still and Gardner Read are composers whose work will comprise the program when the San Luis Obispo Campus' Little Symphony offers its final concert of the year during College Hour, Thursday morning. Under direction of Emanuel R. Heifetz, the concert is scheduled for 11:00 a.m., in the campus Theater. Admission will be free and the public is invited.

A unique feature of the concert, one of the continuing College Hour Concert series, will be the performance of three numbers on the program entirely on instruments made by Fred H. Artindale. Artindale, a San Luis Obispo resident and member of the Little Symphony, is nationally known as a maker of stringed instruments and recently won a grand prize in an international competition for violin makers.

Thursday's program will be the last of 1965-66 for the College Hour Concert series.

FACULTY, STAFF INVITED TO FOREIGN STUDENT GRADUATION BANQUET

Members of the college faculty and staff have been invited to attend the annual Graduating Foreign Student Banquet, being planned for 7:00 p.m., the evening of May 25, at the Elk's Club, San Luis Obispo. Issued by Kendall Haskins, chairman of the event for the sponsoring campus chapter of People to People, and Glen Rich, faculty advisor to the student group, last week, the invitation read:

"The Cal Poly Chapter of People to People wishes to invite all staff members to attend the fourth annual Graduating Foreign Student Banquet, which is to be held May 25, at 7:00 p.m., at the Elk's Club.

"Each person attending the banquet will sponsor a foreign student/s as a gesture of friendship among the peoples of the world.

"Tickets are available at the Associated Students, Inc., office at $3.50 each."

CAL POLY WOMEN'S CLUB NEWS

Annual Luncheon -- The Annual Luncheon of the Cal Poly Women's Club will be held June 4, beginning at 1:00 p.m., in the Garden Room of the Madonna Inn, San Luis Obispo. Tickets, priced at $2.25 per person, must be purchased on or before May 27 and may be purchased either from chairmen of the club's various section or from Mrs. Leo Rogers.

Home and Garden Section -- Next meeting of the Home and Garden Section of the women's club will be tomorrow (Wednesday, May 18), when members will meet for brunch at 9:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Loren Nicholson, 103 La Entrada, San Luis Obispo.

Walking Group -- Members of the Walking Group of the club will meet next Tuesday (May 24), for a walk around the City of Morro Bay and a visit to one of that city's eating places. Those planning to attend are asked to gather in the parking lot of the Bank of America College Square, San Luis Obispo, at 9:00 a.m., to begin the tour.

Newcomers Section -- Foods demonstrations on diet menus and outdoor cookery will be presented by students of the Home Economics Department when members of the women's club's Newcomers Section gather for their final meeting of the year the evening of May 25. Being planned for 8:00 p.m., the meeting will take place in Room 123 of the Mathematics and Home Economics Building, on campus. Guests are cordially invited to attend.

Sewing Section -- The CPWC's Sewing Section will close its 1965-66 season with a pot-luck luncheon, scheduled for noon, June 7, in the home of Mrs. Francis Whiting, 1789 San Luis Drive, San Luis Obispo. Those desiring further information are invited to call Mrs. Loren Nicholson (543-7677).

CAMPUS SPORTS ACTION NARROWS TO TRACK AND FIELD, SPRING FOOTBALL

After close of the baseball season last week, only track and field and spring football practice remain in the campus sports spotlight. Although not a regularly scheduled event as far as intercollegiate action is concerned, the only on-campus activity of the week comes Saturday (May 21) afternoon, when the CAHPER chapter sponsors its second annual Girls and Women's Invitational Track and Field Meet. Planned to take place on the campus track beginning at 1:00 p.m., the meet is expected to draw junior high school, high school, and college girls and women from throughout Central California as competitors.

In the only other event on this week's sports calendar, Coach Walt Williamson's varsity thinclads are scheduled to journey to San Diego, where they are entered in the California Collegiate Athletic Association championship meet, Friday and Saturday (May 20-21).

Only other campus sports action planned before close of the quarter is the annual Spring Football Game, which will be the evening of May 28, in Mustang Stadium. The game, which annually concludes the football varsity's spring drills, will see the varsity divided into two teams for this year's clash.
