PERFORMANCES BY DIXIELAND, JAZZ GROUPS WILL HIGHLIGHT SPRING BAND CONCERT

Performances by two musical speciality groups will highlight the annual Spring Band Concert, which will be staged by the Music Department Thursday and Friday (June 1-2) nights. Planned for a pair of evening performances for the first time this year, the concerts will begin at 8:00 p.m., both nights, in the campus Theater.

Cal Poly's 17-piece Jazz Ensemble and 7-member Dixieland Band will join the 70-member Concert Band for the performances, which will conclude the concert schedule for the academic year for the Music Department.

Organized for the first time this year and making only its second appearance during the concerts this week, the Jazz Ensemble will play such numbers as "Straight, No Chaser," by Tom Monk, and "Why Were Her Eyes So Blue," by Thomas Wargo. The ensemble took second place in the jazz division of the recent Cal Poly Invitational Music Festival. Specializing in crisp New Orleans jazz as played during the early 1920's, the Dixieland Band will perform such numbers as "Who's Sorry Now," "One for My Baby," "Sunday," "South Rampart Street," and its own adaptation of "When the Saints Go Marchin' In."

Tickets for both concert performances, priced at $1.25 for adult general admission and $.75 for students, may be purchased at Brown's Music Store and Premier Music Company, both in San Luis Obispo; at the Associated Students, Inc., Office on campus; and from members of the performing groups.

PROGRESS ON SCREENING OF CANDIDATES FOR DEAN OF ENGINEERING POSITION REPORTED

The process of review of qualification papers and personal interview carried on by the Consultative Committee on Selection of a Dean of Engineering for Cal Poly has narrowed the field of candidates for the position to 12, according to information received last week from Vance Lewis of the Physical Sciences Department faculty, who is chairman of the committee.

Dr. Lewis said the screening process will continue until the remaining 12 candidates have been reduced to what the committee feels are the four or five most outstanding candidates for the position.

MODEL OF NUCLEAR POWER PLANT ON DISPLAY IN DEXTER LIBRARY

The Reference Room of Dexter Memorial Library is the site of a display of a model of the Westinghouse pressurized-type nuclear power plant of the type that is being proposed for location at Diablo Canyon by Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The model, on loan from Pacific Gas and Electric, will continue on display in that location through June 2.

MC GRATH NAMED TO CAL POLY FOUNDATION BOARD

James M. McGrath, head of the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Engineering Department, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the California State Polytechnic College Foundation, Inc. His election to the governing body of the foundation came during a meeting of the board held on campus last week.

Officers for the coming year, who were also elected during the meeting, were Robert E. Kennedy, president; Dale W. Andrews, vice president; and Harold O. Wilson, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Kennedy is the recently-elected president of Cal Poly, while Dr. Andrews is its academic vice president and Wilson, acting administrative vice president.

Besides McGrath, who was elected to fill a directorship which had been vacant for the past year, all members of the foundation's board were re-elected. They were Dr. Andrews; Everett M. Chandler, dean of student personnel for the college; J. Cordner Gibson, acting dean of the School of Agriculture; Dr. Kennedy; Donald S. Nelson, business manager of the college; and Wilson.

The Cal Poly Foundation is a non-profit corporation which operates the college's non-state auxiliary enterprises, including the bookstore, dining hall, snack bars, housing, student project system, farm, research, overseas projects, and other activities which support the college's basic instructional programs.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY SCHEDULED TO ADDRESS CENTRAL COAST NEWSMEN

Cal Poly President Robert E. Kennedy, himself a former newsman, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the California Central Coast Professional Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, being planned for Friday (June 2) at the Elks Club in San Luis Obispo. The meeting will also be the occasion for initiation of more than 25 professional journalists into the national journalism society, according to information released this week by the chapter.

Dr. Kennedy, a member of the society and the Board of Directors of the local chapter, will speak during the dinner meeting, which is slated for 7:30 p.m. It will be preceded by a social hour starting at 6:00 p.m., and the initiation beginning at 7:00 p.m.

DETAILS OF SUMMER SWIMMING PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Information concerning arrangements for the campus swimming program during the summer were announced last week by Dr. Robert A. Mott, head of the Physical Education Department, who said the program would begin June 21 and conclude July 28. Stuart Chestnut, a member of that department's faculty, will be in charge of the program, which will be staffed by student instructors and life guards who are physical education majors.

Sign-up for the program, which will be open to children of members of the student body, faculty, and staff, will be from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, June 21. The program is planned to offer instructional classes in the mornings, Monday through Thursday, and recreational swimming from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. All activities of the program will take place in the Natatorium.

ATTENDANCE AT 1967 POLY ROYAL SETS RECORD

Attendance at 35th Poly Royal festivities, which took place on campus April 28-29, reached an all-time high of 61,710, according to information released last week by Tom Ruggles, student superintendent for the annual open house event. Ruggles announced the attendance figures at a meeting during which planning for next year's Poly Royal began.

Factors for the number of cars that may have entered the campus more than once and the number of vehicles registered for regular use on campus were deducted and national averages for auto occupancy at special events were used in arriving at the final figure. Ruggles, who said the 1967 attendance mark may make Poly Royal the largest such student-sponsored open house event in the Western United States, also announced that several committees have already begun work on the 36th Poly Royal. Tentative dates for that event are April 26-27, 1968.

The 61,710 visitors who attended the annual open house last month is considerably more than estimates of recent years' attendance and the number expected to attend. Ruggles, who has been credited with guiding production of the most successful Poly Royal in history, explained that attendance figures for the past three years and estimates of those expected to attend the 1967 event had been based on an auto count taken four years ago. That count reflected an attendance of about 30,000 visitors.

Ruggles said that reports of attendance at the rodeo, individual displays and exhibits in the instructional departments, and other activities connected with this year's Poly Royal support the 61,710 overall figure.

STAFF CLUB PLANS DISCUSSION BY HOSTETTER

Clyde Hostetter of the Audio Visual Department's Vocational Education Productions staff will be the guest speaker during the luncheon meeting of the Cal Poly Staff Club, which is being planned for Thursday (June 1), beginning at noon, in the Staff Dining Room. Hostetter, who spent last summer in the British Isles making a film strip for Coronet Films, is expected to discuss the mechanics and problems of making a film strip by using his experiences in the British Isles as an example.

All members of the college faculty and staff are invited to hear his presentation.

COMPETITION IN COMPTON RELAYS SLATED FOR RELAY TEAM, SPRINTERS

Cal Poly's varsity 440-yard relay team and sprinters Cecil Turner, Ruben Smith, and Leo DeWinter are all entered and expected to compete in the Compton Relays, scheduled for Saturday (June 3) evening, in the Los Angeles Coliseum. That group, which represented the college in last weekend's California Relays in Modesto, has recorded outstanding times in its individual events.

Only remaining activity on the campus sports calendar are the National Collegiate Athletic Association's national College and University Division championship meets which are scheduled for next month. Varsity Track Coach Dick Purcell has indicated that he plans to enter the relay team and both Turner and Smith, plus several other individual members of the varsity in one or both of those meets. DeWinter, a freshman, is not eligible for varsity competition.

In announcing the appointment, Glenn S. #### CALL FOR NEW HOST FAMILIES FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS ISSUED

Foreign Student Advisor Glenn W. Rich last week issued a call for new families interested in participating in the college's foreign student hosts programs. His message, which came in the form of a memorandum to all members of the college staff and faculty, asked those who are interested in participating in the hosting program to contact his office and request a questionnaire which will provide needed information about the interests of individual families.

Rich, who pointed out that the experience of hosting a foreign student has proven to be a rewarding one for many families, said that a number of the students from foreign lands who enrolled for the first time during the Spring Quarter have not yet met an American family. Quoted in full, his message said:

"Many foreign students have expressed their sincere gratitude for the invitations they have received from their host families. And many faculty, staff, and community people have been greatly rewarded from the exchange of intercultural ideas and customs. But many new foreign students have not received invitations.

"The Host Family Committee of the Foreign Student Office needs families to share their homes and ideas. This spring there were forty-three new foreign students; most have not yet met an American family. Next fall the number is sure to be much larger. If you would like to participate in the Host Family Program, please call 546-2376 and ask for a questionnaire. This will help tremendously in planning for the Fall Quarter."
