FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Denny's Donations To Benefit Cal Poly Golden Key Chapter

SAN LUIS OBISPO - Continuing a successful program that began last year, Denny's Diner on Madonna Road in San Luis Obispo will donate 10 percent of the receipts it collects on Friday evenings from 4 to 9 p.m. to the Cal Poly Golden Key International Honour Society. The program will run through June 2004.

"Last year these donations helped underwrite student attendance at the Golden Key society's convention in Chicago," said club advisor Val Barboza. "This year's donations are again flagged for student travel to the international convention, which will be held in Atlanta next summer."

The Golden Key International Honour Society recognizes junior- and senior-level college students who maintain a grade point average of 3.5 (out of a possible 4.0) and above.

The Cal Poly chapter is active in local community service events. For more information call advisors Barboza at 756-5877 or Brent Hallock at 756-2436, or visit the chapter's Web page at <http://www.calpoly.edu/~gkeyclub/nonflash/officers.html>.
