Warren J. Baker Center for Science and Mathematics Dedicated Nov. 1

The campus community, donors, alumni and friends of Cal Poly gathered to dedicate the new Warren J. Baker Center for Science & Mathematics on Nov. 1. President Jeffrey D. Armstrong and Phil Bailey, dean of the College of Science & Mathematics, recognized the contributions of donors, architects, builders and artists as well as Cal Poly faculty, staff and students. At the dedication, President Emeritus Warren J. Baker was honored by student representatives from the CSU Board of Trustees, Congresswoman Lois Capps and Assembly Member Katcho Achadjian. Baker also received the President's Medal of Excellence, bestowed by Armstrong, for "transformational service to Cal Poly and the State of California" at a dinner later that evening. For more on the Dedication ceremony, see the Cal Poly News site.

Campus Conversations Series

The campus community is invited to attend upcoming events in the Campus Conversations Series.

- Student Affairs: "Student Behavior and Threat Assessment: When and How to Intervene" from 2:30 to 4 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7, in UU 220.
- Student Affairs: "Original Work in the Digital Age: Addressing Plagiarism to Support Student Success" from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 14, in the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology (Building 35, Room 202A).

The full schedule of Campus Conversations can be found here.

Cal Poly Sweeps 2013 Big West Cross Country Championships

For the second year in a row and the third time overall, Cal Poly men's and women's cross country teams swept the Big West Conference Cross Country Championships on Saturday at the Fairbanks Memorial Cross Country Course in San Luis Obispo. For the men's team it was their 13th overall and third straight championship. For the women it was their fourth overall and second straight championship. See the Athletics Department website for more on the championship performances.

Women's Soccer Wins Regular-Season Big West Championship, Clinches No. 1 Seed

Elise Krieghoff scored the game-winning goal in the 85th minute Thursday afternoon, and the Cal Poly women's soccer team finished the regular season with a 1-0 victory at UC Davis. With the win at Aggie Soccer Field, the Mustangs clinched both the outright regular-season Big West Conference championship and the No. 1 seed in next week's conference tournament. Go to the Mustangs website for more on the match.

Faculty & Staff

Center for Community Engagement Seeking Info on Classes with Community Service Component

Do you offer a class that includes community service as part of the course credit (not just extra credit)? If so, the Center for Community Engagement is updating its website and database and would like to know about it. Faculty members who include community service in their curriculum may be eligible and/or included in awards and recognition, including the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, Cal Poly President's Service Awards, Instructionally Related Activities funding, and student assistant support. Email your course title to Joy Harkins at jharkins@calpoly.edu.

Applications Accepted for 2014-15 Community/Resident Advisor Positions

University Housing is accepting student applications for resident and community advisor (RA and CA) positions for the 2014-15 academic year. Faculty and staff are asked to direct potential candidates to the University Housing website and provide referrals upon request. The RA/CA position is a team-oriented position in which students work together to put on events, build relationships, and create a positive learning experience for the students in their community. Past RA/CAs have used the skills acquired in the position in other leadership positions and their careers. Applications are due Dec. 9.

Nominations Sought for Outstanding Staff Award

The deadline to submit a nomination form for the 2013-14 Outstanding Staff Award is Tuesday, Jan. 21, 2014. To be eligible, nominees must be full-time or part-time employees of the university, corporation or ASI, in at least their third year of employment as of Dec. 31, 2013, and not represented by bargaining unit 3 (faculty). Former recipients of the award are also ineligible. The Outstanding Staff nomination form can be found on the Administration & Finance website.

Online Training Library Now Available for Faculty and Staff

Information Services is providing state employees access to the tutorial resources at lynda.com. The training modules are created and presented by real-world professionals and cover a wide range of topics, including software, creative and business skills. This on-demand, self-paced learning service is free and available at work or home. You can find the lynda.com link on the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology (CTLT) website. For more information, contact the Service Desk at ext 6-7000.

Kennedy Library Launches Open Science Café

Faculty, are you looking for Learn by Doing opportunities for your students? Kennedy Library has launched its first Open Science Cafe competition, which will award a student proposal a $3,000 budget and $500 stipend to create a Cal Poly Science Cafe experience. This is an opportunity for students to gain project management experience from start to finish. The event can relate to any discipline; it doesn't have to be about science. The deadline to apply is Dec. 13. To apply or for more information, go to the Kennedy Library website or contact Karen Lauritsen, ext. 6-7549 or klaurits@calpoly.edu.

Campus Announcements

Holiday Hams Available from Cal Poly Meats

The holiday season is fast approaching and that means it's time to place your ham order for Cal Poly-produced hams. The ham comes from hogs that have been Cal Poly-raised, vegetarian-fed, and Cal Poly-processed. In order to meet the high demand of the holiday ham sale, Cal Poly Meats will also sell Cal Poly-processed hams. Cal Poly-processed hams are from a local rancher and are prepared in the same manner as the Cal Poly-produced hams. All hams are cured using Cal Poly's traditional recipe, slow cooked, smoked with natural hickory hardwood and vacuum packaged.

— Cal Poly-produced whole and half hams are available for $3.99 per pound.

— Cal Poly-processed whole and half hams are available for $3.55 per pound.

Orders can be placed in person or by phone or email. Orders can be picked up between noon and 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, or Friday, Nov. 22, at the J&G Lau Family Meat Processing Center. For questions or to place an order, contact Cal Poly Meats at calpolymeats@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2114.

Healthy Sex on Dex Scheduled for Nov. 12

Safer is evaluating the sex culture at Cal Poly to encourage healthy, safe practices regarding sex. The campus community is invited to an open forum from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 12, on Dexter Lawn. The event will be light-hearted, including statistics on sex, speeches, and tips for healthier sex.

ASI and Safer Offer Free Self-Defense Class Nov. 6

ASI and Safer have teamed up to offer a free self-defense class for the Cal Poly community from 8:15 to 10:15 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 6, in the Recreation Center MAC (Multi-Activity Center). Participants will be taught a variety of techniques for defending themselves, including assertive talking, posturing, and specific defense skills. The class is available to all Cal Poly community members; however, you must be at least 16 years old to participate.

Registration is not required, but space is limited, so please arrive early to save your spot. Participants are encouraged to wear workout attire and bring water. For more information, contact the Recreation Center front desk at ext. 6-1366.

Holiday Gift Drive Set for Nov. 18-Dec. 6

The Center for Community Engagement (CCE) is sponsoring a holiday gift drive from Nov. 18 through Dec. 6. Gifts will be distributed to children in San Luis Obispo County through partner organizations including Big Brothers/Big Sisters and Teen Academic Parenting, the Housing Authority of San Luis Obispo, Department of Social Services, Community Action Partnership, and Youth Treatment Program. Pick up a gift request in the CCE office in UU 217 after Nov. 18. Gifts must be returned to the office by Dec. 6. Gifts should be no more than $20.

College of Liberal Arts Holding Second Annual Food Drive

The College of Liberal Arts (CLA) is holding the second annual CLA Food Bank Drive. The Food Bank Coalition of San Luis Obispo County will have barrels for donations in CLA department offices through Tuesday, Nov. 26. The campus community is invited to participate. Last year, the drive generated food and financial contributions equivalent to 3,254 pounds of food. CLA departments, including students, are encouraged to engage in friendly competition for the benefit of community members in need. This year, CLA student clubs are competing for the best-decorated collection barrel. The food bank encourages food donations be selected from the food pyramid, including fruits and vegetables, grain and protein groups. Non-perishable items are encouraged, such as canned and dried foods, oatmeal, whole grain rice, pasta and bean soups. Monetary contributions are also welcome. For more information, visit the CLA website.

Campus Asked to Help Educate Uninsured Campus Community About New Options

CSU Health Insurance Education Project (HIEP) is a grant-funded education and outreach program to help the CSU community understand the new health insurance exchange provided by Covered California, the state agency created to implement the Affordable Care Act. The goal is to educate uninsured students, families, faculty and staff about financial assistance that could make getting insured affordable. Supported by CSU Chancellor Timothy P. White, faculty and staff are asked to help in the effort through various options to promote the service, such as offering time in-class or at club meetings for presentations. For more information, go to the CSU website or email the HIEP representatives at calpolyslohiiep@gmail.com.

CPR/AED Classes Offered Nov. 13

Learn how to save a life by taking an American Red Cross CPR/AED (Automated External Defibrillator) course at the Recreation Center from 6 to 10 p.m. Nov. 13. Classes are open to the Cal Poly community, and participants will earn a two-year certification after completion of the course. The courses are appropriate if you need to be certified for a job or want to be prepared for an emergency or improve safety for your family and community. The fee is $60 per participant. The courses are offered by ASI. No prior medical knowledge is necessary. Register at the Recreation Center front desk or online. For more information, call ext. 6-1366.

Employment Equity Facilitator Workshop Offered Dec. 10

An Employment Equity Facilitator Workshop will be offered from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10, the last one available in 2013. The November workshop is full. All workshops will be in Fisher Science (Building 33), Room 290. Martha Cody, director of Employment Equity, will lead the workshops. She will be joined by Jen Myers from Academic Personnel and Karen Watton from Human Resources, who will provide information and answer questions about the faculty and staff recruitment process. Sumi Seacat will be available to answer questions regarding institutionally sponsored H-1B visas for foreign faculty and staff. To reserve a spot, contact Seacat at sseacat@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-7387.

Statistics Department to Provide Consulting Service Fall Quarter

The Statistics Department provides a statistical consulting service to the university community to facilitate research design and data analysis in a wide variety of disciplines. The consulting service is intended to support projects and research of Cal Poly faculty and staff and provide assistance for students working on senior projects and graduate research. Andrew Schaffner is serving as the main consultant. He is available to advise on data collection, experimental design, and analysis of research projects. In addition, Schaffner is available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages currently available at Cal Poly. If there is a special area of statistical inference that is of interest to a group in your department, contact Schaffner at 6-1545 or aschaffn@calpoly.edu to arrange possible lectures on that subject. Schaffner will maintain walk-in availability hours from 11:10 a.m. to noon Wednesdays, 10:10 to 11 a.m. Thursdays, and 10:10 a.m. to noon Fridays. Contact him to schedule appointments outside those hours. Faculty, staff and students interested in using the consulting service are encouraged to access the Statistics Department web page information for additional information including what to bring to a consulting session. Consulting will end Dec. 13.

Daily/Weekly/Monthly Tablet Rentals as Low as $5 Per Day

The University Store has new daily, weekly and monthly tablet rental options, starting at $5 per day. All rentals come fully equipped with a tablet case, data sync cable and travel power adapter. Tablets are limited, so reserve yours today. For more information, go to the University Store website or visit the store's technology center.

Special Holiday Meals and Pies Available from Village Market through Nov. 22

This holiday, treat your family, friends and coworkers to a special selection of holiday meals, pies (including a gluten-free pumpkin pie) and seasonal side dishes from Village Market. Orders can be placed online, by phone at ext. 6-1959, or at Village Market in Poly Canyon Village through Nov. 22. Village Market will also have a wide selection of seasonal sides in the deli case to enjoy daily, including cornbread stuffing and butter whipped Yukon gold potatoes. Find more information at www.calpolydining.com/holidays.

Cal Poly Corn and Meats Featured at Campus Market's Barbecue Wednesdays

While supplies last, Campus Market will serve Cal Poly corn on the cob and Cal Poly linguica and bratwurst sandwiches at their barbecue events from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. every Wednesday. Find out more at the Campus Market Web page.

Easy Online Printing Services at Cal Poly Print and Copy

Cal Poly Print & Copy has an easy online ordering system for faculty and staff to place print and copy orders. They also have new options to print full-size banners, magnets, brochures and more. Visit its website at www.calpolyprint.com.

Visit the Bella Montana Homes website for available homes for sale.

Events

Auditions for Cal Poly's Vagina Monologues Nov. 5-7

Cal Poly's Gender Equity Center will host auditions in November for their February 2014 production of Eve Ensler's Vagina Monologues. The play highlights women's experiences in today's world. Last year's production raised more than $17,000 in efforts to end violence against women and girls locally and globally. Audition opportunities are open to faculty, staff, students and community members. Auditions will take place from 6 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 6, in UU 221. Call-backs will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7, in UU 204. No acting experience is required. For additional information, contact the Gender Equity Center at genderequitycenter@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2600.

'Another Type of Groove' Celebrates Native American Heritage Month with Poet Gloria Velasquez on Nov. 6

Cal Poly MultiCultural Center's "Another Type of Groove: Spoken Word Poetry" celebrates Native American Heritage Month with poet Gloria Velasquez at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 6, in Chumash Auditorium in the University Union. Velásquez is an internationally acclaimed author who holds a doctorate from Stanford University in Latin American and Chicano literatures. Another Type of Groove is a spoken-word poetry event held the first Wednesday of each month throughout the school year. Each event includes a featured poet and an open mic for those who wish to participate. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Que Dang at qpdang@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-6256.

Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) Celebration Nov. 7

Cal Poly's MultiCultural Center and Movimiento Estudiantil Xicano de Aztlán (MEXA) invite faculty and staff to participate in the university's Dia de los Muertos celebration from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7 in the UU Plaza. The celebration will feature an altar competition, face painting, papel picado craft-making, performances and food. Teams work together to design an altar dedicated to an activist (deceased) whom they perceive to be a leader who dedicated his/her life to making a positive difference. On the day of the event, altars will be displayed and prizes awarded. For more information, contact Que Dang at qpdang@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-6256.

University Art Gallery to Exhibit Work by Featured Alumni Nov. 7–Dec. 6

Cal Poly's University Art Gallery will exhibit artwork created by six Art & Design Department alumni Nov. 7 through Dec. 6. The exhibit will open with a lecture and reception at 4 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7. The exhibit represents the department's concentrations in graphic design, photography and studio art. The featured alumni artists include: Heather Finney (BFA, 2007), Tommy Garcia (BFA, 2007), Laura Krifka (BFA, 2008), Erik Marinovich (B.S., 2003), Grant Shaffer (B.S., 1989), and Garet Zook (BFA, 2006). Finney's photography documents women in the Middle East and will be the subject of the opening lecture, which is free and open to the public. The University Art Gallery is free and open to the public 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. The gallery is located on the Cal Poly campus on the ground floor of the Dexter Art Building (Building 34). For more information, go to the Cal Poly News site.

Theatre and Dance Department Presents Fall Production Nov. 14-16 and 21-23

The Cal Poly Theatre and Dance Department will present its fall production "CrossRoads" at 8 p.m. Nov. 14-16 and 21-23, in Spanos Theatre. Written by Theatre and Dance Department Professor Al Schnupp, "CrossRoads" centers on the main character, Tobias, a playwright who has been banished from the city of Athens, Greece. He and his family, along with their cart of supplies, travel through time and meet a host of bizarre and eccentric characters — some created for the stage by Shakespeare, Beckett and Pirandello — that forever change them. For more information, go to the CLA website.

Alumnus Tom Gallo to Talk About 'Striving for Excellence in Wine Packaging' Nov. 15

Tom Gallo (B.S., Graphic Communication, '88), vice president of strategic business development for G3 Enterprises, will speak on the topic of "Striving for Excellence in Wine Packaging" from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in Graphic Arts (Building 26), Room 106. The presentation will discuss strategies for success in the wine packaging industry and guide students through the processes involved in the business. Gallo is the grandson of Gallo Winery founder Julio Gallo. G3 Enterprises is one of the nation's largest packaging companies focused on the wine and beverage industry and provides wine sourcing, bottling, label design, bottle decorating and global transportation. Gallo was recently named the 2013 Honored Alum for the College of Liberal Arts. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Hearst Lecture Series Features Habitat for Humanity Speaker on Nov. 15

As part of its Hearst Lecture Series, the College of Architecture & Environmental Design will offer a presentation by Paul Hamalian (B.S., Construction Management, '88), senior director of strategic planning for Habitat for Humanity International, at 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in the Business Building Rotunda (Building 3, Room 213). The presentation will address the organization's mission to build houses using volunteer labor, donations and innovative financing methods. Hamalian is this year's Honored Alumnus for the College of Architecture & Environmental Design. It is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Carmen Trudell at ext. 6-5207 or ctrudell@calpoly.edu, or Robert Arens at ext. 6-1444.

Cal Poly Pier to Hold Fall Open House Nov. 16

The Cal Poly Pier in Avila Beach will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Nov. 16. Interactive displays will include special touch-tanks of live marine creatures, microscopes for viewing ultra-small sea creatures, a

"discover scuba" experience and more. Cal Poly professors and students will be on hand to explain their ongoing research into local marine life, including Morro Bay's ecosystem and efforts to sustain local fisheries and map ocean currents on the Central Coast. For more information, visit the College of Science & Mathematics website.

Arab Music Ensemble to Perform on Campus Nov. 16

The Cal Poly Arab Music Ensemble and special guest artists will perform a program of music and dance from the Eastern Mediterranean and larger region at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, in the Performing Arts Center. The concert will feature some of the most celebrated instrumental and vocal repertoire from the Ottoman era to the present and a lecture-demonstration on the epic poetic tradition, Sirat Bani Hilal. Proceeds will benefit the Arab Music Ensemble's performance with PolyPhonics at Carnegie Hall, where they will give the showcase performance at the World Projects 2014 New York Choral Festival. For more information, go to the Cal Poly News site.

Presentation on 'Maori Warfare in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand' Set for Nov. 18

Cal Poly will host Cal Poly Pomona Anthropology Professor Mark W. Allen for his presentation, "Maori Warfare in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand: An Archeologist's Journey to Middle Earth (and Back Again)" from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 18, in Spanos Theatre. Allen will discuss the results of his archaeological research focusing on the landscape of the prehistoric and early historic Maori sites in Hawke's Bay. The project has developed over the past 25 years, benefiting from a partnership between Allen and the Maori people of the region. Allen will track New Zealand history during the presentation, exploring how warfare, though a prevalent practice in Polynesia, eventually became an important part of Maori culture about 500 years ago. Audiences can also expect a few allusions to "The Lord of the Rings" trilogy. The event is funded by the College of Liberal Arts' Lottery Speakers Fund and sponsored by the Social Sciences Department. The presentation is free and open to the public. For more information, visit the CLA website.

Cal Poly to Present Bandfest on Nov. 23

More than 290 students will perform at Cal Poly's annual Bandfest at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 23, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The concert will feature Cal Poly's Wind Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, and Pride of the Pacific Mustang Marching Band in an evening of bold and powerful works for the modern wind band and the traditional stadium marching band. Tickets are available at the Performing Arts Ticket office at ext. 6-4849 or online at polytix.calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly Symphony to Perform Holst's 'The Planets' and Works by Vaughan Williams on Nov. 24

The Cal Poly Symphony will perform music from early 20th-century England during its Fall Concert 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 24, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The centerpiece of the concert is a performance of Gustav Holst's "The Planets," a musical and psychological journey from the brute force of "Mars: the Bringer of War" to the hushed serenity of "Neptune: the Mystic." Paired with this monumental work is music by Holst's lifelong friend, Ralph Vaughan Williams. Tickets to the concert are $12 and $14 for the public and $9 and $12 for senior citizens and students and are sold at the Performing Arts Ticket office. To order by phone, call SLO-4TIX (756-4849). The concert is sponsored by Cal Poly's College of Liberal Arts, Music Department, and Instructionally Related Activities program. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Jerry Seinfeld Comes to the PAC on Jan. 23

Jerry Seinfeld will be perform his signature stand-up routine at the Christopher Cohan Center at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Jan. 23.
