

Skip to Content ?my CalPoly login

News

University News & Information

Cal Poly Report - November 13, 2013

News

Cal Poly's 2013 Honored Alumni Showcase the Best of Learn by Doing

The Alumni Association has announced the Honored Alumni for 2013. The award recipients will be recognized for their professional achievements and global impact during Homecoming Weekend. Festivities include an awards ceremony at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in Chumash Auditorium and a halftime ceremony during the football game vs. Eastern Washington at 12:40 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16. For more information on the 2013 Honored Alumni, go to the Cal Poly News site.

Campus Conversations Series Continues Nov. 14

The campus community is invited to attend upcoming events in the Campus Conversations Series.

— Student Affairs: "Original Work in the Digital Age: Addressing Plagiarism to Support Student Success" from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 14, in the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology (Building 35, Room 202A).

— Student Affairs: "Veterans in the Classroom: Challenges, Misconceptions and Academic Success" from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 19, in the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology (Building 35, Room 202A).

The full schedule of Campus Conversations can be found here.

Students

Cal Poly Debate Team Earns Title of 'Champion' at Oct. 26 Invitational

The Cal Poly Debate Team earned the title of "Champion" at this year's Loyola Marymount University Invitational Debate Tournament, which took place Oct. 26. The tournament included nationally and internationally ranked teams. Cal Poly contended for top honors against top-ranked teams from the University of La Verne, UCLA, USC, and the Claremont Colleges. The issues included international relations, social justice, economics and philosophy. For more on the win, go to the CLA website.

Cal Poly Student Entrepreneur Wins Elevator Pitch Competition

Ag Science student Quincy Freeman won first place in the National Elevator Pitch Competition at the College Entrepreneurs' Organization Conference earlier this month in Chicago. The competition requires students to present a business idea to a panel of judges in about a minute — the time a person would have to pitch an idea to someone they met during an elevator ride. Freeman's winning business pitch was a proposal to build her real-life Western wear fashion line into an independent company. Freeman began designing boots and riding gear as a teenager competing in rodeos. For more on the story, see the article in The Tribune. For an earlier story on Freeman in Cal Poly Magazine, click here.

Faculty & Staff

Start $mart Salary Negotiation Workshop Nov. 23 and Faculty/Staff Training

CAL POLY REPORT

Cal Poly News Web

News RSS Feed

Events & Entertainment

Cal Poly Arts

Faculty and staff can play a role in promoting wage equity for Cal Poly graduates by encouraging students to attend the $tart $mart Salary Negotiation Workshop for Women. Sponsored by Career Services, the free workshop is open to all students and is designed to provide attendees with the knowledge and skills to successfully negotiate their professional salary and benefit package. The event will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Nov. 23, in Career Services (Building 124), Room 117. $tart $mart is a joint project of American Association of University Women and the WAGE Project, dedicated to ending workplace discrimination for women. To register for the workshop, contact Charlotte Rinaldi at ext. 6-5978 or crinaldi@calpoly.edu.

Faculty and staff can be $tart $mart facilitators by attending the Nov. 23 workshop and a required follow-up training session for $100 (the WAGE Project refunds $50 after facilitation of the first session). Trained facilitators will have unlimited access to $tart $mart Salary Negotiation workshop materials and support for the duration of a three-year contract sponsored by Career Services. For details, Charlotte Rinaldi at ext. 6-5978 or crinaldi@calpoly.edu.

Center for Community Engagement Seeking Info on Classes with Community Service Component

Do you offer a class that includes community service as part of the course credit (not just extra credit)? If so, the Center for Community Engagement is updating its website and database and would like to know about it. Faculty members who include community service in their curriculum may be eligible and/or included in awards and recognition, including the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, Cal Poly President's Service Awards, Instructionally Related Activities funding, and student assistant support. Email your course title to Joy Harkins at jharkins@calpoly.edu.

Applications Accepted for 2014-15 Community/Resident Advisor Positions

University Housing is accepting student applications for resident and community advisor (RA and CA) positions for the 2014-15 academic year. Faculty and staff are asked to direct potential candidates to the University Housing website and provide referrals upon request. The RA/CA position is a team-oriented position in which students work together to put on events, build relationships, and create a positive learning experience for the students in their community. Past RA/CAs have used the skills acquired in the position in other leadership positions and their careers. Applications are due Dec. 9.

Nominations Sought for Outstanding Staff Award

The deadline to submit a nomination form for the 2013-14 Outstanding Staff Award is Tuesday, Jan. 21, 2014. To be eligible, nominees must be full-time or part-time employees of the university, corporation or ASI, in at least their third year of employment as of Dec. 31, 2013, and not represented by bargaining unit 3 (faculty). Former recipients of the award are also ineligible. The Outstanding Staff nomination form can be found on the Administration & Finance website.

Online Training Library Now Available for Faculty and Staff

Information Services is providing state employees access to the tutorial resources at lynda.com. The training modules are created and presented by real-world professionals and cover a wide range of topics, including software, creative and business skills. This on-demand, self-paced learning service is free and available at work or home. For convenient one-click access to lynda.com, go to the portal and click "Customize" in the upper right corner. In the search box, type "training." Click on "Training Resources" to login. You can also add a tab to your portal for easy access. For help adding the tab to your portal, please contact the Service Desk at ext. 6-7000.

Kennedy Library Launches Open Science Café

Faculty, are you looking for Learn by Doing opportunities for your students? Kennedy Library has launched its first Open Science Cafe competition, which will award a student proposal a $3,000 budget and $500 stipend to create a Cal Poly Science Cafe experience. This is an opportunity for students to gain project management experience from start to finish. The event can relate to any discipline; it doesn't have to be about science. The deadline to apply is Dec. 13. To apply or for more information, go to the Kennedy Library website or contact Karen Lauritsen, ext. 6-7549 or klaurits@calpoly.edu.

Campus Announcements

Fee Waiver Open Forums Set for Nov. 19

Human Resources will hold an open forum on the Fee Waiver Program from 10 to 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 19, in UU 220. The fee waiver program provides eligible faculty, staff and management employees and/or their dependents with the opportunity to attend classes at CSU campuses at greatly reduced rates. Topics covered will include eligibility, procedures and deadlines. Time will be reserved at the end of the presentation for questions and answers. For more information, contact Karen Watton at kwatton@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-5407.

Holiday Hams Available from Cal Poly Meats

The holiday season is fast approaching and that means it's time to place your ham order for Cal Poly-produced hams. The ham comes from hogs that have been Cal Poly-raised, vegetarian-fed, and Cal Poly-processed. In order to meet the high demand of the holiday ham sale, Cal Poly Meats will also sell Cal Poly-processed hams. Cal Poly-processed hams are from a local rancher and are prepared in the same manner as the Cal Poly-produced hams. All hams are cured using Cal Poly's traditional recipe, slow cooked, smoked with natural hickory hardwood and vacuum packaged.

— Cal Poly-produced whole and half hams are available for $3.99 per pound.

— Cal Poly-processed whole and half hams are available for $3.55 per pound.

Orders can be placed in person or by phone or email. Orders can be picked up between noon and 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, or Friday, Nov. 22, at the J&G Lau Family Meat Processing Center. For questions or to place an order, contact Cal Poly Meats at calpolymeats@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-2114.

Holiday Gift Drive Set for Nov. 18-Dec. 6

The Center for Community Engagement (CCE) is sponsoring a holiday gift drive from Nov. 18 through Dec. 6. Gifts will be distributed to children in San Luis Obispo County through partner organizations including Big Brothers/Big Sisters and Teen Academic Parenting, the Housing Authority of San Luis Obispo, Department of Social Services, Community Action Partnership, and Youth Treatment Program. Pick up a gift request in the CCE office in UU 217 after Nov. 18. Gifts must be returned to the office by Dec. 6. Gifts should be no more than $20.

College of Liberal Arts Holding Second Annual Food Drive

The College of Liberal Arts (CLA) is holding the second annual CLA Food Bank Drive. The Food Bank Coalition of San Luis Obispo County will have barrels for donations in CLA department offices through Tuesday, Nov. 26. The campus community is invited to participate. Last year, the drive generated food and financial contributions equivalent to 3,254 pounds of food. CLA departments, including students, are encouraged to engage in friendly competition for the benefit of community members in need. This year, CLA student clubs are competing for the best-decorated collection barrel. The food bank encourages food donations be selected from the food pyramid, including fruits and vegetables, grain and protein groups. Non-perishable items are encouraged, such as canned and dried foods, oatmeal, whole grain rice, pasta and bean soups. Monetary contributions are also welcome. For more information, visit the CLA website.

CPR/AED Class Offered Nov. 13

Learn how to save a life by taking an American Red Cross CPR/AED (Automated External Defibrillator) course at the Recreation Center from 6 to 10 p.m. Nov. 13. Classes are open to the Cal Poly community, and participants will earn a two-year certification after completion of the course. The courses are appropriate if you need to be certified for a job or want to be prepared for an emergency or improve safety for your family and community. The fee is $60 per participant. The courses are offered by ASI. No prior medical knowledge is necessary. Register at the Recreation Center front desk or online. For more information, call ext. 6-1366.

Statistics Department to Provide Consulting Service Fall Quarter

The Statistics Department provides a statistical consulting service to the university community to facilitate research design and data analysis in a wide variety of disciplines. The consulting service is intended to support projects and research of Cal Poly faculty and staff and provide assistance for students working on senior projects and graduate research. Andrew Schaffner is serving as the main consultant. He is available to advise on data collection, experimental design, and analysis of research projects. In addition, Schaffner is available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages currently available at Cal Poly. If there is a special area of statistical inference that is of interest to a group in your department, contact Schaffner at 6-1545 or aschaffn@calpoly.edu to arrange possible lectures on that subject. Schaffner will maintain walk-in availability hours from 11:10 a.m. to noon Wednesdays, 10:10 to 11 a.m. Thursdays, and 10:10 a.m. to noon Fridays. Contact him to schedule appointments outside those hours. Faculty, staff and students interested in using the consulting service are encouraged to access the Statistics Department web page information for additional information including what to bring to a consulting session. Consulting will end Dec. 13.

One-Hour Sale of Cal Poly Gear in Time for Homecoming

GEAR UP FOR HOMECOMING AT THE UNIVERSITY STORE

Homecoming is Saturday, Nov. 16, so make sure you have all of your Cal Poly essentials for the big game. The University Store and Cal Poly Downtown will be hosting a limited time Flash Sale on Thursday, Nov. 14, from 11 a.m. to noon only. Get 20 percent off of one Cal Poly emblematic item during that time only. For more information, go to the Cal Poly Store website.

University Store to Have Founder's Day Sale Nov. 21 and 22

The University Store is the place to be Nov. 21 and 22 for the Founder's Day sale from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Take advantage of big savings. Get select Cal Poly crew neck sweatshirts for just $19.01. For more information, go to the Cal Poly Store website.

Daily/Weekly/Monthly Tablet Rentals as Low as $5 Per Day

The University Store has new daily, weekly and monthly tablet rental options, starting at $5 per day. All rentals come fully equipped with a tablet case, data sync cable and travel power adapter. Tablets are limited, so reserve yours today. For more information, go to the University Store website or visit the store's technology center.

Special Holiday Meals and Pies Available from Village Market through Nov. 22

This holiday, treat your family, friends and coworkers to a special selection of holiday meals, pies (including a gluten-free pumpkin pie) and seasonal side dishes from Village Market. Orders can be placed online, by phone at ext. 6-1959, or at Village Market in Poly Canyon Village through Nov. 22. Village Market will also have a wide selection of seasonal sides in the deli case to enjoy daily, including cornbread stuffing and butter whipped Yukon gold potatoes. Find more information at www.calpolydining.com/holidays.

Bella Montana Faculty and Staff Housing Community

Visit the Bella Montana Homes website for available homes for sale.

Events

International Education Week Features Events Nov. 12-15 on Campus

The International Center is hosting events Nov. 12-15 to celebrate International Education Week. Part of a nationwide effort, the events highlight the benefits of international education and exchange. Campus events include a welcome reception for new international students and scholars; an international film night; a panel discussion on internship and work abroad opportunities; and a presentation from faculty and the dean of Russia's South Ural State University. For more information, go to international.calpoly.edu.

Theatre and Dance Department Presents Fall Production Nov. 14-16 and 21-23

The Cal Poly Theatre and Dance Department will present its fall production "CrossRoads" at 8 p.m. Nov. 14-16 and 21-23, in Spanos Theatre. Written by Theatre and Dance Department Professor Al Schnupp, "CrossRoads" centers on the main character, Tobias, a playwright who has been banished from the city of Athens, Greece. He and his family, along with their cart of supplies, travel through time and meet a host of bizarre and eccentric characters — some created for the stage by Shakespeare, Beckett and Pirandello — that forever change them. For more information, go to the CLA website.

Symposium on the Intersection of Technology and Business to be Held Nov. 15

Graduate Education will host a graduate symposium on "Semiconductors at the Intersection of Technology & Business," presented by Steve Lanza (B.S., Business Administration, 1981), corporate vice president – global field operations for Lam Research. The symposium is open to all students, faculty and staff and will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in Engineering IV (Building 192), Room 106. The presentations are designed to address the role master's degrees play in research and professional opportunities and how the integration of technology and business has impacted the speaker's career. For a calendar of speakers, visit the Graduate Education website.

Alumnus Brian Hackney to Deliver Video Presentation "Physics: Why I Did It (and Then Didn't Do It)" Nov. 15

Cal Poly alumnus Brian Hackney (B.S., Physics, 1986; B.S., Electronic Engineering, 1986), will deliver the video presentation "Physics: Why I Did It (and Then Didn't Do It)" from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in the Baker Center (Building 180), Room 101. This year's Honored Alumnus for the College of Science & Mathematics, Hackney has won 18 Emmy awards as the science reporter for CBS news in San Francisco. He will discuss what he says was the bizarre world that existed when phones were dumb and people were smart and how it was possible to be interested in science and technology without the lure of stock options.

Alumnus Tom Gallo to Talk About 'Striving for Excellence in Wine Packaging' Nov. 15

Tom Gallo (B.S., Graphic Communication, 1988), vice president of strategic business development for G3 Enterprises, will speak on the topic of "Striving for Excellence in Wine Packaging" from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in Graphic Arts (Building 26), Room 106. The presentation will discuss strategies for success in the wine packaging industry and guide students through the processes involved in the business. Gallo is the grandson of Gallo Winery founder Julio Gallo. G3 Enterprises is one of the nation's largest packaging companies focused on the wine and beverage industry and provides wine sourcing, bottling, label design, bottle decorating and global transportation. Tom Gallo was recently named the 2013 Honored Alumnus for the College of Liberal Arts. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Hearst Lecture Series Features Habitat for Humanity Speaker on Nov. 15

As part of its Hearst Lecture Series, the College of Architecture & Environmental Design will offer a presentation by Paul Hamalian (B.S., Construction Management, 1988), senior director of strategic planning for Habitat for Humanity International, at 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, in the Business Building Rotunda (Building 3, Room 213). The presentation will address the organization's mission to build houses using volunteer labor, donations and innovative financing methods. Hamalian is this year's Honored Alumnus for the College of Architecture & Environmental Design. It is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Carmen Trudell at ext. 6-5207 or ctrudell@calpoly.edu, or Robert Arens at ext. 6-1444.

Cal Poly Pier to Hold Fall Open House Nov. 16

The Cal Poly Pier in Avila Beach will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Nov. 16. Interactive displays will include special touch-tanks of live marine creatures, microscopes for viewing ultra-small sea creatures, a "discover scuba" experience and more. Cal Poly professors and students will be on hand to explain their ongoing research into local marine life, including Morro Bay's ecosystem and efforts to sustain local fisheries and map ocean currents on the Central Coast. For more information, visit the College of Science & Mathematics website.

Arab Music Ensemble to Perform on Campus Nov. 16

The Cal Poly Arab Music Ensemble and special guest artists will perform a program of music and dance from the Eastern Mediterranean and larger region at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, in the Performing Arts Center. The concert will feature some of the most celebrated instrumental and vocal repertoire from the Ottoman era to the present and a lecture-demonstration on the epic poetic tradition, Sirat Bani Hilal. Proceeds will benefit the Arab Music Ensemble's performance with PolyPhonics at Carnegie Hall, where they will give the showcase performance at the World Projects 2014 New York Choral Festival. For more information, go to the Cal Poly News site.

Presentation on 'Maori Warfare in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand' Set for Nov. 18

Cal Poly will host Cal Poly Pomona Anthropology Professor Mark W. Allen for his presentation, "Maori Warfare in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand: An Archeologist's Journey to Middle Earth (and Back Again)" from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 18, in Spanos Theatre. Allen will discuss the results of his archaeological research focusing on the landscape of the prehistoric and early historic Maori sites in Hawke's Bay. The project has developed over the past 25 years, benefiting from a partnership between Allen and the Maori people of the region. Allen will track New Zealand history during the presentation, exploring how warfare, though a prevalent practice in Polynesia, eventually became an important part of Maori culture about 500 years ago. Audiences can also expect a few allusions to "The Lord of the Rings" trilogy. The event is funded by the College of Liberal Arts' Lottery Speakers Fund and sponsored by the Social Sciences Department. The presentation is free and open to the public. For more information, visit the CLA website.

Events Scheduled for Geography Awareness Week Nov. 18-20 and GIS Day Nov. 19

Join Kennedy Library and the San Luis Obispo GIS (Geographic Information Systems) Users Group for International Geography Awareness Week and GIS Day. Events will be held to explore the role of geography and GIS in society, from science and engineering to business, government, recreation, mobile applications and more.

— Russ White will present "GIS on the Web" from noon to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 19, in the Kennedy Library Data Studio (Building 35, Room 111c) and highlight new tools for hosting and sharing spatial data over the web.

— The SLO GIS Users Group will host the annual GIS Day event from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, at the San Luis Obispo County Library. The event features a map gallery, exhibits, presentations, and conversations with local GIS professionals working in academia, government and private industry.

— Through the week, the Kennedy Library first floor Community Gallery will feature maps from student and faculty projects. Visit the gallery from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, Nov. 21, for a reception and conversations with GIS users and mappers from across campus.

For more information, go to the Kennedy Library calendar at lib.calpoly.edu.

Warren Miller Screening Nov. 20 to Benefit PAC Outreach

"Ticket to Ride," the newest movie in Warren Miller's film series, will be shown at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, in the Christopher Cohan Center as a fundraiser for the Performing Arts Center's Outreach program. All patrons will receive a free day lift pass to China Peak (restrictions apply) and have the chance to win an array of door prizes courtesy of Mountain Air Sports. One patron will win the grand prize: a full season pass to China Peak. Tickets range from $13 to $16 and may be purchased at the Performing Arts Ticket Office or online at www.pacslo.org. For more information, call ext. 6-4TIX.

Entrepreneurship Forum to Highlight Innovation, Invention, Commercialization on Nov. 20

The Center for Innovation & Entrepreneurship's next forum, from 4:30 to 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, will explore the drivers of innovation and how to capitalize on the moments that inspire innovation. The forum will be held in the Pavilion of the Performing Arts Center. The PEN (Pitches, Exhibits & Networking) portion of the event will feature student, faculty and entrepreneur innovations. A panel discussion will focus on seizing opportunities, creating products, commercializing technologies and driving them to market. Advance registration is required. For more information or to register, go to the CIE website.

Social Justice Series Begins Nov. 20

The Cross Cultural Centers present the first event in their new social justice series, The Movement, on from noon to 1 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, in UU 220. The events will discuss local, national and international current events and aim to provide attendees with a background of the topic and ways to be involved in the issues. This month's topic is California's Assembly Bill 1266, which addresses the inclusion of transgender students in classes and activities in public schools. The event is free and open to campus. For more information, contact Adam Serafin at aserafin@calpoly.edu or at ext. 6-2582.

Research Scholar to Talk on Financial Crisis Nov. 21

The Research Scholars in Residence Program will sponsor a presentation by Axel Leijonhufvud on "Monetary Policy, the Financial Crisis, and the Distribution of Income" at 4 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21 in Kennedy Library (Building 35), Room 202A. Leijonhufvud's knowledge of monetary instability is the basis of the talk on how monetary policies in recent years have made the distribution of income in the U.S. significantly more unequal. For more information, contact the Office of Research and Economic Development at research@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-1508.

CLA Alumni Speaker Series to Host Marquel Ramirez on Nov. 21

The College of Liberal Arts' Alumni Speaker Series will feature Marquel Sheree Ramirez (B.A., Modern Languages & Literatures, 2007) from 11:10 a.m. to noon Thursday, Nov. 21, in the Baker Center (Building 180), Room 114. Ramirez will discuss how her professional path was influenced by the study of language and the cultures that speak those languages. She is the program associate for Advocates for Justice and Education Inc., in Washington. Prior to that, she worked with the Peace Corps Senegal Gender and Development Committee, which oversaw communications, grants, discussions and training, and she introduced children to waste and energy conservation while working with the AmeriCorps. For more information, go to the CLA website.

Film Screening Set to Recognize Transgender Day of Remembrance on Nov. 21

The Pride Center will host a screening of the movie "Screaming Queens" from 4 to 6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, in UU 220. Following the movie, the screening will include a discussion of transgender topics. The event is hosted in honor of the national Transgender Day of Remembrance. The film covers an event during which transgender women and drag queens resisted police harassment in San Francisco. The event was three years before the Stonewall Riots, widely thought of as the first collective, violent resistance to social oppression against queer people. The event is free and open to campus. For more information, contact Adam Serafin at aserafin@calpoly.edu or at ext. 6-2582.

Greenhouse Vegetable Hydroponics Class Open House Set for Nov. 21

The Greenhouse Vegetable Hydroponics Class is having an Open House from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, in the Crops Unit (Building 17), Greenhouse A. The campus community is invited to see what greenhouse vegetable production and hydroponics growing is all about. The greenhouse is located at the Crops Unit (Building 17), Greenhouse A. Students will be on hand to answer questions and demonstrate activities associated with hydroponic growing.

Author Rebecca Walker to Speak on 'Writing Beyond Boundaries' on Nov. 21

Author Rebecca Walker will hold a reading and discussion of her debut novel "Adé: A Love Story" and her memoir "Black, White and Jewish" at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, in the Baker Center (Building 180), Room 114. In a presentation titled "Writing Beyond Boundaries," Walker will address issues of race and gender, politics and power, and fiction and memoir. Following the reading, guests will have the opportunity to engage in conversation with Walker. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, go to the CLA website.

'American Indian Reelism' Film Screenings Nov. 21

The American Indian Student Association (AISA) and MultiCultural Center celebrate Native American Heritage Month with the screening of two short films from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, in UU 220. "In Search of the World's Best Indian Taco" is a whimsical story of a Choctaw grandfather who regales his grandson with a story of a larger-than-life man named Three Shades of Black and his quest to find the world's best Indian taco. "The Thick Dark Fog" is about Walter Littlemoon, a Lakota Indian who was removed from his family at 5 years old to attend a federal government boarding school where his culture, language and spirituality were suppressed. The movie depicts Littlemoon's journey to heal himself and his community while reclaiming his heritage. The event is free and open to campus. For more information, contact Que Dang at qpdang@calpoly.edu or at ext. 6-6256.

Tour the Animal Science Department Nov. 21

The Women's Club is sponsoring tours of the Animal Science Department facilities from 4 to 6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21. The campus community is invited to join the tours, which will leave from the Ag Circle, outside Building 10. For more information, contact Kimberly Livingston at ext. 6-6924 or by email at killiving@calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly to Present Bandfest on Nov. 23

More than 290 students will perform at Cal Poly's annual Bandfest at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 23, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The concert will feature Cal Poly's Wind Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, and Pride of the Pacific Mustang Marching Band in an evening of bold and powerful works for the modern wind band and the traditional stadium marching band. Tickets are available at the Performing Arts Ticket office at ext. 6-4849 or online at polytix.calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly Symphony to Perform Holst's 'The Planets' and Works by Vaughan Williams on Nov. 24

The Cal Poly Symphony will perform music from early 20th-century England during its Fall Concert 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 24, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The centerpiece of the concert is a performance of Gustav Holst's "The Planets," a musical and psychological journey from the brute force of "Mars: the Bringer of War" to the hushed serenity of "Neptune: the Mystic." Paired with this monumental work is music by Holst's lifelong friend, Ralph Vaughan Williams. Tickets to the concert are $12 and $14 for the public and $9 and $12 for senior citizens and students and are sold at the Performing Arts Ticket office. To order by phone, call SLO-4TIX (756-4849). The concert is sponsored by Cal Poly's College of Liberal Arts, Music Department, and Instructionally Related Activities program. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Jerry Seinfeld Comes to the PAC on Jan. 23

Jerry Seinfeld will be perform his signature stand-up routine at the Christopher Cohan Center at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Jan. 23. Seinfeld has been hailed for his uncanny ability to joke about the little things in life that relate to audiences everywhere. Tickets are on sale now. They are $99 or $135 per person, depending on seat location. To purchase tickets, go to www.tickets.calpoly.edu or call the PAC Ticket Office at ext. 6-4849.

Athletics

For an overview of last week's action, upcoming competition, up-to-date sports information, photos and videos, visit www.gopoly.com.

Job Vacancies

Executive Employment Opportunities

Candidates are asked to visit the online employment website at www.calpolyjobs.org to view detailed information about the following vacancy and to complete the management application to apply for the position shown below. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Please submit all requested application materials as attachments to your online application. For assistance, call Academic Personnel at ext. 6-6574.

State Employment Opportunities

The official listing of staff and management vacancies is posted at www.calpolyjobs.org. To apply, go online and complete the application form. For assistance, call Human Resources at ext. 6-2236.

#103072 - Automotive/Equipment Mechanic, Facility Services - Transportation Services, $4,383-$5,601 per month. Open until filled. Review begins Nov. 15.

#103081 - Athletics Academic Advisor (Student Services Professional II), Academic Affairs - University Advising. Up to two positions available, $3,519-$5,002 per month. Open until filled. Review begins Nov. 20.

#103082 - Academic Progress Counselor (Student Services Professional II), Academic Affairs - Office of the Registrar, $3,519-$5,002 per month. Anticipated hiring range $3,519-$3,819 per month. Open until filled. Review begins Nov. 20.

Faculty Employment Opportunities

Candidates are asked to visit the online employment website at www.calpolyjobs.org to complete an application and apply for any of the positions shown below. Submit all requested application materials as attachments to your online application, unless otherwise specified in the ad.

There are no new job opportunities at this time.

Corporation Employment Opportunities

Cal Poly Corporation is a separate corporation operating in concert with the university to provide a diverse range of services and resources to students, faculty and staff. To view job postings and/or apply for any regular-benefited position at Cal Poly Corporation, visit its website. For assistance, contact Human Resources at ext. 6-1121.

All positions have excellent benefits, including medical, dental, vision, life insurance, retirement, paid sick leave/vacation and holidays. Apply online at www.calpolycorporationjobs.org. CPC Human Resources, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407 AA/EEO.

There are no new job opportunities at this time.

ASI Employment Opportunities

Candidates are asked to visit www.asi.calpoly.edu to complete an application and apply for positions listed below. For more information, contact the ASI Business Office in UU 212 or call ext. 6-5800.

There are no new job opportunities at this time.

