Cal Poly and Northrop Grumman to Unveil First-of-Its-Kind Cyber Lab Jan. 23

Cal Poly and Northrop Grumman will jointly dedicate the Cal Poly–Northrop Grumman Cyber Lab Thursday, Jan. 23. Made possible by the Northrop Grumman Foundation, the undergraduate and graduate teaching lab is the first of its kind in the nation. Part of a new initiative in cybersecurity education, the lab helps establish Cal Poly as a leading supplier of cyber-ready experts and innovators poised to benefit the nation in education, applied research and public service. Students and faculty will conduct demonstrations after the dedication. Due to limited space, the dedication is by invitation only.

Cal Poly to Provide Tax Preparation for Underserved Communities Feb. 1-March 15

Starting Saturday, Feb. 1, the Orfalea College of Business will provide tax return preparation assistance at no charge for individuals and families with incomes of less than $50,000 a year. All returns are prepared by IRS-certified accounting seniors and are reviewed by certified professionals. For more information, call ext. 6-2667 (English and Spanish) or visit www.vita.calpoly.edu.

advantage of the services offered by Career Services throughout their time on campus. Faculty and staff are invited to get in on the fun by sharing their stories and encouraging students to do the same. Career Services wants to know what motivates people to work hard and what their big dreams are. Use #WorkHardDreamBig to share your story. Tag Career Services, post the entry on the department's Facebook page (Cal Poly SLO Career Services) or include @CPCareerServ in Tweets.

Career Services to Offer Extended Hours

Faculty and staff can direct students to Career Services for new extended hours. Career Services will remain open Tuesdays and Wednesdays until 6 p.m. during weeks one through 10 each academic quarter. Those wishing to make an appointment should call ext. 6-2501 ext. 4.

Scholarship for Children Attending Cal Poly

This year, Cal Poly software vendor iModules will award 13 scholarships for $1,500 to students enrolled in secondary or higher education institutions that are clients of iModules. If your child attends Cal Poly or another iModules client, they may be eligible. The application deadline is April 1. For more information, visit the scholarship website.

Looking to shed a few holiday pounds? Join faculty and staff for a pickup game of soccer on Thursdays from 12:10 to 1 p.m. To join the email list, contact Brian Self at bself@calpoly.edu.

Workshops Offered in Hybrid and Online Teaching and Learning

The Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology (CTLT) is offering a series of online workshops covering topics related to hybrid and online teaching and learning. The workshops meet online for a two-week period, during which faculty will explore relevant topics; interact in an engaging, collaborative environment; and grow in knowledge and skills in the online course environment. For more information, see the CTLT website.

Call for Submissions for Online Learning and Teaching

Faculty who have taught a fully online or hybrid/blended course (between 30 and 70 percent online) are eligible for the 2014 CSU Quality Online Learning and Teaching recognition program \(QOLT\). The Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology (CTLT) will support instructors interested in preparing submissions. The QOLT program evaluation was introduced by the CTLT in its eLearning Initiative and Flipped Course Design workshops, so faculty who have participated in those workshops are already well prepared to begin the process. Submissions are due Jan. 21. For more information, visit the CTLT website or email Catherine Hillman at cehillma@calpoly.edu.

Nominations Sought for Student Employee Award

Faculty and staff members can show their appreciation for student employees by nominating them for the university's 2013-14 Outstanding Student Employee of the Year (OSEY) award. Nominees must have completed at least six months of part-time student employment during the academic year June 1, 2013 to May 31, 2014. Eligible candidates include state, ASI and Corporation student employees. Nominees can be Federal Work-Study and non-Federal Work-Study students. Cal Poly's 2013-14 Outstanding Student Employee will be announced in April. The winner will be entered into the state competition and may go on to the regional and national competitions. The national winner is announced during National Student Employment Week, the second week of April. To find the form, go to the Administration & Finance website and scroll down to Student Assistant Forms. Submissions are due to Barbara Rollins in Financial Aid by Friday, Feb. 7.

Nominations Sought for Outstanding Staff Award

The deadline to submit a nomination form for the 2013-14 Outstanding Staff Award is Tuesday, Jan. 21. To be eligible, nominees must be full-time or part-time employees of the university, corporation or ASI, in at least their third year of employment as of Dec. 31, 2013, and not represented by bargaining unit 3 (faculty). Former recipients of the award are also ineligible. The Outstanding Staff nomination form can be found on the Administration & Finance website.

Online Training Library Now Available for Faculty and Staff

Information Services is providing state employees access to the tutorial resources at lynda.com. The training modules are created and presented by real-world professionals and cover a wide range of topics, including software, creative and business skills. This on-demand, self-paced learning service is free and available at work or home. For convenient one-click access to lynda.com, go to the portal and click "Customize" in the upper right corner. In the search box, type "training." Click on "Training Resources" to login. You can also add a tab to your portal for easy access. For help adding the tab to your portal, contact the Service Desk at ext. 6-7000.

Retirements

K. Richard Zweifel

K. Richard Zweifel, FASLA, associate dean of the College of Architecture & Environmental Design, retired last month after 41 years of dedicated service to Cal Poly. Zweifel earned bachelor's and master's degrees in landscape architecture from the University of Wisconsin and is a licensed landscape architect in California. He began his career at Cal Poly as one of the founding members of the Landscape Architecture Department, teaching for 11 years before being named associate dean of the college. He has twice served as interim dean. He was honored by the publication "DesignIntelligence" as one the 30

Most Admired Educators for 2013 and received the George Hasslein Medal from the CAED Foundation. Zweifel has served as a member of the California Architects Board's Landscape Architecture Technical Committee, and is a Fellow of the American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA). This past fall, he was elected as ASLA's 70th national president and will begin his term later this year. A retirement reception will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, at the Alumni Conference Center.

In Memoriam

Bernard Strickmeier

H. Bernard Strickmeier died Dec. 27 in College Station, Texas. Strickmeier received a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Texas Lutheran College in 1962, and a Master of Arts and doctorate in mathematics education from the University of Texas at Austin in 1967 and 1970, respectively. He served as a professor of mathematics at Cal Poly and retired in 2002. He also served as the university coordinator, Single Subject Credential Program, chair of the Mathematics Department Peer Review Committee, a member of the University Center for Teacher Education Steering Committee and the University Center for Teacher Education Leadership Team, and was appointed to the Board of Institution Reviewers of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. In 2002, he received an award from the Teacher Education Department at Cal Poly for Outstanding Contributions to Teacher Education. His professional affiliations include the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, the Mathematical Association of America, The American Education Research Association, the California Mathematics Council and Phi Delta Kappa.

Colleen Rodriguez

Colleen Rodriguez, administrative support coordinator in Payroll Services & Fiscal Services, passed away Nov. 28 after a brief illness. Rodriguez worked for Cal Poly for 33 years and was an integral part of the Payroll Services team for the last 20 years. She was the welcoming face to thousands of new Cal Poly employees over the years and had a way of leaving a lasting impression on people with her incredible patience and kindness, always going the extra mile and genuinely caring about the person in front of her. She received the Outstanding Staff Employee Award in 2009 in recognition of her unique ability to combine professional efficiency with the highest level of customer service and human kindness. She is survived by two sons, Jason and Dylan. Funds are being raised for a commemorative bench in her name at Cal Poly. Donations may be made at any Chase Bank branch using account number 3007519571; make checks payable to "Colleen Rodriguez Trust." A campus memorial service will be held in her honor at 1 p.m. Jan. 25 in the Performing Arts Center Lobby. All are welcome.

Recreation Center Hosts Two-Year Anniversary Event on Jan. 17

It has been two years since the Recreation Center was re-introduced to campus, and the center will mark the event with complimentary use of the facilities and its amenities Jan. 17. The offer is good for faculty, staff, alumni, retirees, spouses and domestic partners. Explore the weight rooms, shoot some hoops, play racquetball, swim laps, take a fitness class, and much more. There will be give-aways throughout the day. To learn more about Recreation Center programs and activities, visit the Recreation Center website. Photo ID (Cal Poly ID or Alumni Association card) is required for entry. For more information contact Membership Services at ext. 6-6335 or memberships@asi.calpoly.edu.

ASI and Safer Offer Free Self-Defense Class on Feb. 1

ASI and Safer are teaming up to offer a free self-defense class from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, Feb. 1, in the Recreation Center's Martial Arts room. The class will be offered again from 8:15 to 10:15 a.m. Tuesday, March 11, in Studio 3 of the Recreation Center. Participants will be taught a variety of techniques for defending themselves, including assertive talking, posturing and specific defense skills. The classes are available to all Cal Poly community members; however, participants must be at least 16 years old to participate. Registration is not required, but space is limited, so arrive early to secure a spot. Participants should bring drinking water, and workout attire is recommended. For more information, contact the Recreation Center front desk at ext. 6-1366.

Capacity Building Workshop to be Held on Wednesdays

Faculty, staff and students are invited to participate in the continuing Capacity Building workshop series. The workshops for winter quarter will focus on change in complex adaptive systems and be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Wednesdays in Kennedy Library, Room 511. All are welcome, even if attendance is intermittent. For those who might be new to the series, the workshop is intended to create a safe space to learn about change within ourselves and with respect to the university as an organization. Attendees can learn how to identify their own change models and how they might think differently about internal and external paradigms. As part of the exploration of systems, the group will discuss organizational transformation from a social and ecological perspective and compare those concepts to existing change models. A 2012 paper entitled "A Theory of Transformative Agency in Linked Social-Ecological Systems", from the "Journal of Ecology and Society" will be used as a guide. The article proposes a coherent theory of strategic agency which is described using the adaptive cycle originally proposed by Crawford Holling. For more information, email Dianne DeTurris at ddeturri@calpoly.edu.

Social Justice Series to Launch Jan. 22 with Discussion About the Effects Parties Have on the Campus Climate

The Cross Cultural Centers new social justice series, The Movement, will take place from noon to 1 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 22 in UU Room 207 (Chumash Auditorium Right Wing). The events discuss local, national, and international current events and provide background on the topics and ways to be involved in the issues. This month's topic is "What effects do party themes have on campus climate?" Attendees will learn how to organize and create institutional change. The event is free and open to Cal Poly faculty, staff and students. For more information, contact Erin Echols, assistant director of the Cross Cultural Centers at culture@calpoly.edu or visit the Student Life website.

Employee Service Awards Luncheon to be March 5

State, corporation and ASI employees who had milestone service anniversaries in 2013 will be honored at the Annual Service Awards Luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 5, in the Chumash Auditorium. Phil Bailey, dean of the College of Science & Mathematics, will serve as the master of ceremonies. Tickets are $12 and will be on sale starting Feb. 10. Seating is limited. Statistics Department Provides Consulting Service Fall Quarter

The Statistics Department provides a statistical consulting service to the university community to facilitate research design and data analysis in a wide variety of disciplines. Consulting services will be available Jan. 13 through March 14. The consulting service is intended to support projects and research of Cal Poly faculty and staff and provide assistance for students working on senior projects and graduate research. Kevin Ross and Heather Smith will serve as consultants. They are available to advise on data collection, experimental design, and analysis of research projects. In addition, the consultants will be available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages available at Cal Poly. If there is a special area of statistical inference that is of interest to a group in your department, contact Ross or Smith to arrange possible lectures on that subject. Faculty, staff and students interested in utilizing the consulting service are encouraged to access the Statistics Department Web page for office hours, to schedule appointments outside those hours or other information, including what you should bring to a consulting session.

University Store Accepting Textbook Adoptions for Spring Term

The University Store is now accepting textbook adoption requisitions for Spring Term 2014. Submissions are requested as soon as possible. Early textbook adoptions gives staff more time to purchase used textbooks, which are in high demand.

To submit textbook adoptions, either:

- Order through the Textbook Adoption website or
 - Email courseware@calpoly.edu with the following information: ISBN number, author and title of courseware, and whether the book is required, recommended, optional, a study guide, etc.
- For more information or assistance about textbook adoptions, please contact a representative at ext. 6-1171.

Events

University Art Gallery to Exhibit Photography of Vivian Maier

The University Art Gallery will exhibit photography of the late Vivian Dorothea Maier (1926-2009) through Feb. 14. Maier was an American amateur street photographer who was born in New York City but grew up in France. After returning to the U.S., she worked for approximately 40 years as a nanny in Chicago. During those years, she took more than 100,000 photographs, primarily of people and cityscapes in Chicago, although she traveled the world. Her photographs remained unknown and mostly undeveloped until they were discovered in 2007 by a Chicago historian and collector, John Maloof. Following Maier's death, her work began to receive critical acclaim. Her photographs have been exhibited in the U.S., Britain, Germany, Denmark, Norway and Belgium, and have appeared in newspapers and magazines internationally. For more information, go to the University Art Gallery website.

Film Screening of Hawaiian film with Guest Appearance by Director on Jan. 16

The MultiCultural Center and Halau Hoapili Pomaika'i Aloha present the film "The Haumana" followed by a guest appearance by director Keo Woolford at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 16 in the Alex and Faye Spanos Theatre in the Performing Arts Center. The film tells the story of a charismatic host of a cheesy tourist show in Waikiki who accepts the challenge of leading a group of high school boys through the demanding discipline required for a traditional hula festival. He becomes as much a student as a teacher when he reconnects with the culture he previously abandoned. The film is a fundraiser for Hoapili Pomaika'i Aloha. To learn more about the film, visit haumanamovie.com. Doors open at 6 p.m. with community resource tables and performances available for viewing. Tickets range from $10-$18. Tickets are sold at the Performing Arts Ticket office or by phone at SLO-4TIX (756-4849). For more information, contact Que Dang at qpdang@calpoly.edu.
