News

Baseball Earns Big West Title and Automatic Berth in NCAA Regionals

Cal Poly clinched the Big West Conference baseball championship, its first in 18 seasons in the conference. The victory over Cal State Northridge on Sunday is the team's sixth straight win, giving the Mustangs a 45-10 record in the regular season and earning them a spot in the NCAA regionals. For more on the big win, visit the Cal Poly Athletics website.

Cal Poly Student Chapter Wins Competition to Reduce Water and Energy Consumption

Cal Poly's chapter of the PowerSave Campus Program won a Southern California competition to reduce water and energy consumption. The SoCal PowerSave League win is part of the 2014 Campus Conservation Nationals. The six "Red Brick Halls" competing from Cal Poly had an average reduction of 2.9 percent, beating out UC Santa Barbara and Cal Poly Pomona with reductions of .6 percent and .5 percent, respectively. The awareness generated from the competition appears to have contributed to energy and water savings throughout the year. The year-round energy and water usage for the Red Brick Halls is about 30 percent lower than it was seven years ago, when the competition started. For more information, see the Cal Poly News site, visit the PowerSave Campus Program or view the dashboards students used to monitor energy and water usage in real-time.

Seminar on Social Security Benefits and Bridging the Income Gap to be Held on May 21

A seminar on Social Security will be presented three times on Wednesday, May 21, in UU 218. The times are 11 a.m. to noon, noon to 1 p.m., and 4 to 5 p.m. The seminar will cover how Social Security relates to retirement income, the options for collecting Social Security benefits, and the importance of creating a financial plan to bridge a potential income gap. The seminar will be led by Michael Barragan, retirement plan consultant for VALIC, one of the five fund sponsors for CSU tax sheltered annuity plans, also known as a 403(b). Other fund sponsors include Fidelity Investments, ING, MetLife and TIAA-CREF. Human Resources does not endorse VALIC or any one of the fund sponsors specifically. General tax shelter/deferred compensation program information and fund sponsor contact information is available on the Human Resources website. Attendance is subject to supervisory approval and based on departmental operational needs. To register for the seminar, go to my.valic.com/seminar and use registration Code 4116SAN11AA.

May 21 Instructional Innovation Showcase to Focus on Student-Centered Learning

Faculty will share innovative teaching practices that engage student-centered learning and data-driven course redesign at the Center for Teaching, Learning & Technology's Instructional Innovations Showcase from 4 to 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 21, in the Advanced Technology Laboratories (Building 7). The program will feature William (Billy) Riggs, "Soft Copy/Hard Copy: Maximizing the Digital While Retaining the Tangible"; Lorraine Donegan, "Hackathons: Student-Centered Learning in 24 Hours or Less"; and Kimberley Mastako, "A Roundabout Approach to a Student-Centered Syllabus." A discussion will follow the presentations. Wine and cheese will be served. To RSVP, click here.

Free Biometric Screening Available on May 28

Anthem Blue Cross has contracted with Maxim Health Systems to provide free biometric screenings to Cal Poly employees from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday, May 28, in Chumash Auditorium. The biometric screening will be conducted by a health professional and require a blood sample. The exam will provide immediate results, including blood pressure, blood sugar, cholesterol and body mass index (BMI). The private screening takes 15 minutes and is confidential. Attendance is subject to supervisory approval and based on departmental operational needs. After the event, prizes will be given away to randomly selected participants, including a $250 Visa card, five $100 Visa cards, and five $50 Visa cards. To participate, visit the Maxim website, and follow the steps below to create a free account and reserve an appointment time.

2013-14 Federal Work-Study Program Ends June 14

Saturday, June 14, is the last day students may work through the Federal Work-Study Program for 2013-14. Work-Study payroll must be submitted prior to the June payroll deadline. Any "late" payrolls will be processed through regular student pay since late Work-Study pay cannot be authorized. During finals week, Work-Study students may work up to 20 hours. There is no Federal Work-Study during summer quarter. The 2014-15 Federal Work-Study Program will resume Sept. 22.

International Center Announces a Call for Proposals for New Cal Poly Global Programs

The International Center (IC) has announced a call for proposals from faculty interested in creating a Cal Poly Global Program or renewing an existing program for spring, summer or fall 2015. Faculty, working collaboratively with IC, will propose the location, course selection and program-related excursions. The deadline for submissions is 5 p.m. June 2. For more information, contact Jennifer O'Brien at jeobrien@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-7321 or visit the Global Programs website.

Career Services Seeks Input on Services and Programs

Career Services is asking students, advisors and faculty to take a brief survey about career-related services available on campus and students' career development needs. The confidential survey will be available through May 23. The results will help ensure Career Services is meeting the needs of students and guiding programming efforts for the 2014-15 academic year. To take the survey for faculty and staff, visit the Career Services website. For more information, contact Tammy Martin at ext. 6-6517 or tsmartin@calpoly.edu.

Competitive Grant Announced for Cal Poly Global Programs Travel

The International Center (IC) has announced a competitive grant for Cal Poly Global Program development. In collaboration with Extended Education, IC will award modest grants to support international travel for faculty members developing self-supporting or stateside global programs. A limited number of grants up to $3,000 will be awarded for the 2014-15 academic year, including summer 2015. The deadline for grant applications is 5 p.m. June 6. For more information, contact Jennifer O'Brien at jeobrien@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-7321 or visit the Global Programs website.

Retirements

Joan Beightler, human resources manager, is retiring after eight years of service. During her tenure, she oversaw the delivery of a full range of services, including recruitment and employee/labor relations. Her expertise and balanced approach have been pivotal in dealing with critical and highly sensitive matters. She will be missed by many, especially her family in Human Resources. A reception will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, June 6, in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center (Building 28).

Previously Announced Retirement Receptions

A reception for Dave Wehner, interim vice president for Strategic Initiatives, will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. Thursday, May 29, in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center (Building 28).

Off-Duty Faculty/Staff Parking Permits Available for Summer 2014

Parking permits for off-duty faculty/staff are required for summer quarter. Department coordinators must request permits by Friday, May 30. For more information, contact Parking Services at ext. 6-6654 or parking@calpoly.edu.

Distribution Services Relocating to Mt. Bishop Road

Distribution Services, which handles campus mail, parcel shipments and freight service, will be operating out of Building 82 on Mt. Bishop Road as of June 23. Moving customer and business services operations from the campus core is another step to reduce pedestrian and vehicle interaction by rerouting freight trucks and large delivery vehicles to the Highland Drive entrance. Distribution Services will continue to feature same day mail, parcel service and walk-in hours from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. For assistance with same-day parcel shipments, including pickup, processing and shipping, contact Distribution Services before noon. For more information, contact Facilities Customer & Business Services – Distribution Services at ext. 6-2872 or warehouse@calpoly.edu.

Canyon Post Mail Center Announces Summer Hours of Operation

While most of the residence halls and on-campus apartments will be closed for the summer, Canyon Post mail center will be open from noon through 5:45 p.m. Monday through Friday, from June 16 through the summer quarter. For more information, call ext. 6-6640.

ASI to Host Mustang Mile 5K on May 21

ASI will host the third annual Mustang Mile 5K at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 21, at the Recreation Center. ASI is working with the campus community and Aware Awake Alive to celebrate the privilege of being a Mustang and recognize the importance of caring for one another. Entertainment will include live music. Mustang Mile participants are encouraged to wear costumes, interact and be creative. Prizes will be awarded for participation and costumes. Register through the ASI website. For more information, contact ASI Events at ext. 6-6342.

Diversity Awards Reception Set For May 22

President Armstrong invites members of the campus community to join him in celebrating the 2014 Diversity Awards at a reception at 3 p.m. Thursday, May 22, in the Performing Arts Center Lobby. Finalists in five categories will be honored for their contributions to campus diversity and inclusivity. The categories include student, staff, and faculty member; student organization; and university group.

Alumna to Lead May 30 Workshop on STEM Students Creating Social Change

Alumna Devon Buddan (B.A., Comparative Ethnic Studies, 2012) will lead a workshop, "Medicine, Race and Gender: A STEM Students for Social Change Workshop" from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, May 30, in UU 204. Buddan will address what it means to be a student who faces social, educational and/or economic barriers to careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM), with a focus on pre-medical pathways. The workshop is intended to provide a safe space to discuss experiences in college and beyond and to develop ideas about how STEM students can participate in change on and off campus. The event is free and open to the public. Lunch will be provided. For more information, visit the CLA website.

Corporation Board of Directors Meeting to be Held on May 30

The board of directors of the Cal Poly Corporation (CPC) will hold a regular meeting at 8:30 a.m. Friday, May 30, in the CPC Administration Building (No. 15), Conference Room (No. 124). Events

Cal Poly Percussion Ensemble to Perform on May 22

The Cal Poly Percussion Ensemble, directed by Music Department faculty member John Astaire, will perform a recital at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, May 22, in the Performing Arts Center Pavilion. The program will include works by Alan Hovhaness, Christopher Rouse, King Crimson, Aurel Hollo, Mitsuhiro Ogino, James Holt, and Music Department alumnus Kevin Capacia. The recital will feature a wide array of exotic percussion instruments. The music has elements of fiery rhythmic passion and gentle harmonic meditation. The free recital is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and the Music Department. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Students to Present 'Illuminate' Spring Dance Concert May 22-23

Students will present their annual spring dance concert, "Illuminate," at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday, May 22-23, in the Spanos Theatre. The student-run and -choreographed production incorporates nearly 200 dancers at all levels, from a cross-section of majors, who collaborated to present artistic exploration, originality, professionalism and maturity. "Illuminate" features 20 dances that showcase hip hop, contemporary and culturally infused genres. Produced by the Theatre & Dance Department in the College of Liberal Arts, "Illuminate" is directed by fourth-year business major Nikki Sullivan and third-year psychology major Lauren Creger. For more information, see the Cal Poly News website.

Early Music Ensemble to Perform 'The Fabulous French' on May 23

The Early Music Ensemble will present "The Fabulous French" concert featuring Jean Gilles' "Requiem" (Messe de morts) at 8 p.m. Friday, May 23, in Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa. Gilles (1668-1705) lived during the reign of Louis XIV. He was considered one of the more outstanding of the "lesser-known" composers of his time. He was particularly revered in the century following his death. After a 1726 performance, one commentator ranked Gilles "Requiem" as "among the most beautiful of musical works." The 14 student performers from a variety of majors will be joined by faculty and professional instrumentalists. For more information, visit the Music Department Web calendar.

Cal Poly Creative Writers to Read at Byzantium Celebration on May 27

The English Department will hold a reading and celebration in honor of the release of the 24th edition of the department's literary annual, Byzantium, at 6 p.m. Tuesday, May 27, at Sally Loo's Café in San Luis Obispo. Byzantium, an award-winning publication, is crafted entirely by undergraduate students. Free copies of the publication will be available at the event and in select locations around campus. For more information about the event and a list of students whose work was included, visit the CLA website.

Kennedy Library's 'Objects of Affection' Exhibit Open through June 6 Reception May 23

"Objects of Affection," an exhibit that draws on the personal papers of families featured in the Re/Collecting Project, an online archive and ethnic studies memory project of the Central Coast, is on display at the Kennedy Library through June 6. An opening reception featuring spoken word poetry, musical entertainment and authentic Filipino cuisine is planned from 3 to 5 p.m. Friday, May 23, in the Learning Commons on the second floor of Kennedy Library. The exhibit features "Filipino Love Stories," a traveling exhibit made possible with support from Cal Humanities, a partner of the National Endowment of the Humanities. The exhibit is a collaboration with associate professor of Ethnic Studies Grace Yeh; the Ethnic Studies Department; Liberal Arts & Engineering Studies Program; MultiCultural Center; and Filipino American National Historical Society, California Central Coast Chapter. For more information, visit the exhibit website.

Arab Music Ensemble to Perform May 24

The Arab Music Ensemble and guest artists will perform a diverse program of music and dance from the Eastern Mediterranean and larger region at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 24, in the Spanos Theatre. The show will present a number of art music genres, including outstanding examples of the muwashshah — one of the oldest continuously performed art music genres in the world; a well-known folksong from Armenia; a lively folkdance from Upper Egypt; an upbeat folkdance from Greece; and a famous example of the dabke genre — the best-known of Levantine line dances.

Critically acclaimed guest artists will include Assyrian qanun player Ishmael and Lebanese-Syrian percussionist Faisal Zedan. San Luis Obispo dance directors Sandra Sarrouf and Jenna Mitchell will lead their troupe in colorful dances while Keeth CrowHawk leads the percussion section. Professor Ken Habib will direct the 60-member Arab Music Ensemble. For more information, visit the Music Department Web calendar.

Student Vocal Recital to be Held on May 29

Students will perform a mix of musical styles in "A Touch of Gilbert and Sullivan" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, May 29, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center. The evening includes ariettes, duets, choruses and ensembles from the composing duo's classics, including "The Sorcerer" and "The Grand Duke." The event is free and open to the public. For more information, see the Music Department listing of free events.

University Jazz Bands to Perform Jazz Night Concert on May 31

Cal Poly's University Jazz Bands will present their end-of-season concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 31, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. Two full big bands — with four trumpets, four trombones, five saxophones, a rhythm section and vocalist — will create the "wall of sound" for which big bands are known. The more intimate side of jazz will also be on display when the two Cal Poly jazz combos take the stage. For more information, visit the Cal Poly News website.

Cal Poly's 'Take It SLO' To Perform Twice on June 1

Take It SLO, Cal Poly's a cappella ensemble, will present its spring concert and album release event at 2 and 7 p.m. Sunday, June 1, in the Davidson Music Center (Building 45), Room 218. The 16-member student ensemble will sing popular songs arranged by the students, including selections from the group's newest CD, "SLO Motion," to be released to the public at the concerts. For more information, visit the Take It SLO website, email takeitslo@gmail.com, or call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Leading Experts to Discuss Campaign Finance Reform on June 2

The College of Liberal Arts will host campaign finance reform experts in a discussion of "Money in Politics: What Could Go Wrong?," at 7 p.m. Monday, June 2, in the Spanos Theatre. Political science Professor Michael Latner will lead the panel featuring Trevor Potter, former commissioner and chairman of the Federal Election Commission; Lawrence Lessig, Harvard Law School professor and renowned author; Hedrick Smith, Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter and Emmy award-winning producer and correspondent; and William Ostrander, Citizens Congress 2014 director. For more information, visit the Cal Poly News website.

Student Ensemble to Stage "RSVP XIX: 'Vox Balaena'" Concert June 3, 5

The Cal Poly Music Department student production ensemble RSVP will stage "RSVP XIX: Vox Balaena" at 8 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday, June 3 and 5, in the Performing Arts Center Pavilion. This marks the 19th season of this transmedia series celebrating electroacoustic diversity and compositional risk. Transmedia refers to storytelling in the digital age, weaving together separate plot threads by way of traditional and new media outlets. Inspired by the great life, plight, size and songs of humpback whales, the production takes the audience on a visual, sonic, introspective tour of these mammals and humankind's relationship to them. The show exhibits a wide variety of musical styles and also includes dance, voice recordings, photos and video. Much of the background material came from some of the world's foremost whale researchers. "The production is in four movements: the first taking a historical view of whales, the second speculating a view from the whales' perspective, the third addressing the horrors of whaling, and the fourth suggesting a future relationship of humankind with other citizens of the planet," said Antonio Barata, RSVP artistic director.

Wind Bands Concert to Feature Percussionist John Astaire on June 6

Percussionist John Astaire will be the guest solo artist at Cal Poly's Wind Bands Spring Concert at 8 p.m. Friday, June 6, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. A Cal Poly alumnus, Astaire is an established percussionist who has performed with the Kylix Contemporary Music Ensemble, Columbus Symphony Orchestra, Bloomington Symphony Orchestra, and the San Luis Obispo Symphony. The Wind Ensemble will accompany Astaire in a performance, and the concert will feature two music majors. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Cal Poly Choirs and Symphony to Present 'Music of Destiny' on June 7

The Cal Poly Choirs and Cal Poly Symphony

will perform music that explores the idea of human destiny at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 7, in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The concert will open with Tchaikovsky's overture-fantasy "Romeo and Juliet," a musical portrayal of Shakespeare's drama of the same name. While the music does not follow the exact sequence of events found in Shakespeare's play, it depicts Friar Lawrence with a religious chant in the woodwinds, Romeo's declaration of love with a soaring melody, and the duel between the Montagues and Capulets with aggressive gestures. It responds to the lovers' tragic death with a final lament. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.
