Background:

SAN LUIS OBISPO - Cal Poly will hold the 17th annual President's Community-Based Learning and Service Awards May 29 on campus to recognize university students, staff, faculty members and student organizations that have done an outstanding job of serving the community.

The awards, granted annually by Cal Poly President Warren J. Baker, Academic Affairs, and the university's Student Life and Leadership Community Center, honor the recipients' spirit of civic involvement and contributions that have improved the quality of life in San Luis Obispo County, explained awards ceremony coordinator Charlene Rosales.

The 10 service award categories are designed to highlight specific achievements. The categories include Innovation in Service, Significant Contribution, Emerging Service Leader Contribution, and Greek Community Contribution. The first three are given to an organization, a student, and a faculty or staff member, and the last to a fraternity or sorority.

For more information, contact Charlene Rosales in Student Community Services at (805) 756-6749.
