Cal Poly Students Turn Out May 28 to Raise Money For Santa Maria Boys and Girls Club, Elks Rodeo Queen Candidate

SAN LUIS OBISPO - Cal Poly students will be waiting tables at Santa Maria's Central City Broiler restaurant May 28 to help one of their own raise money for that city's Boys and Girls Club.

The students will be working for free at the historic steakhouse that night, turning over all their tips to the Santa Maria Valley Boys and Girls Club as part of the current fund-raising campaign of Cal Poly student Michele Testa.

Michele Testa belongs to Cal Poly's Kappa Sigma sorority and her twin brother Michael Testa belongs to the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. Members of both groups will be waiting tables between 5:30 and 9 p.m. at "Cal Poly Waiters Night" at the Central City Broiler, 1520 N. Broadway in Santa Maria.

"We hope we can count on Cal Poly to come out and support the students," said Santa Maria Valley Boys and Girls Club Development Director Donna France, a Cal Poly alumna.

Testa, a second-year agribusiness student from Santa Maria, is currently one of the contestants in the Santa Maria Elks Rodeo Queen competition. Contestants represent a single Santa Maria youth charity, and work to raise money for that charity in the six weeks before the annual Santa Maria Elks Rodeo, scheduled this year for June 6-8. The candidate who raises the most money for her charity is chosen as the rodeo queen.
