FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nominations Sought for Cal Poly President's Community Service Awards

SAN LUIS OBISPO - Cal Poly is seeking nominations from the public for the 17th annual President's Community-Based Learning and Service Awards, which recognize Cal Poly students, staff and faculty members, and student organizations that have served the community.

The awards, granted annually by Cal Poly President Warren J. Baker and the Community Center, a part of Student Life and Leadership, honor the recipients' spirit of civic involvement and contributions that have improved the quality of life in San Luis Obispo.

The 10 service award categories are designed to highlight specific achievements. The categories are Innovation in Service, Significant Contribution, Emerging Service Leader Contribution, and Greek Community Contribution. The first three are given to an organization, a student and a faculty or staff member, and the last to a fraternity or sorority.

The awardees are selected on the basis of written nominations by a panel of faculty and staff members and students. Descriptions of the categories and nomination forms can be found on the President's Community-Based Learning and Service Awards Web site at <http://service.calpoly.edu/psa>. Nominations are due to Student Community Services in the University Union, Room 217, by 4 p.m. April 25.

Baker will present each recipient with a plaque at an awards ceremony from 2 to 4 p.m. May 29 in Chumash Auditorium in the University Union. Anyone who plans to attend the event is asked to reserve a space by e-mailing crosales@calpoly.edu.

For more information, contact Charlene Rosales in Student Community Services at 756-6749.
