Cal Poly Engineering Professor Kaliski Wins Leadership Award

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- The board of directors of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers-USA has honored longtime Cal Poly Electrical Engineering Professor Marty Kaliski with its 2002 IEEE-USA Regional Professional Leadership Award.

The award recognizes efforts that enhance the quality of life through the constructive application of technology and promote understanding of the influence of technology on the public welfare.

A member of Cal Poly's Electrical Engineering Department since 1986, Kaliski served as chair of the department from 1989 to 1992 and from 1995 to 2001.

He founded the IEEE Central Coast Section and chaired the group for seven years. From 1994 to 2000 he hosted a radio talk show, "Technology and You," which aired on KVEC News Radio in San Luis Obispo.

Currently, he provides expert consulting to attorneys in the area of intellectual property litigation, focusing on design recovery for both software and hardware. Kaliski, who lives in San Luis Obispo, earned his doctorate from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
