FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Human Rights in Chile, Augusto Pinochet To Be Topic of Feb. 28 Talk at Cal Poly

An expert on civil-military relations, political repression and human rights will present "Human Rights Policy in Chile: The Case of Augusto Pinochet" Feb. 28 at Cal Poly.

UC Riverside Political Science Professor David Pion-Berlin will speak at 11 a.m. in Room E-27 in the Science Building.

Pion-Berlin recently returned from Chile, where he interviewed various individuals involved in human rights policy.

He is widely known for his research and writings, including "Civil-Military Relations in Latin America: New Analytical Perspectives" and "Through Corridors of Power: Institutions and Civil-Military Relations in Argentina."

The free public talk is sponsored by Cal Poly's Political Science Department. For more information, call 756-2985.
