Cal Poly Alumni Big Band to Perform Aug. 28 at Madonna Inn

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Cal Poly Collegians Alumni Big Band promises a night of lively music and dancing at its annual concert from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 28, in the Madonna Inn Ballroom.

The 20 Cal Poly Collegians – all Cal Poly alumni – bring the best of Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller, Les Brown and more to San Luis Obispo every August.

The Collegians Alumni Big Band has gathered every year since the mid-1960s to renew old friendships and play their favorite tunes, according to band member Bob Alberti. The alumni band has performed for enthusiastic audiences at a variety of local venues including Edna Valley Vineyards, Mission Plaza, Atascadero Lake Park and the 1996 pre-opening sound check at Harman Hall in the Christopher Cohan Center's Performing Arts Center.

Today's alumni band members represent classes from 1948 to 1963. They hail from Arroyo Grande, Atascadero, Pismo Beach and San Luis Obispo, as well as other locales in California, Arizona, Oregon and as far away as Massachusetts.

The all-male Collegians are the predecessor to today's University Jazz Bands at Cal Poly.

Admission to the concert is free; voluntary contributions for the Collegians' jazz scholarship at Cal Poly are welcome.
