Cal Poly Presents "An Evening of String and Woodwind Chamber Music" May 12

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Cal Poly Music Department will present “An Evening of String and Woodwind Chamber Music” at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, May 12, in the Pavilion of the Performing Arts Center.

Several of Cal Poly’s music ensembles will take part in the performance, which will include a variety of traditional and contemporary repertoire featuring instruments in the woodwind and string families. Included in this concert will be performances by string duos and quartets, woodwind quintets, saxophone quartet, flute choir and clarinet ensemble.

Music to be performed will include string quartets by Ludwig van Beethoven and David Brubeck, as well as woodwind quintets by Gustav Mahler, Maurice Ravel, Malcolm Arnold, Andrejs Jansons and Cécile Chaminade. The clarinet and flute choirs will perform a series of small works featuring works by Claude Debussy. The saxophone quartet will perform selected movements from quartets written by Astor Piazzolla, Jean Françaix and Philip Glass.

Admission is free, and the concert is open to the public.

The event is sponsored by Cal Poly’s College of Liberal Arts and Music Department. For more information, call the Music Department at 805-756-2406.
