Cal Poly Women's Club Awards Three Scholarships, Donates to Children's Center

SAN LUIS OBISPO - The Cal Poly Women's Club, an organization of retired and active members of the university's faculty and staff, has awarded three students $500 scholarships.

In addition, the Women's Club donated nearly $600 to help a Cal Poly student-parent pay for child-care fees at the Orfalea Family and Associated Students Inc. Children's Center.

The scholarship recipients are Tarrah Graves, a journalism freshman from San Luis Obispo; Elizabeth Kenyon, an architectural engineering sophomore from Rocklin; and Tyler Knuckles, a graphic communication freshman from San Luis Obispo.

To be eligible for a scholarship, students must maintain a minimum 2.5 (out of a possible 4.0) grade point average, demonstrate evidence of need or worthiness, and show interest in activities related to their major.
