Scholarship Awarded to Cal Poly Business Students

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Two Cal Poly Orfalea College of Business seniors were awarded a Bill Zito Scholarship from the Packaging Machinery Manufacturers Institute Education and Training Foundation.

Paul Marchetti of La Cañada -Flintridge, Calif., and Katherine Worland of Rocklin, Calif., were honored with a $750 award recognizing their academic achievements and dedication to advancing their future careers in the packaging industry.

To qualify, Marchetti and Worland demonstrated a commitment to excellence in packaging professions, maintained at least a 3.0 grade point average, participated in extracurricular activities, and received a recommendation from a faculty member in the packaging program.
