Cal Poly ASI Names Marcy Maloney Executive Director

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- Marcy Maloney, who has served as interim executive director for Cal Poly's Associated Students Inc. for the past six months, has been named the permanent executive director, effective June 1.

Maloney succeeds Rick Johnson, who retired in January.

Maloney, a Cal Poly alumna, has served in a number of capacities since joining ASI in 1990. She was the associate director and then director of ASI Recreational Sports and director of ASI Programs.

In her most recent position as interim executive director, Maloney has been involved in financial, legal and administrative management of all ASI-managed facilities, including the University Union, the Cal Poly Recreation Center, Sports Complex and Orfaea Family and ASI Children's Center.

Maloney, a resident of Templeton, earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in recreation administration and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in counseling and guidance/student affairs, both from Cal Poly.
