Cal Poly Lambda Chi Alpha Chapter Wins Top Award at National Fraternity's Conference

INDIANAPOLIS – The Phi-Sigma chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity at California Polytechnic State University won the 2013 Grand High Alpha Award at the fraternity's annual Stead Leadership Seminar held in Memphis, Tenn., July 25-28.

The award was presented to the chapter by Drew Hunter, chairman of the board of Lambda Chi Alpha.

The Grand High Alpha Award recognizes chapters that have maintained a superior level of operations for at least three consecutive years. A chapter may not earn the Grand High Alpha again until at least three years have elapsed since previously winning award.
